to be suffering from ailments angles to right for 18 feet. Turn right angle to left for six feet. Scrape feet off and enter door.

ROUTE NO. 2 (Around the Horn; Take Lunch Along)

Start from aforesaid wrong opening door, proceed along board walk for distance of about 40 feet. Turn right at gravel road. Follow road for 30 feet. Turn right into basement of McClure hall. Turn left at first opening. Proceed straight ahead into room crowded with various printing machines. Turn right at farthest wall from point of entrance. Walk ten feet, and there you are right in the composing room!

ROUTE NO. 3 Athletes' Route

Leave shack by aforesaid W. O. D. Summon all the agility you have and leap ditch dead ahead, landing on the sometime-to-be basement of new Journalism mansion. Wade through mud to either side, summon more agility and leap other ditch onto bank. Proceed to composing room door, scrape mud from feet and ankles, and enter.

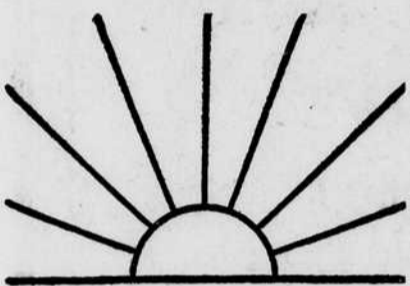

To Return to Shack Reverse any of above methods.

PRINK CALLISON DRILLS MEN ON DEFENSE PLAYS

ranging all the way from appendicitis to galloping dandruff, and with these men on the sidelines, it is true the Duck team would have some advantage. However, Coach Schissler has a trick of deducing his opponents into a sort of false over-confidence and then trotting the selfsame ailing men onto the field of battle at a critical moment, which is never heartening to an opposing team. Therefore, these reports shouldn't be taken too seriously.

Davis Star Kicker

The Webfoots will have to cope with the very excellent kicking of one Keith Davis, star Beaver end, who is perhaps the best punter on this coast, if not one of the best in the country. In last year's annual contest when the Ducks, on several occasions backed the Orangemen way into their own territory, Davis calmly booted the ball 50 and sometimes 60 yards down into Oregon territory. Other Beaver stars that the Webfoet will have to look out for are Hal Moe,

Start the day with FLAVOR!

A BOWL of crisp Kellogg's Corn Flakes and milk or cream at breakfast makes your appetite get busy. It's simply delicious. And so good for you! Rich in energy. Easy to digest. Leaves you feeling fit and fresh for the day. Enjoy Kellogg's for lunch too. Great for a late snack. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The most popular cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include ALL-BRAN, PEP Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee — real coffee that lets you sleep.

They've Planned a Welcome for Returnig Grads

blocking back, and Hal Pangle, halfback. Pangle is only a sophomore, but is rated as one of the best backs in the Orange stable. Tonight the Webfoots are to have a light workout on Hayward field, and then will probably hold a short skill practice in the Igloo. Admittance to the practice will be restricted.

Campus Calendar

All fraternity house presidents are requested by Maurie Winters, chairman of bonfire committee, to see that frosh are at the bonfire in the morning and all afternoon.

Westminster house open house as was previously planned will not be held tonight because of outside confliotions.

Bellinger To Talk To Sunday Group

Jack Bellinger, editorial writer on the Emerald, will lead the discussion at Wesley club Sunday evening on the topic, "How Should We Face the World of Economic Realities." The meeting will begin at 6:30.

This is one of a group of meetings being carried on in classroom and outside by members of the class in "Conduct of Group Discussion," taught by John L. Casteel, head of the speech department. The discussion will be preceded by a social half-hour at 6 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. Henry D. Sheldon, chairman of social science, will continue his series of discussions on "Comparative World Religions" at the Sunday morning meeting of the Wesley group, which begins at 9:45. His topic will be "Brahmanism."

Tom Stoddard Making Satisfactory Progress

Tom Stoddard, assistant graduate manager, who suffered lacerations of the head in an auto accident Wednesday night, was reported last night to be making satisfactory progress, and it was expected that he would be released from the hospital today.

McDONALD — "Cabin in the Cotton."
COLONIAL — "This Is the Night."
REX — "Strange Justice."
STATE — "Hidden Valley."
HEILIG — "Explorers of the World."

McDonald
What can we say this time? Banjos ringing—darkies singing—life, love—the pageant of a pecker-wood" boys road to fame and fortune—feuds—rivalries—passion—mention Bette Davis and what have you—but they only tell you that Dick Barthelme, known to some as the greatest maker of hit pieces of them all, is at the McDonald again tonight.

Bette Davis, as far as that goes, shares honors, to some extent with Dorothy Jordan—having two leading ladies is right down the Barthelme alley—and he doesn't mind having them make it hot for him a bit. Henry B. Walthal appears for a bit as the old southern colonel which reminded us of "The Birth of a Nation."

Colonial
Presenting a trio of laugh makers of the very first water—and no mistake about that—in a scintillating and tuneful comedy, "This Is the Night." Roland Young it is, and Charley Ruggles and Lily Dammit, on a very fake honeymoon, with complications, romance, and whatnot of success written in every line or two—We might mention for the ladies that Don Novis is a singing gondolier, which lets you in on the Venice locale.

Let's see—it's Lily who leads Charley astray—or is it Roland—she leads someone away, as well she might. You can see that it is band-wife-friend—menace pictures—You'll laugh.

Oregon Students Invited To Attend Northwest Meet

International Conference To Be at Seattle From November 25 to 27

The fifth annual session of the Northwest Students' International conference will be held at the University of Washington, Seattle, from November 25 to 27, according to a letter received by Dr. John R. Mez, former professor of economics here.

The executive committee of the conference has invited the members of International Relation clubs, and of the International Relation departments of the local Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. to attend the conference. About 15 representatives from the University are requested to attend the meeting.

The purpose of the conference is to increase the interest and study of international questions, especially those which arise out of conditions in the Pacific area. Problems to be discussed at the meeting will deal particularly with the Far East and the Lausanne conference.

Visiting delegates will be housed in fraternities, sororities, and other organized houses, free of charge. Meals will cost approximately $1 a day.

Only Two Students Are Confined in Infirmary

Kenneth West and Robert P. Gantenbein are the only students enjoying the hospitality of the infirmary this week. They are expected to be in good shape by Saturday and will join the mass of rosters at the Oregon-Corvallis game.

Cross-Blending

WHAT IS IT..and how does it improve cigarette taste?

YOU'VE heard how fruit of one variety has been crossed with fruit of another to produce a new and more pleasing flavor. The loganberry, for example, is a cross between the raspberry and the blackberry.

Chesterfield's Cross-Blend gets the same result—better taste—by a different method.

It welds together the different kinds of several varieties of tobacco. Many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco, and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco are all merged into one—Chesterfield tobacco.

This welding or Cross-Blending goes beyond ordinary blending or mixing tobaccos together. It actually makes every kind of tobacco in Chesterfield partake of the qualities of every other type.

It's the Cross-Blending of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos that gives Chesterfields a distinctive, better taste.

They are milder. They have a flavor and aroma which, we believe, you will like.
