WASHINGTON - A bill to fortid war time profiteering, strengthened and invigorated through the persistent efforts of a bloc of youthful independents, today received the overwhelming

Successful in forcing leaders to include a potentially severe excess profits tax, the young progresthe measure's authorization for a would prohibit the president from ordering a draft, it could not prevent a wartime congress from enacting a conscription law.

approval of the house.

conscripted army.

Recounting his interesting experiences, Howard Kessler, the Emerald's vagabond reporter now on an extended tour of Europe, ginning with this issue. See page 2.

NUMBER 91

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1935

MargaretAnnSmith, Ann-ReedBurnsTop AWS Election Ballot Yellow Affiliate Tags sives, just before passage, rallied their forces again and struck out

Choice of New Officers While the bill as it now stands Set for Thursday

From 9 to 5 Winner to Go East

Suggestions of Council Get Full Support

Interest in women's activities reached a peak yesterday with the nomination of candidates for A. W. S. offices for the coming year at the spring term mass meeting of ing the bill, planned pressure to take place Thursday from 9 to 5 at polls to be placed in front of the old libe. The slate advanced by the senior executive council of the Associated Women Students was retained by popular vote of the assembly, no additional nominations being made from the floor. Candidates for the offices in-

The following women were nominated for offices: President: Ann Reed Burns and Margaret Ann Smith. Vice-president: Reva Herns and Virginia Younie.

Secretary: Starla Parvin and Lillian Warn.

Treasurer: Pearl Johansen and Martha McCall. Reporter: Jane Lee and Betty

Sergeant-at-arms: Gladys Battleson and Jean Ackerson.

Elections for the new officers will be held from 9 until 5 o'clock, Thursday, April 11, in front of the old libe. Elaine Comish, A.W.S. sergeant-at-arms, is in charge of the elections. president will leave with Catherine annual affair. Sophomore class presidents April 24-27. Further business attended to at the mass meeting was the reading blackest, ongest, least, and most of the reports of A.W.S. officers distinctive beards will be awarded and committee chairmen for the at the Whiskerino, being donated

Campfire Executive

Miss Elaine Gorham, Portland Eugene Thursday morning to con- ern Thrift, Eric Merrell, Univerduct interviews with Oregon coeds sity Barber shop, University hairinterested in becoming counsellors at Camp Namanu, near Portland,

Those girls who are capable of handling camp music and nature work are especially needed, Miss Phi Mu Alpha will meet tonight Gorham stressed in a letter in-band contest will be given out at see Miss Gorham from 10 to 2 this time. John Bribble requests Thursday at Miss Florence Althat all members be present. den's office in Gerlinger hall.

Junior Shine Day Will Be Postoned Says James Blais

Junior Shine day which was scheduled for this week has been postponed indefinitely according to James Blais, general chair-

The decision was made by the directorate last night. The numerous activities which are to take place this weekend, and the tempermental weather were given as the reasons for the

Sophs Decree Racings for Suit Wearers

Second Year Men Must Wear Pioneer Garb To Whisker Dance

All sophomore men who wear suits or good clothes to the Whiskerino this Friday night will be dumpted into the millrace the following day, it was decided at a meeting of the sophomore class last night. The class members the number of membership cards went on record for the move to make campus clothes the principal garb of the sophomores especially. Members of other classes may wear anything they want to and sophomores are urged to dress in clothes typical of the "Days of. 49" idea being used to carry out the decorations. David Lowry, co-chairman of The woman selected for 1935-36 telling them of the plans for the April 20 for Indiana to attend the free admission to the event, the annual conference of all A.W.S. regular price being 70 cents a couple.

Prizes for the blondest, reddest, by the following downtown merchants: Hoffman Jewelry store, which will donate the silver loving cup for the grand prize for the best all-around beard; College Side, Oregon Pharmacy, De Neffe's, Montgomery Ward, Seymour's, campfire executive, will arrive in Babb Hardware, C. J. Brier, Westcutters, McMorran and Washburne, Tiffany Davis Drug store and the Eugene Cleaners.

Women's Faculty Club Holds Election Today

The annual election of officers the University of Oregon will take place today in Alumni hall, Gerlinger building. Following the business meeting the Eugene club will entertain the members of the Oregon State College Folk club at tea in Alumni hall, following an anaual custom of the two campus clubs meeting together.

During the afternoon the guests will be conducted through the Mur-Jewell is in charge of the program at the museum. Mrs. W. G. Beattie and Miss Mabel Wood, head of the home economics department, are planning the tea with the assistance of Mrs. O. F. Stafford, president of the Women's Faculty club.

The alumni of the department the University of Oregon, recently depth, an emotional quality and a faculty member, yet, there was, in ber Yard," "Red Building," and ope on a travel scholarship. In which will contain material on the ning, Brahms' "sonata," Op. 5, was recital A THREE STAR PER. which they have held in recent exhibits and exhibitors.

Kappa, Sigma Nu Get Full

Mark Student Body

vealed vesterday.

the campus yesterday, revealing from a Seattle newspaper. She dethat the wearer had joined the nies she is interested in Soviet gov-ASUO and was "100 percent for ernment, but wishes to study Rusthe University." Officials refused to disclose the total number of tickets sold yesterday, waiting until the close of the campaign for the final check.

A banner urging membership in the student organization has been stretched across Thirteenth street in front of Condon hall and numerous windshields on the campus automobiles are decorated with eyllow paint: "100% ASUO."

Students desiring membership cards may secure them in Johnson hall any time today as the attempt to equal or beat Oregon State in

YWCA Elections Will Be Tuesday

Nominations for the Y.W.C.A. officers for the coming year will be listed in this Saturday's issue of the Emerald. The offices to be the dance, addressed the group filled are that of president, vicepresident, secretary, and treasurer.

Elections for these officers will Coleman, outgoing president, on tickets will entitle their owners to be held next Tuesday at the Y.W. C.A. All girls belonging to the organization are entitled to vote. Nominations for the offices will be Oregonian and Seiberling-Lucas made by the nominating committee, which is composed of all the senior girls on this year's cabinet.

Numan Club Officials Make Tentative Plans

The tentative program ! for spring term was outlined at the meeting of the officers of the Numan club Monday evening. This organization is composed of all who are interested.

Defies Mother

Vigorous maternal objections, including an appeal to the law, failed to swerve Frances Farmer, above, pretty 21-year-old Seattle co-ed, from her resolve to visit Russia, a trip won in a subscription contest sian drama

26 Bands Will Compete Here In State Meet

Prep Students Will Vie For Group, Soloist Cup Awards

Twenty-six schools of Oregon will send 650 prep school students to the twelfth annual high school band contest to be held next Friday and Saturday on the University of Oregon campus.

The bands compete in four groups dependent upon the size of the bands. Each school is allowed one soloist to enter in each of the solo groups: cornet, clarinet, saxophone, baritone, flute, slide trombone, baritone, French horn, oboe, bassoon, tuba and the snare drum.

Class A bands, over fifty members, will compete for the Morning

(Please turn to page four)

Orides Will Have Share in 'Crawl'

Orides, organization of independent women on the campus, will participate, this year in the Dime Crawl tonight.

Their temporary dance quarters will be in the dance room of Ger-Catholic students on the campus linger hall. Men guests are requested to enter by the sun porch, It was announced last night by or the northeast doors, since these officials in charge that a general are the only two entrances to the meeting is to be held this coming building which will be opened for Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the the dime dance affair. Helen Nick-Parish house. All students inter- achiou is in charge of arrange-

Tonight 6-7:30 Goal of Superiority Is To Have Most Men; Prize Offered

RevivedDime

CrawlReigns

Open House' Idea Being Worked This Year

Tonight between 6 and 7:30 the Oregon campus will again revert to tradition, and help reinstate that by-gone custom of Dime Crawl. For the past two years, the pro ject has been disbanded, but with the clamor for mid-week and matinee dances, A.W.S. decided to give Dime Crawl an opportunity to fill the requests. The goal sought by each and every sorority will be to have the ance at their house in proportion their efforts will be a prize well merly announced but on Friday, worth the time and trouble of any April 26.

Margaret Ann Smith is general year. The plan being worked this may wish to go.

The directorate for Dime Crawl

Margery Kissling, Alpha Delta Pi, publicity; June Yates, Alpha (Please turn to page three)

Faculty to Decide On Optional Drill, Peace Exhibition

Vote Expected to Be Close On Both Questions

Two significant documents will lie on the table today when the University faculty convenes for its state board, and it must pass on or tance relative to Yeoman activireject cooperation with the peace ties during the coming term. demonstration which students will stage Friday morning.

tors have agreed to vote without over from the March faculty meeting with the understanding that it without argument at this meeting.

Should a vote favorable to the student petitions be returned it will mean that the faculty recommends to the state board of higher education that R.O.T.C. at Oregon be placed on an elective basis. More than 500 students have signed petitions which are now in the hands of the faculty. Many downtown groups have also petitioned such action.

peace demonstration.

Campus prognosticators believe time the faculty has been asked to sanction such a demonstration as ing the compulsory feature last year by a 36- 31 vote.

Annual Alumni Banquet

The annual banquet of the University of Oregon Alumni will be held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland at 6:30 Thursday eve-

This year's guest of honor will be Bill Hayward, coach of Oregon's held Friday night. track teams for the past 31 years. Other invited guests from the University include President C. V. of the University medical school, fuzz on their banal epidermis. Prink Callison, football coach, and Bill Reinhart, baseball and basket-

Anti-War Protest Plans Lag Pending Action of Faculty

Mannequins Selected For Style Dance

Twelve Coeds Chosen as Models for Formal April 26

In one of the closest popular elections ever to be held in the history of the University, 12 girls were elected as models for the annual greatest number of men in attend- Gamma- Alpha Chi fashion dance.

Due to the full social calendar to the number of women living in this spring formal will not be held that organization. The reward for this Saturday, April 13, as was for-

The following girls have been elected as models to display the chairman for Dime Crawl this latest spring and summer styles from various Eugene stores at the year will be that men will not have dance: Beverly Burkitt, Marjorie to feel obligated to receive an in- Smith, Josephine Waffle, Kay Skavitation in order to attend Dime let, Cynthia Liljeqvist, Carmen Crawl at any sorority to which he Curry, Echo Tomseth, Jean Stevenson, Rosemary O'Donnel, Betty Zehntbaur, Anne Hounsell, and Betty Pownall.

> The Gamma Alpha Chi formal is the first women's choice dance of spring term. Only a limited number of tickets will be sold. Mary Starbuck, chairman of the ticket sale, will distribute 20 tickets to the Thespian in each of the girls' houses and halls by the end of the week. Peggy Chessman is general chairman of the dance.

Yeoman Council Discusses Plans

At the executive council meetregular monthly session. It must ing of the Oregon Yeomen this afdecide whether or not to recom- ternoon, the members of the group mend optional military drill to the made several decisions of impor-

Virgil Esteb, president, announced that Ernest Savage has Action on the R.O.T.C. question been placed in charge of the Yeoshould be speedy since the instruc- man booth for the AWS carnival. There will be a dance in the discussion. The matter was laid near future which may be held in one of the downtown cafes. Plans are not complete due to the fact would be presented and voted on that actual details will have to be referred to the Yeomen as a body but it is expected the dance will be an all-campus affair. In the near future, there will be a general meeting to nominate and elect officers of the Oregon Yeomen for the coming year.

Class in Geography Moves to Commerce

The class in Introduction to will present a recommendation enrollment in years, under the di- Schultz; Sigma Alpha Mu, Louis concerning the Friday morning rection of James C. Stovall, in- Rotenburg; Sigma Chi, Catlin has been forced to move to 205 lough; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kenneth that the vote on both questions Commerce where there will be ade- Thomas; and Theta Chi, Jack will be very close. This is the first quate room for the 105 students. Rodda.

Student Groups Ask for Official Sanction of Demonstration

With Nation-Wide Strike

joined in issuing a united protest against war last night, calling for an assembly before the steps of the old library Friday morning on many campuses as a strike. awaits faculty recognition at the meeting of that group this after-

Dean Karl W. Onthank, Dean James H. Gilbert and Prof. L. O. Wright make up the committee which President C. V. Boyer appointed several days ago to investigate the demonstration and make a recommendation to the faculty. The committee has met with several groups of students participating in the protest and will hold a final meeting this morning before presenting the matter at the faculty meeting.

Meanwhile plans are proceeding for the protest. Participating

After the protest meeting in front of the library, participants will march downtown carrying signs and banners.

Impetus was given the demonstration by the appearances of Kirby Page in Eugene. The famous operation of townspeople and students in the protest, and, at a mass

Soph Dance Heads

have been announced by Jack Mc-Girr as follows:

Millraced; Get Dunked Too

Wholesale dunkings of beardless | ly providing for much color for custom requiring males to grow only for male members of the sec- many impromptu tubbings in the ond-year class who had neglected race will undoubtedly be held be-Boyer, Dr. Richard B. Dillehunt or were unable to grow sufficient tween now and Friday evening for observe a sacred tradition. This the "Days of '49" which as far as tradition provides a sound millrac- facial styles are concerned, observe Former Oregon lettermen are to ing for any member of the year- the general theme for the annual barked on the flood.

Frosh Too

Several hundred students turned ing's paper. Officials of the sophomembers of the class who do not Then several freshmen forgot to "go back to nature," as far as banquet gets under way the Order their embarrassment of being em- shots" that freshman men daring to venture to the locale of any future sophomore mill racings will Work Program Ready program designed to put trees where none grew before, set rivers to flowing in new channels and all but move mountains to give work to 3,500,000 men awaited only word from President Roosevelt tonight before getting under way. All developments indicated that the administration, its plans awry because of the long delay in enact- all women students. Elections will begin work projects as soon as

As a move in that direction, Secretary Ickes today said there would be a greater degree on home rule in the selection of rojects than there had been before.

Liquor Code Changed

WASHINGTON - Complaints of a "whiskey trust" and protests from states which have joined repeal ranks today caused the federal alcohol control administration to relax attempts to control liquor production.

Suddenly reversing its policy of attempting to limit liquor making to estimated production, FACA with President Roosevelt's approval, amended the distilled spirits code to allow present permit holders to increase the capacity of their plants.

Work Plan Approved ROCHESTER, N. Y. - On the eve of its active start, Rexford G. Tugwell tonight termed the administration's $4,800,000,000 work program "a third economy" needed "if we are to avoid another war or a destructive upheaval of social

Campus Calendar

Another wholesale millracing of all beardless sophomore men will be conducted in front of the Gamma Phi house at 12:30 this afternoon. Everyone is invited.

Skull and Dagger meet today in the College Side at 4 p. m. All meet today at 4 upstairs at the College Side.

the ROTC barracks. Very impor-

Will Interview Coeds members must be present. Junior Prom directorate will Master Dance group will meet this summer. tonight at 7:30 in Gerlinger hall. Every member must be present.

at 5 p. m. in the band room at forming the campus of her visit. Any girl desirous of becoming ized by vivid colors and a variety Streams," "Mill Race," "The Highof subject matter, now on display way," and "Lumpy Trees." in the Little Art gallery of the Among the oil paintings perhaps school of architecture and allied the scenes of New Mexico are the arts. The display is the work of most outstanding and colorful. David J. McCosh, Chicago artist These include "Chinayo," "Storm," and instructor in drawing and "Back Road," and "Interior." They painting at the University.

Little Art Gallery Shows Work of David McCosh

the Oregon coast, and the hills of other simple things of New Mex-New Mexico done in water col- ican life. As one enters the gallery, ors, oils, and tempera are included the large oil painting of "The recent paintings are of landscapes of the back wall, attracts the eye everyday scenes and uninteresting and "White House." "Yellow Truck." Some of the Today is the last day to see the others are "Drifted," "Low drawings and paintings character- Clouds," "Transplanted," "Two ray Warner museum. Mrs. J. R.

portray the arid hills, the sage-Scenes of the Willamette valley, brush, the Indian dwellings, and University Art League

(Please turn to page four)

Has Exhibit in Portland highest compliments your critic is by a finished performer. in the exhibit. A few of the more Foreman," hanging in the center of architecture and allied arts of Busoni was delicate, yet it had a slightest degree the work of bordering the northern part of the because of the life-like attitude organized under the name of the perfection of shading which gave spite of the perfection, mechanical and expression of the man in the University Art league, are exhib- it real character and it was well in nature, a certain lack which The artist has taken for his sub- painting. Other oil paintings are iting their work at the Portland received by the audience. ject in almost every case simple, "Warm November," "Silver Dish," Museum of Art. Exhibits have Hummel's "Rondeau Favori" dramatize herself which took a places. Some of the water colors McCosh received his early train- ates scattered throughout the expression were apparent through- enjoyment that should have been which will follow it. Before the the wearers of the moleskins in It was also held by soph "big which bring out this quality are ing at the Chicago Art Institute, country. A special edition of Old out the rendition. "Joe's Place," "Gas Works," "Lum- and spent a year traveling in Eur- Oregon is soon to be published The major number of the eve- Therefore, your critic rates the of the O plans a reunion, the first

Membership

Card Holders

ASUO Drive Still Under Full Steam

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Nu announced yesterday that everyone in their respective organizations had joined the student body, bringing the total to five houses that have gone over the top in the intensive campaign. Sigma Alpha Mu, Alpha Xi Delta, and Delta Delta Delta had previously announced 100 percent membership in the ASUO. Only one member of Pi Beta Phi has not secured her membership card, it was re-ested have been invited to attend. ments.

tant. Information concerning the an aide at the camp is urged to band contest will be given out at see Miss Corpus from 10 to 2 the University of Recital of Aurora Underwood Shows Understanding, Skill music building.

Mrs. Underwood is one of the people who has done a great deal giagalli was extremely well done toward making the University and the tempo, feeling and spirit school of music the success that of the number were perfectly porit is. Her concert was well done; trayed.

able to give to a pianist.

although to draw a line of Aurora Potter Underwood, distinction between the works of music school faculty member, ap- Chopin and those of Brahms is a drill question once before, retainpeared in a piano recital sponsored difficult task and especially when by the University school of music the two composers are represented last evening at 8:15 p. m. in the in the same program by a master musician. "La Danse D'Olaf," Pick-Man-her playing shows a thorough Little need be said of the two understanding and mastery of the Chopin works, as well as the third piano. At times, she made the in- one which she used as an encore, strument sound a great deal like except that they represent the best a pipe-organ, which is one of the of his compositions and were given

It is difficult for a student, no "Choral in F-minor," Bach- a music major, to criticise in the might be attributed to inability to ball mentor. derived from the concert.

perhaps the best of the program FORMANCE.

been received from Oregon gradu- was lively, control of moods and subtle something from the keenest attend the banquet and the dance ling class who ventures to witness affair.

Answer Due Today Local Display in Sympathy

A dozen student groups had groups expect to stage the demonstration Friday morning at 11 briefly. Charles Paddock is master that John Luvaas will repressnt the Eugene high school student body, and Louise Clark, Bill Bruce and Howard Ohmart will speak for the University students.

(Please turn to page four) McGirr Announces

Sophomores in the living organizations who are to have charge of tickets for the annual soph dance

Alpha Tau Omega, Ben Grout; Beta Theta Pi, Don Reed; Chi Psi, Pete Brooks; Delta Tau Delta, Julius Scruggs; Delta Upsilon, Dave Silver; Kappa Sigma, Fred Hammond: Phi Delta Theta, Ed Morrow: Phi Gamma Delta, Newton Stearns; Phi Sigma Kappa, Dave Montag; Pi Kappa Alpha, Kermit A faculty committee of three Geography, which has the largest Paulsen; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Gil structor in geography and geology, Lawson; Sigma Nu, Jack McCulsanction such a demonstration as that to be held Friday. It faced the Frosh See Beardless Sophs sophomores and numerous fresh- the Oregon campus, have been al-To Honor Bill Hayward men, including the class president lowed to be discarded, the result and the writer of this little tale, being the lack of observance of were held on the banks of the mill- one of the most prominent tradirace Tuesday noon, marking the tions by several brave freshmen first official enforcement of the who were tossed into the stream beards in preparation of their an- out to witness the big event, which nual Sophomore Whiskerino to be was heralded in yesterday morn-The big splashing was scheduled more class warned yesterday that

Recently, the traditions, former-

(Please turn to page four)