Members of the Chi Psi Lodge were hosts Sunday afternoon at open-house between the hours of 3 o'clock and 5 o'clock, for invited guests to view the new Lodge on Hilyard street.

Those presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. E. F. Davidson, Mrs. Rudy Wilhelm, and Mrs. W. S. Russell, all of Portland. Those assisting around the rooms were Betty Holman, Betty Jane Casey, Alice Van Thomas, Betty Labbe, Peggy Chessman, Martha McCall, and Maude McCandish.

From the hours of 5 to 7 o'clock students on the campus were invited in. Over four hundred were present at the reception.

The main rooms of the house were lavishly decorated with lilies, snapdragons, and roses. Mr. Frank Mathiessen, of Chicago, national president of the fraternity, was honored guest.

Sunny Days! Gay Colors Claim Coeds

Spring! A young woman's fancy turns to clothes!

Cotton materials for sport, evening, and dinner frocks provide a reasonable and practical means for Oregon coeds to attain a style-plate perfection. Faint rumblings reveal the astounding fact that some of the more industrious girls are indulging in an ancient pastime of sewing!

Tailored plaids and linens are in excellent taste for classes. Shirt waist frocks closely fitting to the knees, then billowing out in swirls are in high favor for all spring dances.

Among coeds bedecked in vividly colored dresses sauntering about on the campus was seen Ann-Reed Burns in a lightweight blue tweed suit, finger-tip length jacket, and high collar held together with a large bow out of navy blue taffeta.

Margaret Ann Smith wears a very unique turquoise blue tunic outfit with Chinese-shaped wooden buttons down the front, and brown and white accessories.

Fine taste is shown by Reva Hems in wearing a rich pink sport dress with brown belt and buttons, which contrasts nicely with her dark-brown hair.

Shoes are one of the most important possession of a well-dressed woman. Adele Sheey, Alpha Phi, displays an attractive pair of white pigskins with brown wooden heels, featuring zippers instead of shoe-laces.

An unusual white, brown, and orange checked swagger coat was seen on Elma Giles, Sigma Kappa.

Miss Margaret Duncan, of the women's physical education department, is very smart in a bright blue three-piece knitted suit with a rolled collar.

AWS Prexy Candidates Sketch Ideas in Viewing Results of Today's Vote

By Hallie Dudley

Similar promises for the best developments of the organization, equal charm, capability and number of past activities make both AWS presidential candidates, Margaret Ann Smith and Ann-Reed Burns well qualified for the office one of them will fill after today's election.

"If I am elected, I intend to devote all of my energies to instilling new life into the association and to the development of more wide-spread interest in the AWS," Miss Smith said yesterday. "I will try to work out the problems as presented in the report of the retiring president, such as the readjustment and enforcement of the point system so that AWS activities may be more widely distributed and interest in activities be more general. Should I be elected, I will intend to lead the AWS through a very progressive and very successful year."

Miss Smith has had as her chief activities in AWS the serving on the AWS council, chairman of Frosh orientation and the dime crawl, co-ed capers directorate, speakers committee and was a frosh councillor for two years. Other offices at Oregon have been the co-chairmanship of the junior-senior dance and as membership on the ASUO greeters committee for two years. Miss Smith is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Ann-Reed Burns, opposing Miss Smith, expressed her policy informally yesterday. "I feel so much as if I had suddenly been asked to run for the position of Queen of England that it is hard to think of anything satisfactory to say," she asserted. "But I would like to state that my ideal for the associated women students is to make every girl important in the AWS and the AWS important to every girl."

Miss Burns has also been very active on the campus. She is serving as AWS treasurer this year, is chairman of the Mother's Day activities, was chairman of the Father's Day banquet and of the Alumnae luncheon homecoming of 1933. She has been secretary of Kwama, a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, and is now editor of the women's page of the Emerald. Miss Burns has been a member of numerous committees such as frosh counsellor, dance directorate and chairman of raffles and publicity for the AWS carnival. She has also served as AWS reporter. Miss Burns is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Candidates for the other offices are equally as well qualified in their abilities and activities. Reva Hems, a member of Phi Theta Upsilon and chairman of the 1935 AWS carnival is opposing Virginia Younie for vice president. Miss Younie is an Alpha Chi Omega, and is also a member of Phi Theta Upsilon and Kwama. Martha McCall and Pearl Johansen are running for treasurer; Lillian Warn and Starla Parvin will compete for secretary; either Betty Rosa or Jane Lee will be chosen as reporter and Gladys Battleson and Jean Ackerson will oppose each other for sergeant-at-arms. Many are members of the three honoraries, Thespian, Kwama, and Phi Theta Upsilon.

The officers who have served AWS during the past year are Catherine Coleman as president; Virginia Howard, vice president; Reva Hems, secretary; Ann-Reed Burns, treasurer; Marjorie Kissing, reporter; and Elaine Comish, sergeant-at-arms.
