

Nelson to Talk Before Student Meeting Today

Assembly to Be Held at 11 in Gerlinger

CLASSES EXCUSED

Chairman of State Board of Higher Education Prominent Lawyer; Speech Topic Not Known

Roscoe C. Nelson, Portland attorney and chairman of the Oregon state board of higher education, will speak at a student body assembly today at 11 a. m. in Gerlinger hall. All classes at that hour will be dismissed, according to the University administration. The subject of his talk is not known.

Nelson was elected head of the board two weeks ago, shortly after his appointment to the group by Governor Meier. He replaced C. L. Starr, who resigned as chairman of the board. At the same session Willard L. Marks of Albany was elected vice-president of the group.

Nelson is chairman of the state board of bar examiners, and Oregon representative on the national board of examiners. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia law school where he received his bachelor of arts and bachelor of law degrees. Nelson came to Oregon in 1908, and is now a member of Dey, Hampson, and Nelson, one of the leading law firms of Portland.

His practice has taken him before the United States supreme court on several occasions, and his abilities have won for him a very high place in the Oregon Bar association.

Corvallis Talk Slated
Nelson is a member of Phi Delta Phi, president of the Tuatlatu country club near Portland, and also president of the Men's club.

Today he plans to visit on the campus until the assembly. After the assembly, the University faculty will meet with him. In the afternoon Nelson will deliver an address in Corvallis.

With a BLANK mind the reporter WILL THUEMELER LITTLE through the 1933-34 Pigger's Guide, forgetting AULD LANG syne, when as freshman, sophomore, and junior she has DUNN the same.

ToDAY the PRICE of a MANN is not CASH MONEY, but a MEANS of buying PEASE and RICE for the MORROW. If the POOR LAMB is a RUTTENCUTTER, he cannot be a TAYLOR (though perhaps a TUCKER or TURNER), nor MAY he be a SHEARER, a SAWYER, a SCHAFFER, a CARPENTER, or a SKINNER. He might become an OFFICER, of course, or a MINER, a PIPER, a PORTER, a POTTER, a WASCHER, a SHEPHERD, a MILLER, a CARTER, a COLEMAN, or a CRUMPACKER.

If he did not OVERGARD himself, he might become a BREWER of BEERS, OWEN a BARR and a VINYARD, and feel free to yell "SCHRAMM" at every COPP. He'd KNAPP like a HOGG that has EATON too HARTLEY.

Roscoe C. Nelson, chairman of the state board of higher education, will speak at a student body assembly this morning at 11 in Gerlinger hall.

To accommodate large numbers of students who find it inconvenient to return reserve books at 8 o'clock on Saturday mornings, hereafter, beginning Saturday, November 4, the reserve departments of the library will open at 9 instead of 8 on Saturday mornings. This announcement was made by M. H. Douglass, University librarian, yesterday.

Along with his statement concerning the Saturday schedule change, Douglass announced the following hours for Homecoming week-end:

Carlton Spencer Will Address Meet Tonight

"Some Interesting Sidelines on Ancient Law" is the subject of a talk which Carlton E. Spencer, professor of law, will deliver before a meeting of the Association of Pre-legal Students tonight at 7:30 in room 105 of the Oregon building. This is the second of the regular monthly meetings that the pre-legal students have planned for this year, according to an announcement made yesterday by Orval Thompson, president of the group.

Following Spencer's talk the association will hold a business meeting at which the constitutional committee will submit a proposed constitution.

German Made Picture Will Be Shown Tonight

"We Meet in Germany," a five-reel film depicting the historical and cultural centers of Germany, will be shown in connection with a lecture by Paul Naef of Seattle in 105 Commerce, tonight at 8 o'clock.

The picture, which has been presented in many universities in the United States, will open the activities of Der Deutsche Verein, campus German club.

"This is not a propaganda picture," stated Dr. E. A. Pollard of the German department, "and is not being shown in the interest of the new Hitler government."

The following living organizations yesterday added their names to those who have pledged 100 per cent support to the Homecoming rally parade with the men's houses signifying their intention to participate in the pajama parade and the women's houses agreeing to cooperate by following their respective floats in costume:

Alpha Xi Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Omega hall, Sherry Ross hall, Sigma hall, Zeta hall, Sigma Pi Tau, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Phi Gamma Delta.

The remaining houses who have yet to pledge 100 per cent support may do so today by calling local 276.

House Teams Work on Rally Parade Floats

Fleet of Cars Will Greet Utah Team at Station

DANCE PLANS MADE

Entertainment Promised Between Halves of Game; 'Bag Rush' To Be Real Scrap

Every fraternity and sorority team on the campus has indicated that work is under way on its Homecoming float for Friday night's Homecoming rally parade, according to an announcement made last night by Bill Russell, rally parade chairman. Russell said that many of the teams would have their floats completed today.

Ralph Schomp, accommodations chairman, said last night that all campus living organizations have plans for definite entertainment for their alumni for Saturday evening.

Team to Arrive
The Utah football team, which will arrive tomorrow noon for its game with the Webfeet Saturday afternoon, will be met at the railroad station with a fleet of cars furnished by the Eugene chamber of commerce and will be taken for a tour of Eugene, according to Cosgrove LaBarre, Homecoming welcoming chairman. Skull and Dagger, men's sophomore service honorary, will handle all welcoming plans.

Each member of the Utah football squad will be presented with souvenirs Saturday to remember their stay here at the University and the city of Eugene.

Entertainment Promised
Entertainment between halves of the game Saturday afternoon will consist of card stunts by the rooting section, selections by the University of Oregon band, and a freshman-sophomore "bag rush." The freshman-sophomore fray promises to be a real scrap.

The three prize winning floats of tomorrow's rally parade will be driven around Hayward field Saturday between halves so that those who failed to see the winners will have an opportunity to do so.

Decorations for the Homecoming dance Saturday evening are being taken care of by John Stark of Portland. A collegiate motif with football scenes will be used at the dance, with thousands of pennants from all colleges in the United States adorning the igloo.

Rumors are plentiful that Friars, senior men's honorary group, will bid several prominent seniors to fall in march with the black-robed society at the dance Saturday.

Swimming Hours Changed

The swimming pool at the women's gym which has previously been open to women on the campus between 4 and 5, will now remain open until 5:30. It is hoped that the extension of time will enable the women whose class hours had conflicted with the pool schedule to come.

More Living Groups Pledge Whole Support To Homecoming Rally

PLANS IN PROGRESS

Annual Journalism Jam Is Slated For Campa Shoppe Locale Tomorrow Night

Pajamas will not be the order of the evening for the Journalism Jam tomorrow night at the Campa Shoppe.

Orders from the dean of women's office yesterday put a halt to the plans of holding the dance as a costume rally affair, with noise parade pajamas the accepted "evening dress."

Meanwhile plans for the promotion of the all-campus informal bust were progressing rapidly yesterday. Willard Eberhart, general chairman of the dance, announced that his committees were all functioning ably, and that everything will be ready for a hilarious climax to the Homecoming rally night.

Tomorrow night will find all weedy furniture nailed down, and the hatches battened fast to meet the onslaught of a student rally crowd, who will flock to the Campa Shoppe at the conclusion of the rally noise parade down town.

This morning found the campus plastered with galley-proof sheets advertising the jam. As is the tradition, Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honoraries, are sponsoring the dance and will unite in transforming the Campa Shoppe into an aura of headlines, newsprint, and accoutrements of the newspaper profession.

Nineteen Seniors Considered for Senior Six of '34

List of Eligible Students Sent to Faculty for Opinions and Ratings

The membership committee of the Oregon Alpha chapter of Phi Beta Kappa has sent out to faculty members a request for personal opinions and ratings on 19 students to be considered for the senior six.

There are 17 seniors who meet all other requirements of Phi Beta Kappa and have an accumulative grade point average of 2.5.

The highest has a grade point average of 2.99. That student, out of 142 hours, has 139 hours of A, and the three which are not, are in required physical education.

Swimming Hours Changed
The swimming pool at the women's gym which has previously been open to women on the campus between 4 and 5, will now remain open until 5:30. It is hoped that the extension of time will enable the women whose class hours had conflicted with the pool schedule to come.

Uniformity at Major Athletic Tilt Sought for Oregon Students; Sales Force Chosen

To provide a conservative but uniform insignia for all major athletic contests, rally ties, bright yellow with a large green O stenciled on the bottom, will be sold at all living organizations and campus stores for 50 cents beginning tomorrow.

The ties are all silk with a wool lining and sell regularly for a dollar. They are not made only for novelty purposes, but are of the type regularly used for dress wear, with the exception of the green O which does not show when worn under a vest or sweater.

Socialist Leader To Talk at Villard Hall This Evening

Kirkpatrick to Be Campus Guest; Smith Will Lead Forum After Address

George R. Kirkpatrick, one of the country's most widely known socialist leaders, who is the guest of the University Socialist club on the campus today, will make a public address on some phase of socialism at 8 o'clock tonight in Villard hall.

Kirkpatrick is probably best known for the sensational political campaigns in which he has been engaged, having run for the vice-presidency on the same ticket with Eugene V. Debs in 1916, and having gained public notice again last year for his campaign in California for the United States senate. However, the visitor's real claim to fame is as an author and lecturer. He is the author of several books, outstanding among which is "War—What For?" Forty-one thousand volumes of this book were sold during the first two years after its publication.

S. Stephenson Smith, associate professor of English on the campus, will introduce the speaker and lead the open forum that will follow Kirkpatrick's main address. At this time the audience will be privileged to ask the speaker any question regarding socialism.

Miss Wilson's program includes a combination of classical and semi-classical pieces, among which are Schubert's "Moment Musical," Beethoven's "Bagatelle"; "A Day in Venice"; Nevin; "Dawn," "Venetian Love Song"; Norwegian folk songs by Torjussen; and "Piecedans la Stayle Ancien," Chamindans.

Marion Pattullo, Lillian England, and Helen Wilson are in charge of tomorrow's program.

Friday Tie Day
Mickey Vail, rally chairman, has set tomorrow as tie day, and everyone will be expected to be wearing a rally tie on the campus. The purpose of this day will be to act as an initiation for the new tradition. The ties should be worn with white shirts for the sake of uniformity.

L. H. Gregory, sports editor of the Morning Oregonian at Portland, telegraphed his approval of the new idea last night as follows:

Juniors, Seniors Set November 25 For Dance Event

Nancy Archbold, Corwin Calavan Handling Arrangements; Will Use Campa Shoppe

Upperclassmen and women will have their own night of fun-making November 25 when the annual Junior-Senior dance will be held at the Campa Shoppe. Nancy Archbold and Corwin Calavan are in charge of arrangements for the affair.

The following sub-committee heads have been appointed by the co-chairmen: Lucile Coate, patrons and patronesses; Dorothy Cunningham, secretary; Marian Henderson, decorations; Fred Whittlesey, ticket sales; John Casey, features; Hal Birkinshaw, construction; Malcolm Bauer, publicity; and Bill Neighbor, cleanup. These students will formulate the plans for the dance, and announcements of further committee members will be made in an early issue of the Emerald.

No definite motif has as yet been chosen around which to make plans for decorations. Two novel schemes are now being considered, and a decision will be reached in the near future.

The dance will be an informal affair and there will be no programs. According to Whittlesey, who is in charge of ticket sales, prices will be at a popular level.

Although the dance is primarily a function of the junior and senior classes, underclassmen will be admitted if with upperclass partners.

Pi Lambda Theta, women's honorary in education, will entertain all women interested in education as a profession today at Gerlinger hall from 4 to 6.

Faculty Asks Right To O.K. Alterations Made in Curricula

Change in Present Procedure Is Sought In Resolution Passed Favorably At Session Yesterday

The University faculty yesterday voted that all changes for establishment or discontinuance of University schools, departments, curricula, degrees, and requirements for degrees be submitted to the academic council of the faculty for a report or recommendation before being sent to the state board of higher education.

Changes in curricula have been submitted to the board upon recommendation of the schools or departments through the president or chancellor. The faculty at its monthly meeting in Guild hall indicated that regular University procedure could be clarified by the introduction of the change.

In presenting the resolution, Wayne L. Morse, dean of the school of law, declared: "Those of us who are seeking to clarify the prerogatives of the faculty and the relations of the faculty to the chancellor and the board are not asking for a right to run the University, but we are asking for the right to have a voice in the running of the University."

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Text Presented
Full text of the resolution is as follows:

"WHEREAS section 35-4707 of the Oregon Code 1930 provides in part that . . . the president and professors constitute the faculty of the University, and as such shall have the immediate government and discipline of it and the students therein. . . . The faculty shall also have power, subject to the supervision of the board of regents, to prescribe the course of study to be pursued in the University; and

"WHEREAS curricula changes have been inaugurated without reference to and consultation with the University faculty, now therefore

"BE IT RESOLVED That henceforth all proposals for the establishment or discontinuance of University schools, departments, curricula, degrees, and requirements for degrees shall be submitted to the Academic Council for consideration, report and/or recommendation to the general faculty. The faculty shall transmit its affirmative recommendation through its secretary to the University administration for presentation to the Board of Higher Education, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That proposals to establish new courses, to change the hours of credit in established courses, to suspend courses, or to change the numbering of courses in such a way as to change the status of upper or lower division courses, or to abrogate established courses shall be acted upon by the minor faculty or faculties concerned. The actions taken by such minor faculty or faculties shall be reported to the Academic Council which in turn shall act and report to the general faculty. Affirmative recommendations by the general faculty shall be transmitted by its secretary to the University administration for presentation to the Board of Higher Education."

Education Declared Geared To Students With Low Ability

A blunt declaration that the educative process at the University of Oregon is "geared to the low ability students and is chiefly concerned with imparting information as a method of instruction and amassing information as a method of learning" is contained in a bulletin just issued under the sponsorship of the University committee on improvement of college teaching. The study, which was prepared by Dr. Ralph W. Leighton, executive secretary of the University bureau of research, is entitled "Studies to Determine Relative Achievement of Students at Different Potentiality Levels."

The educational scheme, it was pointed out, "is not concerned enough with what the students can do with that information." The Bulletin is the result of an intensive study made at the University, during which records of students and results of various methods of teaching were thoroughly investigated.

Wider use of methods of teaching such as honors courses, segregation according to ability and comprehensive examinations, so as to give superior students more opportunity to gain a broader and and at the same time more efficient education are strongly urged in the bulletin.

"The state university should clearly recognize that it has two types of students to deal with and it needs to translate its ultimate goals into terms of learning habits which lead to the particular type of development desirable for each of those types of students," Dr. Leighton says. "One goal may be characterized as the stabilizing development of one group who will form the background of society. The other goal should be the development of intellectual leader- (Continued on Page Three)
