

Ducklings Handed 12-3 Loss By Rooks

By BILL MCINTURFF

Oregon State's Rooks avenged their grid defeat of a week ago by felling the Oregon Ducklings 12 to 3, on Bell field last night. Last Friday the Lemon-Yellow yearlings conquered their traditional rivals, 7 to 3.

At Corvallis under the arc lights the Eugene eleven was definitely outplayed throughout the entire game. The team made but four first downs as contrasted with 12 for the Beaverinos. Two of the Frosh first downs were from passes, while the Orange Babes' dozen were all from scrimmage. The Ducklings collected a total gain of 78 yards while the Rooks made 195.

and Oregon would be closed within a short time.

"We must speak up and out against this bill which intends to rob our state of an educated youth, and strikes at the very basis of our government," concluded Gilbert.

Joe Renner, president of the A. S. U. O., urged the support of the students in the University's fight against these two proposals which will appear on the ballots Tuesday.

MONDAY'S "A" SCHEDULE

4:00 Beta Theta Pi vs. Pi Kappa Alpha
4:40 Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Phi Sigma Kappa
5:20 Phi Delta Theta vs. La Casa Filipina

After letting the "B" quint take the floor for the past few days the "A" teams will take things over for three successive days in the intramural basketball tournament starting Monday.

One point margins in their first "A" and "B" contests were distressing to the Betas, defending titlists in both sections, during the first two weeks of the schedule. The millrace five eked out wins over their opponents with a 6 to 5 edge over the Kappa Sigs and a 7 to 6 win over the Phi Psis.

Looming up as contenders for the headfeathers of the last year's crown winners so far are the Phi Deltas, S.P.E.'s Yeomen, Phi Sigs, and A.T.O.'s.

Days Are Here Again! and other hits on George Gershwin's program at 3:00; Giovanni Martinelli, famous operatic tenor, with Detroit symphony orchestra, at 5:00; Will Rogers at 6:30.

The beach combers of Waikiki will stop strumming their guitars and gather around the loudspeaker on Sunday at 8:30, when Jack Benny's familiar "Hello folks" is heard in the flowery islands in the far off mid-Pacific. For on that date station KGU, NBC affiliate in Honolulu, will be added to the network carrying the play and by-play of Jack and his co-workers—Mary Liningstone, Frank Parker, Announcer Don Wilson and Don Bestor and his orchestra.

Other good NBC bets: "Maybeline Musical Romance" at 12:30; "House by the Side of the Road" with Tony Wons at 1:30; "Grand Hotel"—drama, with Anne Seymour and Don Ameche at 3:30; Cantor and Rubinoff at 5:00; Manhattan Merry-Go-Around at 6:00; and the Pontiac program at 7:30.

The Rook next "fed" the ball to Jackson, whose head-down rushes started the Orange Babes on another touchdown attempt. Jackson escorted the pigskin to the Duckling 12 yard stripe, where a long pass was attempted and completed. Ensued a long argument between the referees. Finally it was decided that the Rooks had used the illegal "screen pass." The Rooks were penalized fifteen yards and the ball given to the Frosh.

Mountain Scores

In the second half alert yearling center, Vernon Moore, intercepted Jackson's pass and lumber to the Rook 40. A pass from Williamson to Lasselle netted a first down. But the Frosh offense was stopped by Bob Mountain's re-entrance into the game. Mountain slashed away through the Duckling line and gained two first downs. On fourth down with only 2 yards to go for score, the Beaverinos attempted a wide lateral which would have scored only for a timely tackle by Bill Dick on the one foot line.

Dick kicked out of danger, but on the next play Bob Mountain "spun" out of the grasp of three tacklers, diagonaled down the field 19 yards for a touchdown, to end the game with a Rook victory, 12 to 3.

Oregon's score came in the first few minutes of play. After a Frosh penalization of five yards, Les Lewis dropped back into the kicking position and arched the ball over the Rook crossbars from the 15 yard line for 3 points. A blocked Frosh punt on the one yard line put the Beaverinos in a position to score in the second quarter. Elmer Kolberg, ex-Lincoln high star, plunged over the line for six points. With only three minutes to play in the final quarter Mountain ran 19 yards for the Rooks' final touchdown.

Though statistics show the Oregon men in a decidedly unfavorable light, in reality the Spirit of '38 team caused their opponents plenty of trouble. Time after time they ran the ball deep into scoring territory only to be halted at the goal line by an inspired Oregon State line.

Co-captains Vernon Moore and Chuck Brache along with Tony Amato and Leif Jacobsen easily equalled anything the Beaverino forward wall had to offer. Dale Lasselle's punt returns down the sidelines proved him to be the most shifty runner on the field. Les Lewis, ace punter, and Willy Williamson, diminutive ball packer, merit notice.

Rooks Fumble

Oregon's first chance to score came when the Ducklings recovered a fumble of Rook safety Bob Mountain. A long pass, Lasselle to Williamson, set them on the Orange 11 yard line, first down and ten. After unsuccessful sallies at the striped area Les Lewis completed a very difficult place kick from the coffin corner. Frosh 3, Rooks 0.

Then backed by a growing Rook esprit de corps Elmer Kolberg ripped through the Frosh defense for three first downs. On the four yard line the Rook advance was finally halted. Then, Dale Lasselle, attempting to punt out of danger, was overwhelmed by a mass of Beaverino linemen.

Miller Blocks Punt

Jim Miller, husky tackle and Rook captain, blocked the punt. The ball rolled over the goal line but spun back and came to rest on the 6 inch line in Oregon State's possession. Kolberg smashed through the line for the Rooks' first score. Weaver's kick was to the side. Frosh 3, Rooks 6.

The Rook next "fed" the ball to Jackson, whose head-down rushes started the Orange Babes on another touchdown attempt. Jackson escorted the pigskin to the Duckling 12 yard stripe, where a long pass was attempted and completed. Ensued a long argument between the referees. Finally it was decided that the Rooks had used the illegal "screen pass." The Rooks were penalized fifteen yards and the ball given to the Frosh.

PIGSKIN PORTRAITS

What are they saying? The two men above are Southern California's Coach Howard Jones and the Trojan quarter, Cotton-top Warburton, who has not been going so good this year in spite of last year's all-American rating. Wonder if Scooter is getting called down or are they just talking it over?

Fiji, S.A.M. Fives Postpone 'B' Tilt

Because many of their men were busy in preparation for the homecoming rally parade, the Sigma Alpha Mu and Phi Gamma Delta hoop squads came out of a huddle yesterday with the decision to postpone their "B" division tilt that was originally scheduled to swing into action at 4 o'clock yesterday.

The managers of the two squads and the donut department heads have decided to settle the physical debate at some later date either today or some time next week.

Underwood to Lecture About Brahms Monday

Rex Underwood, professor of piano at the University school of music, will present another lecture in his series on chamber music Monday, November 5, at the Hotel Osburn.

He will discuss the life and personality of Brahms. Selections from Brahms will be played. The string quintet with the aid of John Steha, director of the University band, will play the clarinet quintet, and Si Botts will assist in a horn trio.

Iguesso Finds Joe Lillard; Picks Ducks, Looks Over Hoopers

By CLAIR JOHNSON
Emerald Sports Editor

TODAY is Iguesso's again for his weekly flings at what's going to happen in the afternoon grid conflicts and he once more plays the loyal Oregon Duck and picks the Webfoots to waddle to victory over Montana here this rainy day. But the score, the little one affirms, will not be a wild three or four touchdown defeat of the Grizzlies but only by a two goal margin.

Confidentially speaking the quicker names Stanford and Washington to continue their drive for the 1934 glory crown by winning with quite fair ease over the Uclans and our neighboring Beavers. In the California-Santa Clara fracas the non-conference lads will give a few downward jerks to any ambitions the Bears might have.

Despite Bing Crosby on the bench and leading scorer Ike Petersen capering around the Gonzaga Bulldogs look like bad picks against the San Francisco Dons, Minnesota, Purdue, and Pitt appear to be the best bets over lowly Michigan, Chicago, and Eimer Layden's Irish.

By scooting into an intramural game or two and pestering the Emerald donut reporter, the prophecying duck has decided the Betas are due to take pretty much of a riding in the hoop competition from now on. A few individuals pleasing to the eye so far are: Arne Lindgren, last year's all star, Dave Silver, Bob Anderson, Malcolm Bauer, and Glen Palm.

If "Sawdust-field" Dick Johnson, Guard sports editor, doesn't want to take a pretty stiff rrimming tomorrow in the pressbox he better crawl in with a disubbe and not plant himself anywhere in the vicinity of his pal "Turf-field"
