Reinhart's Cleanup Turns Spring Day To Rain, Says Sage

By Ned Simpson

Notice how suddenly it started to rain Tuesday night? And after such a nice balmy afternoon, too, when it looked like spring was here to stay. Well, according the Sage of the Igloo, the reasons for this sudden reversal of policy on the part of the weather man is due to only one Bill Reinhart thing-Bill Reinhart and his baseball diamond.

"Yes, sir," mused the Colonel, interrupted in the midst of an orgy of ordering liniments, ointments, balsams, and balms for his athlete casualties," every time Reinhart begins his annual spring cleanup on the practice 572. baseball diamonds it's sure to start in raining. Doesn't matter what kind of weather we've been having - it's sure to change for the worse when he begins dragging his scraper around." Maybe this affinity for water explains why the baseball and hoop coach is sometimes called "Admiral" and "Skipper."

By Kenneth Webber

The Yeomen's array of grunt and groan artists proved to be a little too strong for the rest of the boys and as a result the Independent wrestlers gathered in two first places and three runner up positions to win the donut title and move out in front again in the allyear intramural point totals.

The Yeomen now have 629 points to their credit which gives them a comfortable margin over the SPE's, with 596, and the Betas, who have
