Russell to Head Card Campaign For Next Term

> New Chief Seeks to Make Drive Successful

Roland Hayes, Hoffmann, Heifitz, Durant Slated To Appear Here

Bill Russell, senior in business administration, has been appointed by Joe Renner, student body president, to head the intensive campaign to be conducted next term for membership in the Associated Students of the University

Russell, who served on the same campaign last spring, after the state board of higher education made the payment of student body collaboration with the graduate manager's office. Russell is going distinct line between members and non-members, so as to be fair to those who support the activities of the A.S.U.O. by paying the $5 fee, and second, to organize an extensive membership campaign to begin work at once.
