Nobody's Business

By HAZLE CORRIGAN
YES, Mr. Hamby, we agree with you. The "no pigging" rule has got to go. It is just a hangover from the days when college and sports were primarily for men. One thing we might suggest is that our well-known sports authority set the pace by escorting a fair co-ed to today's game. It isn't too much to ask him to practice what he preaches.

Bruce Hamby ...There are a large number of women on this campus who like baseball. A number of the women's houses have already come out with the promise that they will support varsity baseball this year more than ever before. But get this: a male escort with a knowledge of the game—or without, for that matter—is an incentive to any co-ed to attend.

Without any mallee to Skull and Daggers, we might suggest that their show last year was rather infantile. It is really hard to say how many people went to the games to witness the paddling of piggers. Most of the victims stood it with a smile. However that may be, it caused a bit of embarrassment for the companions who were the cause of it all. Well, if they like that kind of show, they should be able to find some place other than the baseball field for it. Is it any wonder that the women don't turn out?

Why can't we have some inter-house mixed doubles competition in tennis this spring? Your writer got the response, "I think it's a splendid idea" from Margaret Duncan, instructor in women's physical education, when she suggested mixed doubles. Miss Thompson, professor of women's P. E., keyed the idea.

Stevie Smith, tennis coach, is all for it. And why not? Is there any reason why a pairing of men's and women's houses for tennis cannot be the means of arousing a lot of interest in tennis, especially for women?

Just to show that he is behind the suggestion, Coach Smith proposes to get up a mixed doubles team for exhibition and he promises it for Monday. That will be worth watching. Tentatively, the program would list Sally Cannon, Sally Reed, Bob Johnson, and Joe Kalisky. The two leading women tennis players should give the varsity tennis men some competition.

Reports float around that Johnny Londahl's frosh aren't so bad. In fact, there are those who say that it is going to be a fine ball club. After yesterday's encounter, Londahl has begun to wonder. Well, they have a chance today to show some ball-playing. Here's best wishes, Johnny.

Well, the women have done it. I think the prize should go to Roberta Moody, who endured the stares of male track fans for the sake of the dear old Emerald. And who says she didn't do a good job.

Trial Meet Shows Track Chances Good

Coach Hayward Tries Team In Friday Exhibit

Starr, Holman, Mears Make Good Show; Chances Against O.S.C. Promising

(Editor's note: This is the fifth of a series of articles on Oregon's prospects on the track and field this spring.)

By ROBERTA MOODY
 Oregon spikesters turned in an exceptionally good performance in the trial meet held Friday afternoon. Colonel Bill Hayward believes Oregon's chances with the Orange trackmen are good, with such men as Paul Starr, Art Holman, and Dick Mears coming through their paces with flying colors.

The spring medley relay and distance medley relay appeared to be two of the best events according to the Webfoot mentor. Mason McCoy, Bill Palmer, Art Dudley, and Fred Nowland form the shuttle combination which is one of the brighter spots on the Oregon team. In the exhibition relay the quartet came through in 1:26.

In the 100-yard dash, Paul Starr, veteran runner, ambled down the lane in 10.2 seconds, followed in order named by Ralph Schomp, Wayne Jamison, and Art Holman.

The frosh put in a good appearance in the 100-yard dash. Walter Hopson pulled through in 10.2 seconds with Howard Patterson following second, Dick Mears third, and Charles Rickabaugh fourth.

Sherwood Burr placed first in the 440-yard dash, making it in 52.2 seconds. Bill Bowerman came in second, Bull Wright third, and Tallant Greenough fourth. Bowerman is looking much better this week than last, and with a little more practice will show up well against the Beavers next week.

Bob Ludington broke away nicely in the three-quarter mile, keeping up a steady hard pace, placing first in 3:29.6. George Butler coming in second.

Bob Hunter, star miler, came through in 1:59.4, making first in the half mile event, Bill Paddock, outstanding freshman miler, came in second, followed by George Scharpf.

In the varsity 220, Paul Starr placed first in 28.8 seconds, Art Holman second, and Ralph Schomp third.

Hopson made the frosh 220-yard dash in 23.4 seconds, Howard Patterson following second, and Charles Rickabaugh third. In the 440-yard dash, Bob Thomas pounded through in 56.4 seconds. Lloyd Humphreys turning in second, and Bruce Ewen third place.

According to Coach Hayward, Bill Paddock and Bob Ludington are two of the most outstanding freshman runners, and will make excellent material for next year.

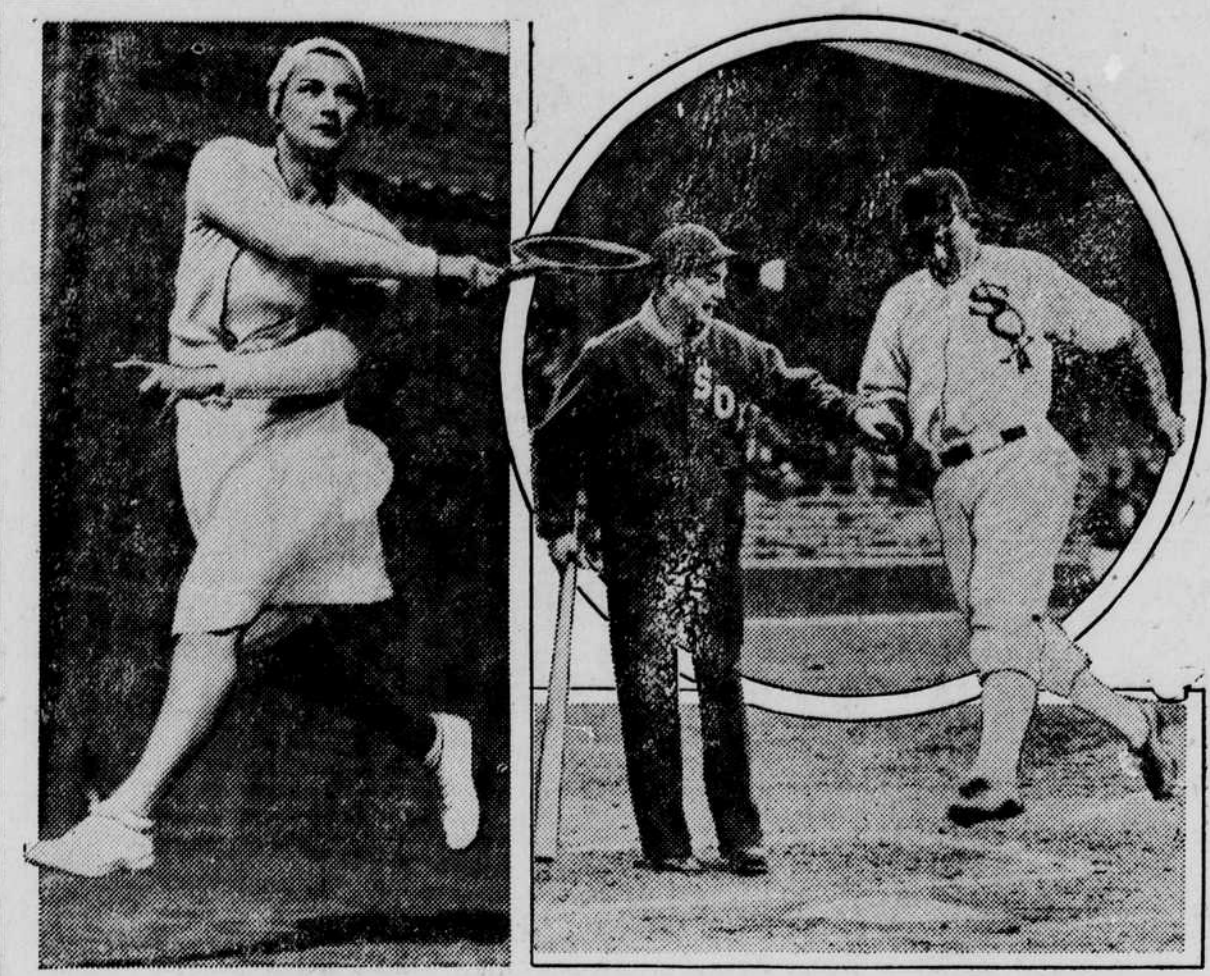

Interest In Hoop Game On Upswing

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 20.—Every section of the country reported increased interest and better attendance during the last basketball season, according to J. Fred Bohler, Cougar athletic director, after his return from a meeting of the national basketball rules committee at New York. Bohler is the Pacific Coast representative on the national committee.

It was the opinion of the committee that basketball is quite satisfactory as it is and that it should be left so without constant tampering until it has been definitely tried, according to Bohler. Only minor changes were made, the most important of which was the double substitution rule permitting a player to reenter the game a second time.

Donut Golf Battle Is Won by Betas With Score of 11-2

Chi Psi Lodge Defeated in Finals; Semi-Finals of Soft Ball Scheduled Next Week

Beta Theta Pi clinched the intramural golf tournament championship Friday afternoon, winning from the Chi Psi's with a score of 10-2. Dick Near, playing for the Beta's, had a 72 to win three points from Ed Labbe. Bob Near, with four birdies on the second nine, took three points from Stan Haberlach. Wilson Johnson split his match with Jimmy Wells, and Louis Fox won 2½ points from Will Jewett.

The Phi Delt team which trounced the Yeomen 11 to 1, is winner of its group, and will meet the Beta's in a championship match soon.

Semi-finalists in the soft ball tourney include Sigma Chi against Phi Delta Theta, and Phi Gamma Delta against Omega hall. Both games are scheduled tentatively for next Tuesday. Bob Johnson and Jake Stahl have been showing well for the Fiji aggregation. Ed Wheelock, pitching for the other team, and Art Clarkson are outstanding among the Hall players.

Eddie Vail will probably be pitching for the Sigma Chi's, and Goulet, who has been catching for that team, may start at his usual position. Ferd Fletcher and Phil Hammond form the Phi Delt battery.

Co-op Book Contest Is Open Nine More Days

Only 21 entries have been received at the Co-op on the Modern Library contest.

Only nine days remain till the contest is over.

Only six women have entered guesses!

This is the state of affairs on our fair campus when students are given the opportunity of winning 10 fine, trim, volumes of the Modern Library series—and just for a few moments thought and some jig-saw-like guessing.

The contest is open to anyone visiting the book balcony at the Co-op and requesting an entry blank. The idea is to guess the 10 best sellers during the month of April and to do so by the thirtieth of the month.

Who is going to start that library with 10 fine books absolutely free?

Who's Who in Webfoot Athletics

Dorothy MacLean, senior in physical education, is considered one of the most outstanding girls in women's athletics on the campus.

Dorothy was a delegate to the A. C. A. C. W. convention in Los Angeles last year, and is the past president of W. A. A. While an officer of this organization she inaugurated the idea of giving cups for intramural and interhouse swimming, and basketball champions.

men may wear either tuxes or white flannels and dark coats. Women will wear formal gowns.

The entire first floor of the Eugene hotel will be used for the dance. Sherwood Burr's orchestra has been engaged for the event. In order that the music will be easily heard in every corner of the floor, an amplifier will be placed in the lobby.

Very dignified, formal, but original programs are promised the guests by Louise Webber, in charge of the programs. They are done in black and white, having a mortar board motif.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance include Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mrs. Alice E. Macduff, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Payne, Dr. Clara M. Smertenko, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norton, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Racket Wielders Warming Up for Tilt With Albany

Smith Putting Team Thru Ropes For Match April 29; Kalisky, Bob Johnson Back

In preparation for a tennis game scheduled on April 29 with Albany college, Professor S. Stephenson Smith has been putting his players through the ropes.

Bob Johnson, northwest doubles champion, Joe Kalisky, two-year man on the University team, Fred Mountain, Harlan Thompson, George Economus, and Fred Fisher, well-known Beaver player last year, seem to be showing up nicely in their last workout.

Freshman turnouts were fair. Peter Buck, coming through with a nice bit of action partly due to his experience on the University high team the past year. Charles LaBarre and Chet Beede also have shown some good stuff which will be of great value in future meets.

An exhibition match is to be played April 23 and 24 on the courts near the library by the Portland pro, Kirt Berndt, who was ranked three years ago as the best coast amateur. Any student interested in individual expert instruction may obtain it by appointment with Syd Claypoole at the Oregon Pharmacy.

"It is hoped that, if the University of Washington and Oregon State college have teams, that we may schedule games with them," stated Professor Smith. "I want it understood that competition in tennis is purely a voluntary measure. Means for providing intercollegiate matches was done away with two years ago."

Freshmen Take Game by Streak Of Good Luck

Beneficent fortune put Johnny Londahl's frosh on the upper half of a 2 to 1 score yesterday afternoon when the frosh beat Eugene high in a very poorly played game.

Eddie Vail showed style for the frosh, scoring the second run for the frosh in the second inning. The first man up, he singled and finally came in on an error. Fred Lieuallyn scored the first run in the first inning. He made first on an error and was driven in by Hanley. Lieuallyn was taken out early in the game with a bruised heel.

The Eugene high team scored its only run as a homer by Wright. Wiltshire fanned nine men in six innings; Toltonski, pitching for the freshmen, struck out eight in seven innings.

Bishop for the Eugene high aggregation and Butler for the frosh completed the batteries. Final reports list three hits for the frosh, no errors; nine hits, six errors for the Eugenians.

Frosh Football Flashes Announced by Coach

The difficult part of spring football practice is over, according to Coach Callison. There have been on an average of 25 men out for scrimmage practice the last few weeks.

Some of the most outstanding freshman prospects for next year are "Stew" Milligan, Hugh McCredie, Dick Bennison, "Whit" Arey, Fred Mountain, and Bill Lundin. Several others are also included in this group.

There will be light workouts three times a week for the rest of the term. This will include several varsity men excused from scrimmage practices.

Musicians Praised

Music critics were high in their praise of the concert presented last night at Portland by the Eugene Gleemen. Soloists featured on the program were Edwin Beach, tenor; Don Eva, tenor; John Radmore, baritone; and Howard Halbert, violinist. Miss Cora Moore was accompanist. Entire proceeds were turned over to the Shrine hospital.

Track Athletes Move Outdoors

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 20.—Following an extended training session in the field house, Washington State track and field athletes have moved outdoors to continue their work on Rogers field. A substantial basis for the season's competition was developed during the conditioning work inside.

Coach Karl Schlademant will have a balanced team this year with at least two capable performers in each event. The Cougars should be strong in every event except the sprints, broad jump, and two-mile. If Paul Swift's legs hold up, the college will hold its own in the sprints.

From last year's northern division championship team, five lettermen are missing but the loss is more than made up by the addition of sophomore talent. George Theodoratos and Hal Dunker, weight men; Dick Nichols, quarter-miler; Kenneth Leendertsen, half-miler; Ray Herron, pole vaulter; and Art Driver, sprinter and broad jumper, form a strong addition to the varsity lineup.

Varsity Men Win Against "Stars" --- 6-4

Shaneman Thrills Crowd With Three Bagger

Town Retires Varsity Sluggers On Seven Pitched Balls; Second Game Today

Duke Shaneman, baseball captain, provided the thrill of the varsity baseball game against Stevens' "All Stars" yesterday afternoon, when he tripled on one of Courtney own's balls and nearly failed to make third base, the whole affair ending with a 6 to 4 score in favor of the varsity.

He was between second and third, he seemed to give out, but reached the bag just in time. Duke led the varsity in a fast practice game, which showed them up as a coming combination.

Though wild at times, both teams on the whole looked pretty good. Courtney Town, pitcher for Stevens' outfit, was a bit ragged sometimes; however, his performance was probably all that could be expected this early in the season.

Town's feat was retiring the varsity sluggers with only seven pitched balls. Freddie Sears connected with the ball several times without being able to score a run. The varsity came through with one double play. Batteries were Inman and Shaneman, varsity; Town and Goulet, "All Stars."

The same teams will mingle this afternoon at 1:30 in what should be a classy baseball game. Both teams will be using several of their good players who did not see action yesterday.

Possible line-up for the "All Stars" will include Don Weed, pitcher; Stenchoel, catcher; Milligan, first base; Wirth, second; Stevens, short; Londahl, third; and Fowler, center field. Just who would go out for the Varsity has not been decided.
