Crystal Ball Gets Cold Feet; Whither Spears? Grid Rivalries Many

AFTER last Saturday's sock in the eye our good pal Crissy Ball has taken to the woods. No more bright lights for Crissy. "Any time you can't call one out of twenty," shouts our hero, "things are getting pretty low in the guessing fraternity."

So, you can have a sigh of relief, fans, you won't hear from Crissy for a long time yet, and he didn't leave a return address. You'll have to dope 'em for yourself.

Something seems to be wrong with our good friend Doc Spears, who left the campus boiling two years ago to seek greener pastures at the University of Wisconsin. The genial doctor's football machine, which functioned so smoothly last season, has evidently hit a snag, and things look plenty black around the Badger den.

Of course, Doc predicted a bad year for his charges when he started out. But this year was a poor time to fling a mediocre team on a Big Ten gridiron, what with such up-and-coming elevens as Michigan, Iowa, and Illinois out after the 1933 title.

To date, the Badgers have played three games. They won the first from Marquette university, 19 to 0. In the other two tilts, the only Big Ten games they have played, Spears' tribe has been beaten soundly. Illinois bounded over them 21 to 0, and Iowa won by a similar three touchdown margin, 26 to 7.

"Down went McGinty." When it comes to long-time rivalry, no two football teams can contest the record that has been set by the Universities of Lehigh and Lafayette. During the past 49 years these two Pennsylvania Pennsylvania schools have met 63 times

Duck Eleven Meets Bruins In Next Game

U.C.L.A. Has Impressive Record to Date

Webfoots Are Out to Avenge Last Minute Defeat of Last Year

Coach "Prink" Callison put his Webfoot grid warriors through a heavy scrimmage session last night in preparation for the oncoming U.C.L.A. game at Los Angeles this Saturday. The Bruins have been well scouted by Billy Reinhart, chief Oregon scout, and Reinhart predicts a tough game for the Ducks.

To date the Uclans have shown plenty of power, losing only to Stanford by a close score of 3 to 0. Last Saturday Spaulding's squad coasted through an easy 20 to 6 win over the powerful Loyola eleven.

Last year at Portland the Los Angeles collegians won from the Ducks in the last 10 seconds of play when an Oregon pass was intercepted by the Bruins on their own 10-yard line and on the next and last play of the game Mike Frankovitch, U.C.L.A. back, tossed a pass to "Pants" Livesay, end, who then dashed unmolested some 80 yards to a touchdown winning the game for the Californians, 12 to 7.

Callison and his men are out to avenge this last minute defeat of last year and are looking forward to their third conference.

on the gridiron. That's plenty of football.

Next in line in the number of games played is the Yale and Princeton combination. The Tiger-Eli rivalry really antedates the Lehigh-Lafayette fracas, but only 56 games have been played. The first struggle took place in 1873, and since then Yale has won 30 times, Princeton 16 times, and on ten occasions the score has been tied.

Now that we've started something we might as well delve back into the files, and see just who the long-time rivals of the gridiron are. The great Harvard-Yale grid argument has lasted 36 years, and in that time 51 games have been played between the Blue and the Crimson. Yale leads with 29 victories to Harvard's 16. Six games have ended in tie scores.

The Sherry Ross men took an early lead in their contest with the Phi Sigma Kappas and finished on the long end of a 28-to-12 score. The Chi Psi entry was handed a 27-to-6 trimming by a strong Phi Delta team in the last game of the afternoon.

Yeomen to Hold Smoker Friday; Campus Invited

A smoker to which the entire campus is invited will be held in the Y.M.C.A. hut Friday, at 7:30 by the Oregon Yeomen, according to plans perfected at a meeting held in Gerlinger hall Monday evening.

A good card of boxers and wrestlers has been signed up and doughnuts, cider and cigarettes will be furnished for the admission price of five cents. Members of the Yeomen will be admitted free. Howard Ohmart was appointed social chairman; Robert Chatterton, athletic manager; and Don Kabler, music chairman of the club. Kabler urges all independent men who are interested in music to get in touch with him.

George Bennett, president of the Yeomen has established office hours of 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. and will transact all business of the club during these hours in the Yeomen office in the Y hut. Other events planned for the year include a dance, about Thanksgiving, and an all-campus ping pong tournament.

Books for Blind May Be Found in Library

Many Braille books for the use of blind students are to be found in the library, it was revealed yesterday by Mrs. Maybelle Rietman, assistant in charge of the English reserve department. The total number of these books now stands at well over 500, she said.

A serious drawback in the usefulness of Braille books is that the code is not uniformly used. The library has for the most part books using the revised system.

The books in the Braille collection include nearly every kind of classical work in French, German, and Spanish, as well as English. The library has catalogs listing Braille books in other libraries, so that if a desired book is not to be obtained here, it may be borrowed elsewhere.

Band Charms Listener

The University of Oregon band apparently exerts a very potent charm upon some of its listeners. Last night the watchman at the R. O. T. C. barracks reported that he had seen a man during the last week who did nothing but stand outside the building for two or three hours each day listening to the band.

Reed Brothers Provide Usual Thrills

Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Gamma Delta Are Scheduled to Play Semi-finals

Today's Water-Polo Semi-Finals
 4:00—Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Phi Gamma Delta.

Still running true to form, the strong Beta team splashed their way to a 3-0 victory yesterday afternoon over the Kappa Sig water-polo team. The other two events of the day were also one-sided affairs, with the S.P.E.'s defeating the A.T.O.'s by a 3 to 0 count, and the Fijis winning from Sigma Chi 2-0.

As usual the fireworks of the Beta-Kappa Sig struggle, was provided by Jim and Chuck Reed, stellar forwards for the winners. The Beta team appeared to be strengthened by the aid of Bill Bowerman, last year's varsity football quarterback.

The A.T.O.-S.P.E. match was a fast game due to the brilliant playing of Kirby of the S.P.E.'s and Patterson for the boys from the hill. Sigma Phi Epsilon will meet Phi Gamma Delta today in semi-final match to determine which team will compete with the Betas for the championship of the league.

What you want in your pipe

... is tobacco that's made to smoke in a pipe. This means the right kind of leaf tobacco—the kind that grows for pipes.

It means that it's made right . . . and old man Wellman, who taught us how to make Granger, knew how. It means that it's cut right.

Just pack Granger good and tight in your pipe and strike a match. Folks seem to like it.
