University Law Students Make Good Showing

17 of 18 Graduates Pass Bar Exams

RECORD 94 PER CENT

Fifty-two Admitted to Oregon Bar Of 92 Taking Tests; Local Marks Outstanding

Results of the Oregon state bar examinations given last July show that 17 University of Oregon law school graduates passed out of the 18 who took the examinations. This is an average of 94 per cent, which compares with 47 per cent gained by the rest of the candidates. Fifty-two in all successfully passed of the 92 writing.

Admission of the following Oregon students to the state bar has been authorized by the supreme court. Clerk Arthur Benson announced:

Urin Page Jr., Salem; Otto J. Froehmayer, Eugene; Kenneth Proctor, Eugene; George L. Anderson, La Grande; Thomas W. Chatburn, Sixes; R. R. Hammond, Medford; Edwin Loyal Graham, Forest Grove; George H. Layman, Newberg; W. Vawter Parker, Heppner; Otto Marion Bowman, Francis E. Cheney, Preston W. Gunther, Francis F. Hill, Harold J. Kinzell, Robert A. Leedy, Donald K. Moe, and John Yerkovich, all of Portland.

Two students who did not obtain the C grade necessary for their graduation but passed their bar examinations were Philip K. Hammond, Gladstone, and Boyd Overhulse of Eugene. One Oregon graduate, Horace Geer, successfully wrote the Washington state bar examinations.

Last year one man failed out of 29 writing, and the year before the school was 100 per cent successful. The Oregon record for the last 10 years is approximately 93 per cent of passing graduates.

Music Students to Hold Recitals; Dates Not Set

In a few weeks the student recitals will begin again. Although the date is uncertain, George Evans will present a series of organ concerts sometime this term. In honor of Dad's day the University band will give its first concert October 22.

As soon as they have had sufficient time for preparation, the University Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Rex Underwood, will give its first concert of the term.

Will Attend Executive Forensic Group Meet

Professor W. A. Dahlberg, Prof. John L. Castel, University debate coaches, and William O. Hall, of the debate squad, will attend the executive meeting of the forensic association of Oregon to be held at Willamette university Saturday, October 14.

The meeting is being held for the purpose of choosing subjects for the after-dinner and extempore speaking contests which will be sponsored by the state association this year.

All-American Girl Will Be Chosen by New York Group

University Magazine Will Select Fairest Oregon Co-ed From Five Contestants

Photographs of the five finalists in the University magazine all-American girl contest sponsored by the Order of the O are being taken now. As soon as completed these pictures will be rushed by air mail to University magazine in New York. They will be judged and the winner picked there by a committee composed of prominent New York journalists and artists. These five qualifying girls selected Saturday night at the Varsity O ball at the igloo under the watchful eyes of some 600 spectators are: Betty Graham, Peggy Carper, Marytine New, Miriam Henderson, and Margaret DeYoung.

As soon as this judging committee in the East makes its decision as to who the all-American girl of Oregon is, she will be presented with the loving cup given by Skele's jewelry store. Plans are now under way to make this presentation a formal affair.

The five winners were picked from the group of 18 girls during the dance by the judging committee. As the orchestra played "All-American Girl," these 18 nominees walked down the stairs and across the hall to the judging stand. Each was greeted with an outburst of applause as she made her appearance in the spotlight and started her march across the hall.

Pictures of the remaining 13 girls have also been taken and will be considered by the eastern judges for second, third and fourth places, but the winner is to be picked from the first five selected by the local group. The list of these 13 girls who were in the original group of 18 picked by the secret nominating committee includes: Marion Bass, Ruth Byrly, Dorothy Ann Clark, Elizabeth Crommelin, Edith Crohnman, Bettie Curtis, Helen Doyle, Charlotte Elbridge, Francis Fernley, Margaret Ann Howland, Helen Kalenback.

Fire engines were present at the Union station in Portland yesterday morning to greet 85 Seattle business men arriving in a "blaze" of glory to perform the annual challenge day ceremonies preceding the Oregon-Washington game in Seattle October 14.

After an impromptu welcome at the station they were taken aboard their impressive transports to the Multnomah hotel where the Portland Breakfast club entertained them at breakfast, where 30 pieces of the Oregon band and Mickey Vail kept the gathering in good spirits and enthusiastic over the coming game. "Mickey made that crowd of business men yell like a bunch of college boys," remarked Tom Tongue, student body president. The band also aided the advertising campaign for the game by playing over KGW and KEX.

The group was entertained at luncheon by the chamber of commerce at the Portland hotel.

Challenge day was originated four years ago by Aaron Frank and has been continued each year by a group from the city which had the game. Last year Hugh E. Rossen, graduate manager, and several Portland business men went to Seattle by airplane for the ceremony and this year Seattle countered by sending a record delegation of 85. Much of Seattle's enthusiasm may be attributed to the fact that for the last five years Washington has not scored on Oregon and Seattle is beginning to look for a new deal.

Oregon has won four of the last five contests, the one last year being a scoreless tie.

Second Installment of Registration Fees Are To Be Paid October 21

E. P. Lyon, cashier, announced that the second installment of registration fees is due by October 21.

Non-resident student's fees are also due by October 21. These should be paid as soon as possible to avoid confusion.

Freshmen to Vote For Class Officers At Hut Tomorrow

Bush Warns Against Attempts At Solicitation or Stuffing Of Ballot Boxes

The election for officers of the class of '37 will take place tomorrow between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the Y. M. C. A. hut located between Twelfth and Thirteenth avenues on Kincaid street.

In regard to the laws governing the voting, the following excerpt is taken from the by-laws of the constitution of the A. S. U. O.:

"There shall be no electioneering or soliciting for votes permitted within the limits established around the polls by the inspectors. Any infringement of this section shall be reported to the executive council by the officer in charge of elections for appropriate action and he shall himself take such as the emergency demands."

Neal Bush, vice-president of the A. S. U. O., in charge of elections, added that if anyone is caught trying to stuff the ballot box, the commissioners in charge of the boxes shall declare the candidate for whom the illegal votes were being cast, automatically eliminated.

A special price also has been arranged for students who wish to stay overnight in Portland. This will be $6.75, and the train

Special Rates for Students Going to Seattle for Game

Round Trip Tickets to be $5.50; Train to Leave Eugene Friday Afternoon

Special round-trip tickets for the Oregon-Washington football game at Seattle next Saturday will be sold at the low price of $5.50 to students and Eugene townspeople, it was announced yesterday by Tom Stoddard, assistant graduate manager of the Associated Students, and officials of the Southern Pacific railway. This rate is good for only coach fares, and no sleepers can be sold under it.

Ticket holders must leave Friday at 5:25 p.m. and go straight through to Seattle. The train will reach Portland at 9:20, stop over for two hours, and arrive in Seattle at 6:45 Saturday morning.

Those who desire sleepers may buy tickets selling for $6.50 and pay in addition at the rate of $1.50 for upper berths and $1.88 for lower each way.

A special price also has been arranged for students who wish to stay overnight in Portland. This will be $6.75, and the train will leave Saturday morning at 5:45.

These transportation specials are the lowest ever offered to Oregon students, reports Stoddard.

Student tickets for the Oregon-Washington football game are now on sale at the Co-op and the A. S. U. O. offices in McArthur court. Those holding student body cards may obtain tickets for $1. Good reserved seats are still obtainable for $2.20, and general admission tickets, sold only on the Seattle field, will cost $1.10.

All tickets must be purchased on the campus before Thursday noon, when remaining tickets will be forwarded to Seattle, Stoddard said yesterday.

Debate Aspirants Will Meet at 7:30 Tomorrow Night

Varsity Debate Tryouts to Be Held In Room 13 Friendly Hall; Short Talk Required

"I wish to again call to the attention of all men interested in debate activity the fact that men's varsity debate tryouts will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 in room 13 of Friendly hall," stated W. A. Dahlberg, men's debate coach, yesterday.

It is also important," Dahlberg continued, "that all men who are interested should confer with me in room 13 of Friendly hall some time before the tryouts." Freshmen and sophomores are especially invited.

Dahlberg further stated that all candidates at Thursday night's tryouts will be required to give a five-minute talk on some subject of current interest.

"I should like all men interested in debate to understand that the symposium system that we are using this year is not or was never intended to be similar to the competitive type of debate with which most people are familiar. On the other hand, it is far more scientific in its approach to the solution of problems," emphasized Dahlberg in his concluding statement.

The operetta is sponsored by Westminster association. Mrs. J. D. Bryant, hostess for Westminster house, will act as stage manager for the production. Julius Kusel is business manager and Hazel Corrigan publicity manager.

Tryouts Planned For Comic Opera

Students interested in trying out for parts in the comic operetta, "The Sudsy Prima Donna," which will be given under the direction of Vic Bryant, senior in music, late in the term, are asked to be present at the first rehearsal Wednesday at 5 at Westminster house.

A few parts have not been filled definitely and a number of places still remain in the chorus.

Vic Bryant and Frances Burnett will play the leads. Others who will play important parts are: Lindy Hango, Oren Freerksen, Pauline George, Earl Thompson, John Caswell, Helen Doyle, Julius Kuse, and Jack Spittle.

Advertising Honorary Dinner Set for Tonight

Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising honorary, will hold its annual fall term banquet this evening at 6:30 in McCrady's cafe.

Dean Val Hoyt of the business administration school will be the main speaker of the evening. Mahr Reymers, ex-president of the organization will give his impressions of the advertising conclave held in Sacramento this summer.

Five new pledges will be introduced.

Manager to Be Selected

Mary Jane Jenkins has been nominated for the position of women's debate manager, according to an announcement made yesterday by Professor John L. Castel, women's debate coach. It is expected that her appointment to the position will be made at the next meeting of the forensic council.

Second Installment of Registration Fees Are To Be Paid October 21

E. P. Lyon, cashier, announced that the second installment of registration fees is due by October 21.

The psychological make-up examination for freshmen and transfer students is scheduled for 4 o'clock this afternoon in Villard assembly.

Many Work on Emerald Staff For Fall Term

More Than 100 Students On Campus Daily

LIST IS PERMANENT

Changes to be Made if Necessary; Majority of Collaborators Are Newcomers

The annual fall term scramble for positions on the news staff of the Oregon-Daily Emerald, campus newspaper, has come to a temporary halt with the final selection yesterday of Emerald's news workers by Sterling Green, editor, and Joseph Saslavsky, managing editors. Changes, however, will be made from time to time as necessity for them arises.

More than 100 students are laboring in the publication of the campus daily. The majority of them are newcomers to the staff, the others having been selected last term, shortly before the end of the school year.

Upper Staff Named

Doug Polivka is associate editor of the Emerald. The other members of the editorial board are Julian Prescott, Guy Shadwick, Parks Hitchcock, Francis Pallister, and Stanley Rose.

Forty Outstanding American Books Listed at Library

Economic, Social Problems Take Lead With Ten Books; Biographies Next

Posted on the circulation desk in the library is a list of 40 notable American books for 1932. The list was compiled by the American Library Association from the choices of noted librarians and other authorities all over the country.

The largest group of notable books is that on economic and social problems, which is com-of 10 titles. Next come books of biography, of which there are nine listed. Fiction is one of the small groups, having only three titles included. In all, there are nine subjects on which the 40 notable books are written.

According to Miss Bernice Risse, circulation librarian, the tendency of public attention to focus on economic and social questions is well demonstrated by the fact that books on those subjects are conspicuous on the approved list, and by the fact that the total circulation in this type of books was greater last year than that of any other group of books.

The winning letter will be printed in the critical section of "Short Story Hits—1932," and Harcourt, Brace & Company, publishers, are offering $200 in prizes for the best informal undergraduate criticism of current American magazine fiction.

The winning letter will be printed in the critical section of "Short Story Hits—1932." Any undergraduate student in any American college or university may enter the contest November 1, 1933, is the closing date.

The letter must sound critical and not impressionistic. It must interpret fiction in relation to the interests of the undergraduate reader group specifically. It must not exceed 400 words. After being accepted on the above points it will be graded on effectiveness of presentation.

Five in Infirmary

"Button up your overcoat" becomes more than a mere song when ignoring to do so at the first signs of chilly weather. The students who are in the infirmary are Elsie Oheler, Jack Riley, Bill Hall, Lysle Smith and Alex Eagle. George Hibbard checked out Sunday.

Dr. Norris Honored by Society With Position

Dr. Will Norris, head of the University department of physics, recently received notice that he had been awarded the position of fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science. This honorary position is given for outstanding work in research and teaching. The society is the largest of its kind in America.
