Large Tea Is Held Wednesday

A large tea for some three hundred persons was served in Gerlinger hall Wednesday afternoon in honor of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Oregon. The Kwamas, sophomore women's honorary, served, and the University Faculty Women's club acted as hostesses.

Following the tea the guests went to see the Pioneer Mother, which was unveiled Mothers day, and Campbell Memorial court.

Mrs. Doane Gives Large Tea

Mrs. W. H. Doane, house chaperon of Beta Phi Alpha, entertained the campus house mothers Monday, May 23, at an informal afternoon tea at the chapter house. Members of the house served.

Decorations were of colorful spring flowers placed about the rooms.

Beau Arts Ball To Be Given

Members of the art staff will entertain this evening with a dance at Gerlinger hall with Merlin Tollefson in charge. The dance is a duplicate of the original Beau Arts ball carrying out the Parisian motif. It is being given for the Allied Arts league.

The patrons include Dean and Mrs. George Rebec, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Caniparoli, Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Onthank, and Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall.

The committee has selected Bill Sievers' orchestra for the occasion.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Entertains

Kappa Kappa Gamma will entertain Saturday evening with their spring informal at the chapter house. The motif being carried is a "star dust idea" using iris and many silver stars about the rooms. Flood lights thrown from the back lawn will cast shadows over the buffet table and dancing rooms.

The patrons and patronesses include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mrs. Nelson Macduff, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Payne, and the house-mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Talbert.

Kay Dunbar is in charge of the decorations.

Wedding Takes Place In Medford

Of interest to the campus is the marriage of Miss Gladys Gregory, daughter of Dr. Hora Esgate of Los Angeles, and Mr. Kieth Campbell Fennell, son of Mrs. H. H. Fennell of Eugene, which took place in Medford Saturday morning.

Miss Gregory is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta and will graduate this June. Mr. Fennell is a graduate of Oregon State college and is now located in Medford.

The ceremony was performed at Big Rock lodge, which is a summer home of William Isaac's north of Medford. It took place amidst the flowers and shrubs near the lodge and was followed by a lovely buffet wedding breakfast. The couple will reside in Medford.

Phi Sigma Kappa Holds Picnic

Phi Sigma Kappa will hold its annual picnic at Riverview on Saturday. The patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ager, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Robnett.

Large Banquet Given Saturday

La Casa Filipina honored its graduating members at a dinner at the club house Saturday evening. Those honored were Florendo Managavil, a major in political science; Cleto Olevaras, education; Honorante Mariano, history; and Irene Acosta, business administration. Short speeches were made by each of the graduates. Professor Samuel H. Jameson spoke to the honored guests.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Professor and Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Mary W. Fairson, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Trummel, and Professor Juan B. Rael.

Thacher-Hall Engagement Announced

Prof. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher announced to a few friends the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Vinton Hall yesterday afternoon at a tea at the Thacher residence.

Miss Thacher is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority and a sophomore in the department of English on the campus.

Mr. Hall is affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa, social fraternity; editor of the Emerald last year; member of Friars, Sigma Delta Chi, Alpha Delta Sigma, and is a Daly scholar. He is a graduate in the school of journalism.

Madame Rose McGrew poured, with Madeleine Gilbert assisting about the rooms.

The couple plan to be married in July and will sail for Europe on the thirtieth, spending a year's residence in Germany and southern France.

The announcement was made by passing the guests dark red rose buds around which were wrapped the tiny bits of paper containing the message.

Webfoot Cinder Aggregation Has Satisfactory Year

Oregon Track, Field Squad Has Individual Point Harvesters

Despite the fact that the Webfoot track squad dropped its first meet in years to the Oregon State cinder aggregation last Saturday, the present track and field season has been anything but a disappointment. The Webfoots, although they did not have a large number of second and third place men, specialized in quality, and nearly every man who will get his track "O" this year was a fairly consistent first-place-getter.

The outstanding star on the Oregon cinder squad this year was Paul Starr, captain and stellar sprinter of Hayward's army. Starr figured in every race in which he was entered, winning over every sprinter in the Northwest in the 220-yard dash.

Other steady performers for the Webfoots on the track have been Dale and Hamilton in the sprints; Marrs, Burr, Holman, and Rollwage in the 440; Dolloff and Nunn in the 880; Bob Hunter in the mile; Gray in the two-mile; Allen and McCoy in the high hurdles; and Holman and McCoy in the low hurdles.

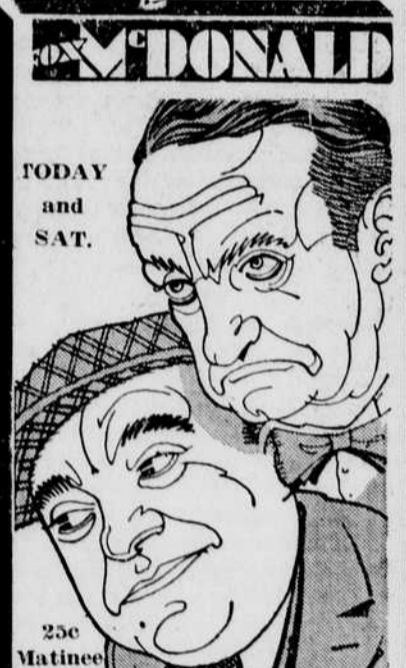

On the field the lemon and yellow was represented by Palmer and Allen in the broad jump and high jump; Burr in the broad jump; Kelliher and Voegtly in the pole vault; Hall, Hakanson, and Clark in the weights; and Edwards and Palmer in the javelin.

A summary of the Oregon meets, not including the final appearance in the Northwest track and field meet in Seattle tomorrow, follows: April 23—At Eugene: Oregon, 5; Oregon State, 3. (Relay meet.) May 7—At Moscow: Oregon, 83; Idaho, 47. May 14—At Eugene: Oregon, 54; Washington, 77. May 21—At Corvallis: Oregon, 64 2-3; Oregon State, 66 1-3.

Omega Hall Nine To Vie With Star Dorm Team

The Omega hall nine, intercollegiate soft ball champion, will play a picked team composed of members of the other dorm units to-night at 6:30.

The patched-up squad will be chosen from representatives of the aggregations of the Alpha, Friendly, Gamma, Sherry Ross, Sigma, and Zeta hall combinations.

CHRONICLING WHAT'S HERE AND WHAT'S COMING

WHAT AND WHERE

McDonald — "Cohens and Kellys in Hollywood." George Sidney, Charlie Murray, June Clyde, Norman Foster. First night.

Rex — "The Passionate Plumber." Buster Keaton, Irene Purcell, Gilbert Roland, "Schnozzle" Durante. Today only.

Colonial — "This Reckless Age."

Not So Reckless

This show puts the younger generation in a better position than we've been put in by a show for a long time. It shows that the youth of today has a good time and plays around and makes a lot of noise, but that they are good stuff and can come across when there's trouble.

Charles Rogers and Frances Dee are brother and sister. Their parents, Richard Bennett and Frances Starr are having financial troubles. Rogers steps in and puts over a business deal which saves the family name and fortunes. There are romances, too. Charles Rogers and Peggy Shannon, and Frances Dee and Charles Ruggles.

Frozen Face Katon

"The Passionate Plumber" is about like most of Keaton's shows. He blunders into situations, and blunders out again.

This time Jimmy Durante sticks his nose into it, too. Irene Purcell makes a rather attractive leading lady. The story centers about the wealthy girl trying to get rid of a gay man-about-town who is taxing her resistance, so she uses Buster Keaton, the plumber, and falls for him. Impossible, but funny. You'll enjoy the duels.

And for a parting word, I wonder if anybody ever reads this?

Geology Honorary Names Members

At a meeting of the Condon club, geology honorary, yesterday ten new members and officers for next year were elected, reports Ernest W. McKittrick, retiring president.

Those elected to active membership are: Wayne Felts, Ben Tanner, Ruth Tutt, Robert Gamer, and Paul Howell. Four students elected to associate membership in the organization are: Elaine Williams, Ellen Endicott, Ray Force, Harry McCallum, Mrs. Lora Webb, secretary of the department of geology, was elected to honorary membership.

New officers of the organization are: president, Quinton Harris; vice-president, Francis Peck; and secretary-treasurer, Wayne Felts. Plans were also made for a picnic to which all geology students are invited and which will be held at Seavey's island, Friday, June 3.

To Give Address

Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University will deliver the baccalaureate address to the University graduating class this year. The ceremony will be held in McArthur court, Sunday, June 12.

Trade Honorary Names New Heads

Auten Bush was elected president of Pan Xenia, foreign trade fraternity, at its meeting last night. Other officers named were Lyle McCallum, vice-president, and George Stocker, secretary-treasurer.

Among the achievements of the organization during the past year are the forming of a tie-in with importers and exporters in Portland through the initiation of the Portland foreign trade advisory board members as associates; and the sponsoring of the showing of several trade films including "Romance of Rubber" at the Colonial theatre.

A. L. Lomax, professor of business administration and member of the club, was elected international president of Pan Xenia this year.
