

Oregon Daily Emerald

Ned Simpson, Editor

Night Editor This Issue, Jack Gilligan

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1935

Beat the Beavers

Harry Grayson Says--

By Harry Grayson NEA Sports Editor Bluebird V reaches 100 miles an hour in an instant...

How does it feel to drive a land mile in a shade more than 13 seconds? Campbell describes his reactions vividly in writing his impressions for the "Book of Speed."

"I engage low gear. I stick her in second gear and the flags lining the straightaway flatten out to solid streaks of color."

"I never feel happy until I engage high gear. Now I can settle myself in the cockpit and concentrate on steering a bull's-eye course."

"A quick glance at the tachometer shows 2800 revolutions per minute, or about 245 miles an hour."

"Bluebird is getting difficult to hold. The rear end starts swinging--wretched sensation! Now comes an awful fight. She snakes this way and that."

"We shoot into the lower end of the measured mile. I must sneak a look at the revolution indicator. By Gad! It shows just over 300 miles an hour! How much am I losing in wheel slip? That worries me."

"There goes the end of the mile. Another quick glance at the revolution indicator reveals the equivalent of 320 miles per hour."

"Now comes the ticklish moment as ever so gradually I start easing my foot off the gas pedal. What a relief when the throttle finally is shut! Still we speed on and on. I feel at the mercy of the car. Will she never slow down? It would be fatal to apply the brakes at such speed. I must just sit here until the old Bluebird decides to behave."

"At last the speed slackens and I glimpse the motor lorries of my mechanics far ahead. Now I press the brake a bit, overshoot my gang and stop. They lift me from the cockpit. My arms and wrists ache like nothing on earth."

"A motorcycle courier drones up the sun."

Webfoots Meet Beavers Tonite In Ring, On Mat

Varsity O at Corvallis Sponsors Big Smoker Tonight at 8 p.m.

Bradshaw, Stoddard, and Gibson on Big Card

Seven bone crushers and a like number of the cauliflower-making gentry will journey to Corvallis tonight to uphold the honor of the University on the mat and in the squared ring. The smoker at which they will show their stuff against the cream of the OSC crop of fighters is being put on by the Varsity O club, and festivities will begin at 8:00 p. m.

Last year the Order of the O put on a big smoker here and the Oregon State men who came over to

IMPORTANT

Bob Parke requests that all wrestlers and boxers taking part in the smoker tonight in Corvallis report to him at 4 p. m. this afternoon at the men's gym.

Oppose the Webfoet went home with most of the honors of the evening. Tonight, however, the Oregon representatives are determined to bring back with them some of these lost titles.

Elaborate plans have been made by the Oregon State club and they have secured the services of Tom Louttit, prominent athletic official from Portland, who will referee all the bouts. A raised ring has been secured and will be placed in the middle of the men's gym. Bleachers will be assembled around it, and it is estimated that they will hold 2000 persons comfortably.

Several good bouts in both the boxing and wrestling cards are expected. The wrestling match between Tom Mountain, University grappler, and Ed Cornwell, OSC, is expected to be a humdinger. Elton Owen and Omar Noles are also well matched and should provide the fans with a good exhibition.

Bradshaw Meets Aylesworth In the boxing end of the smoker there are also a couple of good fights expected. Joe Bradshaw, pride of the campus, will meet Larry Aylesworth, Oregon State middleweight champ. Comet Gibson will tangle with Ike Nichols in the welterweight class, and Dayton Stoddard meets Cliff Conrad in the 155-pound division.

The complete card is as follows: Wrestling 125 pounds--Spider Watkins, U. of O. vs. "Strong-man" Samson, O.S.C.

135 pounds--Brian Ryan, U. of O. vs. Amo De Bernardis, O.S.C.

145 pounds--Boyd Hawkins, U. of O. vs. Bill Deitrich, O.S.C.

155 pounds--Tom Mountain, U. of O. vs. Ed Cornwell, O.S.C.

165 pounds--Elton Owen, U. of O. vs. Omar Noles, O.S.C.

175 pounds--Johnny Reischmann, U. of O. vs. Bill Koczek, O.S.C.

He hands me a slip reading '273.8 miles per hour.' What a disappointment! I had hoped for 300 at least. It felt like it, but that awful wheel slip cut down our speed. 'In 10 minutes the tires are changed. I must get on with the return journey--since it is a two-way trial run. I ache all over and wish I could lie basking in the sun.'

BASEBALL MANAGERS REPORT FOR DUTY

All sophomore and junior men desirous of a chance to earn a manager's letter in baseball see Fred Whittlesey in the south balcony of the Igloo today at 4 o'clock. Because practice starts next week, it is necessary that those men wishing to manage baseball this season be present at this meeting.

Dean Morse Lecture Will Propose Reform

Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Eugene Women's club at the Del Ray cafe this evening.

His subject is "Proposed Reforms of Criminal Procedure." The talk is based on Morse's observations at the national crime conference which he recently attended in Washington, D. C.

SHELDON TO RETURN

Dr. H. D. Sheldon is returning Sunday to his home on the campus after nearly a year's absence from the University.

BOND CONFINED WITH COLD

J. H. Bond, professor of business administration, was confined to his home Thursday with a bad cold.

Heavyweight--Earl Groniger, U. of O. vs. Stan McClurg, O.S.C. Boxing Special weight--Eddie Vail, U. of O. vs. John Bergen, O.S.C. Lightweight--Wes Franklin, U. of O. vs. Dave Perkins, O.S.C. Welterweight--Comet Gibson, U. of O. vs. Ike Nichols, O.S.C. 155 pounds--Dayton Stoddard, U. of O. vs. Cliff Conrad, O.S.C. Middleweight--Joe Bradshaw, U. of O. vs. Larry Aylesworth, O.S.C. Light heavyweight--Pat Cassidy, U. of O. vs. Russ Acheson, O.S.C. Heavyweight--Stan Smith, U. of O. vs. Jim Miller, O.S.C.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

RATES-- One Year $2.50 One Term $1 Two Terms $1.75

Track Aspirants In Final Practice Meet Tomorrow

Hayward Makes New Plan For Relays

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:15 the last series of inter-quadrant track meets will be run off on Hayward field. In addition to being the last practice meet for Col. Bill Hayward's varsity and fresh track teams, it will also be the final try-out for all those men entered in the intramural relay carnival which will be run off next Saturday.

Several good races are scheduled for tomorrow's show, with the track aspirants running full distances for the first time this year. The varsity hundred yard dash should be a thriller, as should the 440 and 880 yard runs.

Colonel Hayward announced yesterday afternoon that men who have been turning out regularly for some sport will be allowed to fill in on the relay team of their organization where there are vacancies. They must, however, secure proof of their participation in another sport before they will be allowed to run.

The following events will be run off tomorrow: 100-yard dash for varsity and freshmen; 440-yard dash for varsity and freshmen; 90-yard high hurdles for mixed competition; 880-yard run for mixed competition; 120-yard low hurdles mixed; and the pole vault, shot put, high jump, discus, broad jump, for mixed competition; and freshmen javelin.

BANQUET IS FORTHCOMING

It was decided to give a founder's day banquet sometime during the next term at the business meeting of Phi Chi Theta yesterday afternoon in Commerce hall. Phi Chi Theta is the business administration honorary for women.

Swimming Team Off for Seattle And Husky Meet

Hoyman Takes Ten Man Team on Jaunt

Coach Mike Hoyman and his University of Oregon swimming team leave for Seattle this morning in quest of the hide of the Husky matadors there tomorrow night. Coach Hoyman will take a ten man team with him to the northern city.

Last year the Webfoet team won the dual meet held here against Washington by a convincing margin, but later lost to the Huskies in the Northwest championships at Portland. The Washington team has for its number one ace the world record breaker, Jack Medina, who usually wins fifteen points all by himself. In spite of this fact, the Oregon matadors have a fine chance to win the meet, for the team is unusually well-balanced and can count on enough firsts, seconds, and thirds to add up a win.

The trip is being made in private automobiles, and the three car caravan leaves Eugene this morning at 8:30 a. m. The meet is scheduled for tomorrow night at the Washington Athletic club pool. The following will make the trip: Forrest Kerby and Chuck Reed, breaststroke; Jim Reed and Randall Gibson, backstroke; Bob Chilton, diving; and Leonard Scroggins, Wally Hug, Vernon Hoffmann, Bill Angell, and Kenneth Mayer, freestyle.

The trip is being made in private automobiles, and the three car caravan leaves Eugene this morning at 8:30 a. m. The meet is scheduled for tomorrow night at the Washington Athletic club pool. The following will make the trip: Forrest Kerby and Chuck Reed, breaststroke; Jim Reed and Randall Gibson, backstroke; Bob Chilton, diving; and Leonard Scroggins, Wally Hug, Vernon Hoffmann, Bill Angell, and Kenneth Mayer, freestyle.

16 Oregon Students

(Continued from Page One) ars, advertising manager of the Emerald, chairman of several committees.

Grant F. Thuemmel: Alpha Delta, Sigma, Friars, business manager of Oregon Emerald, various committee appointments.

Josephine Waffle: Kwama, Phi Beta, Phi Theta Upsilon, Mortar Board, president of sorority heads, AWS treasurer, junior weekend queen.

Beavers Will Attempt to Sweep Series

Gill to Play First String Throughout Contest Despite Rumor

'Down the Champs' Is the Cry of Ducks

Attempting to repeat the feat they accomplished two years ago, when they took all four games from the Ducks, the Oregon State Beavers, winners of the northern division of the Pacific Coast basketball conference, will have a rather hard time in doing this if Billy Reinhart has anything to say about the final meeting of the two teams Saturday night at McArthur court.

Hoping to produce a chalk mark in the win column, Reinhart has been sending his proteges up and down the floor at the Igloo with the war cry of "Down the Champs" ringing in their ears, and from observation of the players, that this is the time they are going to win at all costs.

Reports have been floating around the Oregon campus that the Beavers will probably play the second-string all through the game, saving the first string for the championship series with the University of Southern California Trojans, winners of the southern division. However, this report has been found to be untrue, and "Stats" Gill will be out to win as in previous games.

Coach Reinhart spent the greater part of yesterday afternoon in giving his men their final instructions for their last game of the season. He worked with a first string composed of Captain Bill Berg and Glen Sanford, guards, Willie Jones, center, and "Suzzam" Liebowitz, and John Lewis at forward.

Facing them will be Conkling, Palmberg, Hibbard, Tuttle, and Bergstrom who will play an important part in the Beavers' final bid for a clean sweep of the series.

BEARD'S 957 Willamette Phone 1996. Our store is literally overflowing with the newest spring apparel. selected from America's leading style center. Come and choose your new spring outfit from Eugene's largest ladies' shop.

New Suits at DeNeffe's. Come down today and get an eyeful of the newest for spring. Many selections have already been made, so if you are ready, just a good look and a tryon is most convincing.

GERMAN CLASS. Ich weiss nicht, was soll es bedeuten, Das ich so traurig bin; Ein Märschen aus alten Zeiten, Das kommt mir...

Die Luft ist feil, und es dunkelt, Und ruhmig fliehet der Rhein; Der Gipfel des Berges funfelt Im Abendsonnenschein.

Die schönste Jungfrau sisset Dort oben wunderbar, Ihr goldnes Geschmeide blizet, Sie lammst ihr goldenes Haar.

IN A CLASS BY ITSELF YOU'LL NEVER TIRE OF A PIPE WHEN SMOKING COOL, MELLOW PRINCE ALBERT SO RICH, AND YET SO MILD.

AFTER EVERY CLASS IT RINGS THE BELL. CRIMP CUT NO "BITE" MELLOW AND MILD SLOW BURNING LARGEST SELLING. PRINCE ALBERT THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE!

HOP TO IT! IT'S ONLY NATURAL--that when college students hear of a bargain they "snap it up." Oregon students know what they want and above all they like to find quality merchandise at prices that are reasonable. Emerald Advertisers make use of the columns of the paper daily to tell the Oregon students of their goods that are most appealing to younger folks--therefore take a tip and buy from Emerald advertisers. OREGON DAILY EMERALD "The Students' Daily"

DeNeffe's INC. McDonald Theatre Building 1022 Willamette