

Letters Show CCC Interest In Education

Group, Individual Study Credit Wanted

Plans for Lessening Expenses of Course Now Considered By Division

The general extension division at the University has been receiving letters requesting advice and information concerning extension services recently from the newly appointed educational directors of the CCC camps. Men are interested in group study and in individual study either for high school or college credit according to Mozelle Hair, head of the correspondence study division.

Miss Hair said that plans are being considered whereby the expenses of the course may be lessened for those men interested.

The director of Camp Mist company No. 1313 also inquired about social science background courses. He is a graduate of Oregon State college and plans to attend the University to study for a master's degree in social science.

Two camps from Washington, company 933 at Camp Lower Cispus, Randle, Washington; and company 605 at Camp McMann Creek, Republic, Washington, wrote for information. Oregon camps include company No. 928, Camp Zig Zag; company 1648, Camp Prineville; company 943, Camp Oak Ridge; company 966, Camp Dog Lake, Lakeview; company 759, Camp Melrose, Roseburg; 1626 Steamboat Camp, Roseburg; company 1652, Wyeth.

Duties of the educational advisers including the conducting of educational programs of all types, organization of class work, and personal advice for the men.

CAMPUS LUNCH FREE FOR NON-MEMBERS

(Continued From Page One) Elizabeth Bendstrup, chairman of campus luncheon, said that over 2000 lunches will be prepared to be served at the traditional scene of the luncheon, behind the Pioneer statue.

"O" to Be Painted Fisher asks that students come on time to all events since the schedule must run smoothly with no "dead spots" in order to cover the entire program. Members of his committee are Hague Callister, assistant chairman, and Robert Lull, tennis court dance.

Miss Bendstrup has been assigned by Norma Eich, assistant chairman, Dagmar Jaugen, secretary, Bill Berg, grounds, and Joe Renner, service and clean up.

Men who are to paint the "O" will meet on the butte, with yellow paint, promptly at 8 o'clock. Rourke is also chairman of this event. Freshman numeral men and Skull and Dagger pledges are to do the painting.

The Junior prom is scheduled for 9 at McArthur court.

ORIENT POLICIES IN CLASH; VIEWS GIVEN

(Continued From Page One) must be explained in the light of the earlier statement of the official spokesman who said that Japan alone intended to interpret those treaties. The insistence of Secretary of State Hull that Japan abide by her treaty commitments to the United States in regard to China must also be interpreted in the light of the above statement.

It must be noticed that the French have taken a stand almost identical with the Americans. Perhaps more than any other nation the French must insist on the sanctity of international engagements; otherwise what becomes of the Versailles and Lausanne treaties, and the whole structure of engagements on which French security is based. The British, on the other hand, accepted Japanese assurances with outward expressions of the greatest goodwill and then within a week

FORMAL FROCKS of TAFFETA NETS AND SILK

Fashionable creations in pastel shades for after-dinner dances $7.95 to $16.75 Choose Your Mother's Gift for Mother's Day at this store of PRACTICAL GIFTS of intrinsic value.

THE BROADWAY INC. 30 EAST BROADWAY

Professors Are To Report Year's Work at Banquet

Faculty to Meet at Anchorage to Hear 10 Group Heads Tell Results

Final reports of the ten committees of the American Association of University Professors will be given tonight, following the spring term banquet of the University of Oregon chapter of the association, to be held at 6:15 at the Anchorage.

The reports, which are based on the year's work of the committees, will begin at 7 o'clock.

According to a statement by Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, and president of the association, all members of the faculty who are members of the local chapter, or who are eligible for membership, are welcome, both to the banquet and the meeting which will follow. Reservations for the banquet may be made by calling Miss Margaret Read, law school secretary.

The chairman who will report on the work of their committees are H. G. Townsend, professor of philosophy, executive committee; Charles C. Howard, professor of law, membership committee; S. S. Smith, associate professor of English, teaching load; Orlando J. Hollis, professor of law, tenure; James H. Gilbert, dean of the social science college, salaries and living costs; W. D. Smith, professor of geology, improvement of college teaching; J. T. Canoe, associate professor of history, faculty medical care; Howard R. Taylor, professor of psychology, summer sessions; H. G. Townsend, professor of philosophy, faculty and administrative organization; Paul E. Washke, professor of physical education, Carnegie annuities.

proceeded to announce the opening of a large scale economic warfare with the Japanese Empire. The Russians alone have remained quiet, probably in part since they are not a party to the Nine Power treaty regarding China, and in part because they, like the British, prefer to allow the Americans to take the onus of declaring principles of policy while they await Japanese specific acts contrary to their interest. To summarize, the Japanese have made a long awaited declaration of monopoly interest in China, which is in line with their past policies, but which is diametrically opposed to past American policies. Until they act upon their declaration, however, the American government will only repeat its declaration of policy. Only if the Japanese act to make good their claim will the American government be forced to face the issue, whether to change its policies regarding Chinese independence and the open door, or to challenge Japan's actions by economic and military pressure.

proceeded to announce the opening of a large scale economic warfare with the Japanese Empire.

The Russians alone have remained quiet, probably in part since they are not a party to the Nine Power treaty regarding China, and in part because they, like the British, prefer to allow the Americans to take the onus of declaring principles of policy while they await Japanese specific acts contrary to their interest.

To summarize, the Japanese have made a long awaited declaration of monopoly interest in China, which is in line with their past policies, but which is diametrically opposed to past American policies. Until they act upon their declaration, however, the American government will only repeat its declaration of policy. Only if the Japanese act to make good their claim will the American government be forced to face the issue, whether to change its policies regarding Chinese independence and the open door, or to challenge Japan's actions by economic and military pressure.

MCDONALD
12:30 Continuous 11:30
600 SEATS 15c

TODAY & FRIDAY

Fredric March
DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY
Shows At...
A Faranovial Picture with EVELYN VENABLE

PLUS THIS PANIC

MERRY WIVES OF RENO
Shows At...
STARTS SATURDAY

IT'S BIG!

George ARLISS
the HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD
LORETTA YOUNG BORIS KARLOFF

CLASSIFIED Advertisements

Rates Payable in Advance 10c a line for first insertion; 5c a line for each additional insertion. Telephone 3300; local 21a

DRESSMAKING PETITE SHOP 573 13th Ave. E. Phone 3205 "Style right—price right"

LOST—White gold wrist-watch on E. 13th St. on campus, Saturday. Call 267-J.

MOTHER'S DAY CARDS At One-Half Price ALLADEN SHOP 55 West Broadway.

Scanning the Cinemas

McDonald—"Death Takes a Holiday," Fredric March, Evelyn Venable, Sir Guy Standing. Also "Merry Wives of Reno," Guy Kibbee, Frank McHugh, Glenda Farrell. Colonial—"The Black Cat," Bela Lugosi, Boris Karloff.

Imaginative Picture Photoplay rates "Death Takes a Holiday," opening at the Mac today, as one of the best shows for the month of April. It says, "Strangely beautiful and haunting, this picture is an experience no intelligent person should miss."

It is a story about Death, who wonders why men fear him, and wishes to mingle with men to see how it feels and to experience human emotions. He takes a fancy house party as the locale for his excursion. He falls in love with Evelyn Venable. Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Democratic Club Hears Speakers At Tuesday Meet

Talks by two congressional candidates, William Dalzell of Salem and R. R. Turner of Dallas, featured the luncheon of the Young Democrats club held in the Osburn hotel Tuesday. Ted Pursley, president of the group, presided.

Many University students are members of committees appointed at yesterday's meeting. Committees chosen are as follows: social, Mrs. Ray Martin, chairman; Helen Evans, Agnes Stalsburg, Frank Evanson; constitutional and resolutions, Eugene Allen, chairman; Mabel Armitage, Paul Parker; deputation, Sam Lehman, chairman; George Evans, Hugh Holland, Violet Ellis; publicity, Merlin Blais.

Plans for a picnic were discussed, and the date of the next meeting was set for May 22 at the Craftsman's club at 7:30. Anyone interested in joining the organization may do so by getting in touch with Pursley.

Regular hours will be observed Saturday in all sections of the libe, the reserve department closing at 5 o'clock and the circulation libe at 6.

PASTOR OF ASTORIA TO DELIVER SERMON

(Continued From Page One) burch and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

While in England, Rev. Ferguson met Lord Astor and received from him the sum of $5,000 for the educational endowment of the church. He also visited the House of Commons and the admiralty.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson was educated at Glasgow and Manchester, and took special work at Oxford university. He came to Oregon in 1918.

He falls in love with Evelyn Venable.

Photoplay continues, "The direction is masterly, creating a mood that carries throughout the picture. Don't miss this film!"

About "Merry Wives of Reno," nothing is to be found as yet. Evidently it is much on the same style as "Convention City," which was one of the raciest pictures of the sophisticated type in some time. Here's hoping it approximates its predecessor.

Inaccessible Fortress As we remember Poe's "The Black Cat" there is little of the original plot in the movie of the same name except the cat.

Boris Karloff is the mysterious man in his modernistic castle stronghold on the top of a rocky hill who keeps beautiful girls preserved in glass cases, hung up by their hair. David Manners and wife and burgh and to the world conference on stewardship held at Edinburgh, Scotland. While on his trip to Edinburgh he preached at Covan church at Glasgow, one of the oldest Protestant churches in the world.

Old Libe Reserve Will Close at Noon Friday; Usual Hours Saturday

The reserve section of the old libe will close Friday at 12 o'clock noon to fit in with the Junior Weekend schedule. Books may be taken out between 10 and 12 o'clock, returnable at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Regular hours will be observed Saturday in all sections of the libe, the reserve department closing at 5 o'clock and the circulation libe at 6.

Noble to Speak at Craftsman's Club

"Euro-Oriental Policies" will be the title of a speech by Harold J. Noble, associate professor of history, at the International Relations club, meeting in the Craftsman's club tonight at 7:30.

Noble has made an extensive study of Japanese-Russian relations and will interpret them in the light of the developments of the past few weeks. The topic should be of particular interest to the campus, following the visit of the two Japanese students who spent several days on the campus last week.

The meeting will be open to all students and townspeople. It is the first of three that will be held this term.

Final Parade Held The last military parade of the term was held yesterday. Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Officers for the event were Francis Pallister, battalion commander; Horace Neely, adjutant; Erwin Nilsson, Mark Cory, and R. Silcher, company commanders.

Thirteenth Street Adorned by Arch Of Locust Trees

Thirteenth street might adequately be labeled "an avenue of raceme" now that it is dressed, from University to Hilyard street, by the tall locust trees, with their spreading branches and white fragrant flowers leaning in an arched formation over the street.

This unusual splendor of a city street is admired by many who have traveled through the campus, for they have stopped in front of the men's gym and looked back appreciatively through the alcove of white flowers and green foliage. A scene more beautiful would be difficult to find, even by the lustful traveler who makes it his business to seek out the snow-capped mountains, tall redwoods, or deep gorges as a means of satisfying his artistic nature.

The locust to the botanist is known as the Robinia Pseudocacia, named in honor of two French botanists. It is noted for its ornamentation, enduring timber and fine foliage.

Another excellent non-fiction addition, according to the librarian, is "Technics of Civilization" by Louis Mumford, well known for her "The Golden Day." The books gives a critical account of the development of machines during the past 1,000 years and shows the effect they have had on contemporary society.

A book coeds will enjoy, said Mrs. Belknap, is "Backward Glance" in which Edith Wharton writes her memoirs reminiscent of New York society of the 80's and 90's.

Among the new popular novels making their first appearance at the Co-op library are: "James Shore's Daughter" by Stephen Vincent Benet, "Superstitious Corner" by Sheila Kaye-Smith, and "The Land of Plenty" by Robert Cantwell.

Another excellent non-fiction addition, according to the librarian, is "Technics of Civilization" by Louis Mumford, well known for her "The Golden Day." The books gives a critical account of the development of machines during the past 1,000 years and shows the effect they have had on contemporary society.

A book coeds will enjoy, said Mrs. Belknap, is "Backward Glance" in which Edith Wharton writes her memoirs reminiscent of New York society of the 80's and 90's.

Among the new popular novels making their first appearance at the Co-op library are: "James Shore's Daughter" by Stephen Vincent Benet, "Superstitious Corner" by Sheila Kaye-Smith, and "The Land of Plenty" by Robert Cantwell.

Another excellent non-fiction addition, according to the librarian, is "Technics of Civilization" by Louis Mumford, well known for her "The Golden Day." The books gives a critical account of the development of machines during the past 1,000 years and shows the effect they have had on contemporary society.

A book coeds will enjoy, said Mrs. Belknap, is "Backward Glance" in which Edith Wharton writes her memoirs reminiscent of New York society of the 80's and 90's.

Among the new popular novels making their first appearance at the Co-op library are: "James Shore's Daughter" by Stephen Vincent Benet, "Superstitious Corner" by Sheila Kaye-Smith, and "The Land