

Extend Air Mail Laws

WASHINGTON — A presidential message, recommending that all civilian aviation be placed under the control of the interstate commerce commission, was followed today by senate approval of a measure to extend existing air mail laws to September 1.

Debt Plans Collapse

WASHINGTON—Soviet-American negotiations for a settlement of 16-year-old Russian debts of $500,000,000 abruptly collapsed late today, carrying with them hopes for an immediate and greatly expanded trade with the Soviet union.

House Supports Martin

SALEM — The house of the Oregon legislature went down the line today in support of Governor Charles H. Martin when it passed two of his major proposals and completed action on another which paved the way for the governor now to name his advisory planning commission.

Prepare Mooney Petition

SAN FRANCISCO — An attempt to obtain a definite ruling from the United States supreme court on whether all legal doors have been closed against Tom J. Mooney in California, or whether there remains one more possible avenue to freedom for him, was announced here today by George T. Davis, his attorney.

House Ejects Communist

WASHINGTON — A shouting, struggling communist was hustled out of a staid house committee hearing today after charging that the pending administration security bill is a "program of security for wealth and profit."

Hull Wants Conference

WASHINGTON — An endorsement by Secretary Hull of the calling of a new international economic conference, coupled with lively world court and money debates, today poured into the senate agriculture committee's study of world trade.

Campus Calendar

Waffle Wiggle directorate will meet at 4:00 today upstairs in the College Side.

REBEC TO SPEAK

Dr. Rebec, head of the philosophy department, will speak Saturday afternoon, February 2, before the College Folk club at Corvallis. This is an organization of faculty wives, but the meeting will also be open for townspeople.

Dr. Parsons Says Religion Is Arts Basis

Speaker Traces Origin Of Spiritual Thought To Early Times

Second of Lecture Series Is February 7

By Signe Rasmussen Religion grows out of a man's attempt to adjust himself to his environment and to understand the supernatural or spiritual world which he apprehends but never comprehends. It forms the very basis for culture and is so intertwined with it that the two are inseparable.

Starts Series

Dr. P. A. Parsons who delivered a lecture on "The Relation of Religion to the Origin and Development of Culture" at Villard hall last night. This was the first of a series on religion.

Fourteen Editors Of College Papers To Talk Over NBC

Discussions to Cover Wide Campus Interests

Fourteen editors of college newspapers in all parts of the country will be heard over the National broadcasting company networks on Saturday, February 2, in discussions of student opinions on current campus questions.

Dr. Hayes Given Leave for Study

Dr. Marion G. Hayes, assistant physician for the University of Oregon health service, has been granted a leave of absence for the spring term, it was announced today.

Maloney Reports Tax Payment Due

Federal income tax returns for the calendar year 1934 must be filed with the office of J. W. Maloney, collector of internal revenue, not later than March 15, 1935.

Baker Gives Library Book on Pioneer Life

As a gift of the author, the book, "Forty Years a Pioneer," written by W. W. Baker in memory of his father, was received this week by the university library. It is a story of the business life of Dorsey Baker from 1848-1888.

"Lettermen's Limp" Offers Novel Dance Entertainment

The secret is out! The entire personnel of the "Belles" who are scheduled to sing, dance, and be merry at the Order of the "O" Lettermen's Limp this Saturday night has been announced.

Today's Emerald

is brought to you by the following advertisers.

- De Neffe's Montclair Hotel Graham's Broadway, Inc. McDonald Theatre Perlich's Sez Sue The Cottage Prince Albert Patronize them.

Casteel Sets Deadline For Jewett Talk

Department of Speech Offers 3 Prizes Totalling $45

Immediate entrance into the W. F. Jewett speaking contest will give participants better chances of winning one of the three prizes offered, John L. Casteel, director of speech, said today. The deadline for entering the contest which will be held on the evening of February 14 has been set for next Monday, February 4.

Beck Tells Effect Of Drugs in Talk

Telling of the influence of hashish and peyote, commonly known as mescal, Lester F. Beck, assistant professor of psychology, addressed a group in Omega hall last night.

Dunn to Describe Prehistoric City

"Ur of the Chaldees" will be the topic of the fifth lecture in a series of radio talks on archaeology, given by Frederic S. Dunn, head of the latin department, over KOAC tonight at 8:15.

Sheldon Begins Historical Work

Here for a two weeks' visit, Dr. H. D. Sheldon, research professor of history, hopes to begin work on several historical projects now in the process of organization. "The History of the University of Oregon," one of the projects, will be completed in collaboration with Karl W. Ombath, dean of personnel administration.

Sheldon Begins Historical Work

Dr. Sheldon, former dean of the school of education, has been in Salem for the past year, undergoing medical treatment. While he plans to return to Salem at the end of his visit here, he expects to be here permanently in a month. Dr. Sheldon is at his residence at 1343 University street with his wife, who is recovering from a five months' illness.

Vernon, Allard Foiled; Plates, Film to Police

Cameraman Stivers Vernon and Reporter Winston Allard, covering the Coed Capers last night for the Emerald from their vantage point in the projection room of Gerlinger hall, were discovered and kept at bay by brave coeds until police arrived to confiscate and turn over to the frolickers the newsman's two cameras, plates and 50 feet of exposed motion picture film. Minus the illustrations the story is found on this page.

Big New Library Will Have Latest Aids to Readers

Better Provisions Planned For Work in Stacks

Study, writing, research work, and recreational reading are to be promoted in the new three-story library building, according to the plans as they are formulated by Dean E. F. Lawrence, of the school of architecture, in conference with Miss Lucy Lewis, head of the higher education library system; M. H. Douglass, librarian, the faculty library committee and staff.

Hidden Observers Admire Elegant Bustles at Capers

Projection Room Serves as Spectator Row

By Stivers Vernon It had to be. The house mothers were there in force. In fact several of them—somebody who looked like house mothers—sat so close to us during our abbreviated sojourn in the projection booth, that we could have reached out and touched them at any time.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Hofmann, the pianist who electrified Europe at the age of five, and America at the age of 10, has since then consistently been regarded as one of the greatest interpreters and virtuosos of all time. The unbridled enthusiasm with which Europe has acclaimed his recent appearances there, is merely an echo of the warmth with which American audiences have always greeted this master of the piano.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Students of the University will be given an opportunity to hear Hofmann in McArthur court Sunday afternoon, February 10. Members of the ASUO will be admitted free to the event.

After Crash in Clouds Killed Two

These two planes crashed high in the air and plunged to earth, one wrecked and the other crippled, two flyers dying in the collision near Murfreesboro, Tennessee. The crafts were Indiana national guard planes returning from the Miami air races. Lieut. W. B. Morgan of Indianapolis and his observer landed safely in their crippled ship, shown above, coming down in a cornfield six miles away. The dead airmen were Lieuts. Henderson Wheeler and Richard Miller, also of Indianapolis, killed instantly in the wrecked plane shown below.

Will Durant Speaks Here February 14

'Program for America' Noted Thinker's Topic For Address

Lecturer to Hold Forum At Conclusion of Talk

Speaking on the topic of "A Program for America," Will Durant, popular lecturer, philosopher, publisher, and writer in current magazines, will come to the campus for a lecture Friday 14. The affair was originally scheduled to be given in Gerlinger hall, but it has now been definitely decided to hold it in McArthur court. It is scheduled for 8 o'clock in the evening.

Hidden Observers Admire Elegant Bustles at Capers

Morse Secures Use of Gerlinger For Waffle Wiggle

Dorm Members Will Save Cost of One Lunch

Margilee Moore, general chairman of the annual Waffle Wiggle, announced today that the "eat and dance" affair will be held in Gerlinger hall. The waffles and coffee will be served in the sun room, and the main gym will be used only for dancing.

Eugene Gleemen Will Sing at Shrine Benefit

The Eugene Gleemen, with John Stark Evans, conductor, will leave Eugene at 1 o'clock today for Portland where they are slated to give a concert in the civic auditorium under the auspices of the Portland Rotary club for the benefit of the Shrine hospital.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Hofmann, the pianist who electrified Europe at the age of five, and America at the age of 10, has since then consistently been regarded as one of the greatest interpreters and virtuosos of all time. The unbridled enthusiasm with which Europe has acclaimed his recent appearances there, is merely an echo of the warmth with which American audiences have always greeted this master of the piano.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Students of the University will be given an opportunity to hear Hofmann in McArthur court Sunday afternoon, February 10. Members of the ASUO will be admitted free to the event.

Will Durant Speaks Here February 14

'Program for America' Noted Thinker's Topic For Address

Lecturer to Hold Forum At Conclusion of Talk

Speaking on the topic of "A Program for America," Will Durant, popular lecturer, philosopher, publisher, and writer in current magazines, will come to the campus for a lecture Friday 14. The affair was originally scheduled to be given in Gerlinger hall, but it has now been definitely decided to hold it in McArthur court. It is scheduled for 8 o'clock in the evening.

Hidden Observers Admire Elegant Bustles at Capers

Morse Secures Use of Gerlinger For Waffle Wiggle

Dorm Members Will Save Cost of One Lunch

Margilee Moore, general chairman of the annual Waffle Wiggle, announced today that the "eat and dance" affair will be held in Gerlinger hall. The waffles and coffee will be served in the sun room, and the main gym will be used only for dancing.

Eugene Gleemen Will Sing at Shrine Benefit

The Eugene Gleemen, with John Stark Evans, conductor, will leave Eugene at 1 o'clock today for Portland where they are slated to give a concert in the civic auditorium under the auspices of the Portland Rotary club for the benefit of the Shrine hospital.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Hofmann, the pianist who electrified Europe at the age of five, and America at the age of 10, has since then consistently been regarded as one of the greatest interpreters and virtuosos of all time. The unbridled enthusiasm with which Europe has acclaimed his recent appearances there, is merely an echo of the warmth with which American audiences have always greeted this master of the piano.

Europe Acclaims Hofmann As Great Music Interpreter

Students of the University will be given an opportunity to hear Hofmann in McArthur court Sunday afternoon, February 10. Members of the ASUO will be admitted free to the event.

Yes,—No, Please, Is Korean Dope Peddler's Answer; Gets 3 Years

PORTLAND, Jan. 31.—(AP)—When a Korean has nothing to say, he says it very emphatically.

Yes,—No, Please, Is Korean Dope Peddler's Answer; Gets 3 Years

H. H. Kim, 55-year-old Korean, appeared before Federal Judge Fee here several days ago for sentence on a charge of selling yenshee, a derivative of opium.

Yes,—No, Please, Is Korean Dope Peddler's Answer; Gets 3 Years

The court asked him if he had anything to say.

Yes,—No, Please, Is Korean Dope Peddler's Answer; Gets 3 Years

"Yes,—no, please?" answered Kim. And for more than two days that was all the answer the court got, except for some native Korean that none of the court attaches could understand.

Yes,—No, Please, Is Korean Dope Peddler's Answer; Gets 3 Years

Kim was sentenced to serve three years and six months in Fort Leavenworth federal prison.