

OREGON SCHEDULES INTERSECTIONAL BATTLE

Social Events Are Scheduled For Fall Term

Many Dances Crowded On Calendar

MAY MAKE CHANGES

Thanksgiving Vacation Will Settle Exact Dates for Several Affairs

The tentative social program for fall term was announced by the dean of women's office yesterday. Changes are yet to be made, but all variations from the program will be announced previous to the occurrence of the event.

Whether Thanksgiving day will give University students a one or two-day vacation has not yet been decided, as plans for the holiday have not been decided. Should a two-day holiday be declared, it will incur a change in the activities for the following week-end.

The date of the Sophomore informal is also unsettled, although it has been tentatively designated for Saturday, November 19.

The complete program to date is as follows:

October 15, Saturday—Faculty club party; Friendly hall mixer dance; Kwama-Skull and Dagger Grid-o-graph dance, 2 to 4:30, McArthur court.

October 19, Wednesday—Get-wise party, Gerlinger Hall, 7:30.

October 20, Thursday—Dad's Day—Drama division.

October 21, Friday—Phi Kappa pledge dance; faculty reception.

October 22, Saturday—Alpha Xi Delta, at home for Mrs. Kerr; Theta Chi pledge dance; Beta Theta Pi pledge dance; Pi Beta Phi pledge dance; Gamma Phi Beta pledge dance; Alpha Omicron Pi pledge dance; Delta Tau Delta pledge dance; Alpha Upsilon Iota pledge dance; Chi Psi pledge dance.

October 25, Tuesday—Cosmopolitan club reception.

October 28, Friday—Open house.

October 29, Saturday—Dad's Day; Gonzaga football, Eugene; Alpha Gamma Delta pledge dance; Alpha Delta Pi grill dance; Alpha Chi Omega pledge dance; Phi Sigma Kappa pledge dance; Alpha Xi Delta pledge dance.

November 4, Friday—Football, Frosh-O. S. C. (night).

November 5, Saturday—Football, O. S. C. at Corvallis, homecoming.

November 9, Wednesday—Dime crawl.

November 11, Friday—Junior-senior dance; Phi Delta Theta pledge dance.

November 12, Saturday—Kappa Sigma fall dance; Chi Omega pledge dance; Alpha Phi pledge dance; Kappa Alpha Theta pledge dance; Kappa Delta pledge dance; Delta Gamma pledge dance; Alpha Tau Omega pledge dance; Susan Campbell informal; Delta Zeta pledge dance; Sigma Kappa pledge dance; Sigma Chi pledge dance.

November 13, Sunday—Student Christian council union vesper meeting.

November 17, Thursday, Friday—Drama division.

November 18, Friday—Friendly hall barn dance; Kappa Kappa Gamma; Beta Phi Alpha.

November 19, Saturday—Sophomore informal (tentative).

November 24, Thursday—Holiday, Thanksgiving day.

October 28 Is Date Finally Chosen for 'Bunion Derby'

Two weeks from tonight the annual derby is on! Open House has again survived the onslaughts of the males and will take its place as the biggest all-campus mix of the year.

With no cars and waning enthusiasm the invading fraternity horde is not expected to be as numerous as in former years, but the women's living organizations are waxing their floors just the same and preening their freshmen to make the best possible impression.

Grab Bill Debate Draws Big Laugh As Potwin Scores

Debates on the Zorn-Macpherson bill have been numerous in the state during the past month, but perhaps none has drawn a laugh from the audience as did the one in Lebanon last week when T. D. Potwin, editor of the Albany Democrat-Herald debated Hector Macpherson, co-author of the school-messing bill.

The debate, according to Eugene people who were there, reached the place where Mr. Macpherson began to display maps showing what he claimed to be inadequate ground facilities for further expansion of the University of Oregon. On all sides of the present campus, he claimed, were privately owned homes that would cost the state a fortune to purchase. And to the south, he pointed out, was the graveyard.

Mr. Potwin walked over to Mr. Macpherson to take a look at the map. Mr. Macpherson grew worried. He feared close inspections of dimensions or something.

"Just where is that cemetery?" queried Potwin.

Hector hastened to show him. "Why—why right there," he pointed.

Potwin turned to the audience. "And there, ladies and gentlemen," he spoke, "is where the Zorn-Macpherson bill will be buried on November 8!"

Wesley Council Meets at Church

Renewing a custom which has been discontinued for several years, the Wesley council will meet at a breakfast in the Methodist Episcopal church at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. The regular council meeting will be held following the breakfast, according to Donald Saunders, president of the club.

Dr. Henry D. Sheldon, chairman of social science, will continue his series of lectures on "World Religions" with a talk entitled "The Religion of the Greeks." This lecture is the second of the series, which is being sponsored by the Wesley club.

A social half-hour is scheduled for 6 o'clock in the evening, to be followed by a discussion beginning at 6:30 by Howard Ohmart and members of the Wesley council.

F. S. Grant Presents Book to Law Library

F. S. Grant, city attorney of Portland, presented five law books to the University law school recently.

Among them are Deady's "Compilation of Oregon Laws," dating from 1845 to 1864; "Cases on Municipal Corporations," by John E. Macy; "Handbook of Equity Jurisprudence," by Norman Fetter; "The Law of Evidence in Civil Cases," by Burr W. Jones; and "Proof of Facts," by Austin Abbott.

Satire, 'Of Thee I Sing' Added to Libe Shelves

It's here! ("I" meaning "Of Thee I Sing," the Pulitzer prize-winning musical comedy and novel). That happy-go-lucky farce of American political life is now available at the old libe.

A political party forgets who its candidate for vice-president of the United States is—decides to abolish the usual platform and draws up one of love—stages a beauty contest, the winner of which is to become the bride of her nominee for the presidency. These are just a few of the incidents in this take-off on modern times.

And Here's Some of the Local "Bike" Riders

Gladys McMillan Will Head Frosh Y. W. Commission

Close Contests for Frosh Commission Offices Mark Election

In one of the closest Y. W. C. A. frosh commission elections ever held, Gladys McMillan was elected president by one vote over Ann Reed Burns and Margaret Van Cleve.

Maxine Goetsch won the office of vice-president over Ebba Wicks in a very close race. The office of secretary was won by Alice Ann Thomas by two votes over Roberta Moody and Helen Wright, while Virginia Younie was elected treasurer in the race between Mary Freeburg and Helen Gould.

At the polls held yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow approximately 150 freshman women cast votes. Reports from the Y. W. C. A. bungalow stated that the new president will select her cabinet within the next two days. Cynthia Liljeqvist was the president of the commission last year.

Officers in charge of the elections were Frances Rockwell, chairman of the ballot; Betty McCandler, in charge of notification of candidates; and Gail McCredie, in charge of the polls.

Sororities Make Plans For Social Activities

The presidents of the various women's houses, headed by Helen Raitenen of Sigma Kappa, met Thursday afternoon at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

It was decided that fraternities and sororities may have exchange dinners, but not dinners. Pledges of the men's houses may come to the women's houses on Monday nights until 7:30. Open house will be held this year as usual.

A party to be given for house mothers, by all the sororities was discussed. The proposed date is Tuesday, October 25.

All houses were warned to have their fire extinguishers charged, as the fire marshal will inspect houses soon.

Beta Alpha Phi To Have Guests for Dad's Day

At a meeting of Beta Alpha Phi, national accounting fraternity, last Tuesday Arthur Canon, president, appointed a committee to make arrangements to invite Portland and other business men to the campus on Dad's day.

Dean H. B. Hoyt, dean of the school of business administration, gave a talk on the desirability of having self-confidence.

"Self-confidence helps to get a position," said Dean Hoyt, "and enthusiasm for your prospective work not only helps your getting the job, but at the same time may impress your prospective employer."

"Little Six" Gives Sport Dope Today

BRUCE HAMBY predicts the scores of tomorrow's outstanding football encounters on the sports page this morning. Don't miss this new feature. "Little Six" also tells you in his column of the doings of one Joseph Lillard, Oregon's ex-halfback ace.

New AWS Group Named Yesterday

The establishment of a new A. W. S. committee was made known last night by Louise Webber, president of the Associated Women Students. This group has been named the Problems and Policies committee of the Associated Women Students.

Concentrated personnel work among the women students of the campus will be the purpose of the committee. It will endeavor to deal with problems of attitude in order to clarify public opinion of campus life.

The committee consists of four seniors and three junior women whose identity will remain completely unknown.

New WAA Recreation Plan Will Begin Today

All women on the campus have been invited by the Women's Athletic association to participate in a new recreational program, it was announced by Dorothy MacLean, president. Recreation hours will be from 4 to 6 o'clock beginning today and to be continued every Friday hereafter. Badminton, ping pong, swimming, hockey, and volley ball are the activities being offered.

Emma Stadden To Fill AWS Vice-Presidency

Upon the resignation of Betty Anne Macduff from the position of vice-president of the Associated Women Students, the executive council of A. W. S. last night appointed Emmabell Stadden to assume this office.

Miss Stadden, a senior in education, has been active in many campus activities during the past three years.

Oregon Cities Plan Bureau For Research

Thirty Members Attend Session on Campus

SECRETARY PICKED

Oregon League Discusses Highway Maintenance, Tax Collection, Relief for Jobless

A bureau of municipal research, to aid cities and municipalities in their various problems, will be established in Oregon, it was announced on the campus yesterday by William M. Briggs, city attorney of Ashland and president of the League of Oregon Cities, and Dr. P. A. Parsons, head of the department of sociology of the University of Oregon. The new bureau was described at the opening session of the League of Oregon Cities convention in Condon hall.

Dr. Ambrose Fuller, secretary of the Minnesota League of Cities, has been asked to accept the post of executive secretary of the league here and head of the bureau, it was stated. If he accepts he will take up the new duties in a few weeks.

30 Members Attend

The league session opened with about 30 members from all parts of the state in attendance. The meeting was called primarily to take up matters which the members want to have brought up before the next session of the legislature. All topics will be discussed and referred to the legislative committee for final drafting and recommendation for action.

Topics discussed today included maintenance of highways through cities, collection of city assessments with general taxes, coordinating fiscal year with budget year, reduction in election costs, county tax supervising boards, unemployment relief, municipal bonds and similar subjects.

Group Fed at Dinner

The group met tonight as guests of service clubs of Eugene at a banquet at the Osborn hotel, and will continue in session all day Friday.

The list of those in attendance follows:

Elisha Large, mayor of Eugene; Ernest C. Smith, city attorney of Hood River; W. M. Clemenson, councilman of Medford; J. E. Hope, city attorney of Astoria; George Garrett, city manager of Astoria; Anton Sorenson, commissioner of Marshfield; W. W. Ekblad, president of the council, Marshfield; Guy S. Claire, law school, University of Oregon; Calvin Crumbaker, University of Oregon; J. L. Franzen, city manager of Oregon City; C. Schuebel, city attorney of Oregon City; James T. Chinnock, city attorney of Grants Pass; D. C. McIntyre, acting mayor of Grants Pass; Celia L. Gavin, city attorney of The Dalles; C. G. Reiter, city manager of Bend; Willametta McElroy, of Portland; Edwison F. Ballagh, mayor of St. Helens; J. W. Day, St. Helens; F. E. Drane, mayor of Bandon; F. M. Bennett, Eugene water board; W. G. Rogers, Newberg; W. J. Knowles, councilman of Newberg; W. E. Hansen, councilman of Carlton; W. W. Garver, councilman of Silverton; F. P. Farrell, city attorney of Medford.

Professor's Book Finds Ready Sale

Two volumes in the "Chronicles of Canada" series, written by Professor Louis A. Wood, of the economics department, have enjoyed a total sale of nearly 25,000 copies in the several years they have been on sale.

The course in History of the Americas at the University of California lists one of these volumes as a required topical reading, and a number of other colleges using the California program have also adopted the text. Between 700 and 800 students are enrolled in the course at the University of California.

The "Chronicles of Canada" series was published by the T. A. Constable company, and printed at the University of Edinburgh Press.

Interfraternity Group Agrees on Rush Rules

Rushing agreements adopted by the inter-fraternity council last spring were reaffirmed at the meeting of the council yesterday afternoon. The rules were those printed on the reverse side of the date cards.

Under the agreements, the deriding of another house is outlawed. All other rushing tactics that might tend to create ill feeling between organizations are also to be abandoned.

Law School Entertains For Entering Students

First year law students were officially welcomed to the law school at a smoker, held at the Craftsmen club last night.

Entertainment was provided with three skits given by each of the three upper classes. Short talks were given by members of the faculty, and by several members of the Eugene bar. Carl Huston, representing the second year students, made a brief talk, as did Neil Bush in behalf of the first year students.

The purpose of this gathering was to unite the faculty, students, and the Eugene bar in a closer contact.

After the entertainment and speeches refreshments were served.

State Board Will Meet in Portland; Plans Not Known

THE STATE board of higher education will meet in Portland Monday. The matters will be discussed and passed upon have not yet been announced. Dr. W. J. Kerr, chancellor of higher education, will be present.

Two Oregon students will attend the meeting. They will be Bob Hall, president of the student body, and Dick Neuberger, editor of the Emerald. Hall will leave Eugene tomorrow, and Neuberger will go north on the 11:45 train this morning.

Tongue Appoints Representatives For Annual Event

Students Urge Attendance Of Dads for Week-End Of October 29

Appointments were made yesterday by Tom Tongue, advertising chairman, to take care of arrangements for Dad's day in the various houses and dormitories. Those who have been selected will work in conjunction with the regular Dad's day committee.

Students who have been selected are to urge the members in all organizations to write to the Dads, inviting them to attend the annual Dad's day celebration, and to prepare him for all house entertainments while the dads are visiting on the campus.

Fraternity appointments are: Glen Heiber, Alpha Tau Omega; Harlo Call, Alpha Upsilon; Dick Shearer, Beta Theta Pi; Bill Weeks, Chi Psi; Harold Peterson, Delta Tau Delta; Harry Eldé, Kappa Sigma; Roy McMullen, Pi Kappa Alpha; George Chamberlain, Phi Delta Theta; Dunham Howard, Phi Gamma Delta; Bob Sletter, Phi Kappa Psi; Arthur Compton, Phi Sigma Kappa; Harold Birkenshaw, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Bertram Schatz, Sigma Alpha Mu; Bob Downey, Sigma Nu; Borden Poulsen, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Dick Carter, Sigma Chi; Jim Fergusen, Sigma Pi Tau; Wilbur Thibault, Theta Chi.

New Books Added To U. of O. Library

Several new Braille books have been added to the University library, it was announced recently. These books for blind students have formed a rather complete library in themselves and new copies are frequently being added to the shelves.

Among the list of additions made this summer are Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter"; Jacob Wasserman's "Casper Hauser"; Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street"; Anatole France's "Honey Bee"; and Lovett, Leider, and Root's "Extracts from British Prose and Poetry of the 18th Century."

The symbols of the Braille system for blind readers are so large and so designed that they take up a great deal of space. Consequently, each book must be printed in several volumes. "Main Street" is printed in seven volumes in Braille.

U. O. Band Will Leave For Rose City Today

The University band and John H. Stehn, director, will leave this morning at 11:46 on the special train for Portland. On arriving there, they will parade on the main streets, stimulating pre-game enthusiasm and will give a radio broadcast this evening.

The band will play at the Shrine hospital for crippled children tomorrow at 11.

University Singers Triumph In Local Audition Contest

Winners in the Atwater Kent radio audition contest held last evening in the auditorium of the music building were Grace Burnett, lyric soprano, who placed first in the women's division, and Rose Simons, mezzo soprano, who placed second. In the men's division Eugene Peterson, baritone, placed first, and Gifford Nash, bass-baritone, placed second.

Just before the opening of the audition, each contestant drew a number in a sealed envelope and made his appearance accordingly. Eight men and six women were entered. The men were Wilfred Fransee, baritone; Harold M. Dunn, baritone; Ralph S. Coir, baritone; Earl A. Robertson, tenor; W. Gifford Nash, bass-baritone; Kenneth Roduner, tenor;

Webfoots To Travel South In December

Louisiana Signs Two-Year Contract

GAME HERE IN 1934

Southerners Coached by Widely Known Mentor From U. S. Military School

The University of Oregon's football squad will journey 3500 miles this autumn to meet Louisiana state university in an inter-sectional game. The date of the contest is December 10, and the game will be played in Baton Rouge, La. Announcement to this effect was made in Portland yesterday afternoon by H. E. Rosson, graduate manager here. He said a contract called for a return game, to be played in this state in 1934. Whether Portland or Eugene will be the locale of the 1934 encounter was not specified. The site probably will depend upon the season's records.

Council Gives O. K.

The signing of the contract yesterday ended negotiations that had been in progress for almost a month. The University executive council approved the game Wednesday.

Louisiana, an outstanding team in its section, is fairly formidable, though not rated as highly as Florida, Tulane, Georgia and other divisions from below the Mason and Dixon line. However, Louisiana supporters are looking for noteworthy results from a new coach, Capt. L. M. (Biff) Jones, who achieved fame as mentor of West Point's football forces three years ago.

Jones Well Known

Jones is known throughout national football circles as the man who developed Christian Keener Cagle, all-American halfback for three years, and himself a Louisiana product.

The Oregon-Louisiana game is assured ample publicity from Hule Long, the Kingfish himself, who makes the Louisiana team his particular hobby.

The Oregon team will leave here about the first of December. They will be away from the campus during final examinations, and as yet no provision has been made for their taking their semester's tests.

Louisiana follows Oregon's two hardest encounters—Southern California and St. Mary's. The Webfoots play the Trojans November 12 and the Gaels Thanksgiving day, November 24.

Louisiana has played two games to date this fall. It tied Texas Christian, 3 to 3, and lost to Rice Institute, 10 to 8.

U. O. Band Will Leave For Rose City Today

The University band and John H. Stehn, director, will leave this morning at 11:46 on the special train for Portland. On arriving there, they will parade on the main streets, stimulating pre-game enthusiasm and will give a radio broadcast this evening.

The band will play at the Shrine hospital for crippled children tomorrow at 11.
