MARY LOUISE EDINGER,
Editor

THIS weekend will bring about the conclusion of social events for the year. The calendar has been crowded with many brilliant affairs, and it is with regret that we know such activities cannot continue.

Saturday night several dances are being given by living groups and Sunday picnics will be in order. This afternoon, staff members of the women's edition of the Emerald will entertain men who worked on the "all-men's" edition.

Theta Chi to Entertain
Theta Chi fraternity will entertain Saturday evening with a formal dance at the chapter house. The spacious lawns and terrace will be the background for a spring garden, with lattices and flowers to carry out the idea.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening will include Major and Mrs. R. H. Back, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Cutler, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Buchanan Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. A. S. Rodda, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Crissey, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pease. Charles Burrow is chairman of the evening.

Miss Parsons to Wed
The engagement of Mary Gould Parsons, daughter of Mrs. Abbie Gould Parsons of this city, to Richard H. Wilson of Portland and Salem, was announced Wednesday evening at a dessert party for which Mrs. Parsons and her mother, Mrs. Chris Miller of La Grande, entertained for a group of 40 at the Eugene hotel.

The wedding is announced to be an event of the late summer. Both Miss Parsons and Mr. Wilson are former students on the campus, Miss Parsons being a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and Mr. Wilson of Phi Gamma Delta.

The announcement Wednesday was made during a varied program. The Gamma Phi Beta trio, consisting of Gail McCredie, Margaret DeYoung and Peggy Cullers, sang the sorority's sweetheart song, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Riggs, who then played the wedding march while little Ralph Wilson Jr. and Geraldine Davis staged a mock wedding. After the mock wedding ceremony, little Geraldine Davis presented the bride-elect with a corsage. The Phi Gamma Delta sweetheart song was also sung.

The table was decorated in pastel colored flowers and candles. Mr. Wilson is the son of Mrs. Ella S. Wilson of Salem.

Bride-Elect Honored
Thursday evening members of Sigma Kappa had a shower for Miss Lillian Rankin, complimenting her on her engagement to John Conway, Newberg, which was announced last week. The marriage will be an event of June.

Picnic Slated
Sunday, members of Kappa Sigma will entertain with an all day picnic at Riverside park. Jack Skidmore and Fred Whittlesey are in charge.

The patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. David Graham, Dr. and Mrs. Delbert Starnard, and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Cutler.

Formal Scheduled
A garden idea will be the motif for the Kappa Sigma spring formal to be held Saturday night at the chapter house. White lattices made realistic with vari-colored spring flowers, and a rock garden will give the desired effect. Linn Latourette, Bob Becker, and Ralph

New Ball Diamond Nearly Completed

The new varsity baseball field at the University of Oregon will soon become a reality as carpenters finish the stands designed to seat 2500 spectators. The diamond, located just south of huge McArthur court, will offer ball clubs a more spacious field. The stands are built along the west and south slopes, making a natural amphitheater.

scene of their spring formal. Japanese lanterns will be used to decorate and supper will be served in the garden. Johnny Robinson's orchestra from Portland has been engaged for the dance.

Patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. John P. MacKinnon, Dr. and Mrs. Harold J. Noble, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer.

Spring Informal to Be Held
Saturday night members of Phi Kappa Psi will hold their spring informal at the chapter house. Spring flowers and flood lights will be used to decorate, and Sherwood Burr and his music will play.

The patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dr. and Mrs. S. Stephenson Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Sante D. Caniparoli, and Mr. Joseph Angell and Miss Mary Jean Warner. Mark Cory is general chairman.
