

Oregon Beats Huskies on Seattle Turf

Mike Mikulak Individual Star of Game

Ducks Score Soon After Opening Of Last Quarter; Purple Attack Wilts

By JACK MILLER
SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 14.— (Special)—Inspired by the great work of Mike Mikulak, Oregon's all-American fullback, a fighting bunch of green-shirted lads from the University of Oregon came to life in the second half and completely outplayed the Washington Huskies to win a Bernie Hughes thrilling 6 to 0 victory in one of the greatest exhibitions of football ever to be played on the Washington field.

Mike Mikulak Stars
"Mighty Mike" Mikulak aided by his fighting team mates dived over the Washington goal line for the lone score of the game in the last quarter, just a few plays after he had fumbled a bad pass from center when the Webfoots had the ball within inches of the Husky goal.

The failure of the Washington offense to click was quite a disappointment to admirers of Jimmy Phelan, Husky coach. Washington supporters were in hopes of having the "Oregon scoring jinx" broken. The only time the Seattle lads gave sign of scoring was in the first period when one of Ahonen's hefty kicks through a freak hit Safety Man Temple's leg and Bill Smith, Husky end, fell on it on Oregon's 35-yard line.

The individual playing of Mike Mikulak was the real feature of the game. In the first half over Oregon's all-American made over half the tackles, several times breaking through the strong Husky line to stop the ball packers in their tracks. It was his playing along with Bree Cuppoletti, star guard, that saved the day for the Webfoots.

Temple Inspires Team
The rest of the Oregon backs played great ball, especially Mark Temple whose return to the game in the second half seemed to be the stimulus that the Callison men needed. Leighton Gee, who played all but a few seconds of the game, was a great asset to the Webfoots.

Several times Bobby Parke's kicking pulled the Ducks out of some bad holes. The tow-headed youth from Long Beach, Calif., averaged 43.9 yards on his kicking. The reserve backs Van Vliet, Bobbitt, Terjeson, Michak, and Milligan, all played well, when in the fray.

Next to Bree Cuppoletti the outstanding man on the Callison coached line was "Butch" Morse, right end who was playing for the second time against the Huskies.

Garner Frye, who replaced the injured "Biff" Nilsson at the right tackle, looked like a veteran at his new position. Alex Eagle played a great game at the other tackle. Co-captain Hughes played the full 60 minutes at center and played them well. "Bud" Pozzo, who made the greatest pass catch of the day, alternated with Wish-

They're All-American Hopes

"Iron Mike" Mikulak (left) and Mark Temple, Oregon's stellar ball carrying twins, look all mixed up here, but they weren't mixed up in Seattle last Saturday when they were the mainsprings in the Webfoots' 6-to-0 victory over the Huskies. Their performance in the Sound city has made many authorities predict that they are destined for all-American honors on the gridiron this fall.

ard and turned in a stellar performance as did Wishard. Clark looked great at left guard.

Huskies Outplayed
Coach Callison's team outplayed Jimmy Phelan's squad in every department of the game. Oregon made 144 yards from scrimmage to 88 for Washington.

Mikulak and Temple
Real All-Americans;
Many Webfoots Star

HAS Oregon an all-American?
If the University of Washington football team and their coach, Jimmy Phelan, were asked this morning, they would undoubtedly say: "Oregon has two all-Americans, and both in the back field." Will either Mark Temple or Mike Mikulak be named on any all-American team this year? Webfoot fans are doubtful. There is no doubt in the minds of ardent Oregon boosters and a large percentage of the sports authorities of the Northwest that these two stellar ball carriers should be given consideration when the "high and mighties" sit down to pick the country's best this year... but will an Oregon man ever break into the "royal family" of the gridiron? We are skeptical.

In 1917, it was Jake Risley... for yourself, can football's high in 1916, Shy Huntington and board of selection overlook one or Johnny Beckett... in 1920, Bill both of Oregon's bids for national Steers... and, in later years, the fame this year. great Johnny Kitzmiller and Bill L. H. Gregory, writing in The Morgan... All gridsters of the Oregonian—"The reason (for Ore-first class, but were they consid- gon's touchdown) was the un-ered when the all-Americans were quenchable fire with which Mark chosen? No! Perhaps a brief Temple inspired the entire Oregon mention way down in the list of team... Big Mike looked like an "consolation" awards, but they all-American in that second half. were never included in the first... But after all is said and done, flight.

Many disgruntled fans say that it is the publicity afforded by the large dailies of the South and the East which give the stars from these sections predominance over those from the smaller schools in the Northwest. This may be. At any rate, it seems to have been too much of a fight in former years for a Lemon-Yellow warrior to trust his head up among those in the top flight of the country's star performers.

Will this be the case this year?
The year when Oregon really has two men of all-American, and at the very least all-Coast, cali- bre... two men whose activities in all of the Webfoots' clashes to date have brought widespread comment from people who really know their football... two men who were mainly responsible for Oregon's great 6-to-0 triumph over the Washington Huskies last Sat- urday in the game which gave them the opportunity to show the nation that they could play the game with the best of them.

George Bertz, writing in the Journal—"No longer is it Oregon's gridiron hall of fame. It is Ore- gon's Temple of fame now—Temple with a capital T."

Frank G. Gorrie, writing for the Associated Press—"The Mighty Mikulak, a tough, tireless fullback, almost single-handed turned back several Washington threatening drives through the first three periods, and then led a smashing at- tack in the last quarter which saw him score the only touchdown of the traditional battle... Mike was in on every play and seemed to tackle, and tackle hard, every Husky ball carrier who got through the scrimmage line."

The United Press—"Mikulak was superb... the dominating player on the field. He sliced

Pride of the Huskies

Duck rooters who made the trip to Seattle last week-end had nothing but praise for the fine kicking, passing, and ball carrying of Art Ahonen, triple-threat star of the Huskies. Ahonen's kicks—long and accurate—kept the Webfooters on the defensive the entire first half, and his passes threw a scare into the winners in the final period.

through the line, bowled over tacklers and stopped every other play."

Jimmy Phelan, Husky coach—"Mike Mikulak gave the best exhibition of all-around offensive and defensive play seen in the Washington stadium since the days of the great George Wilson."

O. K., Mr. All-American selec-tor, we challenge you.

Don't get the idea, however, that "Iron Mike" and Temple did all of the dirty work for the Web-footers last Saturday. There was "Bouncing Bree" Cuppoletti, playing the greatest game of his career, and in on half of the tackles.
... "Black Bud" Pozzo, tackling like a maniac, and saving at least one Husky touchdown from completion when he caught up with the swift Mr. Ahonen after the Washington star was in the open.

... "Sphinx" Wishard and "Butch" Morse, smearing attempted end runs far behind the Husky line.
... Bob Parke, pulling the boys out of holes time and time again in the first half with beautiful kicks... Maury Van Vliet, leading in average gain and gained per trip... Ralph Terjeson, intercepting Husky scoring passes...
Bernie Hughes, clearing the way for the famous "cruncher" plays through the line... Gardner Frye, filling in the great "Biff's" shoes at tackle, so that Nilsson's great playing was hardly missed.
... Leighton Gee side-stepping and fighting his way to lead the offensive marches of the Webfooters' scoring drives... and the dozen other Duck stars who were at their peak in trimming the Husky.

Betas Swim Kappa Sigs in Donut Finale

Race Rivals Are Keyed To High Pitch

Jim Reed Breaks Another Record; Newport Looks Good for Kappa Sigma

Today's Swimming Meet
Finals
4:00: Beta Theta Pi vs. Kappa Sigma.

Beta Theta Pi and Kappa Sigma went into the finals of the swimming tournament of the donut league yesterday afternoon with victories over Sigma Phi Epsilon and Phi Gamma Delta,
respectively.

The seemingly invincible Beta squad gathered 31 counters to administer a thorough licking
to the S. P. E. water splashers.

Jim Reed, broke another record Blankenburg for the Beta swimmers when he clipped a tenth of a second off the mark in the 60-yd. medley relay.
The former record was held by Tom Blankenburg, Phi Gamma Delta swimmer, and who also competed in the 1928 Olympics at Amsterdam, Holland.

Kappa Sigma took another close match from the Pijis by a 25-17 margin. Both teams were evenly matched and the outcome was not certain until the final events were over. Newport proved to be the outstanding swimming in this contest.

The Betas and Kappa Sigs will meet this afternoon in the final swimming match. The Beta mermen will be favored to come through with a victory over their mill race rivals, and thus annex the 1933 donut swimming crown.
