

Fast Bouts To Feature Order Of 'O' Smoker Tomorrow Night

Mit and Mat Artists Of OSC and Oregon Set for Igloo Ring

Grid Stars Draw Spotlight in Week's Major Campus Sports Event; 'Pigging' in Order

By DON OLDS and ED GOODNOUGH
 Champions and "iron men" of gridiron fame will seek honors in the squared circle Friday night when University of Oregon fisticuffers and bone benders will meet Oregon State leather pushers and grapplers at McArthur court starting at 7:30 p. m. under the auspices of the Order of the "O."

Heading the list of boxers on the card are Frank Little and Bill Goodwin, who will meet in a feature heavyweight clash. Little is a former O. S. C. fullback. He appeared in the Pacific Coast amateur championship bouts last summer, and is reported to have received professional offers. Bill Goodwin was a tackle on the Washington State Cougars' championship football team of 1930. He is rated as one of the outstanding amateur heavyweights in the Pacific Northwest.

The 175-pound go will also feature ex-football stars. Bernie Hughes, co-captain and center of the title-holding Oregon eleven, is to meet Russ Acheson, Beaver backfield man. This may be Hughes' last contest for Oregon before turning professional. Bob Parke, Webfoot quarterback, will trade blows with J. Kenna of the Orange stable in a 165-pound mix.

Franklin to Show
 The middleweight bout promises to steal the show. In this go Alan Wilson, frosh end, will square off against Norman "Red" Franklin, all-American member of the Orange "iron immortals." Both men are reported to be hard punchers and clever boxers. Franklin won the intramural crown at Corvallis with a clean kayo in the first round, while Wilson was the most spectacular boxer on the intramural card here last term, winning his weight class.

A slugger and a clever boxer will mix in the welterweight go. Comet Gibson of Oregon will pit his boxing against the dynamiting left hook of Jack Lyons. Gibson is probably the most experienced man on the Oregon roster. Lyons was knocked down in the O.S.C. intramurals, but got to his feet and won the bout.

Perkins to Fight Donnelly
 Dave Perkins of the Beaver camp will meet Max Donnelly in the lightweight division. Perkins knocked out his man in jig-time in the Beaver intramural car. He is clever, he hits hard and is experienced. While lacking Perkins' experience in the ring, Donnelly is a fast comer in the sock trade.

Football players will also predominate in the mat portion of the card. Stan McClurg, grid line-man of the Beavers, will twist elbows with Dwight Nielson in the

A MEAL TICKET FOR A NAME

The Eat Shop
 (Formerly Young's)
 825 East 13th Avenue,
 Eugene, Oregon

wants a new name, and will present the person submitting the winning name with a $5.00 MEAL TICKET. Contest closes THURSDAY, MARCH 1st. Leave slips at 825 East 13th Avenue.

A HINT TO THE WINNER

HOME COOKING
 ALL PIES HOME MADE
 SPECIAL CLUB BREAKFASTS, PLATE LUNCHES, AND DINNERS
 FULL COURSE CHICKEN DINNER SUNDAY
 HIGHEST QUALITY FOODS
 LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES
 "MA" PAGE COOKING
 (NUF SED).

New Name
 Your Name
 Address
 Extra! $5.00 Meal Ticket $4.50
 Good For Cigarettes . . .

Fast Puncher
 The rapier-like left hand of Comet Gibson, Oregon welterweight, (above) will be kept busy tomorrow night at the Igloo when he meets Jack Lyons, hard punching Beaver, on the Order of the O fight card.

Mat Crowns Captured by Seven Men

Goodnough and Roberts Give Exhibition

Yeomen Wrestlers Cop Majority Of Titles; Receive Point Award

Seven campus matmen reign supreme today as champions of their respective weight divisions following the completion yesterday of the combined all-campus and intramural wrestling tournament at the men's gym.

The grapplers who came through with the necessary victories to cop the title in their class are:
 Heavyweight—Dwight Nielson.
 175-pound—Chuck Johnson.
 165-pound—Joe Renner.
 155-pound—Tom Mountain.
 145-pound—Ed Goodnough.
 135-pound—Bob Ludington.
 125-pound—Bryan Ryan.

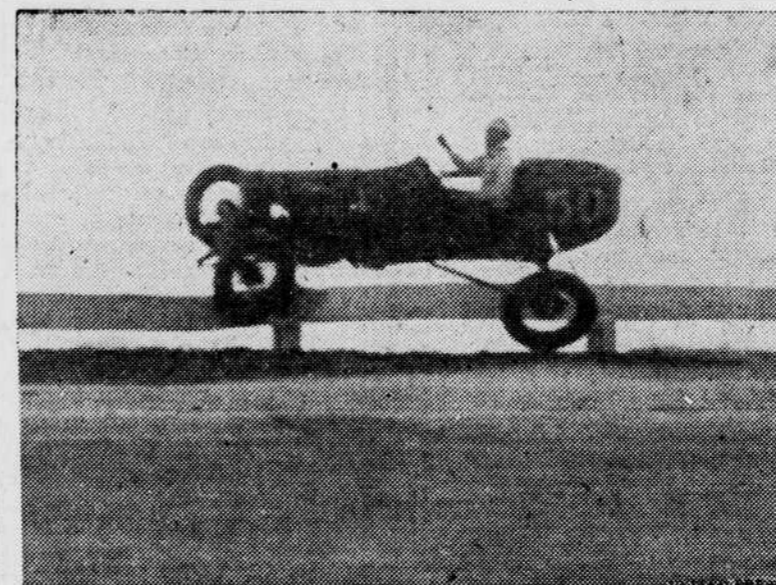

Exhibition Follows
 Following the regular matches Ed Goodnough and Mart Roberts put on an exhibition battle which included everything from pulling hair to double toeholds. Both men clamped on and broke various professional holds with Roberts opening with an Indian death lock and later on a Boston crab while Goodnough slipped out of these and flipped his opponent around with a whip wrist lock. The referee's decision, which of course was a draw, received a lusty round of boos from the crowd.

ably be of six minutes duration, while the fistic events will probably consist of three two-minute bouts while the mat referee has not yet been selected.

"Pigging" in Order
 "Pigging" will be allowed and a special section will be set aside for women only. The admission price is 25 cents.

The committee in charge includes the following: Bob Parke, chairman; Bernie Hughes, assistant chairman; Bob Hunter, president of the Order of the O; Ladd Sherman, promotion; Howard Kemper, publicity; Bill Bowerman, tickets; Leonard Donin, ring.

Camera Gets Spectacular Crash

An alert cameraman was on the job when this racing car hurtled the guard rail in a spectacular crash and dropped out of sight. Roy Rusing, who is in the driver's seat, emerged with no more injury than a cut lip. The accident occurred at Ascot Speedway, Los Angeles.

Terjeson to the canvas with a simple pin hold.

Elving, who had previously defeated both Nielson and Vander Zanden, was scheduled to be Terjeson's opponent but was called on to give a blood transfusion yesterday morning and was therefore unable to participate.

The clash for the 175-pound title was settled sooner than any other match when Johnson gained a victory over Koken after only a minute and 30 seconds of competition. Johnson was riding Koken from the opening of the battle and pinned him with a half nelson.

Renner Wins
 Renner gained the judges' decision over LaBarre in a clash that required the full six-minute time. The victor had the advantage all through the match, although near the end LaBarre almost caught him in a mixup near the ropes.

The initial bout on the afternoon's program, between McKay and Ryan, opened fast with McKay grabbing the first time advantage after a few unsuccessful tangles by Ryan. However, after a referee's position with McKay on the mat Ryan came back to upset his opponent with a sudden fall. Both boys still appeared to be fresh despite over four minutes of fast action.

Rough Match
 Morris started fast in his clash with Ludington for the 135-pound crown but weakened after three minutes of rough mixing to lose the match when Ludington turned him over and pinned him with a half nelson pin hold.

The veteran Mountain had little trouble against Holmes and gained a fall on his less experienced opponent with a well applied half nelson and crotch hold. Holmes put up a good match, however, and carried Mountain three minutes and 40 seconds before losing.

Oregon Quintet in Second Place Tie With Beavers

Webfoots Get Five Wins In Last Six Starts

By BILL AETZEL
 Concluding a successful road trip with their third win out of four conference starts, the Oregon Webfoot quintet moved into a tie with Oregon State for second place in the conference standings. Coach Bill Reinhart's stalwarts won the last five out of six games, after a prolonged losing streak had shoved them momentarily to the cellar.

Idaho, a couple of weeks ago considered a championship threat while resting in third spot, now is sole possessor of the bottom rung in the ladder, having dropped five of its last six games to conference opponents.

Cougars Out of Cellar
 The Washington State Cougars, consistently low in the standings, rose a notch out of the bottom position, remaining idle while the Vandals were losing the pair of games to Oregon. The Pullman boys divided the series with the Webfoots played before the latter's invasion of Moscow.

Washington, enjoying a strangle hold on the conference title, entertains Washington State in the last two games for either team this weekend and aren't seriously considering an upset at the hands of their rivals from across the Cascades, although if such a thing were to happen it would simply raise the stock of the disappointing Cougars who were considered in pre-season dope circles as one of the likely wearers of the 1934 hoop crown. The Huskies have the title sewed up, win, lose, or draw.

The remainder of the teams are idle this weekend, winding up the season a week later when Oregon and Oregon State battle it out for the second spot in a home-and-home series, and Washington State and Idaho renew their feud which will likely name the cellar candidate for this year.

Willie Jones in the first game, and Captain Gib Olinger in the second, were the main threats for the Webfoots. A brilliant field goal by the Oregon captain in the closing seconds of play snatched certain victory from the Vandals.

Grenier Stars for Idaho
 Grenier, probably the outstanding center in the conference, played his consistently good ball throughout the series. Both games were close throughout and tough ones to lose.

The main worry to Coach Edmundson and his men at the present is just who their southern opponent is going to be. At the present, the California Bears and Southern California are tied for the lead with only two games left on either team's schedule.

Uclans Pull Upset
 The Bears virtually had the title in their hip pocket a week ago, when along came a surprise which completely upset even the most skeptical dopesters' predictions. None other than the admittedly weak UCLA Bruins who were proving a setup to the other teams in previous games trounced Coach Nibs Prices' boys in an overtime struggle.

This weekend, the Bruins tackle the Trojans in a final two-game series at Los Angeles, and California meets Stanford in the traditional series of the bay region.

Barring another upset in these finales, a playoff series between the leaders will be necessary to determine the opponent for Washington in the Pacific coast championship series to be played in California.

"Patronize Emerald advertisers."

Each year Turkey and Greece ship us thousands of bales of fine tobaccos—

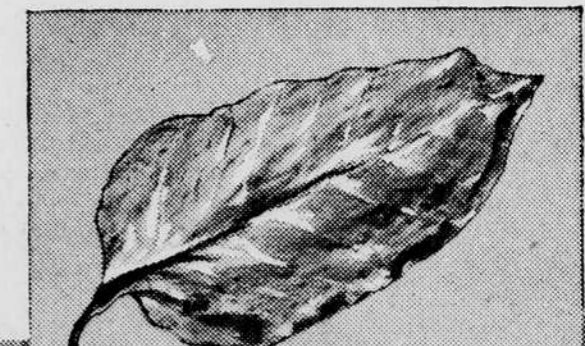

But why send 4,000 miles for tobacco?

... because spicy, aromatic Turkish is the best seasoning there is for a cigarette.

It adds something to flavor and aroma that no other tobacco can give. Chesterfield uses Turkish tobacco—from Samsoun, Smyrna, Cavalla and Xanthi.

Then it blends and cross-blends them with various kinds of choice home-grown tobaccos in the right balance to give you a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

A leaf of Turkish tobacco—smaller than the palm of your hand—800 or more to the pound. There are many thousands of these leaves in each of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.

Chesterfield

A BALANCED BLEND OF FINEST AROMATIC TURKISH AND DOMESTIC TOBACCOS