With open house indefinitely postponed, classes and regular academic work take priority over social functions for the first week of the school year. The only form of all-campus entertainment scheduled for the week is the Hello dance offered Saturday evening.

Oregon Co-Eds Are Married

A goodly number of University women discarded thoughts of professions this summer and chose marriage as their life career. Among those who were wed during June, July, August and early September were Miss Marian Anderson, Sigma Kappa, to Vernon G. Arnett; Miss Ariene Butler to Claude C. Thompson; Miss Juliana Benton, Kappa Kappa Gamma, to James A. Carr; Miss Constance Baker, Kappa Kappa Gamma, to Omar Palmer, Kappa Sigma; Miss Betty Karket, Alpha Phi, to John H. Gould, Chi Psi; Miss Virginia Deifell, Kappa Kappa Gamma, to Treve Jones, Beta Theta Pi; Miss Catherine Disher, Chi Omega, to William L. Clark; Miss Mary Lou Muncy, Kappa Theta, to John Beard.

Miss Olive Henrietta Ritan, Delta Delta Delta, to Dwight Sumner Hedges, Phi Gamma Delta; Miss Maxine Reed, Alpha Xi Delta, to Gordon Day, Phi Kappa Psi; Miss Beatrice Tabke, Phi Mu, to Scott Williams; Miss Joan Stadelman to Thomas C. Quast; Miss Dorothy Swisher, Kappa Delta, to Kenneth Reynolds Jette, Sigma Chi; Miss Jane Walker, Kappa Kappa Gamma, to Cyrus Dolph, Chi Psi; Miss Winifred Winkler, Alpha Xi Delta, to Earl P. Newberry; Miss Bernice Walo to Donald Talford; Miss Margaret Weed to Alton Leander Hakanson; Miss Mary Gould Parsons, Gamma Phi Beta, to Richard Wilson, Phi Gamma Delta; Miss Neva Lois Thompson, Sigma Kappa, to Willard R. Anders; Miss Gladys Clausen, Delta Gamma, to Juel H. Lensch; Miss Helen Miller, Kappa Alpha Theta, to Elmer Franklin Palmer; Miss Helen Amort to Maurice Schorenberg; Miss Dorothy Bartel, Phi Mu, to Ralph Laumeister; and Miss Virginia Coke, Kappa Alpha Theta, to George Phillips Young.

Newlyweds Attend College
Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cash (nee Betty Williams) have moved to Eugene to make their home for the winter months while Mr. Cash attends the University of Oregon school of architecture. Mrs. Cash was a member of the June '34 graduating class from Oregon.

of Salem. Miss Hurlburt was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta at the University of Oregon and completed academic work in 1933. Judge and Mrs. Earle C. Latourette of Oregon City have announced the date of the wedding of their daughter, Anne, to Harry Wolf of Portland, on November 22. Both are former students of the University, where Miss Latourette was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta and Mr. Wolf with Delta Tau Delta.

Miss Caroline Card and Marshall Wright, both of the class of June, 1934, will be married in Honolulu in mid-November. Miss Card is a member of Alpha Phi and Mr. Wright of Kappa Sigma.

Others to join the ranks of engaged couples this summer are Miss Lora Leadbetter and Paul Branin, both of Portland. No date has been set for their wedding. Mr. Branin was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon here.

Miss Martha Ann Prothero of Portland has announced her engagement to Robert T. Pratt II of Portland. Miss Prothero attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Pratt was a member of Phi Beta Kappa at Yale.

The wedding of Miss Thelma Katherine Park of Portland and George S. Woodworth of Seattle will be an event of November 17. Miss Park was a member of Chi Omega social sorority at the University of Oregon.

Miss Elizabeth Berger of Portland, former University of Oregon student, will become the bride of Ira W. Coburn of San Francisco on October 18.

Commencement
tion, on the northside of the auditorium,—the graduation class in white and tulle, and high collars and bow-ties for the men,—the faculty with President Johnson in the center, prim and uncomfortable, one leg over the other knee, showing a high expanse of the old style boot, and a suit of dull pinkish, magenta color,—the board of regents with 'Juniper' P. Deady at the strategic front end of the row. Grand, grand! I was terribly impressed.

The four men of '78 delivered orations; the one woman in the class read an essay and pronounced the valedictory; our well-beloved Presbyterian seer, Dr. E. R. Geary, opened the ceremony with prayer; and Judge Deady closed the stated program with an address to the graduating class.

The class itself shall receive more detailed notice, but, meanwhile, Ellen Condon's essay and farewell to her classmates were preceded by a mixed quartette that rendered a delightful classic of the time, "Come Where the Wild Flowers Bloom." The soprano and alto were Misses Nellie McCormack and Irena Dunn; the ten or and bass, L. G. Adair and Frank McCain.

The ladies of the quartette are the sole survivors of that entire program,—Miss McCormack, the recently widowed wife of Chas. M. Collier, eldest son of our original Professor Collier and for many years Lane county's surveyor, and Miss Dunn now Mrs. Chas. S. Williams. L. G. Adair was the Southern Pacific's depot agent, perhaps from its first extension into Eugene from Harrisburg, and personal leader of the Methodist choir and Sunday school superintendent. Frank McCain was the Methodist minister's eldest son.

Those first commencements, when the classes were so small and the student body so infinitesimal, were the descendants of that archetypal imposed by Nebuchadnezzar when Judah still sat by the waters of Babylon. Like weddings and funerals and baptisms and christenings, there was a prescribed formula which the times and the people demanded. The diplomas were distributed, Judge Deady's last 'rotundal swoop' died out in reverberations, bouquets were brought in by the ushers and heaped at the feet of the class, and then, though it is not included in the printed program, there was probably a benediction. 1878 had duly and proudly inaugurated our roster of alumni.

The next issue will contain "The Preparatory Department on Parade."

Newly Purchased Volumes Added to Library Shelves

Poetry, Criticism, History, Essays Included in Books at Desk

The students of the University of Oregon will have 27 new books on the seven day and rental shelf this year, according to Miss Bernice Rise, in charge of the circulation desk at the University library. There are books of all types, poetry criticism, novels, essays, autobiographies, and history books. There is also one book by an Oregon woman about Oregon, "The Soul of America" by Eva Emery Dye.

The following is the list of books that were purchased this year: "Critique of Poetry," Michael Roberts; "The Wolves," Guy Mazeline; "You Must Relax," Edmund Jacobson, L.M.D.; "Omar Khayyam," Harold Lamb; "Rachmaninoff's 'Recollections,'" told to Oskar von Resemann; "The Story of American Furniture," Thomas Hamilton Ormsbee; "The Revolt Against Mechanism," L. P. Jacks; "Laughing Their Way," Martha Bensley Bruere, Mary Ritter Beard; "Going Abroad," Rose Macaulay; "The Origins of Modern Spain," J. B. Trend; "America's Recovery Program," members of the Brain Trust, Berle, Dickinson, Onthank, Thorp, Tugwell, Sachs, Tily, Pasovolsky and Wolman; "The World as I See It," Albert Einstein; "Modern American Prose," Carl Van Doren; "The Rock," T. S. Eliot; "A Chinese Testament," Autobiography of Tan Shin-Hua as told to S. Tretjakov; "Riders West," Ernest Haycox; "The Provincial Lady in America," E. M. Delafield; "My Normandy," Mary Cable Dennis; "Captain Nicholas," Hugh Walpole; "River Supreme," Alice Tisdale Hobart; "Lost Horizon," James Hilton; "Challenge to the New Deal," edited by Alfred Bingham and Seldon Rodman; "Beyond the Mexican Bay," Aldous Huxley; "Exile's Return," Malcolm Cowley; "The Method of Freedom," Walter Lippmann; "Brahm," William Murdoch; "Technics of Civilization," Lewis Mumford; "The Soul of America," Eva Emery Dye.

Behind the Whiskers
We're not going to draw the line and ask all but the tall, handsome, dark men to resign. We don't care much if your hair is red and wavy, or if your ears stick out. What we do care about is what you do with what you have. We like you neat and clean and well dressed. But not 'all dressed up like Ole—and bursting with pride.' You must look as though you just happened.

White shoes never. Dark shoes polished. Nails white polished—but short and clean. Never a dark blue stubble to mar the smoothness of lip or jaw. Unspotted suits. Creases where creases should be. And please make dates with your barber so that when you're ready for the party you won't look like a shaved pig and smell all sweetly of essence de rose water!

Fads in clothes are all right when working around the house or washing the car. When you take a girl out don't wear an old tie to hold your trousers up. Don't go to parties in dirty shirts and mussed suits. Don't wear tired hats. Don't wear filthy white shoes.

Formal afternoon clothes won't do you much good unless you're in the habit of being photographed coming home from church on Easter Sunday. Or perhaps you're often an usher and never a groom. Or a concert pianist who looks awfully well in a cutaway.

Curb your primitive instincts and be a little more conservative about clothes. Don't wear lurid neckties and cover your front with hardware—chains, fobs, insignia. And if you must wear spats to keep your ankles warm, wear them with informal clothes.

Now harken unto a few feminine pet peeves: Socks that droop without benefit of garters. White trousers that show the ravages of time, strawberry festivals, wet paint and the neighbor's bulldog. Let that be a warning to you!

Housekeeping Rooms Desired by Students
Housekeeping rooms near the campus, which do not have private entrances to the rooms are wanted for students. These rooms should not be private apartments but should be in private homes. Anyone who wishes to rent rooms or obtain further information, call Mrs. Alice MacDuff at the Dean's office.

Editor's Note: This column will contain material by nationally known authors on matters of current campus interest. Today's article is taken from the booklet, "Gentlemen Preferred," and is published by permission of Elizabeth Woodward and the Ladies Home Journal.

People judge you by your neckties, what you order at the soda fountain, and the girls you take out. If you're really good, boys admire your taste, ability and general success. Girls gaze on you with awe, as a sort of goal to be achieved.

Now you've a way of sizing up girls. You don't date girls who scream loudly in public. You don't take to dances girls who can't dance. You don't appear at informal parties with girls in drooping chiffons. Your girl may use more make-up than you suspect, but she doesn't look as if her mouth would smear and her lashes run if she hit a sudden squall. Her clothes are always right clothes: simple, unobtrusive, correct. She has an air about her of breeding, assurance and genuineness. Never affected. Never conspicuous. She gets along beautifully with everybody and fits in.

You care about the impression your girls make on the other fellows, on the girls you know, on your mother and father and your sisters, uncles and aunts. Well, the girls care about the impression you make. So the girls and I have gone into a huddle over you. A few things that every young man should know.

prizes are: first prize, $100; second prize, $75; third prize, $50; and fourth prize, $25. For the foreign division the prizes are $50 for the first prize, and $25 for the second prize. There will be three honorable mentions, consisting of $25 each. The essays must be at least 5000 words in length. The contest will close on April 8, 1935.

Steel Head Scores NRA
New York—Declaring that "no business is willing to spend a dollar except for immediate requirements," T. M. Girdler, chairman of the board of the Republic Steel corporation, said tonight the policies and philosophies of the "new deal" are holding back recovery in steel and allied industries.

Seek Business Attitude
New York—A cross section of the businessman's attitude on future relations of government to industry is to be sought by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Code Prices to Be Backed
Portland—Threatened legal action to enforce price-fixing provisions of the NRA lumber code was invoked for the first time in Oregon today when J. H. Chambers and Son of Cottage Grove were charged with selling below code prices.

EX-CCC Member Arrested
Portland—A reputed plan of a former civilian conservation corps member to appropriate for his own use the $25 a month portion of his pay assigned to a "dependent," was under federal investigation tonight.

Positions Still Open
Although many new students have already been given jobs on the Emerald, those still desiring positions are asked to leave their names with Newton Stearns, managing editor. Names will be put on file and positions given out as they are found.

Freshmen Given Physical Exams

Physical examinations given during registration week amounted to approximately 575 men and 475 women students, for the purpose of seeing that students were physically fit for studies. Those found to be deficient were given special advice and treatment. All those not previously vaccinated for smallpox were given a vaccination and new students were checked for tuberculosis. Students who took the vaccinations were asked to report to the dispensary at once for an examination in order to complete registration. The dispensary hours have been set for 8 to 12 and 1 to 6 on Monday to Friday inclusive, and from 8 to 12 on Saturday.

Resume of Today's News
By Associated Press
NRA CODES TO BE FREER
Washington—Uncovering a probable change of course for NRA, Donald R. Richberg, the president's recovery coordinator, advised American business today to leave the "lopsided guild socialism" of price fixing and production control in favor of "the old competitive system."
He labeled an "Irridescent dream" the belief of some industrialists that permanent prosperity can be obtained through the price fixing, production limiting method. At the same time he asserted such practices were justified in emergencies to prevent the waste of natural resources.

ODDS FAVOR CARDINALS
St. Louis—Despite their loss of the second world series game, the Cardinals remain the favorites to win the championship, according to revised odds of Tom Kearney, betting coordinator.
Here are Kearney's revised odds: Cardinals to win series, 7 to 10. Detroit to win series, even money.

Lumberman Backs NRA
Portland—W. B. Greeley, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, tonight declared he apparently had been "misquoted" when represented as favoring elimination of price-fixing from the NRA lumber code.

Changes Appear On Law Faculty

Several changes have been made in the teaching staff of the law school this year with the addition of Claude Brown, assistant professor, and associate professor, Henry Everett.
Mr. Brown practiced law in Iowa since 1929. He holds his bachelor of arts, bachelor of law and doctor's degrees. Mr. Brown will instruct titles, rights and land, corporations, damages and business law.
Associate Professor Henry Everett is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and holds his bachelor of arts degree from Boston and his masters from Duke university. He is now working on his doctor's dissertation, which will entitle him to his doctor's degree from Duke university.
Mr. Everett previously taught at the Boston university and practiced law for seven years in Massachusetts and Florida.

for further investigation after he pleaded guilty in federal court today to forging the name of a relative to one of the checks.

Seventy students have turned out for the University band this year to play at football games and other A.S.U.O. functions. According to John Stehn, director of the organization, the Oregon band has better prospects than it has had for years. Mr. Stehn wants girls who play musical instruments to sign up with him for concert-band work later in the year.

By MARIAN JOHNSON
"Little Man What Now," present attraction at the Colonial is good entertainment. It is based on Hans Fallada's novel by the same name, and offers an all star cast, headed by Margaret Sullivan, and Douglas Montgomery. Although like most movies, the plot is sliced a bit, fine direction and character portrayal make "Little Man What Now" one of the best current movies. Someone should give young Mr. Montgomery an orchid for all the tears he had to weep. He is quite convincing.

At the McDonald is Marlene Dietrich in the Scarlet Empress. If you like Marlene you should tote on this.
