Bruins Tough Cookies, Say Webfoots; More Trouble for Temple

DO those Bruins hit hard? Just ask any of the nearly two dozen Webfoots that saw action in Oregon's 7-to-0 victory over U. C. L. A. last Saturday. Things looked bad for the Ducks in the last half with Spaulding's men hitting them with everything they had, and twice coming within inches of scoring the tying points.

Callison's men went into the south expecting to run up against featherweights. All of the press comment placed the Webfoots at a "ten pounds to the man" advantage. But the Uclans that went down in defeat Saturday were no little boys. Not only were they just as big as the Eugene huskies, but from reports they carried lead in every pocket.

Good evidence of the way the Bruins played can be seen by the way Mark Temple, Bob Parke, Dutch Clark, and Alec Eagle are hobbling around since their return from the land of the Oranges (and "Lemons," bellows Gardner Frye, Webfoot tackle, who had some little misunderstanding with a Bruin line-man during the course of the game).

Co-captain Temple just can't keep all in one piece. Every time he's stepped on a football field this year, something has slammed into him and made it doubtful whether or not he will be in the Oregon lineup the next week-end. This time it is a strained shoulder that may prevent the blond back-field leader from seeing action against the Armstrong's Utah eleven next Saturday. Three weeks ago Webfoot trainers were worrying over a torn leg muscle that Temple received against Gonzaga; after the Washington game, a deep gash above his right eye was added to his growing list of troubles. Now, it's the shoulder. What a life!

Eagle and Clark each have a painful charley-horse, but these should be healed in time for the Homecoming fracas. It is Parke's injured knee that is causing gloom around the Webfoot camp. The midge quarterback's great kicking was the main feature in the Oregon victory Saturday, and many witnesses of the game stated that it was the best booting seen in the Coliseum in many a moon.

One of those kicks was too much for Parke's trick knee, however, and he all but kicked his leg with the ball. Today he is navigating around on the injured pin, and no evil results may develop, but if they do, Parke's 50-yard kicks from behind his own goal line will be sorely missed.

Utah's Utes will descend upon Eugene next Saturday in full cry. Ike Armstrong's eleven has been at the top in the Rocky Mountain sector for so long, that any upstart which contested its place on the highest rung would be laughed at by the mountain fans. The tribe eased through to a 14-to-6 victory over the Utah Aggies last Saturday, but Armstrong admitted prior to the Aggie game that he was pointing toward the Oregon tilt, and didn't give a whoop if his outfit beat the Farmers by one point or a hundred points.

What Ike wants is just one win over a Pacific Coast rival, and he thinks that this is the time to chalk it up. In all his years of supremacy in the high country, he hasn't been able to turn back a Coast team. Already this season his Indians have bowed to U. C. L. A. by three touchdowns.

It looks like the seventh Web-foot win, but watch your step, Ducks.

Ducks Defeat Bruins With Early Score

Short Pass From Temple To Pozzo Scores

Uclans Threaten During Entire Contest; Keeble Plays Inspired Game

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Oct. 28.—(Special)—Amidst the hue and cry of over 25,000 cheering fans the University of Oregon Webfeet kept the Pacific Coast conference lead by defeating the University of California at Los Angeles by a score of 7 to 0. Bud Pozzo, Oregon right end, received a short pass from Co-captain Mark Temple, halfback, early in the first quarter for the lone score of the game.

Oregon at Top
 This win left the northerners as the undisputed leaders of the Pacific Coast conference with three conference victories and no defeats. The Oregon eleven is the only Pacific Coast team that is undefeated and untied.

The Webfeet received the opening kickoff and Temple returned the ball 20 yards to the Oregon 42-yard line. Mikulak tried the center of the Bruin line twice and was stopped for no gain. Bobby Parke then kicked to Cheshire, Uclan safety, who took the ball on his own 23-yard line and was downed in his tracks by Pozzo and Morse, stellar Duck wingmen.

After a series of three plays the Westwood eleven made a first down on their own 35-yard line. Livesay gained three off left tackle. The Bruins were then penalized 15 yards for holding. Cheshire made three yards through center. Livesay then punted out of bounds with a high kick on his own 43.

Temple Gains
 Temple hit left tackle twice, gaining 4 and 23 yards on each play, which carried the pigskin to the U. C. L. A. 15-yard marker. On the next play Temple was thrown for a one-yard loss. Mikulak then went through right guard for 14 yards, bringing the ball to the two-yard stripe. The pounding Duck fullback tried center twice in a row and both times was held for no gain. Gee then tried going off tackle but the stubborn Bruin forward wall held again. The Californians were off side and the ball was advanced to the one-yard line. Mikulak fumbled and U. C. L. A. recovered.

Cheshire kicked out of bounds on his own 36-yard line. On a reverse, Mikulak to Gee, the latter gained 23 yards on a beautiful run. With the ball on the Uclan's 13-yard stripe Temple gained 6 yards in three successive plays. Temple again took the ball and threw a pass to Pozzo, right end, who jumped high in the air to snag it away from three would-be Bruin interceptors. Stew Milligan was rushed in for Temple and converted.

Bruins Threaten
 The rest of the game was played on fairly even terms with Spaulding's men threatening to score on two occasions. The Californians crossed the northerners' goal line in the third quarter on a pass from Cheshire to Maxwell. Bruin end, who caught the ball outside of the end zone and the play was ruled a touchback by the officials.

In the fourth period the Bruins had advanced the ball to the Oregon 14-yard stripe on a series of passes with Frankovich and Livesay taking turns tossing them to each other. Cheshire then made 5 yards around Oregon's left end. Keeble was held for a one-yard gain by Hughes. Duck co-captain and center. Livesay made two yards over left tackle. This advanced the ball to the Oregon 5-yard line, making it fourth down and two to go. Keeble then tried left guard but the whole Oregon team seemed to pile on him and he fell a yard short of a first down.

Parke Plays Well
 Bobby Parke's kicking proved to be a great asset to the Callison team. Parke, playing as a regular for the first time before a home crowd, gave the fans one of the greatest exhibitions of kicking ever seen in the vast Coliseum.

"Tough Break, Bill!"

Here we have Bill Spaulding, colorful mentor of the Bruins, talking with Leo Coates, captain and star center. They are undoubtedly grieving over the fact that the game with Oregon would have probably ended in a tie score had "Pants" Livesay caught Frankovich's pass within the end zone.

Many Upsets Recorded on National Gridiron Program

The old apple cart "ain't" what she used to be! All over the nation the dope bucket has lost its last vestiges of respect.

The Pacific coast alone stands out with only one upset, but with a host of surprises and near reversals. At Seattle a majority of experts were dumbfounded to see a vastly improved Washington eleven outgain and outplay a stubborn Stanford team to win 6-0.

A total of 42 points was all the scoring done by coast conference teams Saturday. No contest was won by more than 6 points with the exception of the Oregon-U. C. L. A. tilt which ended 7-0. This fact seems to indicate that the Pacific Coast conference is now composed of a number of teams with nearly equal strength and power, and can no longer be dominated by the proverbial unbeatable from the south.

Oregon Still on Top

As a result of their beating the University of California at Los Angeles at the earthquake city, Oregon remains on top of the conference with 3 wins and no ties or defeats. At Berkeley, U. S. C. was lucky to edge out a 6-3 victory over a superior California team in the last ten minutes of play. After being outplayed in the first half, U. S. C. overcame the Bears' 3-point lead with a spectacular 60-yard run by Warburton in the closing minutes of the game. Oregon State kept their conference defeat column clean by capitalizing on a Washington State safety to win 2-0. Idaho outfought Montana, winning 12-6 in a game featuring the largest score of the conference.

Pitt Spills Notre Dame

In the East, Pittsburgh and her halfback, Mike Sebastian, repeated their win of last year to complete the downfall of this year's Notre Dame squad, 14-0. Ohio State came back after a poor early season start to beat Northwestern 12-0. At Minneapolis, Minnesota was upsetting Iowa 19-7, while Purdue trounced Doc Spears' Wisconsin outfit 14-0. Michigan continued her unaltered march to national honors with a 28-0 victory over Chicago. The Nebraska Cornhuskers were scored upon for the first time this year, but won 16-7 in a game that was a nightmare of fumbles.

Army Beats Yale

At New Haven an inspired Army eleven surprised a favored Yale outfit and ran roughshod over the Eli to win easily, 21-0. Dartmouth managed to tie a superior Harvard team 7-7 while Princeton lost much of its prestige by barely eking out a 6-0 victory over a Washington and Lee machine. Columbia made a brilliant comeback to upset Penn State 33-0. Alabama's Crimson tide failed to roll over the needed

Lancaster and Brown Stand Out For Normalites; Borden Outstanding

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 28.—(Special)—A smoothly working Oregon frosh football team played on even terms with a Southern Oregon normal here Saturday afternoon, but lost 7 to 0 by a count.

The score was made by McFadden, reserve half in the second quarter, on a pass from Brown. As the teams reached midfield, Elmore Borden, frosh half, passed to Cross, reserve end. The ball hit Cross' chest and bounced into the hands of Bradford, Sons half, where he was downed on the frosh 40-yard line.

Bradford made 13 yards on a reverse around the frosh right end. Brown tried center and made one yard. Another try at center made five more, Brown almost breaking away, but being stopped by Dick Bishop. Bradford took the ball on a reverse and went to the ten-yard line. Neither Brown, Lancaster nor Bradford were able to gain on the next three tries. On the fourth down, Brown dropped back for a pass, was rushed by five frosh players, ran laterally across the field and threw the pass to McFadden who caught it over the goal line. Lancaster converted.

First downs were even, the frosh making six from scrimmage. The Sons made one from scrimmage, three from passes and two from penalties.

Milligan Loses to Prescott in Golf Tournament Final

Although playing brilliant golf in the finals of the annual city golf tournament on the Laurelwood course Sunday, Sid Milligan, campus golf star and 1932 titlist, lost his crown to Bert Prescott, local business man.

Milligan went into the contest a favorite but Prescott turned in a par-breaking record. Matching the youngster stroke for stroke through the morning round, Prescott put on a spurt late in the afternoon to go two up on the sixteenth and then held this lead to the end of the match.

Prescott has the honor of winning the Babb Hardware company trophy for the first time. This trophy must be won three successive years before permanent possession is secured.

Delts Take Long Tilt From S.A.E. In Feature Game

A.T.O. and Chi Psi Defeated in Other Scheduled Games; Borden Stars for Phi Sigs

4:00 Yeoman vs. Kappa Sigma.
 4:40 Omega hall vs. Theta Chi.
 5:20 Phi Delta Theta vs. Phi Kappa Alpha.

Four overtime periods, topped by a beautiful shot from the center of the floor by Jimmy Blais, Delt forward, wound-up the night-cap of yesterday's "B" play, and gave Delta Tau Delta a hard earned 10-8 victory over S. A. E. The opener was taken by the Betas, 14-9, and Phi Sigma Kappa defeated Chi Psi, 41-7, in the next affair.

This second fray was undoubtedly the best played game of the season, excluding not even tilts in the upper bracket. Borden displayed some fancy shooting to take high point honors for the day with 15, though he was closely pressed by his team mate, Phipps, who garnered 14.

Betas Annex Second Donut Aquatic Title

Jim Reed Leads Team in Win Over Fijis

Squads Evenly Matched in Final Game of Tourney; Contest Not Exciting

With a 3 to 1 victory over the Fijis last night the Betas annexed the intramural water polo crown, and won their second aquatic championship this year.

Jim Reed, star Beta splasher, who has been the spark of the Beta attack all season, scored two goals in the first half and another in the final canto. Thomas was outstanding for the losers flipping their lone tally in the final frame.

The game found both squads evenly matched but the superior work of the Reed brothers again proved to be the margin of victory.

Satisfied with their two point lead at the end of the half, the Betas seemed content to stall during the remainder of the game.

The lineup for the two teams: Betas: Bowerman, C. Reed, Sanford, Jones, Morris, Meyer. Fijis: Seufert, Hutchison, Gummess, Wilhelm, Rourke, Aughinbaugh.

slowly with neither team even scoring until the middle of the second quarter, when some thoughtful player, remembering the original purpose of the combat, finally dropped one in.

Announces the opening of the College-Side Florists at 871 East 13th, recently occupied by the Best Cleaners. Miss May Masterton and Miss Phoebe Greenman, both well known on the campus, will be in charge. We will endeavor to give you the same efficient service as from our main store at 598 East 13th; and at the same moderate prices for artistic arrangements, promptly delivered --- and fresh flowers always.

As we grow the larger percentage of the flowers we sell, we are in a position to meet any of our competitors on price; though price cutting is not, and never was our policy. We realize, however, that money is a scarce commodity, so forgetting profits presently, we endeavor to make the price as low as is consistent with meeting our obligations to our help and our creditors.

On this basis we solicit your patronage in the future. We are members of the Florists Telegraph Delivery Association and guarantee delivery of any flowers telegraphed, whether from the College-Side Florists, or from the University Florist.

Incidentally, we are the oldest established florists in Eugene and vicinity, so there must be a reason why we have seen florists come and florists go in the fourteen years we have been in business as the University Florist.
