three straight. They see a chance to get up in the more rarified regions of the northern division standings and when a team gets such lofty ideas it becomes that much harder to stop. The Vandals have a veteran combination, headed by two dead-eyed forwards, Afton Barret and Pete Wicks, and the exceedingly tall Howard Grenier, center. Barrett and Wicks were the two lads who wrecked the Webfoots twice on their recent road trip and will bear watching tonight and tomorrow night at McArthur court.

Here is one of the merriest little triangles the boxing game has produced in years and years. Primo Carnera, Italian mountain, and Ernie Schaaf are due to square off tonight at Madison Square Garden in the week's outstanding bout on the fistic card. Sharkey, "the champ," is scheduled to take on the winner next summer. It's all made very complicated by the fact that Sharkey is part owner of Ernie; and the Garden might have a hard time arranging matters if the "copper" wins tonight.

Dame rumor has it that Paul Schissler, resigned head football oach of Oregon State college, may accept a position manager of the Boston Braves, professional football team. Schissler is expected to accept the berth, which is open, if he fails to connect with another college.

Paul Schissler P. J. has been visiting in the south since his departure from Corvallis. His duties at the Beaver school were taken up by Carl Lodell, recently appointed athletic director.
