

Britain Balances Budget

LONDON — Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, pulled his fourth balanced budget out of the counting house today, offering new relief to millions of small taxpayers despite increased military expenditures for 1935-36 of 10,500,000 pounds—about $52,300,000.

The smiling chancellor proposed to the house of commons that the income tax be reduced in the lower brackets and announced the restoration of the final portion of pay cuts made in 1931. Even so he presented an estimated surplus for the year of 500,000 pounds—about $2,425,000.

Roerich Pact Signed

WASHINGTON — North and South America joined at the White House today in signing the Roerich pact, designed to preserve the culture of the new world through joint protection in times of war of artistic and scientific institutions and historic monuments.

Choosing Pan-American day—anniversary of the birth of Bolivar, the Liberator—for promulgating the treaty, President Roosevelt said the pact possessed a "spiritual significance" far deeper than the text of the instrument itself.

Lumbermen Ready to Act

PORTLAND — Timber and sawmill workers of the Pacific Northwest are organized and ready to seek higher wages and shorter hours, Ben T. Osborne, secretary of the Oregon Federation of Labor, declared today.

Osborne projected himself into the threatened lumber industry strike for the first time by declaring the union workers were "ready to move at anytime, either in the direction of negotiation or strike." He asserted there were "unprecedented demands from men in the woods" to enroll in the union.

On the other hand, high officers of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen announced that a two-week survey just completed in Oregon, Washington and Idaho showed that "90 per cent of the workers don't want to strike."

Insull Faces Last Trial

CHICAGO — Federal government chose today to make one last effort to punish Samuel Insull and his colleagues for an alleged criminal transfer of the assets of Corporation Securities company with foreknowledge of its collapse.

Acquitted of charges of embezzlement and mail fraud conspiracy, Insull and eight others, including his son Samuel, Jr., must face trial for the alleged removal of $2,558,120 from the company treasury before they will stand clear.

The state, believing conviction impossible, had dropped its last indictment and it had been thought the federal department of justice would abandon its prosecution, too, for the bankruptcy indictment had been generally regarded as the weaker charge. But Attorney General Cummings at Washington concurred in the recommendation of District Attorney Dwight H. Green that he proceed with trial.

The elderly chief defendant, told of the final hazard ahead, declined to comment.

Frances Brockman Goes To Philadelphia Contest Today

Musician Will Give Concert In Washington Enroute

By Fulton H. Travis
Frances Brockman, University violinist who competed a few weeks ago to take the entire Pacific Northwest by her sensational playing, will leave today to compete in the national contest under sponsorship of the Women's Federated Clubs of America, April 24 in Philadelphia.

Miss Brockman is going via Washington, D. C., where she will play at the home of Senator Charles A. McNary before a group of his friends.

Memorizes 15 Numbers
In addition to carrying in her mind the intricate numbers which she will play there, she has memorized all 15 of the contest selections to be used in Philadelphia.

Up almost to the moment she steps onto the platform, she will not know which one of the numbers she is to play as the judges may demand any of the 15 from her.

Aurora Potter Underwood, her accompanist, and Mrs. M. Donald Spencer will leave with her. Mrs. Spencer is manager of the Portland symphony orchestra.

Success Foretold
Miss Brockman and told to the people who seem to be marked for success—please turn to page two

Noted Radiologist Will Talk Tuesday

Dr. A. F. Barnett, listed by the American Medical Association as the only radiologist in the state of Oregon, outside the city of Portland, will address an open meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in 105 Deady hall.

Although radiology covers both the fields of x-ray and radium, Dr. Barnett will limit his talk to the x-ray. The first half of the speech and demonstration will include an historical sketch of the pioneer work with the x-ray, its development, its dangers, and the men and work involved. Modern diagnoses and treatment illustrated with x-ray pictures will make up the concluding part of the doctor's address.

The lecture-demonstration will be the first attempted by the newly organized society of pre-medical students. During the past two terms of the present year similar lectures conducted under the auspices of the Asklepiads, pre-medical honorary, have attracted much attention on the campus.

Pan-American Day Held by Honorary

Pan-American day will be celebrated by Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary, tonight from 7:30 to 8:30 in room 5, Oregon hall.

All the republics of South America celebrated this day on April 14 in an effort to promote friendship and peace among these nations. The room in which tonight's celebration will take place has been decorated with the chapter's 21 flags of the American republics in honor of the week.

The meeting will be open to the public and will be followed by a short business meeting to elect new members.

Frosh Welfare Group Will Meet at 4 Today

An important meeting of the freshman welfare committee, in which the organization and plans for the term's projects are to be decided, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the YWCA bungalow.

Bernice McDonald, chairman of the group, has a number of activities for the welfare committee to carry out this term. She urges all members to be present at the meeting tomorrow as well as any other freshman girls who are interested in welfare work.

AWS Carnival Heads Named; Plan Booths

Annual Affair Is Slated In McArthur Court April 27

Plans for an AWS carnival filled with "different" ideas are well under way, according to Reva Hens, carnival chairman. Names of booths and attractions have been submitted by all organizations.

The carnival is an annual affair, to be held this year on Saturday, April 27 in McArthur court. Students, faculty and townspeople are welcome. Jitney dancing, as well as games of fortune and skill is on the program.

Assistants Named
Marjorie Will is assistant chairman of the affair. Other members of the directorate are:

Portia Booth, promotion; Virginia Endicott, raffles; Genevieve McNiece, corresponding secretary; Mildred Blackburne, recording secretary; Rose Gore, clean up; Imogene Wylie, food booth; Ebba Wicks, tickets; Dorothy Hagge, basket social; Jane Brewster, dancing; Ann-Reed Burns, finance; Miriam Elchner, publicity.

Plan Basket Social
Booth attractions include baseball, beano, chuck-a-luck, shooting gallery, black jack, roulette wheel, bar of fortune, guinea pig race, a pig slide, and an egg throwing booth.

The basket social is an innovation this year. Miss Hagge will announce details of this event at a later date. It is to be one of the important features of the evening.

Legal Fraternity Pledges 9 Students

Nine outstanding law school men, seven of them first year students, were announced yesterday as pledges of Phi Delta Phi, national legal honorary fraternity. Initiation of the new affiliates will take place within the next few weeks, according to Robert Marks, president of the fraternity.

Chosen for the honor were Corwin Calavan, Portland, third year student; Edwin Schlessler, Portland, second year student; Gordon Campbell, Carmel, California; Thomas Tongue, Hillsboro; Malcolm Bauer, Pendleton; Antonio Yturri, Jordan Valley; Robert Miller, Knappahton, Washington; Orval Thompson, Shedd; and William Dougherty, Medford, all first year students.

Campus YW Officers To Be Chosen Today

Installation Banquet Set For Thursday Evening At YW Bungalow

YWCA members will cast their ballots today for officers for the coming year, with Elaine Sorenson and Mary Nelson unopposed for the offices of president and vice-president. Phyllis Adams and Patricia Neal will oppose each other for the office of secretary, with Elaine Comish and Marguerite Morse nominated for treasurer.

Rosalind Grey, retiring president, urges that all members of the YW cast their votes, since the race for the last two offices is expected to be close. Voting will be at the YW bungalow between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

"Today will be the last opportunity to sign up for spring term activities," Miss Grey also announces. "A check list will be provided at the polls, and especially since several new fields have been added, it is expected that there will be projects to interest every girl."

The installation banquet, for which Jean Lewis is general chairman, is planned for Thursday evening. Ticket sales are being handled through living groups and unaffiliated women may notify Betty Hughes, at the YW bungalow, if they expect to attend.

Architecture Students Visit California Gardens, Estates

Beautiful California gardens, estates and parks were visited by the 30 professional students of landscape architecture from the University and Oregon State college, who went to San Francisco recently. The group was in charge of F. A. Cuthbert, associate professor of landscape architecture on this campus, and H. R. Sinnard, professor of landscape architecture at Oregon State.

The group spent two days studying the gardens south of San Francisco, in Burlingame, San Mateo, and Palo Alto. The Stanford campus at Palo Alto was visited also. According to Cuthbert, the gardens south of San Francisco are the most pretentious and beautiful to be found in the Bay region. There is a wide variety of

Awards Due For Turnout At Frosh Glee

Jimmy Dierickx's Band Will Furnish Music For Affair

Something New Promised In Decorations

Tickets for the class of '35's Frosh Glee which will be held next Saturday night at McArthur court, were placed on sale at all the fraternities yesterday. A new and unusual feature will be held at the dance in which prizes will be awarded to the sorority and fraternity with the greatest percentage representation at the dance.

Jimmy Dierickx's orchestra of Corvallis will provide the music for the Frosh Glee. It will be semi-formal, it has been announced. The decoration committee, headed by Noel Benson, has promised something refreshingly new in the line of adornment for the hall.

Committees Named
Freshmen in charge of the various committees for the Frosh Glee have been appointed as follows:

Co-chairmen, F. Lyle Baker and Louis Hillis; in charge of designing, Clyde Keller; in charge of decorations, Noel Benson; and clean-up, Richard Hill. William Jones has been appointed publicity chairman, with Marjorie Stith acting as assistant. Those on the publicity committee are Edward Hanson, Regan McCoy, and Signe Rasmussen.

Carter Sells Ducats
Albert Carter at the Kappa Sigma house has charge of the sale of tickets. They are selling for $1 a couple. Any freshmen with class membership cards will be admitted free. Money will be refunded at the door on tickets purchased for the full price if one of the couple is a freshman class member.

Interviews Begun For Publications

The publications committee of the associate students yesterday began a series of personal interviews with applicants for the editor and business manager's positions on the Emerald and the Oregoniana for 1935-36. The names of the applicants have not been disclosed.

Each applicant writes a sealed petition with the publications committee, which recommends one person for each position. These recommendations are given to the executive council where final power rests.

Members of the publications committee are Joseph Renner, William Berg, Barney Clark, William Phipps, Prof. George Turnbull, Prof. Orlando J. Hollis, Robert K. Allen, and Hugh Rosson (non-voting).

Palmer Talks at Meet

Dr. Clay Palmer, minister of the Congregational church, spoke at the house mother's meeting yesterday afternoon in Johnson hall. Dr. C. V. Boyer, president of the University, will speak at the next meeting.

July 1, Is Date Set For Construction Of New Library

Architects and Engineers Confer During Week

First work on the University of Oregon's new $350,000 library will begin in July 1, it was concluded here this weekend after engineers of the inspection division of PWA for Oregon and Washington conferred at the Eugene hotel, dealing with various PWA projects in the state.

Architects have been working with the University library officials on plans for the building for some time. The final drawings for the building will be completed soon, officials have stated.

R. H. Corey, engineer-inspector for all Oregon and Washington PWA projects, attended the conference and announced that all plans which are necessary to begin construction will be finished by the first of July. At that time, he said, he will direct an inspector to come here and give them a final check, to be sure that they comply with PWA regulations.

Boyer Speaks On Education 7:30 Tonight

Talk Concludes Year's Orientation Series For Freshmen

The last of the freshman assemblies for this year, will be given tonight in the music auditorium at 7:30, with Dr. C. V. Boyer, president of the University, as speaker. He will speak on "The Meaning of a Liberal Education."

Dr. Boyer, who was formerly head of the English department at the University, received his master's degree from Princeton and later attended Oxford. Before coming to Oregon, he practiced law in Pittsburgh. He has written essays and reviews for magazines and is the author of the book, "The Villain as Hero in Elizabethan Tragedy."

This will be the last of the series of lectures which were offered to freshmen in order to familiarize them with the ideals of the University in respect to culture, scholarship, and personal development. Due to the rush and excitement of Freshman week, these lectures were omitted this year, these lectures have been offered throughout the school year.

The assemblies have been given with the idea of helping the freshmen to grasp the idea of a university and to understand how the courses which they are taking are related to each other and to life. The lectures previously have been given on Monday nights, but due to conflicts, this last one is to be tonight.

Kehrli Receives Punjab Request

The work of the University of Oregon bureau of municipal research and the League of Oregon Cities is attracting widespread attention is shown by a letter received recently by Herman Kehrli, director of the bureau and secretary of the league.

The letter is from Haradatta Shermo, of Lahore, India, honorary secretary of the Local Self-government conference of Punjab. In a request for literature and information on the Oregon system of group organization, Mr. Shermo tells of other work being done in India along such lines in attempt to place that country on the same progressive lines as the United States. He also gives a brief description of Indian problems.

Juniors Seek Fair Occupant of Throne For Gay Festivities

Student Teachers Must File Requests For Practice Work

Prof. Nelson S. Bossing of the education school announced yesterday that all students who expect to complete their work for a secondary school certificate next year and have not had supervised teaching, are requested to file their applications for student teaching with the school of education at once. Forms for application may be secured at the office of the secretary of the school of education.

"All students concerned are urged to file their applications at once because assurance of an opportunity to meet the state requirements for a teaching certificate can only be given qualified students if these applications are on file before the close of the spring quarter," Prof. Bossing stated.

Ten Page Spring Opening Emerald Coming Thursday

New Styles to Be Featured For Women

Readers of the Emerald will be greeted Thursday morning with a ten page spring opening edition featuring spring fashions for college men and women, Grant Thuemmel, business manager, announced today.

Besides the regular news section of the Emerald there will be a special section embodying the new spring styles, the women's page, and the society section.

The special section will be put out, entirely by the business staff. Eldon Haberman and Ed Priaux will be in charge of the layout. Dorris Holmes will manage the women's page with the assistance of Virginia Wellington. Katherine Larson and Ed Priaux will have charge of the art work. The men's fashion page will be under the supervision of Grant Thuemmel.

Business Survey Gets High Praise

The University of Oregon chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi has won distinctive national recognition for its survey on "Store Modernization" in Eugene. In a letter to Dr. N. R. Comish, the chapter's adviser, Dr. W. L. White, chief of the marketing research division of the U. S. Department of Commerce, praised the work of the chapter as follows:

"You may be interested in knowing that I consider this about the finest job turned in to date. We now have the returns in from 18 universities."

The University Alpha Kappa Psi boys, together with Professor Comish's class in problems in distribution, covered about 300 retail establishments in the Eugene survey. From the survey over 800 needed improvements were noted.

Gamma Alpha Chi Ducats Sell Today

Tickets for the annual Gamma Alpha Chi spring formal, the first women's choice dance of the season, will go on sale tomorrow. There will be a limited number of tickets distributed to the Thespians in each of the girls' houses and halls. The dance is to be held Saturday, April 26.

Peggy Chessman, chairman of the dance, has already received a large demand for tickets. The cost is only 99 cents a couple. Members of ASUO Will Choose Candidates On Thursday

Ten Highest to Vie

May 10, 11, 12 to Be Date Of Annual Weekend

The University of Oregon junior class will temporarily revert to a limited monarchy, during its annual week-end of festivities, May 10, 11, and 12, and is announcing its search for a queen to occupy the throne during that period.

Somewhere on the campus lives a fair coed who will wear the crown offered by the junior class, and be "her majesty" at all the events of Junior Weekend.

Box at College Side
The entire campus will have a voice in selecting the young monarch this week. Thursday, in the Emerald, will be a ballot, upon which all members of the ASUO may write their choice for the feminine monarch. The ballots must be deposited in the ballot box at the College Side, between the voting hours of 9 to 5.

The ten girls receiving the highest number of votes will be selected for the finals which will be held Tuesday, April 23. From among these ten coeds will be chosen the queen and her four attendants.

Crowning on May 10
The queen will be crowned Friday, May 10, preceding the campus luncheon, and she and her attendants will be the guests of honor, and the royal court at all the Junior Weekend events.

The junior class is making negotiations with newsreel companies for possibilities of filming the various Weekend festivities, and should such negotiations be completed, her royal majesty and her court will be screened.

Peggy Chessman is in charge of Queen's Reign, and assisting her, are Alfred Whittle, Marian Allen, Eldon Haberman, Virginia Younie, and the Yeomen, who are to build the float for the queen and her attendants.

Students Figure In Russian Play

Featuring a number of University students and well-known residents of Eugene the Very Little Theater gave its first presentation of "The Cherry Orchard" before a large and enthusiastic audience at its studio on Thirteenth avenue east last night.

The play, which deals with a Russian family living on the edges of the orchard and the forced sale of the latter, will run all week. Clever lines and outstanding characterizations by the cast make "The Cherry Orchard" one of the leading plays that has been presented in Eugene this year.

Members of the cast are: Daisy Swanton Hamlin, Edith Pearson, Gayle Buchanan, Jack Matthews, Henry Korn, Don Ralston, Robert D. Horn, Mildred LeCompte Moore, Guy Wernhame, Maxine Goodwin, Dick Koken, Bud Winstead, and Alice Ernst.
