

Simp's Glimpse

By Ned Simpson

Today's glimpse at the sporting world will be but a peek, with the optics centering first on the wandering Webfoot basketballers, who returned yesterday noon from their tour into the inhospitable northern sections of the conference. No alibis are being offered by the previously much touted Ducks for their failure to win all of the games played against Idaho and Washington State. None are needed, for they played clean, hard ball against both teams, but were hampered by cold weather and conditions, extreme floor and lack of good old yelling—a thing which may seem trivial to some of the uninformed, but just try to play a good game when everyone is yelling for the other side. Anyway, go get 'em next time, team!

There's been too much pushing and holding on the part of the ball players in donut volleyball games. It might not be a bad idea if the referees would get a rule book and kind of brush up on the finer points.

Rumors are flying around the campus about the Lettermen's Limp—Order of the "O" dancing mele. From all sides come queries about what the features are going to be. We sicked little Bruno onto the story and he reports that the biggest part of the whole affair seems to be centered around "Bath-tub Eddie" Farrar, the Frisco Freak, who will put on a dance exhibition. Other fine stunts will see several of the campus' prominent vocalists, rumba dancers, and all-round entertainers doing their own inimitable stuff.

Tonight at 7:30 in the men's gym at Corvallis, the Purple and Gold horde from Beaver meets Slat's Gill's bunch of Beaver maple court artists. The Huskies took two straight from the Staters last week in Seattle, by identical scores both nights, 30 to 25. The Beavers are out for revenge, and with their little cheese box of a basketball floor working to their advantage they should take the northerners. The task will be a hard one, however, if Galer, Washington sharpshooter, finds his eye in the dim light.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1935

Freshman Quintet To Play Northern Hoopmen Tonight

Tilts Scheduled at Astoria And Longview

The University of Oregon freshmen basketball squad, finding themselves in a winning style, will attempt to continue their winning ways Friday and Saturday evenings, when they will head northward to meet the Lower Columbia junior college at Longview and Astoria high school at the ocean city.

The Ducklings will open their northern campaign against the J. C. quintet Friday night, and will entertain the Fishermen Saturday.

The port-town quintet grabbed the high school state title last year, and have practically the same aggregation back. Out of 27 games so far this year, the Fishermen have dropped but four games. Coach Gene Shields picked a traveling squad of 8 men yesterday afternoon at the final practice. This squad includes Jack Stafford, Bill Dick and Dale LaSalle, forwards; Dave Silver, Floyd Danner, centers; and Vernon Moore, Virgil Ragsdale, and Lee Canessa, guards. He also plans to carry one alternate.

The frosh will leave by auto this morning at 9 o'clock. Shields urges all men who are making the trip to meet at the College Side, a few minutes before 9.

four rounds ending on February 13. Since Ingram Kjosness, last fall's title winner, has not entered the winter term race, the dope is on Floyd Lees, George Telford, and Aaron Miller to fight into the finals for the celluloid laurels.

'Hittites' Subject Of Dunn Lecture

"Passing of the Hittites" will be the subject of the speech by Frederic S. Dunn, head of the Latin department, over KOAC at 8:40 tonight. This is the fourth lecture in his series, "The Wonder Story of Archaeology."

The Hittites were almost unknown at one time, but archaeology has restored to them their great powers of old, Professor Dunn said in a brief preview of the speech. The armies of Assyria, Egypt, and that of the Hittites continued a struggle for supremacy for a long time, and it is contended that at one time the Hittites held Egypt in subjection for three centuries, he said. The Hittites, who were best known in the eleventh and twelfth centuries B. C., once captured and destroyed the city of Babylon.

18 Undeclared Volleyball Teams Top Donut Loops

Eighteen volleyball sextets, representing in both the "A" and "B" leagues, the defending titlists, Phi Delta Theta, the A.T.O.'s, the Kappa Sig, the S.P.E.'s, the Yeomen, the Fijis, the Phi Psi's, and the Betas, have attracted the eyes of the gallery boys so far in the annual donut tournament. All but the Kappa Sig have maintained a perfect record in each division for the first half of the round-robin play.

Following are the complete standings up to and including yesterday's contests:

Duck Hoopsters To Meet Huskies Monday Evening

Back from a most disastrous jaunt into the conference hinterlands, the Oregon basketball squad prepared today to catch up on studies and to run a few days of hurried drill before the game with Washington here on Monday, January 28.

The Webfoot hoopsters lost three, and won one conference game. They split a two game series with Idaho at Moscow, then journeyed to Pullman, where they were outpointed two nights in a row by Washington State. However, the Oregonians returned home with a good taste in their mouth, for they downed Gonzaga 25-32 in a non-conference tilt at Spokane before leaving Wednesday night.

Tonight the University of Washington five meets Oregon State at Corvallis for a two game series. The Beavers have already dropped two games to Washington, the conference title defenders. This coming Monday night the Huskies will journey to Eugene, where they will complete their barnstorming trip with two games against Oregon. Washington has been defeated but once this year. The Idaho Vandals spilled the Huskies in the first game between the two teams for a surprise victory.

Boushey Urges 'Pugs' To Prepare for Donut Leather-Pushing Meet

All ambitious, would-be pugilists who wish to compete in the all-campus boxing tournament should see Earl Boushey, supervisor of donut activities, immediately.

The tournament will start directly after the completion of the intramural wrestling bouts, and by that time all entrants will be expected to be in first class physical condition. Three workouts a week, or a total of 12 in all, must be taken to qualify for the tourney.

"No one," said Mr. Boushey, "will be permitted to fight unless he is in absolutely tip-top shape."

TRADE CLUB SEES FILM

The U. S. Rubber company of Portland presented four reels to the foreign trade club last night on the production of rubber on their plantation in the Dutch East Indies. This process was shown from the clearing of the jungle to the finishing processes of purifying the sap, the exportation, and the shipping of the rubber. These reels were taken in Sumatra and very clearly showed the preparation of rubber in all its stages. A short business meeting was also held.

Duck Ace Tops Scoring Column With 54 Tallies

Willie Jones Leads Pack In Northern Division

Willie Jones, six-foot-four, 188 pound Webfoot center, led northern division scoring honors today with a total of 54 points in 7 games played. In order to best the record of 176 points set last season by Bobby Galer of Washington, Willie must account for 122 points in the next 9 games.

Another Oregon hoopster comparatively

Willie Jones high in the swishing ranks is Sam Liebowitz, in fifth place with a total of 33 centers as the season nears the half-way mark. Resting in second place is Ralph Rogers, Cougar long shot ace, with a total of 47 tallies in 7 games also.

However, the basket hounds most likely to head the column at the end of the season are Wally Geraghty of Idaho, at present in third place with 42 points, and Bob Galer of Washington, with 39. Since Idaho has played only five games and Washington but four, Geraghty and Galer have the greater part of the season left in which to run up their individual honors.

- Following is the list of hoopsters who have scored 20 or more points.
1. W. Jones, Oregon 54
 2. Rogers, W. S. C. 47
 3. Geraghty, Idaho 42
 4. Galer, Washington 39
 5. Liebowitz, Oregon 33
 6. Bishop, Washington 29
 7. Iverson, Idaho 29
 8. Johnson, W. S. C. 25
 9. Ch. Wagner, Washington 24
 10. Houston, W. S. C. 23
 11. Klumb, Idaho 22
 12. Palmberg, O. S. C. 20
 13. Lyman, O. S. C. 20

PARSONS RETURNS

Dr. P. A. Parsons, professor of sociology, returned yesterday from Portland where he met a committee from the child welfare commission and a committee from Governor Charles H. Martin's planning board. Dr. Parsons, who stopped over in Salem on his return trip said that the bill proposing a state department of public welfare has been amended and re-introduced. Prospects indicate, he said, that the bill will now be passed. The amendments have not affected the purposes of the original bill.

Dr. Parsons, chairman of the Oregon planning council and head of the public welfare bureau, is much interested in this bill which is so closely related to his work.

JAMESON LEAVES

Dr. Samuel H. Jameson left for Portland yesterday afternoon to attend a meeting of a committee of the chamber of commerce which is working on a population study of the state. Dr. Jameson is chairman of the population committee and a member of the land classification and use committee.

Exciting Frays Feature Play in Volleyball Tournament

Yeomen, A.T.O., Sigma Chi, Phi Psi Count Wins

TODAY'S VOLLEYBALL SCHEDULE

4:00—Delta Upsilon vs. Sigma Nu "A."
 Beta Theta Pi vs. Sigma Alpha Mu "A."
 4:40—Chi Psi vs. Sigma hall "A."
 Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Abba Dabba "A."
 5:20—S.P.E. vs. S.A.E. "B."
 Gamma hall vs. Phi Kappa Psi "B."

Led by "Flit" Van Vliet and Ralph Terjeson, Kappa Sig yesterday nosed out Omega hall in the wildest, most exciting, three-game duel yet staged in the donut volleyball tournament.

After dropping the first game 15-11, Kappa Sig came back in the second to eke out an exciting 19-17 victory to the matters up. At one time in the 10-point advantage, but due mainly to the outstanding play of Red Dinsmore and Chuck Shimomura, Omega hall battled to a deadlock at the end of the regular 15 points only to lose in the extra period.

With the games standing at one all Van Vliet and Terjeson came through again to lead their squad to a 15-11 win for the match victory.

Yeomen Snatch Top Spot

The Yeomen, with Ingram Kjosness and Howard Ohmart doing most of the damage, moved into undisputed possession of the top rung of league three by downing Delta Upsilon in successive games by scores of 15-8, 15-8. Bob Newlands and Bob Lucas were outstanding for the losers.

Alpha Tau Omega kept its record free from defeat by downing the Theta Chi with very little difficulty 15-10 and 15-8. The rangy A.T.O.'s showed the most effective and smoothest passing attack yet exhibited in the tournament to establish themselves as one of the outstanding favorites.

Sigma Chi Triumph

Sigma Chi kept pace with the A.T.O.'s in league two by downing the tiny La Casa Filipina sextet, though they were forced to play all three games to do so. The Filipinos came back after dropping the first tilt 15-5 to stage what must be regarded as a minor upset by defeating the giant Sigma Chi 15-12. The Sweethearts then settled down and sewed up the match with a decisive 15-1 victory.

Phi Kappa Psi turned in its third straight win of the season by

By Gordon Connelly
Beta Theta Pi went leaps and jumps ahead of the Yeomen in the all-year donut race after doubling the Phi Delta Theta handballers three games out of three for the intramural title yesterday afternoon.

With the railbirds jamming the catwalk, clinging upon the beams, and perching on the chicken wiring in the handball court annex of the men's gym, the fighting Betas went into the boxes confident and came out champions.

Big Downs Sprague

Hugh McCredie, the tall Scot football quarterback, ran Vernon Sprague into the wall with a 21-13, 21-9 impact. Grinning and easing his way, Sprague's taller opponent scored often on caroming corner shots and on the Phi Delta's long shots which Sprague couldn't keep off the floor.

Anxious to engrave the Beta emblem on the court record, Bobby Parke hijacked the scalp of Jack Mulder in the second rank singles. After capturing a gruelling first game, "Smoky" moped through the second game, while Mulder applied the sticky grid co-captain, however, came back in the final contest to wrap up the match with a 21-12 win.

Van Nice, Hunter Shine

Unaware of the outcome of the previous events, the two duets swung into a torrid pace in the doubles match, in which the Phi Delta athletes blazed through the initial tilt, 21-8. Bob Van Nice took the initiative, culminating repeated and long-lived rallies with well-executed bank shots and smashes, while Bob Hunter, his partner, drove his share of kills into the service wall.

The Beta doublet of Spike Powers and George Corey pitted the characteristic Millrace fire against the tiring Phi Deltas in the last two contests for 21-19 and 21-8 triumphs. Powers, the spark of come-back blaze, repeated his go-or-give-in drive that startled the Yeomen in "A" basketball title fracas and gave the losing Betas a moral victory.

Millracers Hold Lead

As a result of the third Beta Theta Pi championship in the 1934-35 pennant chase, the Betas lead the field for all-year honors 49 points ahead of the independent Yeomen who have 392 points. The Millrace fraternity also took top prizes in swimming and water polo and finished second to the Independents in "A" basketball.

whitewashing Alpha hall 15-0, 15-8, and the S.P.E.'s also remained undefeated by winning from the Phi Kaps on a forfeit to complete the afternoon's play.

STUDENT BREAKS LEG

Marclay Eisaman, sophomore from Portland, slipped on the steps between the drama office and the property room in Johnson hall yesterday, breaking her leg. It was thought at first that her leg had received a bad sprain, but x-rays proved it to be broken.
