

VOLUME XXXIII

(Continued on Page Four)

to the end of legislative power is a good move, adding that "we can't

Several Scholarships For Pianists Announced

>

Several scholarships for pianists pilots set up on the corner of 13th are to be awarded allowing them and Alder by Russell Eyerly of the the privilege of attending the Sum- Eyerly Aircraft corporation, Samer Colony for Pianists at the iem. University of Oregon in Seattle, August 9 to 27, it was announced Eyerly, noted pilot, is a device able yesterday.

The scholarships are sponsored airplane can do but take off or by the Stojowski Students' association, national music organiza- mounted on a steel frame, and tion. Scholarships will be awarded equipped with regulation stick and by tryouts to be held at Meany rudder controls. A 15-horsepower hall in Seattle on August 9.

The requirements for the compeon the training ship, and the rush tition are that the applicant must of air back from the propellor acts be under 30 years, must be a pian- on aerilons and rudder to loop, ist of advanced standing, and must roll, spin, and twist the Acroplane show need for financial assistance. I in all directions.

'Lawd' Proves To Be Kindly Gentleman, Reporter Finds jects or branches.

By JACK BELLINGER "Good afternoon, Lawd."

Backstage with "de Lawd," Richard B. Harrison, who takes the part of God in "The Green Paskindest, most gracious gentleman that I had ever seen. I had expected him to be hurried and extremely busy, with no time their religion? for a young reporter. I started to bid him good-bye a few minutes after I met him, but he bade me stay longer. I stayed and we talked of many things-of common events, of heavenly mysteries.

audiences of this actor, the son of refugee slaves who fied to Canada. "I get more fun out of reading they possibly can get out of lis- plays Moses; Tutt Whitney, who tening to me," he said modestly, plays Noah, and other members of "I love to put over humor to col- the cast.

appreciate it better than any other made his stage debut in "The order. other universities and colleges."

"Second meeting. April 14, 1909. Adjourned meeting. Discussion "Do you still receive an emotional experience from playing the part only."

of God?" I asked. "Each performance is the first Nazi Turbulence performance for me. The play still tures," now playing in Portland, I holds its same emotional appeal, Closes Reichstag found myself in the presence of the although I have played the part 930 times.'

"Is 'The Green Pastures' characteristic of the negro people and raised to new heights today by a "Yes, it is genuine. The spirituals help, of course. They are completely our songs. The play seems to reach down to the emotional depths of the negro's life." "How do you like Oregon's cli-

College groups are the favorite mate? "It's glorious. Almost a stepping-stone to Heaven."

Stanleigh Morrell, a young negro of fine manners and excellent 'The Green Pastures' and negro dress, introduced me to "de Lawd" poetry to college audiences than and also to Alonzo Fenderson, who lege students because they always Harrison, who was 66 when he people. Of course, "The Green Pas- Green Pastures" is a man who (Continued on Page Four)

Acroplane Gives Thrills A ray of sunlight broke through the clouds of consolidation and the third year the concerts have To Air-Minded Students elimination of courses yesterday been given. when a member of the first board

Air-minded students got a new of higher curricula visited the camthrill last night in the Acroplane, pus. training ship for would-be airplane

Back in 1909 the taxpayers raised a howl about the excessive costs of supporting two institutions, according to this board member. The governor appointed a

The Acroplane, invention of Lee board to study the situation and to make plans for combining the to do everything the regulation University of Oregon and the then Oregon Agricultural college. land. It is a 10-foot fuselage, The visitor was A. W. Prescott A poster for the information of of Mobile, Ala., who was on his way high school students was issued to his former home in Salem, Ore. vesterday by the state board of He left Oregon for Washington, D. higher education, definitely outelectric motor drives the propellor C., shortly after appointment. lining the future curricula for the "As I recall the first board did six units of Oregon's system of not do much," Mr. Prescott said. higher education. The outline sep-A check of the minutes of the arated the units into three divisfirst and second meetings, copies ions-degree granting schools, low-of which are on file in the presi- er division training, and preparadent's office, showed that he was tion for teaching. correct. They follow:

Seven degree granting schools "First meeting. April 5, 1909. No are to be located on the Eugene action this year eliminating sub- campus and six at Corvallis.

At Oregon State college will be the schools of: agriculture, engineering and mechanical arts; forestry, home economics, pharmacy, and science.

The degree granting schools here will be: business administration, fine arts, journalism, law, literature, languages and arts, physical education, and social sciences.

Herbert, Allen Macbeth, Louis

Course Locations

Data on Higher Education

Furnished for Benefit

Of High Schools

Issued by Board

Poster Showing

BERLIN, May 12.-(AP)-Ger-The school of medicine will be many's political turbulence was (Continued on Page Four) disorderly session of the Reich- Law School Association stag, in which Adolf Hitler's Na-To Elect New Officers tional Socialists came off second best and by a successful Nazi as-Members of the law school stu sault on the Bruening cabinet. dent body will hold an important The Reichstag was suddenly ad- business meeting Saturday mornjourned by Speaker Paul Loebe ing at 9 o'clock, when they will after a hurried investigation had elect officers for the coming school established that four Nazi mem- year. Nominees for the election bers had mauled a Social Demo- were made known last night by Sam Van Vactor, president of the crat newspaperman in a lobby. The sudden ending of the ses- law school association.

sion so astonished the Hitlerites Preston Gunther, Robert Leedy, they didn't know what to do. They and Francis Cheney are the three herded in corridors where there men listed for the office of presiwere scenes of the utmost dis- dent, with Virginia Roulstone, Otto Bowman, and Francis Hill The Hitlerite success was the nominated for the position of sectures' has never been given before knows life, having had ample op- ousting of General Wilhelm Groe- retary. Candidates for treasurer an exclusive college audience, but portunity to study it at first hand ner from the post of minister of are John Long and Karl Huston. I have read excerpts and interpret- when in his youth he earned his defense. He has been a marked The nominating committee was ed the play before students at living in such occupations as were man, so far as the Nazis were con- composed of Delmas Richmond, Northwestern, Chicago, and many open to the members of his race- cerned, ever since he dissolved Edward Riehl, Otto Frohnmayer, Hitler's storm troops and Thomas Hawthorne.

only yesterday advanced his bond issue idea in the senate.

ver and Senator Robinson, who Developments were quick and The Failing-Beekman contest for fast. Before calling in Robinson, senior orators will open soon, acthe president consulted with Sencording to an announcement made ator Watson of Indiana, the marecently by the speech division. All jority chieftain, on the relief probsenior men and women are eligilem which it was agreed must be met by the government

"Senior" is taken to mean per-After the Robinson parley, the sons who will be within nine hours president summoned officers of of graduation at the end of the the Reconstruction Finance Corspring term, or have 177 hours poration. credit and have fulfilled all re-

The program contemplates loans quirements to the point of being to states up to a total of $300,- able to graduate by the end of the 000,000, the money to be used ex- six weeks summer session. clusively for relief purposes. The Contestants must be signed up remainder of the new emergency at the speech division by Wednesfund would be employed to make day, May 25. Orations must be secured loans to assist private and limited to 1500 words-a ruling which will be strictly followed and public construction. The Reconstruction Finance Cor- enforced.

poration, with a capital of $500,-Subjects are entirely up to the 000,000, appropriated by congress, speaker, must be original, and must has the power now to issue de- not contain more than 10 per cent bentures up to $1,500,000,000. This quoted material. borrowing capacity would be dou-

According to present plans, the finals of the contest will be held Friday evening, June 10, in the music auditorium, and will be limited to six contestants. If over six enter, elimination contests will take place on or before Monday, June 6. Persons interested may receive information at the speech division in Friendly hall.

Eligible for Event

On June 10

Hibernia Bank With New Organization To Reopen PORTLAND, Ore., May 12. The Hibernia bank, a newly organized institution, will open for business here Monday, John F. Daly, chairman of the board of directors, said today.

The Hibernia bank is an outwhich is the product of Dr. Barnes' growth of the Hibernia Commerown research, and presented the cial and Savings bank, which better known features of the 1720closed here several months ago. 30 history of British government in breezy and refreshing style. Upon application of the depositors and officers of the old organiza-The career of Horace Walpole, tion, Circuit Judge Jacob Kanzler and its relation to the passage of today signed an order authorizing power from king to parliament the transfer of 70 per cent of the assets and deposits of the closed speaker played upon with amusing institution to the new bank. digressions and variations.

Daly said capitalization of the The audience was kept in cor new bank will be $500,000, which stant good humor by the lecturer's was obtained as a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and deposits will amount to rious personalities of the time. A approximately $4,000,000, reprecatalogue of the outstanding charsenting both commercial and sav- acter sketches outlined by Barnes language and salacious stories." ings accounts. follows:

within 75 feet of emergency tele-In his farewell talk, Mimnaugh phone lines employed in an unparpointed out that in the past two alleled search the body was disyears the debt of the student body covered in a wooded area partiv tered to all the newly elected of- onel Charles A. Lindbergh and has been reduced from $220,000 to concealed by leaves and dirt. $110,000. He believes that if the The discovery was made by the present rigid economy program of occupants of a transfer truck on the executive council is main- a country crossroads just 72 days tained that the debt can be cut after the world's most celebrated $25,000 to $30,000 a year. The infant was spirited away from his last two years are the only ones home.

in the past seven that the Asso-The skull bore a hole the size ciated Students have shown a of a 25-cent piece above the foreprofit on their activities, it was, head.

An attempt had been made to ointed out. Since practically all of the in- bury the body. A coroner said ome of the Associated Students death was due to a compound fracis from public presentations and ture of the skull.

since it is impossible to predict Three hours before (about 2:15 how the people will support these p. m.) a truck bearing four men presentations, it is planned to keep had stopped on a steep grade beexpenditures at a minimum, it was tween Hopewell and the hamlet of pointed out by Hall in his accept- Mount Rose. The vehicle halted

(Continued on Page Four) (Continued on Page Two)

Barnes Gives Amusing Talk On 'Beggar's Opera' Period

George I: "He looked upon Eng-By DAVE WILSON "The speaker of the evening is land as a milch cow. He had no not a candidate for chancellor," real desire to leave Hanover, where said Steve Smith in introducing the system of government, cli-Donald Barnes to a large audience mate, beer, food and women were, in Villard hall last night. "His in his opinion, all superior to those interest in political machinations of England."

Duke of Newcastle: "All that is purely historical." But Donald Barnes has the the satirist does for other men, happy knack of making a "purely Nature had done for him. He was historical interest" very interest- a living, moving, talking caricaing to others. His lecture on "Pol- ture."

itics, Politicians, and Statesmen at Pelham: "He was nauseated by the Time of the 'Beggar's Opera'' Walpole's week-end parties, of was alive, from start to finish. It which Lady Montagu said the included a great deal of material time was spent taking the negatives out of the Ten Commandments and putting them in the Apostle's Creed.

Lord Carteret: "One of the most charming conversationalists and heaviest drinkers of the era."

Lord Chesterfield: "His fame today rests on his letters to his son. was the serious theme which the his treatment of and by Dr. Jonson, and the admittedly satisfying cigarettes which bear his name. George II: "If his reputation as a king had not demanded a harem, witty digressions, most of which he would have probably preferred consisted of references to the va- to do without one."

Queen Caroline: "In the Queen, Walpole found a rival for coarse (Continued on Page Four)

Demands Charley Shall We Let 'Em Die? Lindbergh's baby is dead. But a million more American babies may die if the senate stands pat on an unnoticed committee report made yesterday. So I think the latest flash on the World Court is bigger news than the dead baby.

How Many Kids'll

bled.

The "irreconcilables" gave war another boost by blocking our entrance to the court. The senators say it's OK for us to join if the rest of the world will let us run-or ruin-the court to suit ourselves.

"We're a great bunch of joiners; we'll hook up with everything from the Anti-Spitoon League to the Yodlers Amity Society, but when it comes to joining 54 nations in the Permanent Court of International Justice for peaceful settlement of disputes we let a bunch of politicians blindfold and blackjack

Disgustedly, WEBFOOT CHARLEY.

Follow Lindy's?