Parke and Frye Will Make Fans Gasp; Minor Sports Slate Is Praised

Let's not forget. Let me give you a tip for the track meet Saturday. No, I am not going into that seige about the best place to watch a track meet—if the fans don't know that there is very little to be seen right at the finish line, who am I to discourage them. But keep an eye peeled on Oregon's field men.

"Poppey" Gady Frye will have something to offer in heaving the shot and tossing the discus. "Poppey." Take a look at Mr. Frye's biceps, triceps and gastrocnemius. He has been properly named. And when the man muscle uncorks one of his tremendous flips of the discus or lets go of the 16 pound shot, it is going for a ride. Yes, Mr. Frye will give the Washington weight men all the competition they want, and those who watch him from the stands will not have wasted their eyesight.

No doubt the fans will rise as one when Bobby Parke trots out on the field with his javelin at rest and his bronzed skin flashing in the sunshine. A tremendous ovation will be forthcoming when Mr. Parke whips out with his good right arm and sends the spear in a long high arc that edifies gravitational pull.

This is not apple-butter—Mr. Bobby Parke can really throw the javelin away. In the first spring tryouts he tossed it a mere 213 feet and some odd inches. With the warm weather and under fire he will be favored to break the meet record and possibly the northwest distance.

When approached concerning the parabola, Mr. Parke had nothing to offer other than that the infrared rays in the cosmos would be to his advantage.

There is something to be said for the minor sports program on this campus.

Laboring under financial difficulties the men who are working in golf, tennis, and swimming are putting on a program that is interesting for those actually competing and offers something of interest for the fans who lean toward the lesser sports.

Those who are in charge of these programs are to be commended for the fine work they are doing and the amount of interest they are able to create in their particular line of work.

Husky Track Team Doped To Take Meet

Duck Followers Predict Close Finish

Webfoots Particularly Strong in Distance, Hurdles and Field Events

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Washington Huskies take to the cinders of Hayward field against the University of Oregon with everything pointed to the advantage of Hec Edmundson, Washington coach.

In spite of the advance predictions that Washington will be on the long end of the score because of a close meet with the University of California and an overwhelming victory over O. S. C., Oregon will be very much in the track meet and with the many green men who are competing stand a chance to upset Washington's apple cart.

In the sprint events Oregon will have Bud Shoemake and Walter Hopson to match paces with Plumb and Barnes of Washington. Hopson, colored flash from Los Angeles is a real threat in the 100 yard event because of his lightning start. In the 220 yard dash Shoemake will be the threat with his whirlwind finish.

Huskies Strong in 440
 Oregon will be an unknown quantity in the quarter-mile. Captain Fred Galer, of Washington has a win over both O. S. C. and California. Howard Patterson, converted sprint man finishes with a tremendous burst of speed and might surprise the Husky captain.

In the half-mile Oregon will have two green men, George Scharpf and Huber Phillips. In the Hill relays in Portland, Scharpf came from behind in an impressive manner to overcome a lead held by Guggisberg of O. S. C. He will press Montgomery of Washington to the limit and may edge him out.

Distance Trio Impressive
 Oregon has a strong trio of distance men headed by Bob Wagner, Northwest two-mile champion. Bob Ludington and Bill Paddock have run close to Wagner in the distance. This group of runners stand a fine chance of blanking the Washington distance men.

Oregon is particularly strong in the hurdles. Mason McCoy, running his last season for Oregon, will be hard to beat by any competitor in the Northwest in both the high and low sticks. Fred Nowland in the high hurdles runs so close to McCoy that it is hard to choose between the two.

Ducks Given Edge in Jumps
 In the jumps and field events, Oregon is particularly strong. Fred Nowland clears the high jump consistently at six feet. In the broad jump Arne Lingren is hitting the twenty-three foot mark. Bob Parks has filled the shoes left vacant by Warren Demaris, in the javelin. His consistent throws of better than 200 feet dwarf any efforts from Seattle.

Stan Smith, Walter Back, and Gady Frye take care of the shot and discus so thoroughly that Washington will do well to place.

Stacking up the teams man for man on experience, Washington has a distinct advantage. From the performance and competitive angles of the meet, it is a toss up. Those who are on Hayward field Saturday afternoon are assured of seeing one of the closest and best meets held here in years.

Webfoot Batting Average

After five conference games the Oregon Webfoots have a team batting average of .289 with a total of 50 hits in 173 times at bat. Ray Koch, fast fielding second secker, head the individual scoring with a mark of .455 and is followed by Wes Clausen with a mark of .357. Clausen's low number of times at bat is due to the walks and sacrifices he has been credited with. The average of the individuals are as follows:

	G	AB	H	2B	HP	SB	SH	Pct.
Ray Koch 2b	5	22	10	2	1	1	0	.455
Wes Clausen lf	5	14	5	1	0	0	2	.357

Webfoot Netmen To Battle Beaver Team in Morning

The time of the dual tennis meet to be played Saturday with Oregon State college as part of the Junior Weekend attractions has been changed to 10 o'clock, Coach Paul R. Washke announced last night. Matches will be at the University courts.

No charges will be made to spectators. Regular seating facilities will go to first arrivals.

The players and their positions will be given in tomorrow's Emerald, said Washke.

SUMMER TERM SESSIONS WILL START JUNE 15

 drama, economics, English, history, journalism, Latin, mathematics, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, Romance languages and sociology.

At the normal schools, the regular six weeks' sessions will offer courses in art, education, economics, English, geography, health education, history, mathematics, music, penmanship, physical education.

Women's Athletics

By MARGERY KISSLING

Last night Zeta Tau Alpha defeated Alpha Delta Pi in baseball by a score of 17 to 4.

The games are running off more quickly now, and within the next week semi-finals should be well under way.

As a reminder to golfers, don't forget to play your games off by next Wednesday!

Tickets for Canoe Fete To Be Sold at Entrance

"General admission tickets for the Canoe Fete Saturday will be sold for 50 cents at the entrance," according to Tom Stoddard, assistant graduate manager. These are very good seats, but one must be early to get even these, for all seats are limited.

There are still a number of reserved seats available. Reserved seats are 75 cents on sale at the Co-op, McMorrin and Washburne's and the Igloo. Out of 2,300 seats only a few remain.

Huskies Meet Webfoot Nine Today at 3:30

Northern Team Favored To Cop Tilt

Reinhart Undecided on Starting Hurler; McCall Back in Uniform

The league leading University of Washington baseball nine, with two easy victories over Idaho under its belt, will meet the Webfoots today at 3:30 on Reinhart field in the first of the two game series here. The Huskies, still smug under the succession of football defeats they have suffered in recent years, will enter the contest determined to add another Oregon scalp to their string in addition to this season's basketball victories.

Decidedly pessimistic over the Ducks' chances, Coach Bill Reinhart last night sent his men through another practice game to work on batting punch. Although eight men on the squad are hitting above .300 and the team average is .289, the Webfoot mentor continued to work on this part of the game.

Choice of today's hurler was still undetermined last night, with Don McFadden, Ike Domin, and Ron Gemmill all ready to work. Both Domin and McFadden have good records in conference competition in regard to allowing hits, with Domin credited with two victories while McFadden has only one win and two tough losses on his slate.

Mickey Vail still has the edge over Con Fury, Bob Hackney, Homer Goulet, and Marvin Stroble for the catching berth. With Harry McCall back on duty on first, the infield will be rounded out with the familiar faces of Joe Gordon, Ray Koch, and Mark DeLaunay or Ivan Elliott. Wes Clausen, Maury Van Vliet, and Mike Hunt will continue to work the outer posts with Bud Van Dine and Jack Todd likely to see service in the series.

Faculty Members Attend Convention

Several University faculty members participated in the thirty-first convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, which was held in Roseburg May 7, 8, 9, and 10.

George Turnbull, professor of journalism, spoke yesterday afternoon on "Keeping the Women's Clubs Before the Public." Dr. V. P. Morris, professor of economics, addressed the convention on "Problems in Economic Planning." Wednesday.

John Stark Evans, of the school of music, directed the Roseburg Gleemen and played a pipe organ solo Monday evening.

Miss Jeanette Calkins, graduate of 1918 and editor of the Oregon Clubwoman, monthly publication of the Federation spoke Tuesday morning concerning the Oregon Clubwoman.

Dr. Warrington Leads Religious Discussions

Student religious leaders of the campus held the year's final study session Wednesday night at Westminster house. Professor E. W. Warrington, who has been leading the group in their weekly discussion of the problem of student religious leadership, presided at the session.

"How to incorporate social religion into campus religious work?" was the subject of discussion.

Sigma Chi Team To Play Sammies For Softball Title

Season's Closest Game Is Won by Margin of Single Tally

The Sigma Chi softball team defeated the S.A.E. nine in the last inning last night to advance into the intramural softball finals. The White Cross donateurs, who won by the narrow 1 to 0 margin, will meet the Sigma Alpha Mu team Monday to determine the kittenball champion. The S. A. E. team had been beaten only once before in its whole run of softball play. The game was, without a doubt, the closest one of the season. Rarely was a man allowed to reach first base. Each team made but five hits. Ed Wheelock, Sigma Chi pitcher, started the game off with his steaming speed balls. Londahl gave him fine support behind the plate. The S.A.E. batters went down one-two-three; in fact, both teams played this type of shut-out ball for the majority of the innings.

"Cooks" Kendall, Sigma Chi first baseman, was the first man to get a hit and he was received with loud cheers. Don Eva, S.A.E. twirler, got busy on the ball and Sigma Chi's hope was left stranded on the base. Biddle was on the receiving end of Eva's dark ones, while "Red" Johns was shifted to third base in the absence of "Spook" Robertson. Kunkle played an exceptional game on first base. The eight-story first sack man snaggled in any peg within 12 feet of him, and his reliable work on first was a prime factor in keeping the Sigma Chi hits down.

The left fielders of both teams were given a stiff workout today. Fred West for the S.A.E.'s specialized in tip-toe catches while Wampler of Sigma Chi dashed and tumbled across the district outside the third base line to convert the tricky fouls into outs.

By the seventh inning the game was at its pitch, a scoreless tie. It looked very much as if extra innings must be played. In the last of the seventh, with two down and Ladd Sherman on base, John Londahl stepped up to the plate and, in that old one-minute-to-play spirit, smashed out a distant three bagger over the left fielder's head to win the game for Sigma Chi!

Frosh Will Open Wire Track Meet This Afternoon

The Oregon freshmen open their series of telegraphic meets on Hayward field this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

In these meets the freshmen of the northwest schools compete at home and wire the times and distances to the opponent and the winners are determined in that manner.

Oregon freshmen stand a fine chance of winning a good many of their meets this spring with their well balanced track and field team. Competing for the freshmen today will be Ken Miller and Walt Swanson in the sprints. Mahatma Gambee, Short Freeman, and Gib Schultz are in the quarter mile. In the 800 yard run Paul Ricks and Sam McGaughey do the honors.

Oregon has only two men for the longer distances, Al Johnson and Sam McGaughey. In the field events they have Chan Berry, Harry Helmken, Walt Swanson and Glen Palm.

Oregon Relay Trio Smashes Coast Record

Reed Brothers, Oglesby Do Race in 3:11.7

Old Record Clipped by Over Seven Seconds; Individual Marks Also Broken

Pacific Coast swimming records fell like ten pins last night as Jim Reed, Chuck Reed, and Francis Oglesby blistered the pool in the 300 yard medley. The medley event came first on the program of several swimming distances held on the University all-campus water contest.

Not only did the Duck trio swim the medley in 3:11 to best the Pacific Coast record by more than seven seconds, but they also broke individual record within the medley 100 yard back stroke and 100 yard breast stroke.

Reed Brothers Break Marks
 Jim Reed swam the first one hundred yards of the medley—back stroke, with the time, 1:05.8, which breaks the coast record by exactly one second. Chuck Reed swam the second one hundred yards—breast stroke, and proved himself to be a record-breaker equal to his brother. His time of 1:09.4 bests the Pacific Coast record by two-tenths of a second. Francis Oglesby swam the third one hundred yards free style to tie the coast record with his :55.8. It was no wonder, then, that the present coast medley record of 3:18.7 was clipped down seven and seven-tenths seconds.

Three men of such calibre are rare on one team and this is the reason why the Pacific Coast record has been left standing so comparatively "slow." During the swimming season, the University of Oregon medley team tied the Pacific Coast record, but since that time they have come into much better condition. Unfortunately these records set by Oregon swimmers are unofficial. Official records may be set only in intercollegiate meets. Two of these men, the Reed brothers, will be back next year to try to make these records official.

Jim Reed Leads Scoring
 Other events run off in the swimming meet last night were the 160 yard free style medley, and the 220 yard free style. Jim Reed kept his point standing lead over his cohorts with a total of 45 points. Francis Oglesby is not far behind with 43. Leonard Scroggins beat out Chuck Reed by one point to take third place with 19 points. Results follow:

300 yard medley—Jim Reed, back stroke; Chuck Reed, breast stroke; Francis Oglesby, free style. Time, 3:11.
 160 yard free style medley—Wally Hug, Oglesby, Scroggins, J. Reed. Time, 1:19.3.
 220 yard free style—Oglesby, first; J. Reed, second; Scroggins, third; C. Reed, fourth. Time, 2:27.5.

Orange Swatters Tumble Cougars At Corvallis, 5-0

Rasmussen Pitches Four-Hit Ball; Washington Now Undisputed Holder of Top Spot

Conference Standings
	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	2	0	1.000
W. S. C.	2	1	.666
Oregon	3	2	.600
Idaho	2	4	.333
Oregon State	2	4	.333

COVALLIS, May 10.—(Special)—Oregon State came back to trample the invading Washington State nine today, 5 to 0, and thereby evened the count of the series at one all.

Rasmussen, Beaver chucker, held the heavy-hitting Cougars in the palm of his hand, allowing but four hits. Although he struck out no batters, the invaders were limited to pop flies and easy grounders. Robinson, Bendele, Sorboe, and Jones collected the Cougar bingles.

Dan Mitola, Orange outfielder, started the O.S.C. scoring in the second inning, hitting a circuit clout with one on. In the third inning Weber tripled, and the Beavers gained another tally. The other two runs came in the eighth.

As a result of today's contest, the Cougars slipped from their first place tie with Washington, and Oregon State climbed into deadlock with Idaho for the fourth spot.

Summary of the game:
 R. H. E.
 O. S. C. .... 5 12 2
 W. S. C. .... 0 4 5
 Batteries: For Oregon State, Rasmussen and Beatty; for Washington State, Coleman, Irvine, and Gehrke. Umpire, Frisco Edwards.
