

Emerald News Staff Complete For Year 1932

Few Changes Marked From First List

TRYOUTS ARE ENDED

Repertorial, Desk, Night Forces Are Lined Up For Semester

Complete news, copyreading, and night staff for this year's Emerald was announced in final form yesterday by Dick Neuberger, editor, and Sterling Green, managing editor. Only a few minor changes in personnel have been made, the major part of the staff remaining as previously announced.

Oscar Munger, senior in journalism with three years' experience on the Emerald, is news editor and has charge of the reporting staff. Francis Pallister, junior in journalism, has been appointed to the position of copy editor and will have charge of copyreaders.

Dorner Society Editor
Eloise Dorner, senior in journalism, has been named society editor and she has chosen as her assistants Marian Achterman, Elizabeth Crommelin, and Mary Stewart. Others composing the upper news staff are Bruce Hamby, sports editor; Parks Hitchcock, makeup editor; John Gross, literary editor; Bob Guild, dramatics editor; Jessie Steele, women's editor; Elinor Henry, special writer; Ray Clapp, radio editor; and Les Dunton, chief night editor.

The staff of day editors is made up entirely of experienced Emerald workers and consists of Bob Patterson, Margaret Bean, Francis Pallister, Virginia Wentz, and Joe Saslavy. Hubert Totton will fill the position of relief day editor.

None of the five night editors chosen have had previous experience on the Emerald. They are Bob Moore, Russell Woodward, John Holloper, Bill Aetzel, and Bob Couch. Assistant night editors are Gladys Gillespie, Virginia Howard, Margaret Corum, Georgia Gildez, Dorothy Austin, Virginia Proctor, Catherine Gribble, Helen Emery, Helen Taylor, Merle Gollings, Mildred Maida, and Evelyn Schmidt.

Copyreaders, Reporters Listed
After a suitable period of try-out a staff of 22 copyreaders and 21 reporters have been selected from those aspiring to the positions. Copyreaders are Harold Brewer, Twyla Stockton, Nancy Lee, Margaret Hill, Edna Murphy, Monte Brown, Mary Jane Jenkins, Robert Pichard, Marjorie McNiece, Betty Powell, Bob Thurston, Marian Achterman, Hilda Gillam, Eleanor Norblad, Roberta Moody, Jane Opsund, Frances Rothwell, Bill Hall, Caroline Rogers, Henrietta Horak, Ruth Byerly, and Myron Ricketts.

Assisting Hamby on the sports staff are Malcolm Bauer, assistant editor; Ned Simpson, Dud Lindner, and Ben Back.

On the radio staff besides Clapp are Benson Allen, Harold Ge-Bauer, and Michael Hogan.

Betty Duzan and Esther Krabbe have been chosen secretaries to the managing editor. Louisa Beers is secretary to Richard Neuberger, editor.

John Raine Dunbar, Rhodes Hopeful, Tells Life History

By ANN-REED BURNS
His name is John Raine Dunbar, but you might not recognize him by that, for they call him "Jack," and he isn't apt to own up to the "Raine." You see, he's generally known as plain Jack Dunbar.

At the first examination for the Rhodes scholarship, Jack Dunbar was chosen as one of the four candidates from the University of Oregon. The others are George Harrington, Wallace Campbell, and Robert Hayter. They will vie with other students from all Oregon colleges at the second examination for the scholarship, to be held in Portland December 10.

Tickets on Sale At Campus Co-op For Ore-OSCTilt

Student tickets for the Oregon State-Oregon football game in Corvallis Saturday are on sale at the Co-op. The price is $1.

A. S. U. O. cards must be presented by students seeking tickets. They must also be presented at the gate in Corvallis.

The student tickets will give admission to the Oregon rooting section, which will be at the south end of the east stand, as in the past, it was said at the graduate manager's office. Oregon students will enter by gate 9.

University Loan Fund Aids Many Worthy Students

New Beneficiaries Appear During Year For Sum Of $1,370

Loans to the extent of $35,814.50 were made during the last school year to assist worthy students, under the direction of the student loan committee composed of Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel, Orville Lindstrom, student member, and Virgil Earl, dean of men.

From the general loan fund 198 loans were made, averaging $107.78. Emergency loans totaled 426, the amount averaging $18.19. Twenty-four loans came from the Crawford loan fund.

During the year two new loan funds were created. The Fannie Frank scholarship loan fund was started with the amount of $1250 and the Panhellenic emergency loan fund of $120.

Comparative figures on all loans show that, while fewer loans are made to women students, the average amount loaned is slightly larger. The long time loans from the general loan fund averaged $118.75 for women and $103.45 for men.

At present there are applications for $1,186 in excess of the balance of the funds. This figure is not so formidable as it might at first appear, since previous loans will fall due during the year, before the loans will be needed. Many more calls for loans have been received this year than in any previous year and many more extensions in loans falling due have been asked for.

In making the loans the student loan committee considers the scholastic record of the student; his or her reputation for reliability, honesty and industry; the need for aid, and the probability of wise expenditure; the amount of present indebtedness; the probable ability to repay; and the effort which the student has made to assist himself.

Keith Davis, No. 17, Looms As Oregon's No. 1 Foeman

Boys and girls, take a good look at the gentleman below. He is Keith Davis, No. 17, right end of the Oregon State college football eleven. He constitutes the big menace to Oregon's success in Saturday's homecoming game on Bell field, Corvallis.

Davis is perhaps the outstanding punter in the far west. To date this season he has out-kicked such noted football celebrities as Orville Mohler, U. S. C.; Ernie Caddel, Stanford; William Frazier Gonzaga, and George Sander Washington State college.

The real value of Davis to the Orangemen can be realized by anyone who saw the 1931 game at Eugene. Time and again the light and inexperienced Oregon eleven would drive the Beavers into the "hole," only to be forced back themselves when Davis would kick calmly 50 or 60 yards from behind his own goal line.

Grady Appoints Speaker's Group For Student Body

Sixteen Members To Make All Announcements At Organizations

Members of the associated students speakers' committee were announced yesterday by Jean Grady, chairman. There are 16 members of this group, which makes all emergency announcements for the student body.

The speakers committee was originated last year to correct the evil of anybody going to living organizations to make announcements. This group is the only all university body authorized to make announcements at meal times. The A. W. S. has its committee that works among the women.

Those named by Grady are: Maryellen Bradford, secretary; John McCulloch, Chuck Clay, Mahr Reymers, Ed Schweiker, Bob Zurcher, Chuck Gillespie, Gordon Day, Al McKelligon, Kimball Page, Fred Helberg, Chuck Stryker, Parker Favier, George Schenk, and George Hibbard.

University Graduate To Study in Germany

Word has been received by Dr. F. G. Schmidt, head of the German department, that Mrs. A. M. Williams, formerly of the German department, has arrived in Martsburg, Germany, where she will take a post graduate course. She received her master's degree last spring.

From her letter she states that French animosity towards Germany still exists, and that a student's cost of living amounts to nearly the same as in this country. Students may feel assured that they do not need to know the language if they go to Germany because Mrs. Williams states that English is spoken almost everywhere. While in the Hamburg-American steamship office she asked for a location in the best German she could master and to her surprise they answered her in English.

Professor Receives Old Coins
Frederic S. Dunn, head of the Latin department, has seven coins of ancient Greece and Rome which have been sent to him by a young Tacoma high school boy who has studied. Professor Dunn has found one coin to belong to the era of Constantius, another of Aurelian, conqueror of Zenobia, and one a Greco-Roman coin.

Freshman Men Must Help Today With Frosh Fire

All freshmen who do not have classes at 2:45 today are requested to be in the College Side at that time by Maurice Winter, chairman of the Frosh Bonfire committee. Freshmen who have classes until 3:00 are asked to be there as soon as possible afterward.

Heads of fraternities and dormitories are urged to cooperate by seeing that all their first year members are present.

Freshmen who are able to come and do not do so will be brought before the traditions committee of 15' and dealt with summarily.

Willamette Park Scene of Dance This Evening at 8

Willamette park has donated the use of its hall, and Merle Good has offered the services of his orchestra without charge for the dance to be held there tonight to raise radio funds to fight the Zorn - Macpherson "school-hashing" bill.

The dance will begin at 8, and Dean Hazel Schwering has granted permission to all campus women to stay until 11 for this special occasion.

Tickets for the dance, are on sale at the Co-op at 25 cents each.

Interclass Dance To Be Presented In Campa Shoppe

Chas. Gillespie Announces Junior-Senior Affair Committeemen

Charles Gillespie, major in business administration, was appointed senior chairman of the annual Junior-Senior dance last week, by Cecil Espy, president of the class. He will cooperate with Louis Vannice, junior chairman, in staging the affair.

According to plans already formulated by Gillespie and Vannice, the dance, which will be held Armistice night, November 11, will be of the grille type.

Due to the new interior, vastly increased floor space, and the recently installed hardwood floor in the Campa Shoppe, that establishment has been selected as the location of the affair. As the floor space has been enlarged by two-thirds, it is felt that accommodations will be quite adequate for as large a crowd as may attend. All tables will be reserved in advance.

The directorate already appointed by the two heads includes Zulime Tibbets, secretary; Fred Schaefer, reservations; Phoebe Greeman, "Brute" Stauffer, decorations; George Hibbard publicity; Jim Ferguson, ticket sales; Herb King, purchasing agent; Chick Burrows, features.

Allen, Rae Will Attend Editorial Association

E. W. Allen, dean of the journalism school, and Arne Rae, professor of journalism, will go to Corvallis Saturday morning to attend the regular fall meeting of the executive committee of the Oregon State Editorial association.

Dean Allen is an ex-officio member of the committee. Mr. Rae is field manager of the association.

Latin Club Meets
Colegium Augustales, Latin club, accepted three new members at a meeting held last night. They are Margaret Rugh, Lillian Ross, and Gladys Burns. Laura Goldsmith was elected vice-president.

At the next meeting to be held in the recreation hall of Susan Campbell, November 13, the character life and writings of Caesar will be analyzed.

Vigilante Group Will Have Lunch At 'College Side'

Arthur Sims Potwin, the handsome man, beamed philanthropically last night. "Every member of the vigilante committee, bless their little souls, is invited to have lunch at the College Side Inn today promptly at 12 o'clock. There will be real food, it's all true and this is not a talking picture," said the great one.

Mr. Potwin said it was urgent for every member of aforesaid committee to attend the luncheon, as there will be considerable important business discussed. "We'll have everything from soup to meat to nuts," remarked Arthur Sims. "That's our anti-consolidation double play. Soup to Meat to Nuts."

The great man was led off before he could say any more.

New Guide Book Is Selling Rapidly

Sales of the new student directory are good, reports from the graduate manager's office indicate. The directory is on sale at the Co-op and at the manager's office in McArthur court.

Printing of the directories was limited to a quantity based on sales in previous years. This limited publication means that the supply probably will soon be exhausted, according to Ronald H. Robnett, assistant graduate manager.

Plans Complete For Week-end Of Homecoming

Frosh-Rook Game and Dance Friday Night

TRAIN LEAVES 11:15

Two Arches To Span 13th Street; Pennants From Kincaid To Friendly Hall

Homecoming plans are complete for the big week-end of November 4, 5 and 6. A pep rally, frosh bonfire, frosh-rook game, and rally dance afterwards are scheduled for Friday night.

Saturday morning the annual alumni meeting and registration of alumni will take place, with a special train for the Oregon State game leaving at 11:15 from Viltard hall.

The reception in Alumni hall and Homecoming dance at the Igloo are on Saturday night. Reunion dinners at living organizations, and the regular Sunday afternoon organ concert by John Stark Evans complete the week-end.

Kennedy Chairman
Ned Kinney, general chairman, has named Evelyn Kennedy as chairman of the reception Saturday evening.

The campus will be decorated with two big arches spanning Thirteenth street, one in front of Condon, the other at University street. Pennants will be strung from Friendly hall to Kincaid street.

Jim Ferguson, assisted by George Hibbard, is in charge of decoration. Maurice Stauffer heads the committee on campus decorations, with Louis Vannice, Bill Douthit, Lewis Fox, George Bennett, Dave Lehman, Bob Sleeter, and George Scharpf.

Construction of the Homecoming arches will be superintended by Warren Gill, assisted by Hubert Totton, Jim Wells, Cecil Inman, Hartley Kneeland, and Berry Pennington.

Freshmen to Report
In addition to the above committee, the following freshmen are ordered to report at Condon hall at 1:00 by the Order of the "O": Dave Goodell, Brooks Claridge, Bill Cunningham, John McConnell, Eldon Haberman, Stan Smith, Bruce Tuck, Alfred Whittle, Fred Bronn, Bill Schlotz.

Jerry Murphy, Monte Brown, Arton Goodwin, Ed Warmington, Benton Hargreaves, Drew Copp, and Bob Moore.

Hayward field decorations will be handled by Skull and Daggers, under the direction of Bill Russell. Merchants down town are cooperating with special window displays and colored bulbs in the street lights. Homecoming signs, erected by each living organization in competition for the Bristow trophy, will light up the streets adjacent to the campus.

Eugene Women Hold Mass Meet

Tonqueds, an organization of Eugene women attending the University, held their first mass meeting of the term last night from 7:30 to 8:30 at Westminster house.

Catherine Coleman, who was appointed by Kathryn Liston as director of all meetings of the term, was in charge. All Eugene women attending the University were invited to attend.

During the evening Ruth Griswold played the piano for dancing. Dorothy Parks entertained with a few songs.

Lois Margaret Hurt, who was chairman of the refreshment committee, served cake and coffee.

Accounting Honorary Meets at Anchorage

The Beta Alpha Psi, national accounting honorary, held a meeting last Saturday at the Anchorage for a luncheon and afterwards attended the game.

There were 30 persons present, including the members of the organization and several heads of accounting firms of Portland.

Kanzler, Brockman Present Varied Musical Selections

The interpretation of Brahms' Rhapsody in B minor by Jane Kanzler in the joint recital in which she and Frances Brockman were presented last night was truly excellent. Miss Kanzler seems to thoroughly enjoy and understand her music. Two modern novelty numbers, "Music Box" by Liadov, "Clog Dance" by Hanson, and Granger's arrangement of Brahms' "Cradle Song," made up her second group.

Miss Brockman's rendition of Bruch's "Concerto" was exceedingly well done. Each note of a quick trill or long run was clear and distinct and the difficult bowing and double-stops were both unusual in their perfection.

In the Sonata for Violin and Viola by Leclair, Miss Brockman's vibroto was very outstanding, for she made a piece, almost too technical for beauty, beautiful through the use of it, as well as by her tone shading. She was assisted by Martha Patterson, violinist, and Edna Whitmer, pianist. Miss Kanzler played the accompaniment for the Concerto.

Miss Kanzler, whose parents were here from Portland, is the first pianist to use the new piano in the music building for concert work.
