

Roosevelt Far Ahead of Alfalfa Bill in Returns

France Leads Hoover in G. O. P. Vote

Hawley and Mott Even Up In Early Count; Steiwer Has 2 to 1 Margin

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt held a three-to-one lead over William H. Murray for the state Democratic nomination, in the Oregon presidential preference election tonight, receiving in 477 precincts 7240 to Murray's 2086. Alfred E. Smith was written in 103 times.

A lead of nearly two to one over President Hoover was maintained by Joseph Irwin France of Maryland as returns were received tonight. France was the only name on the Republican ticket, and the votes Hoover received were written in.

The state nomination carries the pledge of 13 votes in the national convention in Chicago. The Democratic nomination carries 10 pledged votes.

With 537 precincts out of 1783 counted, the vote stood France 11,510, Hoover 5805.

Congressman W. C. Hawley was in a bitter fight for renomination in the first district, with James W. Mott, state corporation commissioner, racing him neck and neck. The vote, with 150 precincts out of the 802 in the district reporting, stood Hawley 5992, and Mott 5947. Two other candidates were far behind.

For the Democratic congressional nomination from this district William A. Dezell had 1518 votes to 1064 for Harvey Stark-weather.

In the Second district Congressman R. R. Butler was far ahead of J. M. Richards for the Republican nomination, and Ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce had a lead over Francis V. Galloway. The vote there was Pierce 961, and Galloway 568, with 60 precincts out of the 441 in the district counted.

Senator Frederick Steiwer continued to lead two to one his closest rival, Ex-Senator Robert M. Stanfield. The vote was Steiwer 17,043; Stanfield 8483, with 575 precincts in. On the Democratic side Elton Watkins had a small lead over Marshal N. Dana, Portland newspaperman. This congressional race stood 2607 for Watkins, and 2133 for Dana.

BAKER RECALL LOSING;

MANN OUSTER CARRYING

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20.—(AP)—The proposed recall of Mayor George L. Baker of Portland was running less than even on the basis of early returns in today's election. The recall against John M. Mann, however, appeared to be carrying. Both were accused of negligence and malfeasance in office.

The vote on Baker in incomplete returns from 97 of the 495 precincts was: for the recall 3146; against the recall 3625.

Against the recall, 4179; against 2443.

HART SPEAKS IN PORTLAND

Professor Hart of the art department was in Portland yesterday and spoke before the Park and Garden Sculpture society of Oregon. His subject dealt with sculpturing and art in general.

'Lady Windermere's Fan,' Play of Manners, Praised

By BOB GUILD
As Mrs. Erylne, nee Elizabeth Scruggs, so well exclaimed last night, "My dear Windermere, manners before morals!" And so indeed. The University players last night at Guild theatre successfully and charmingly mothed morals, and played Oscar Wilde to the hilt.

Wilde aimed deliberately at an artificiality of style, since his peculiar manners was the examination of province and society, but his lines lose none of their pliancy and charm through this. Every phrase last night was lively, and alive, for the artificiality of "Lady Windermere's Fan" is not only witty but contains a feeling for human nature.

Take Leading Roles

The University polyphonic choir will feature these four vocalists in principal roles in Haydn's "Creation," which is to be presented Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the music auditorium. They are George Barron (upper left), basso soloist; Robert Gould (upper right), organ accompanist; Victor Bryant (lower left), tenor soloist; Christine Baxter (lower right), soprano soloist.

Pianist, Organist Will Give Recital On Monday Night

Mrs. Honey, Miss Jordan To Feature Bach, Chopin Numbers

A short but interesting program has been announced for the recital to be given at the music auditorium Monday evening by Lavina Honey, pianist, and Frances Jordan, organist.

Miss Jordan will open the program with a sonata by Gullmunt, one of the best-known composers for the organ. Her second group will include Bach's "Air" (for the G-string), a fanciful composition by Weaver entitled, "The Squirrel," and "A Gothic Cathedral," a tone-poem by Praetello-Weaver.

Miss Jordan has been a student of John Stark Evans for three years, and this will be her senior recital.

Mrs. Honey will play one movement from a Schubert sonata, Liszt's "Il Penseroso" and two Chopin preludes in her first group. Outstanding in her second group of four numbers will be a Brahms Rhapsody and Albeniz' "Seguidilla."

Mrs. Honey is a post-graduate student of Jane Thacher. She graduated from the University in 1930, and her senior recital in the spring of that year is recalled by members of the music faculty as one of the most distinguished ever given by a student of the school of music.

Monday evening's program will begin at 8 o'clock. There will be no admission charge.

As a sidelight to the Curtis-Dobson-Peacock angle a letter received by the clergyman's mother in England told of his obtaining information from two gangsters.

Phi Beta Kappa Sigma Xi Plan Joint Conclave

Annual Meetings of Two Groups Slated Today

Honorarys Will Convene In Gerlinger Building, Banquet at Dorm

The ninth annual joint meeting of Sigma Xi, national science honorary, and Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, will be held in Gerlinger hall, followed by a banquet at the new men's dormitory today.

Sigma Xi initiations will be held in Alumni room at Gerlinger at 5 p. m. and Phi Beta Kappa will hold theirs in the men's lounge at 5:15.

The joint banquet will be held at the dormitory at 6:15 p. m. Warren D. Smith will act as toastmaster. Phi Beta Kappa initiations will be introduced by John H. Mueller, president of the chapter. Jack R. H. Bauer, senior in journalism, will respond in behalf of the initiates.

Sigma Xi initiates will be presented by Robert H. Seashore, president. Response will be made by Delbert L. Stokesberry.

Greetings from the Sigma Xi club, Oregon State college, will be extended by Willibald Weniger of that campus. Following this the Sigma Xi research prize will be awarded.

Chester G. Washburne, well-known consulting geologist, will address the organizations on "On the Trail of Charles Darwin in South America," at 8:15 p. m. in the auditorium of the women's building. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Washburne, brother of Carl G. Washburne, prominent Eugene merchant, graduated from the University of Oregon in 1905. He attended at the time Dr. Condon was professor of geology here, and is probably the most outstanding graduate of that school so far.

Mr. Washburne has done geological work all over the world, and has made geological reports for many governments. He is visiting here from New York City, where he has his offices.

Women May Alter Rush Week Rules

Each sorority on the campus will send two representatives to meetings of Pan-Hellenic next week.

Each sorority on the campus will send two representatives to meetings of Pan-Hellenic next week, it was decided at the meeting held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 in 110 Johnson hall. This rule was adopted with the new constitution, which was accepted during the meeting.

Rushing rules for the coming year were also discussed and will be passed on at the next meeting. Twenty-five dollars was suggested as the budget for freshman week, with no decorations other than flowers and crested cards.

Rush week will end on Friday, all girls will be allowed to go to all houses for one Sunday tea, there will be only one month of summer rushing, from August to September, according to the new suggestions.

No girl will have more than five dates with any house, if the present suggestions are carried out. The meeting was presided over by Geraldine Hickson, new president of Pan-Hellenic. Other officers for next year are Mary Teresi, treasurer, and Margaret Politt, secretary.

Mayor Jimmie To Face Questioners Wednesday

NEW YORK, May 20.—(AP)—Mayor James J. Walker, whose frequent sojourns to Europe and the Pacific coast drew the fire of the legislative investigation today, will face his inquisitors next Wednesday.

The committee seeking evidence of graft and corruption in New York City's government made known its summons at the close of a session devoted to a scrutiny of how and by whom the mayor's expenses were paid on a trip to continental Spas in 1927 and to San Francisco last fall to plead for Tom Mooney.

Ernst in Earnest; Polls Two Votes For President

THE University just can't keep out of politics!

Rudolf H. Ernst, professor of English, received two votes for the Republican presidential nomination in yesterday's balloting, a check of the returns showed. His name was written in, just like that of Herbert Hoover.

Professor Ernst's following was in Precinct 16, at 18th and Alder streets. The Democratic ballots in this precinct showed the names of Douglas Fairbanks, John Garner, Newton D. Baker, and Will Rogers.

Oregana Positions Open to Students

Circulation, Advertising, Publicity Among Jobs For Appointment

Positions are now open for the business staff of the Oregana and applications are requested to be turned in to the Oregana business office, Roger Bailey, business manager of the yearbook, said yesterday.

Many appointments are open to students interested in the business work on the 1933 Oregana.

Roger Bailey, the offices open are advertising manager, two business managers, circulation manager, publicity manager, office manager, and distribution manager. Other positions are open in the circulation and advertising departments.

The annual cost of the yearbook is about $10,000, which proves the huge undertaking in publishing the Oregana, Bailey said.

Circulation drives and advertising campaigns furnish a wide field for anyone interested in journalism, or advertising.

All students applying for the open positions on the business staff will be duly considered and previous experience in some phase of advertising will be an unnecessary prerequisite but helpful to the business manager in the selection of his assistants. The appointments will be announced the latter part of next week.

Wesley Seniors Guests At Foundation Banquet

Graduating students of the Wesley foundation were honored at a senior banquet given by that organization at the Methodist Episcopal church last night. Charles G. Howard, professor of law, was the principal speaker, taking for his topic, "Outward Bound," the general theme of the occasion.

Jack Bellinger was general chairman. Committee members were Howard Ohmart, programs; Eula Loomis, food; Myrna Bartholomew, invitations; Eleanor Wharton, music; Violet Adams, decorations.

Blood Draws a Crowd Anywhere, Declares Charley

Ride 'em, Cowboy

The annual race for fame and fortune is on.

It's open season for trans-Atlantic flying; Amelia Earhart jumped the gun and now she's somewhere over the North Atlantic—or under it. If she gets across she'll be wined, dined and cheered by America's hero worshippers from Key West, Fla., to Blaine, Wn.

We're nuts over crazy stunts. Sit on a flagpole a month and you're famous; go over Niagara in a barrel and the front page of the nation's press is yours. Lindbergh thumbed his nose at Old Man Atlantic, risked his life, and won fame, fortune and marriage.

And ma spans me when I just hang over the roof to get a thrill.

Dejectedly,
WEBFOOT CHARLEY.

Three Soloists To Appear With Choir Sunday

Presentation To Be Last Of Season

Bryson To Direct Singers In Concert at Music Auditorium

One hundred and forty chorus singers, three soloists, an organist, and last but not least, a director, are in readiness for the presentation of Haydn's "Creation" by the Polyphonic choir at the music auditorium tomorrow afternoon.

The 140 singers compose the second division of the polyphonic; the soloists are Christine Baxter, soprano; Victor Bryant, tenor; and George Barron, basso. The organ accompanist is Robert Gould, and the director is Roy Bryson. The program will begin at 3 o'clock. There will be no admission charge.

Tomorrow's concert will be the last major musical event of the year. The second division's last concert, given in March, was greeted by a capacity crowd, and many latecomers had to be turned away from the auditorium for lack of room.

Two of the soloists are appearing as such for the first time.

Miss Baxter is a post-graduate student from La Grande, California. Victor Bryant is a Eugene student, George Barron, of Ashland, has appeared as soloist with the choir several times, his last appearance being with the Portland concert in April. All three are students of Arthur Boardman.

With the text drawn largely from Milton's "Paradise Lost," Miss Baxter will sing the role of Gabriel, Barron of Raphael and Bryant of Uriel.

The program will be over before 5 o'clock, and will in no way conflict with the band concert at 7 o'clock.

Campus Cuisine Conductors Plan Picnic on Sunday

The associations of Campus Cooks, both here and in Corvallis, are planning a picnic for this Sunday, at which they plan to eat their own food, they say, or at any rate as much of it as they can.

This is the first time in the history of the two schools that the kitchen mechanics have held a joint outdoor festival. The event will be held at Benton-Lane park. Kitchen helpers and their families are also invited to attend and sample the provender.

All intending to go should meet at the Y hut at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Transportation will be provided for those who have no way of getting to the affair.

For further details, cooks are advised to get in touch with Mrs. Maude Taylor, president of the association.

Surprise Party Given For YMCA Secretary

Members of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and a group of friends gave a surprise party for Rev. R. B. Porter, former executive secretary of the organization, at his home Thursday night.

The event came as a result of Mr. Porter's leaving Eugene soon for Crete, Nebraska, where he has accepted a pastorate with the First Congregational church.

Ye Tabard Inn Cancels Banquet Set for Monday

The Tabard Inn banquet, which was to have been held Monday evening, has been called off because the majority of invited guests, including well-known writers, authors and alumni of the University will be unable to attend, Myron Griffin, retiring president of the writing fraternity, said yesterday.

A picnic has been planned in place of the banquet and details will be announced later.

Congratulations!

Here's Uncle Jack O'Brien himself, who led the Oregon freshmen to a 9-to-5 baseball victory over the Oregon State rooks yesterday. It was the second successive triumph for Uncle Jack's boys. They meet the rooks again at Corvallis today.

ASUO Amendment Ambiguous, Says Carlton Spencer

Eligibility Not Put Well In Proposed Revision, Is Declaration

That the proposed A. S. U. O. amendment regarding eligibility for student body office is ambiguously worded, was the contention of Carlton E. Spencer, professor of law, in a statement for the Emerald yesterday.

The amendment under fire reads:

Candidates for the office of president, vice-president, secretary, executive man, and executive woman must have completed at least seven and not more than nine terms at the University of Oregon at the time of nominations; etc.

Spencer asserts that the interpretation of the term "completed" will involve a great deal of ambiguity.

"A student may come to school," Spencer said, "and pass five terms hours the first term. He will go on probation. Suppose he passes twelve hours the next term. He is off probation and is at liberty

Rhythmic Dance Group Invites Girls to Meeting

All girls who are taking or have taken rhythmic dancing are invited by Master Dance, upperclass dance honorary, to meet next Wednesday evening, May 25, in the women's gymnasium at 8 p. m. to participate in an hour of mass dancing. Several dances which were presented by newly elected members of Master Dance at the tryouts held last Wednesday evening will be offered.

Master Dance yesterday announced the pledging of Carolyn Card, Bernadine Franzen, Maxine Greenman, Virginia Hylan, Maxine McDonald, Ida Mae Nichols, Beth Simmerville, and Juanita Young.

Gifford Nash To Be Soloist At Concluding Band Concert

By DON FIELDS

Gifford Nash will be the guest soloist appearing with the University band in its last outdoor concert to be given on the mill-race Sunday at 7 p. m. No admission is charged for these concerts, which are open to students and townspeople alike.

The program for tomorrow's concert, as arranged by John Stehn, director, will be opened with a characteristic and catchy military march, "The Idolizers," by W. A. Corey.

Massenet's well-liked Phedre Overture is an intensely dramatic selection based on Racine's setting of the Greek myth. Intricate sections of the composition are featured with various counterpoints, and it develops into a very strong and showy reprise.

Nash, student baritone, will be accompanied by the band in Fli-gier's composition, "The Horn," a selection of high tonal quality that is very appropriate for concert presentation.

Frosh Smash Rooks by Score Of Nine to Five

Varsity Defeats Vandals With 3 to 2 Tally

Lake Stars for Ducklings With Stellar Work On Mound

Varsity Wins at Moscow
The Oregon baseball varsity, snapped its prolonged chain of defeats yesterday and overcame the University of Idaho, 3 to 2, in its first game on the road.

By BOB RIDDLE
Uncle Jack O'Brien's frosh baseball nine was once again four runs better than Ray Lamb's rook baseballers, and as a result the Ducklings won another decision yesterday from the Corvallis boys, 9 to 5. As in the last encounter, it was a case of too much Bill Lake. The young right-hander proved invincible in the pinches, although the rooks got to him for 14 hits.

The playing field was in bad shape due to the recent rainfall, but errors were not frequent. The frosh bobbled three times to the rooks' twice. Coach O'Brien switched his lineup for the fray, using Dick Prouty, who was expected to do the hurling, in right field and moving Stan Kostka to the left garden. Otherwise the lineup remained intact.

Prouty Hits Texas Leaguer
The rooks scored one run in the first to gain the lead, but the frosh came back with bats swinging and crossed the plate three times on Fowler's safe bunt, a hit batsman, a sacrifice, and Kostka's single, scoring Fowler. Prouty then dumped a Texas leaguer over third to tally Garbarino and Kostka.

Lamb's boys made it even up with two runs in their next bats. Johnson hit to Garbarino, who fumbled, Rasmussen walked, and Rae hit one to left which Kostka lost in the sun, bringing both runners home.

Chuck Nicely walked in the second and scored on Fowler's double to center to establish another one-run lead, but again the rooks retaliated with another tying run when Hollenbeck, the hard-hitting catcher, singled, stole second, and tallied on Hibbard's drive through second. Stan Kostka connected with one of Lefty Rasmussen's twisters during the same inning for a terrific home run over the right field fence to put his team ahead for the remainder of the game.

Another Run in Sixth
The Ducklings added another marker in the sixth when George Linn singled, stole second, and scored on Nicely's beautiful bunt along third base line. During all
