OLD OREGON

Zero Hour Is Near For Fate Of University

(Continued from Page One) burden the taxpayers with extra expense for what would be inferior schools.

Cooperation Needed 'If this program is carried out by every one of the 7,000 alumni in the state, it will mean that 140,000 voters will have been contacted by Oregon alumni — a generous one- Local Alums Have Meeting hird of the registered voters of Another flank of the battle lines

-Eugene townspeople-are carrying on a similar aggressive campaign. At a mammoth assemblage held at the Eugene armory last Wednesday evening, several thousand citizens pledged themselves to active and concentrated work toward the defeat of the The keynote of the meeting was the demand that the fight be carried on to the last minute be-

Bailey Stresses Importance Edward F. Bailey, '13, one of the principal speakers, used a football illustration to make his point that the last days of the campaign are of vital importance to the outcome of the election.

L. A. held in Portland last Satur-Bailey said. "I believe we have hottest part of the fight."

Tugman Speaks William M. Tugman, editor of fir. the Eugene Register-Guard, was the other principal speaker. He work yet to be done. granted in exchange for a letter it. I care not what you call itwritten to some out-of-town friend whether political or not-this ornumbers, and the Eugene Gleemen uphold it." sang a new Oregon song written by Dean James H. Gilbert and ganization be enlarged until it be-director of the Gleemen. Misrepresentations Cited

Bailey told of how these promoters are claiming that the University buildings are old, ramshackle, and about to fall to the ground.

"And yet in the same breath," he said, "they claim that the teachers' college proposed for Eugene will soon have as many students as the University. And they will occupy the same buildings that they say are about to fall down."

of the Overseas Educational institute, left September 14, to join the institute in France.

Mr. Hansen received his bachelor of architecture degree from the University in 1930, and while at the University was awarded a scholarship from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in its graduate school of architecture. He also has done graduate work at Harvard university.

Janet Young, '14, in Play

number of times.

Eugene Gets Together To Fight Merger

Vol. XV

On Wednesday

Fox Named President of Group; Vice-Presidents Chosen For Lane County

Eugene alumni, ex-students and friends of the University who have been particularly active for the past several months in support of the University and against the Zorn-Macpherson school moving bill met last Wednesday night at the Osburn hotel and perfected their organization. More than 250

Dr. Irvin R. Fox was elected president, John W. Anderson, secretary, and the president was authorized to name vice-presidents for the various parts of the coun-"If the football game with U. C. ty. Those named were Evangeline Foster Hurd, Coburg; Mrs. Herday had been only 59 and three- bert Lombard, Cottage Grove; E. quarters minutes long, Oregon E. Dersham, Creswell; Mrs. Jowould have won. But it was 60 sephine Lehman, Junction City; minutes. And Oregon lost," B. C. Addison, Lorane; Charles Greenwood, McGlynn; C. W. Allen, the fight won today, but unfortunately, the election isn't being McKenzie Valley; Dr. Edward Bennett, Monroe; Charles Croner, held today. The few days between Oakridge; Earl E. Hill, Siuslaw; now and election day will be the H. E. Maxey, Springfield; Bill Maddaugh, Veneta, Elmira and Crow, and A. E. Gerimonte, West-

Bailey Gives Outline

"This organization should have outlined the progress of the cam- been formed 10 years ago," Edpaign in various sections of the ward F. Bailey said in a brief talk state and assured the assemblage outlining the purposes of the orthat there was a great deal of ganization. "The University is in politics and it has been in politics Admission to the meeting was for years, but we haven't realized urging opposition to the bill. The ganization can defend the Univer-University band played a few sity and promulgate measures to

Mr. Bailey urged that the orcomposed by John Stark Evans, came state wide and while not demoted as an auxiliary association tailed work for the University.

Brown Is Toastmaster

Alex G. Brown, alumni secretary, acted as toastmaster. Among those introduced was Bill Morgan, captain of the varsity football team. The dinner meeting was ad-was recently appointed head of the of the Eugene chamber a cam- Heald, M. D. '32." department of art and architecture paign is under way for organized contact with the voters through a | Winifred E. Weter, '29, 5642 letter writing campaign and per- Drexel avenue, Chicago, Iill., resonal contacts.

Victor Neher, Ex-'26,

Janet Young, '14, is playing in of Technology, in experiments now was the middle of September. Up-Eugene O'Neill's "Mourning Be- being conducted to find the source on my return I found some Old comes Electra" in New York. She of the mysterious cosmic radiation. Oregons awaiting me and was dismade," a very flattering letter is expected to be on the Pacific Professor Neher is a noted physic- tressed to read in the May num- from M. Meredith Sheets, 2559 coast next spring on tour with the ist. He was graduated from Po- ber that the magazine has been University court, Cincinnati, O. "I play. Miss Young is widely known mona college and won a scholar-suspended. But then I came to am now attending the University in theatrical circles in the West ship to the California Institute of an Emerald and found it was of Cincinnati and working for my and has appeared in Eugene a Technology where he earned his pleasant to see the paper again— Ph.D. in the department of geol-

"Eugene's Own Store"

McMorran Washburne

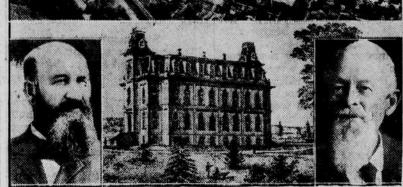

PHONE 2700

"Kantrun" Silk Hose $1.35 Pr.

- A mesh so fine that your hose appear as finest chiffon. Sheer as a cobweb. Beautiful in appearance-and will not run-
- —Full fashioned and French heel—The most desired colors—Nomad—Brownwood—Dove Beige-Duskbrown-
- -Sold all over America at the same time-Sold out in most stores the first day-Be sure to get yours today.

A Modern Pioneer Monument

Above, airplane view of the University of Oregon campus as it appears today, a realization of pioneer dreams, and a fitting monument to the struggles and sacrifices of the early Eugene and Lane Alaska, working for a time on a county pioneers who raised the funds for the construction of Deady paper in Cordova. While in Conhall (below), first building on the Oregon campus. This building and stantinople, she was correspondthe site on which it stands was a gift of these pioneers to the state- ent for the New York Times and given with the faith that the people of Oregon would keep the promise of the state to locate the University at Eugene permanently. Lower left, the late Judge J. J. Walton, a leading worker in raising the funds. Lower right, the late Ben F. Dorris, a tireless worker in bringing the

Family Mail

"I am looking forward to receiving the weekly edition of the Emerald, Dr. Carl G. Ashley, B. A., '27, M. D., '31, writes from signed to take the place of the Chicago, where he is connected alumni association, it is being pro-"We are passing through a critimisrepresentations being sent out which can include parents and cal period, and distance seems to from the Zorn-MacPherson camp, friends and be available for deis a fascinating city, but not such a good place to stay in forever. I have contacted a number of Oregon alumni around Chicago. In Chicago proper I have seen Dr. Ed Ricen, '28, M. D. '31; Dr. Irene journed at 7:30 o'clock in order Grieve, M. D. '32, and Dr. Fred that those present might attend a Templeton, M. D. '31 On a trip to city-wide anti-merger rally at the Cleveland, I visited Dr. John F. The rally sa under the direction Ivan Ingram, '26, M. D. '29. In of the Eugene chamber of com- Madison I found Dr. Murray Architecture Grad merce with E. G. Harlan, secretary, presiding. William M. Tug-Has Work Abroad tary, presiding. William M. Tugyoran, '26, M. D. '29; Louis
Greene, '27, M. D. '28; Dr. Irving
Affairs committee of the chamber,
Affairs committee of the cham and Bailey were the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Alex Speakers. Under the sponsorship Thomas Louis Hansen, '30, who are the Fugene chamber a came that the first and Bailey were the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Speakers and Bailey were the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Speakers and Bailey were the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Speakers and Bailey were the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Speakers are the principal Tuell, '28, M. D. '32; Dr. Alex Spea > cently returned from a six months' trip to Europe. "Nine weeks were to your advantage and will do evspent in Greece," Miss Weter erything possible to be of assistwrites, "a country fascinating to ance to you," Ken Stephenson, '26, Working on Research me as a student of the classics, writes from Seattle. Stephenson is and interesting for its natural "on the road" for the Armstrong H. Victor Neher, '26, son of Mr. beauty as well. While in England, Cork company, 803 Terminal Sales and Mrs. J. A. Neher of Spring- I spent a few days in Oxford and building, Seattle, and is a frequent field, is associated with Dr. Robert called on Mrs. Consuelo McMillan visitor in Eugene. A. Millikan, head of the expedition, Larrabee, former house mother at and Professor L. S. Bowen, all Hendricks hall, and her small son, three of the California Institute who was then four weeks old. Ths so the loss of Old Oregon is not ogy. without its compensations.

ex-'77, Junction City, recently bara Cottage hospital. wrote to Edward F. Bailey. "The efforts now being put forth by the A letter from Blondell Carleton sincerely hope they may be suc- ical school.

cessful in stemming the tide of Falls City. destruction now being launched by those who apparently have not nery officer on the flagship, Calithe best interest of our state at fornia.

"The alumni edition of the Emerald surely gave me a shock they had physically left our dear will do similar work. old campus, but their spiritual influence will always be felt. How known two such remarkable people," Ruth E. Woughter, '29, writes from Edgar, Montana. The writand has a sister, Helen, who is a freshman on the campus.

Holland Furnace company as of- Dr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Brunfice manager in one of their Seat- kow of Portland. tle branches since the first of April," Laura Clithero, '30, writes. around has been conveyed.

"I hope that your battle in behalf of the existence of the University at Eugene is progressing

"I have been following every possible bit of news of the Zornyou on the progress you have

Dr. Lawrence Young, Dr. and "I heartily disapprove of any Mrs. Bob Wilbur, and Dr. and Mrs. such movement as is now under Horace Coshow are all in Santa consideration by persons who cer- Barbara, according to a letter tainly do not have at heart the from Dr. Bernard W. Hummelt, axiom of 'the greatest good to the B. A. '29, M. D. '32 Dr. Hummelt greatest number.' D. T. Awbrey, may be reached at the Santa Bar-alumni to counteract ahe actions '26, 171 Crittendon boulevard, of those arch-enemies of our most Rochester, N. Y., advises that she worthy institution are certainly has a fellowship in physiology in most timely and in order, and I the University of Rochester Med-

News of the Classes

Mr. Elkins was ex-sheriff of Lane past summer. county and ex-chairman of the rary, is on a year's leave of ab- at Northwestern university. He sence and her position is being has been in Long Beach, Calitaken by Bernice M. Rise, '23.

Nellie F. Williams who teaches Died: Dillard A. Elkins, ex-'03, in the high school at Palo Alto, died of pneumonia in the veterans California, visited her mother, Mrs. hospital in Portland, on October 9. Sarah Williams, in Eugene the state industrial accident commis- Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Raymond Earle Kerr (Carolyn Dunston, '10) visited his sister, Amy L. Dunn, ex-'04, is house Mrs. Helen Kerr Maxham, '21, in chaperone for the Delta Gamma's Eugene, the last of June. Lieutenat Stanford University this year. | ant Kerr and family will be in Evanston, Illinois, the next three Mrs. Mabel Eaton McClain, head years, where he has been detailed of the University circulation lib- to teach naval science and tactics fornia, the past two years as gun-

McDonald Family Home From Trip To South Europe

Former U. of O. Students Remain Overseas for Four Years

After four years in southern Europe and Turkey, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McDonald, (Lucille Saunders, ex-'19) have returned to Oregon after extensive travels there. Mr. Saunders, who attended the University in 1925, has been export manager for the Caterpillar Trac-For two years the McDonalds lived in Constantinople. From there, accompanied by their young son, Ricardo, they went to Alexandria, Egypt, and for the past year have been stationed in Budapest. Mr. McDonald's territory has included southern Europe, Asia, Mrs. McDonald is a newspaper woman and for several 'years was on the staff of the Oregonian. In her own professional career she traveled widely, going from Portland to South America as a member of the United Press. While there, she crossed the Andes in the winter time, a feat for a North American woman.

Mrs. McDonald traveled later to Paris Herald. An interesting article about their motor travels over southern Europe appeared in the Oregonian last September.

The McDonalds may be reached through Mr. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald of

Died: Clarence Leroy Whealden, ex-'10, of Portland, on July 23. 1915

Dr. Luton Ackerson, who has when I learned that two of our been associated with the Institute Lea (Mrs. Howard P. Lea) in dear friends, Dean Straub and of Juvenile Research in Chicago, Mrs. Susan Campbell, had died. for some time, has been transfer-It took me a while to realize that red to Joliet penitentiary where he Born: A son, Leland R., on June fortunate we 'alums' are to have 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Jackstreet, Portland.

er is now in her third year as vacation in Portland and Newport, Portland. teacher in the Edgar high school has returned to the Hawaiian Islands. Miss Tobey has had a teaching position there for the past two years. Born: A son, on August 3, to Her address is 715 First West, formerly graduate assistant in the T. H. burg for a year. She expects to 24.

Edward F. Bailey

Prominent Oregon alumnus, who against the Zorn-Macpherson bill. Mr. Bailey, who was the principal speaker at the huge rally of Eugene citizens held in Eugene last week, urged that there be no letup in the work against this destructive measure.

her return home.

1922

Married: Grace Elizabeth Tigard to Paul Houghton, in Pied- are on the program. mont, California, on August 12. Address: 1055 Dartmouth avenue, Claremont, California.

Born: A daughter, Janet Rae, on September 5, to Echo Balderree | alumni in Portland are busily en-Julien, (Mrs. Albert H. Julien) of 702 North Lombard street, Port-

Married: Oleta Margaret Speidel, ex-'26, to Edward James Barry, in Portland, on September 22. 944 Fremont street Address: Portland.

Born: A son, Morgan Howard, on July 13 to Laura Jean Spall Portland. Mrs. Lea's home is at Glendale. California.

John Kuykendall, B.A. '28, M.D.

31, has been added to the staff reservation requests included: of the Eugene Hospital and Clinic. Dr. Kuykendall, who is a son of son, of 1459 East Seventeenth D. V. Kuykendall, '98, of Klamath Clausen, Lamar Tooze, Walter E. Falls, has just finished his intern-Myrtle G. Tobey, who spent her ship at the Emanuel Hospital, Mae Hadfield, Mrs. H. P. Lewis, Stanford University.

Mrs. Austrid Mork Williams, September 13. Address: Honolulu,

Tuesday Set For Portland

Alexander G. Brown, Secretary

Annual Event Will Be One meeting. Of Great Importance

President of Portland Association Announces Program for Evening Event

Portland alumni of the University and their friends will gather at Erlywine's restaurant on Tenth street near Washington at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday night, October 25. The meeting will be one of the most important held by the Portland group in recent years, and the price, by special arrangement, has been set at 50 cents a plate.

"You can attend the dinner as cheaply as you can eat at home," Edgar W. Smith, president of the has been active in the fight Portland alumni, declares, "and this year, of all years, all University folk should be on hand. Rally in Offing

"While this will be a dinner and the annual meeting of the Portland association, it will be more of a rally than anything else," Mr. Smith said. "Special music, a good visit relatives in Norway before old quartet and a few speakers, the identity of whom will remain secret unless they should happen to be 'discovered' by the press,

Eugene alumni are planning to send a delegation, and special decorations are being designed.

A group of 58 representative year away. gaged in obtaining reservations, but any alumnus who has not been contacted may make his reservation by calling ATwater 3540, the office of F. H. Young, 618 Pacific

Angell, Brown Speak At the committee luncheon held last Tuesday noon at the Benson hotel, Homer D. Angell, president of the state alumni association, and Alexander G. Brown, secretary, spoke and emphasized the importance of the coming meeting. Those who attended the luncheon and who now are accepting

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Earl, Gladys Steiger Sherrell, Gladys Church, Berniece Rasor, Nellie Florence McNerney, Merwin Rankin, Charles W. Erskine, Mr. Walter East Hempstead, B.A. Smith, Mr. Angell, Randolph T. '29, M.A. '31, is studying law at Kuhn, Marie Bridges, Mrs. Esther M. Justice, Mrs. Frederick M. Sercombe, Mrs. W. R. Soden, Roland Married: Miss Aleen McDonell Davis, Horace Kilham, Phillip to George R. Hogshire, B.S. '30, Janney, Joe Freck Jr., David W. Matthieu, Mr. and Mrs. Nichona Jr., A. Dix Holaday, Stephen Marsh, and C. W. Walls.

Many Alums Expected For Homecoming

(Continued from Page One)

of particular importance in the light of the general election on Alumni Meet Oregon will have an opportunity to vote 317 X No. The work of November 8, when the people of ious Zorn-Macpherson school moving bill will be reviewed at this

Bob Hall, president of the associated students, has named Ned Kinney as chairman of the Homecoming committee. Kinney is now busily engaged in perfecting the students' part in the annual reunion of Oregon alumni. Directorate Announced

Kinney announced the directorate for the week-end Friday evening. The students who will be actively working to make this year's gathering a pleasant one for returning alumni are: assistant chairman, Ethan Newman; secretary, Nancy Suomela; rally, Cecil Espy; Homecoming dance, Gordon Day; decorations, Jim Ferguson; features, Al McKelligan; welcoming, Virginia Hartje; fin-ance, Jim Travis; and publicity, Jessie Steele.

"Back to Fight for Oregon," is the slogan this year. The importance of the occasion may be emthe Zorn-Macpherson school moving bill is adopted by the voters at the November 8 election this will be the last Homecoming ever to be held at Eugene.

Interest in Dad's Day The bill provides that all changes under it shall be in full force and effect not later than September of 1933, which is less than one In addition to Homecoming on November 4 and 5, many alumni are interested in Dad's day, which will be observed this year on October 29, the date of the Oregon-Gonzaga game at Eugene. Hal Short has been named as student chairman of the Dad's day com-

Emerald Of the Air

This afternoon's program at 4:15 will concern itself with news, editorials, and anti Zorn-Macpherson argument.

Notice is herewith given that the weekly dramatic offering of the Emerald-of-the-Air under the direction of Mike Hogan will be presented henceforth at the regular hour on Tuesday, instead of on Wednesday.

M.D. '32, in San Francisco, on Sandeberg, C. Lee Hulbert, Donald las Jaureguy, Franz B. Drinker, Fred W. Packwood, Margaret G Randall, Mrs. Frank C. Rice, Fritsch, Ralph D. Moores, Mary McMahon, Mrs. Helen K. Leemon,

