

State Officials Praise Oregon Students' Zeal

Interest in Educational Problems Lauded

PETITIONS OFFERED

New University Infirmaries Funds Will Be Available After Biennium of 1933-34

By STEPHEN B. KAHN STATE HOUSE, Salem, Ore., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Enthusiastic commendation of the students of the University of Oregon for their initiative in bringing their views to the attention of the legislature was voiced by a half score of prominent state officials this afternoon.

Conklin To Give Love, Marriage Lecture Monday

Second of Series To Be at Villard On Subject of Psychological Aspects of Courtship Dr. Edmund S. Conklin, head of the University psychology department, will deliver the second lecture in the love and marriage series of speeches Monday evening, February 6, in the Villard assembly hall.

Dr. Conklin will deal with the many problems confronting couples before marriage, problems such as finance, attractive personalities, mating, selection, and the relationship between the engaged.

Meier Expresses Appreciation

At a conference with Governor Meier this morning, the chief executive of the state expressed his appreciation of the students' interest in their own problems and commended their loyalty to the faculty body.

English Assistant Gets Portland School Place

Miss Florence Thompson, graduate assistant in English at the University of Oregon, left Wednesday for Portland, where she will take over a part-time position in the English department of St. Helen's hall.

Frosh Will Stage Dancing Tonight

Freshmen and other students who do not intend to go to the Senior ball will have an opportunity to dance tonight at the frosh get-together affair at the Campa Shoppe at 9 p. m.

Campbell Reedy Will Discuss Tax Problems

Rolla Reedy, senior in education, and Wallace Campbell, graduate assistant in the social science department, will speak on "Is There a Solution to Oregon's Tax Dilemma?" on the "Road Ahead" program over radio station KORE, Sunday at 2:30.

Master's Degree Desired

A. C. Stambrough, who is now on the faculty of Monmouth normal school, filed his abstract and thesis for his master's degree with the University of Oregon graduate school office, Clara L. Fitch, school secretary, said yesterday.

Possibilities of Pacific Strife Shown by Warren D. Smith

The stage is set for a war in the Pacific which may assume world-wide dimensions, is the opinion of Dr. Warren D. Smith, head of the geography department.

Future Lawyers Shown Necessity Of Wide Learning

Broad study in pre-law subjects and liberal knowledge of fields of endeavor other than law were stressed as advantages to the student planning to enter the legal profession by Earl Immel, prominent Eugene attorney and ex-president of the Oregon State Bar association, who spoke recently before approximately 100 underclass students in pre-law work here recently.

Plan Proposed For Change Of Election Time

ASUO and Class Voting Would Be Same Day HALL IS FAVORABLE Date Would Be Advanced From First Thursday in May to Second One in April

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Patrons and Patronesses To Be Honored at Reception Dinner To Be Held

Graduation will seem one step nearer tonight to members of the senior class as they gather for the Senior ball at Gerlinger hall at 9 p. m.

Music Programs To Be Presented Twice Next Week

Two musicales will be given by the University music department next week. Betty Evanson, pianist, and Catherine Firebaugh, contralto, will give a joint recital Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the music building auditorium.

University Depot Has Lost Articles

The collection of odds and ends found on the campus is steadily growing at the University depot. Among other things there are quite a number of books with the student's name in them.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

Plan Proposed For Change Of Election Time

ASUO and Class Voting Would Be Same Day HALL IS FAVORABLE Date Would Be Advanced From First Thursday in May to Second One in April

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Patrons and Patronesses To Be Honored at Reception Dinner To Be Held

Graduation will seem one step nearer tonight to members of the senior class as they gather for the Senior ball at Gerlinger hall at 9 p. m.

Music Programs To Be Presented Twice Next Week

Two musicales will be given by the University music department next week. Betty Evanson, pianist, and Catherine Firebaugh, contralto, will give a joint recital Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the music building auditorium.

University Depot Has Lost Articles

The collection of odds and ends found on the campus is steadily growing at the University depot. Among other things there are quite a number of books with the student's name in them.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

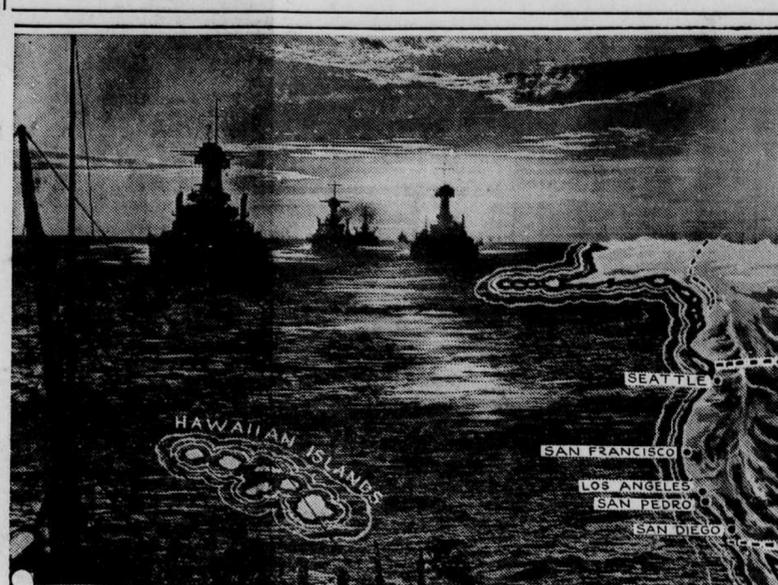

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Navy Bulldogs Stage Mock Battle

The nation's mightiest warships are being prepared for a mock "attack" on the Pacific coast starting on the 6th. No shots will be fired except on paper, and a record will be kept of all the maneuvers between the Hawaiian islands and the Pacific coast.

Oregon Seniors To Hold Annual Formal Tonight

Patrons and Patronesses To Be Honored at Reception Dinner To Be Held Graduation will seem one step nearer tonight to members of the senior class as they gather for the Senior ball at Gerlinger hall at 9 p. m.

Music Programs To Be Presented Twice Next Week

Two musicales will be given by the University music department next week. Betty Evanson, pianist, and Catherine Firebaugh, contralto, will give a joint recital Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the music building auditorium.

University Depot Has Lost Articles

The collection of odds and ends found on the campus is steadily growing at the University depot. Among other things there are quite a number of books with the student's name in them.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

Role of Minister Assumed by Prof In Marital Event

Dan Cupid began his tricks with his bow and arrow on the first "honest-to-goodness" sunny day Oregon has seen for more than a month.

Tuesday Will See First of Fireside Forums in Series

The annual fireside forums, sponsored by the campus Y. M. C. A., will begin Tuesday, February 9, and continue each Tuesday through the month.

Campus YM's Annual Discussion Groups at Fraternities Slated to Start

The plan, in which all the fraternities and living organizations may participate, is based on the discussion of varied topics around the intimate atmosphere of a fireside.

Depression Will Feature on New Shelf at Library

The preponderance of the circulation of these depression books over all other types is shown in a comparison of the grand total for the seven-day shelf for this school year which is approximately 628, which leaves the favored books a one-third rating against the combined fields of fiction, poetry, philosophy, travel, biography, and the many by-lines of these types.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Oregon Turns On Multnomah For 47-29 Win

Webfooters Amass Big Margin at Quarter

Bill Reinhart uses reserves for greater part of game; No Tilt With Ollers ROBERTSON SHINES

By BRUCE HAMBY

PORTLAND, Feb. 3.—(Special to Oregon Daily Emerald)—Oregon finally broke into the win column tonight at the expense of the Multnomah Athletic club five. The game, featured by rough playing, ended 47 to 29 in favor of the University team.

Tuesday Will See First of Fireside Forums in Series

The annual fireside forums, sponsored by the campus Y. M. C. A., will begin Tuesday, February 9, and continue each Tuesday through the month.

Campus YM's Annual Discussion Groups at Fraternities Slated to Start

The plan, in which all the fraternities and living organizations may participate, is based on the discussion of varied topics around the intimate atmosphere of a fireside.

Depression Will Feature on New Shelf at Library

The preponderance of the circulation of these depression books over all other types is shown in a comparison of the grand total for the seven-day shelf for this school year which is approximately 628, which leaves the favored books a one-third rating against the combined fields of fiction, poetry, philosophy, travel, biography, and the many by-lines of these types.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Oregon Turns On Multnomah For 47-29 Win

Webfooters Amass Big Margin at Quarter

Bill Reinhart uses reserves for greater part of game; No Tilt With Ollers ROBERTSON SHINES

By BRUCE HAMBY

PORTLAND, Feb. 3.—(Special to Oregon Daily Emerald)—Oregon finally broke into the win column tonight at the expense of the Multnomah Athletic club five. The game, featured by rough playing, ended 47 to 29 in favor of the University team.

Tuesday Will See First of Fireside Forums in Series

The annual fireside forums, sponsored by the campus Y. M. C. A., will begin Tuesday, February 9, and continue each Tuesday through the month.

Campus YM's Annual Discussion Groups at Fraternities Slated to Start

The plan, in which all the fraternities and living organizations may participate, is based on the discussion of varied topics around the intimate atmosphere of a fireside.

Depression Will Feature on New Shelf at Library

The preponderance of the circulation of these depression books over all other types is shown in a comparison of the grand total for the seven-day shelf for this school year which is approximately 628, which leaves the favored books a one-third rating against the combined fields of fiction, poetry, philosophy, travel, biography, and the many by-lines of these types.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

Oregon Turns On Multnomah For 47-29 Win

Webfooters Amass Big Margin at Quarter

Bill Reinhart uses reserves for greater part of game; No Tilt With Ollers ROBERTSON SHINES

By BRUCE HAMBY

PORTLAND, Feb. 3.—(Special to Oregon Daily Emerald)—Oregon finally broke into the win column tonight at the expense of the Multnomah Athletic club five. The game, featured by rough playing, ended 47 to 29 in favor of the University team.

Tuesday Will See First of Fireside Forums in Series

The annual fireside forums, sponsored by the campus Y. M. C. A., will begin Tuesday, February 9, and continue each Tuesday through the month.

Campus YM's Annual Discussion Groups at Fraternities Slated to Start

The plan, in which all the fraternities and living organizations may participate, is based on the discussion of varied topics around the intimate atmosphere of a fireside.

Depression Will Feature on New Shelf at Library

The preponderance of the circulation of these depression books over all other types is shown in a comparison of the grand total for the seven-day shelf for this school year which is approximately 628, which leaves the favored books a one-third rating against the combined fields of fiction, poetry, philosophy, travel, biography, and the many by-lines of these types.

Two Oregon Students Get Article Published

Raymond Adams and Robert Walker, students of psychology here, have recently had their article on "Motor Skills: The Validity of Serial Motor Tests for Predicting Typewriter Proficiency" accepted for publication in the Journal of General Psychology.

Eight Students Added To Advertising Corps

Eight positions have been filled on the Emerald advertising staff. It was announced yesterday by Mahr Reymers, manager.

Journalism Graduate Has New Mexico Job

Word has been received by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, from Willetta Hartley, journalism major who graduated last year, that she has a position writing a shopper's column on an Albuquerque, New Mexico, newspaper.

Payment of Last Fee Installment Due Noon Today

THE SECOND installment on the registration fee and non-resident fees will be due today. The office of E. P. Lyon, cashier, will be open until noon.

By ED STANLEY

A proposal to advance the date of student body elections from the first Thursday in May to the second Thursday in April was made last night by officials of the A. S. U. O. Nominations would be advanced to the first Thursday in April.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Elizabeth Scrogg's frosh discussion group meets at Y. W. bungalow, 1 o'clock Monday. Group on religion will meet at Y. W. bungalow Monday night with Professor Dunn at 9. Y. W. cabinet meets Monday night, 7:45, at the bungalow. Housemothers will meet in room 4, Johnson hall, Monday at 3 p. m. The Nature girls of Philomela will meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 for breakfast. Come to Susan Campbell hall instead of the Y. W. C. A. bungalow. Benito Padilla will lead the Wesley club discussion Sunday night in an endeavor to answer the question, "Why Should I Have a Personal Religion?" The meeting will follow the social half-hour which begins at 6:00 p. m. Dr. E. S. Conklin, head of the psychology department at the University, will conduct a round

Oregana Offers Chance for New House Pictures

Any living organization wishing to have a new picture of its house in the Oregana may do so by bringing it to the Oregana office in McArthur court, it was announced by Virginia Wentz, editor. The charge will be $5, Miss Wentz stated. Five houses have already turned in their new pictures.

Women Students Lead Men As Patrons of Book Balcony

The men on the campus read more non-fiction, adventure, travel, and humor books, declared Miss Nancy Roberts, manager of the book shop. They also seem to have an aversion for women authors and read books more readily if they are written by masculine writers. There are exceptions, of course, and some of the future lawyers, educators, captains of industry, bond and Fuller brush salesmen devour works of Edna Ferber, Willa Cather, Vicki Baum, Edna St. Vincent Millay, and Fannie Hurst. Both co-eds and men students, however, make few purchases of books this year, according to Miss Roberts.

Referee: Peck.

Table with columns for FG, FT, PF, and scores for various players like Robertson, Stevens, Roberts, etc.