Ducks Irked by L. A. Newspaper Comment Reinhart Is Improving

FOR the second time this season Oregon's unbeaten footballers are bent on an invasion of the sunny southland, and for the second time, also, there are plenty of hot collars on the Duck squad as it makes its way out of wintry Oregon to sweltering California. In fact, it would be putting it rather mildly to say that the Webfoots were just "hot under the collar" when they boarded their southbound train last night.

Whereas they were plenty sore when they headed south two weeks ago to face U.C.L.A., because of the many insulting phrases the Bruins had been passing around about their northern foes, the Ducks were fairly boiling over last night after a week of press sarcasm at the hands of the southern California sports scribes.

You can say lots of things about a football team, even a football team that has won eight straight games in one season without a tie or a defeat, but you must not say that it "is not to be considered dangerous" . . . "they will wilt again as they did last year" . . . "the game won't even draw a crowd." And those are just a few of the statements that coalesce California newspaper critics have been directing at the Lemon-Yellow all week.

The training room at the Igloo is plastered full of such cracks as those above, clipped from Los Angeles and San Francisco newspapers. We quote just two of the wise-guy clippings which have caused the Webfoots to leave Eugene in such a huff:

Sid Ziff (Los Angeles): "Oregon so far is undefeated, but hardly figures to be a serious obstacle playing here. The team wilted completely a year ago, and is virtually the same organization."

Tom Laird (also a southern California dope caller): Speaking of the Rose Bowl prospects when it was made known that Michigan would be unable to play in the annual classic . . . "Which means that U.S.C. will meet and DEFEAT another ordinary team in the annual tournament of Roses at Pasadena." (Capitals are Laird's).

Can you swallow that stuff, Oregon fans? Well, Prink Callison and his Webfoot squad can't stomach it, and they are on their way to Los Angeles, 30 strong, to show the "city slickers" that they have the stuff that national champions are made of.

One thing you can count on, Mr. Ziff, Mr. Laird, and you too, Mr. Jones, is that Oregon's Webfoots will give a first class account of themselves in Los Angeles this Saturday—snow, shine, or swelter.

Billy Reinhart's condition continues to improve as he remains at his home to which he has been confined for the past fortnight with a severe case of neuritis. The pesky joint ailment has settled in the Commodore's shoulder, and is thought to be due to an old football injury.

Meanwhile his 1934 basketball candidates are going through their paces twice a week at the igloo with Captain Gib Olinger in charge. Let's hope it won't be long before Bill can take a personal hand in the direction of the hoop workouts.

Phi Delt Wins Fast Hoop Tilt From S.P.T.'s

Omega Hall Blanked by Alpha Tau Omega

Theta Chi Beats Pi Kappa Alpha; 'Stumpy' Clausen Stars on Basketball Court

Today's "B" Hoop Schedule
 4:00—Chi Psi vs. Phi Delta Theta.
 4:40—Delta Tau Delta vs. Phi Gamma Delta.
 5:20—Kappa Sigma vs. Phi Kappa Psi.

Flashing a good passing attack, an improved Phi Delta Theta team upset the previously undefeated Sigma Pi Tau five last night, 25 to 11. In the second "A" game on the schedule, Theta Chi won their first game of the season with an 18-to-9 victory over Pi Kappa Alpha. The Alpha Tau Omega "B" quintet ran up 15 counters on Omega hall, and held their opponents scoreless in the final game.

The S. P. T.'s started slow and couldn't stop the fast breaking Phi Delt boys, who kept the game speeded up the entire route. "Stumpy" Clausen was in on almost every play and flipped in three field goals for the winners. Don Olsen, at center, and Bob Rundlett, guard, made 8 and 6 counters, respectively. Making only 1 point the first half, the S. P. T. five got going in the final canto and Estes and Newlands each contributed two field goals.

Two guards were outstanding in the ragged Theta Chi-Pi Kappa tilt, with Willard Walo flipping in 6 counters to lead his team to victory. Faust looked good for the losers.

Neal Bush led the A. T. O. "B" squad in their whitewash victory over the hall boys with 8 points. Patterson looked good at guard and made one field goal.

Here's One Line Mike Doesn't Hit

"Iron Mike" Mikulak, in addition to being one of the greatest football players on the coast, is a genius at military science. In spite of the fact that he is only a third-year military student, he is an acting lieutenant in charge of one of the crack platoons in company D.

In order to become a regular lieutenant, a student must be a senior in military science, having completed at least three years of preliminary instruction.

The Eugene city council has made plans for a gift to be presented to Prink Callison and his undefeated Oregon football team upon their return from Los Angeles next week.

The nature of the award is not as yet known.

Meeting of Honorary Features Dr. Huffaker

Dr. C. L. Huffaker spoke at a meeting of Phi Delta Kappa, education honorary, Monday night in Gerlinger hall. The meeting was attended by public speaking classes as well as by men interested in education.

Dr. Huffaker's address concerned proposed changes in the organization of elementary and secondary education in the state of Oregon. These changes were designed to improve the efficiency of the schools and eliminate some of the inequalities in the support of institutions in the state.

On Way South

These two Oregon Webfoots are en route to Los Angeles this morning intent upon keeping their 1933 grid slate clear of defeats when they meet Southern California in the Coliseum Saturday afternoon. On the left is Biff Nilsson, giant tackle, who will see his first action since the Columbia game a month ago. Howard Bobbitt, reserve fullback, is the other Duck pictured. He fills "Iron Mike" Mikulak's shoes when the big boy gets tired of ramming them.

Lewis Leads List Of High Scorers In Hoop Tourney

Sigma Chi Forward Rings up 23 Counters in Two Games; Season Half Over

With the donut hoop season half over, scores of leading players are being tabulated. As might be expected, there is no one outstanding scorer, and each player has another right at his heels in the race for individual scorers.

Jack Lewis, Sigma Chi flash, has amassed 23 points in two games. Newland, S.P.T. player, has scored a like number but has played three games. The other pace setters, and the number of games in which each have participated are:

| Player | Points | Games |
|--------------------|--------|-------|
| Ballard, S.P.T. | 22 | 2 |
| Lindgren, S.P.E. | 22 | 3 |
| Faust, Sigma Chi | 21 | 2 |
| Kelly, Sigma Nu | 18 | 2 |
| Seufert, Fiji | 18 | 2 |
| Lieualten, S.A.E. | 18 | 3 |
| Rundlett, Phi Delt | 18 | 3 |
| Garbarino, S.P.E. | 17 | 3 |

Fordham Will Play Beavers In New York

Lon Stiner's Proteges Set For Clash

Mighty Offensive of Rams May Be Stopped by O.S.C. Forward Wall Saturday

When an irresistible force meets an immovable object, what's the result? The answer will be known next Saturday when the mighty Fordham Rams clash with a tough Oregon State machine in New York.

Carrying the banners of the state with them, Lon Stiner's proteges are all set to bowl over the Rams and show the nation that they can come back, after their defeat at the hands of Oregon.

The mighty offense of Fordham was displayed last weekend when they came from behind in the last half to run up 20 points over N. Y. U. and win 20-12.

But when the New Yorkers run into the stone wall the Staters have presented to every team they have played this year, with one exception, there are liable to be a few sheepish Rams.

The game will be of particular interest to Oregonians as it will give them some lineup on the St. Mary's Gaels, whom the champions from the University play Thanksgiving day. The Moragans trounced Fordham 13-6 and a win by Oregon State would be heartening to the Webfoots, fresh from their recent triumph over the Orange and Black.

Miss Williams to Visit
 Miss Mary Clay Williams, national officer of Chi Omega fraternity, will arrive in Eugene next Monday for a short stay. She has visited the University before.

Men of Troy Put Through Long Session

Jones Drills Trojans Till Long After Dark

Rose Bowl Invitation Expected to Be at Stake in Saturday's Grid Contest

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 15.—(Special)—Trojan football players are going through the toughest scrimmage session since early season this week in preparation for the Oregon game Saturday. The U. S. C. team hopes to make the Stanford victory the only item of its kind on the ledger. The first and third strings with the second and fourth strings as reserves, mixed it last night until darkness closed in.

The Rose Bowl invitation may be at stake Saturday. The powerful Trojan eleven will meet the leader of the conference, and hope to be promoted to the first fiddle section themselves next week.

Headman Jones is overlooking no opportunity of strengthening his squad after Saturday's defeat. The players have been shown motion pictures of the Stanford game.

Once more has Jones altered his first string, the roster now reading: Ford Palmer and Julius Besocos, ends; Hueston Harper and Howard Tatsch, tackles; Aaron Rosenberg and Larry Stevens, guards; Curtis Youel, center; Irvine "Cotton" Warburton, quarter; Kenneth Bright and Bob McNeish, halves; Cliff Probst, full.

"Oh! I thought you were Mr. Jones"

IT'S a bad moment—when you realize you've spoken to someone you don't know. Everybody makes mistakes, of course, but no matter how much poise you have, you feel a bit silly anyhow.

The chances are you didn't know Mr. Jones really well—or you'd never have made the blunder. You've never seen anyone you'd actually mistake for your brother or sister or husband or wife, have you? It's casual acquaintance that leads to errors.

People look alike; so do razor strops and flower seeds and hats and pianos. If you want to buy a Jones hat and you know all there is to know about a Jones hat, you're not likely to blunder and get some other hat. The same is true for a Jones piano or a Jones razor strop.

The easiest way to know everything there is to know about such things is to read advertising. The advertisements in the Oregon Daily Emerald are here to tell you quickly and truthfully the main facts about the things you buy and use. They are here to prevent you from making mistakes. Mistakes that may be costly.

Read the advertisements faithfully.
 They will repay the time
