

Chaperone Honored At Spring Tea; Vogt-Moore Engagement Announced

Spring flowers transforming rooms into a veritable flower garden formed the background for the serving table at the May tea given by members of Alpha Phi honoring their chaperone, Mrs. John Milton Wall, May 1. Tea hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Receiving in line with Mrs. Wall were Miss Adele Sheehy, local chapter president, Mrs. C. L. Schwering, and Mrs. Iver Ross.

Those presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, Mrs. Carlton Zane, Mrs. Graham Smith, and Mrs. Elizabeth Talbert.

Vogt-Moore Engagement Announced

Wednesday evening at dinner the engagement of Miss Maxine Vogt, daughter of Mrs. Pauline R. Vogt of The Dalles to Anthony Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Moore of Portland was announced at the Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Blue and white streamers, the sorority's colors, were suspended from the center of the ceiling to each place, and a tiny scroll bearing the names of the couple were fastened at the ends. A massive floral piece of spring flowers graced the center of the table, while individual corsages marked each cover.

Miss Vogt, a graduate student in Romance languages, is a member of Alpha Delta Pi, and Mr. Moore, a sophomore in science, is affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Nuptials Announced At Tea

As a surprise to Portland friends came the announcement of the marriage of Miss Thelma Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Francis Drake, to Kenneth Cliff, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Cliff, made at a tea given Saturday, April 27, at the home of the bride's parents. Both families are of Portland.

Mrs. Cliff was a former student of the University, and Monmouth Normal school. The young couple will make their home in Vernonia, Ore., where Mr. Cliff is in business.

Former Student Weds in Salem

At an attractive ceremony held Saturday, April 27, Miss Dorothy Bell, daughter of Mrs. Kate G. Bell, became the bride of Dr. Harold Olinger, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. H.

Olinger. The Rev. George H. Swift read the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by George G. Brown, an old friend of her family's, wore a white satin frock fashioned with bat sleeves and a pearl belt clasp. Her veil was caught in coronet style and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Miss Margaret Bell, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Miss Bell wore pink georgette with matching jacket of taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and yellow spring flowers. Little Miss Diane Perry, in pink with a colonial bouquet, was flower girl. Robert Drager acted as best man for the groom.

Following the wedding a reception was held at which Mrs. Milton M. Meyers, Mrs. B. C. Olinger of The Dalles, Mrs. David W. Eyre, and Mrs. William Connell Dyer poured.

The bride is a former student of the University of Oregon and an affiliate of Gamma Phi Beta. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem.

Gwen Pantan to Be June Bride

Dr. and Mrs. James J. Pantan of Portland announced the engagement of their daughter, Gwen, to Lee Harter Markwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Markwood of Seattle, at a formal tea given Saturday, April 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Cook. Miss Mary Betty Cook was hostess for the tea.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. William H. Scott, Mrs. Clarence E. Francis, Mrs. C. D. French, and Miss Sue Herington. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Robert W. Shepherd, Mrs. William N. Dielschneider, Mrs. Frederick W. Wood, and the Misses Mary Alice Meyer, Jane Campbell, Janice Hedges, Frances Humphrey, Ann Morrow, Cauleen Creath, and Dorothy and Elizabeth Potter. Mrs. Cook and the bride-elect's mother received with the hostess and Miss Pantan.

Both Miss Pantan and her fiancée are former University students where she is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma and he with Beta Theta Pi.

The wedding will be an event of June.

Engagement Announced At Formal Dinner

Announcement was made at an Easter dinner of the engagement of Miss Ruth Karen Rudd to William Graeper, for which the mother and sister of the bride-elect were hostesses.

Miss Rudd is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. S. H. Rudd, and Mr. Graeper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Graeper.

A graduate of the University of Oregon, Mr. Graeper is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

The date for the wedding has been set for June 8.

Guest Speaker At Kappa Banquet

Mrs. Eric W. Allen was speaker of the evening at a formal banquet held Saturday evening at the Eugene hotel by members of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority for visiting members who were present last weekend at a convention of the sorority. Mrs. Sydney Johnson of Seattle, province president of Kappa Kappa Gamma, introduced Mrs. Allen.

Spring flowers and blue candles formed the table decorations at the banquet at which over 75 guests were present.

Fashion Dance Hi-Lite of the Season

Frocks, frocks and more frocks—evening, afternoon and sports wear—that was the motive of the Fashion Dance sponsored by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary, which was held last Friday evening in Gerlinger hall. Amid the gaily painted figures on the walls and the novelty arrangement of flowers, dancers enjoyed the strains of Jimmy Emmett's orchestra.

Everything from bright colored beach pajamas to the daintiest pastel evening dresses were modeled by popular campus coeds. Those selected were: Beverly Burkitt, Marjorie Smith, Rosemary O'Donnell, Anne Hounsell, Jean Stevenson, Betty Pownall, Katherine Skallet, Echo Tomseth, Josephine Waffle, Betty Zehnbauer, Carmen Curry, Cynthia Liljeqvist, Eleanor Stewart, and Josephine McGilchrist.

Escorts for the girls as they modeled were: Jim Reed, Charles Barclay, Dale Fisher, Jack Mulhall, Jim Wells, Roland Rourke, and Ronald Gemmill.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Dean and Mrs. Eric Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. Alice Macduff, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thunemann and Dean and Mrs. H. V. Hoyt.

Eavesdropping Eve Peeks Into Keyhole Again

Spring term is the traditional time of the year for planting pins. But it seems that the reverse has been true in a number of cases this year.

It was a great surprise when CARLENE SCOTT gave back BOB MOFFITT'S ATO pin. We thought that was a sure thing!

ANN-REED BURNS also did some returning. We see that BOB MARKS is wearing his KAPPA SIG pin again. "What's the reason I'm not pleasin' you???"

However, our friend NIELSON came through once more. DOROTHY DICKINSON is now wearing that much-handled ATO emblem.

And after many months of courtship BUNNY WILSON has taken AMY LAWRENCE'S sword and shield.

A FIJI pin entered the portals of the ALPHA PHI house last week. BOB SEUFERT surrendered to CARMEN CURRY. So what!!!

We hear that PETER BROOKS has hopes of planting his pin (pardon me, BADGE) on HELEN SCILLON. However, there is a catch in that! Rumors have it that HELEN thinks a certain PHI DELT is pretty nice!

And QUEEN MARY MORSE has JOHNNY LEWIS' SIGMA CHI pin. Both are doing nicely! In honor of this event the SIGMA CHIS came over "en masse" to serenade the YELLOW PERIL Wednesday night. The catastrophe came when MARY nearly fell out the window in her excitement.

The SIGMA CHIS seem to go in for serenading. Following the big celebration after elections a lone brother in the bond staggered over to the THETA house at 2 a. m. and sang the sweetheart song to one other than MARGE (ASTORIA FLASH) GEARHART.

A triangle seems to be forming with BEV BURKITT as its apex and JOE HILL and GLEN SANFORD as the base elements. BEV and GLEN were at the Gamma Alpha Chi dance together. But she has the MUMPS now so that ought to give JOE plenty of time to plan a return attack.

Painty Fingers End Childish Troubles

Finger painting is the new addition to child psychology "discovered" by Ruth Faison Shaw, a North Carolinian, who is teaching children of the English speaking colony in Rome.

By smearing colored paint or wet paper with one's ten fingers, Miss Shaw believes a child can abandon youthful disorders and fly off to a problem-free world. The lively, 48-year-old educator tells how one ten-year-old girl who stuttered and had an abnormal fear of "bogeys" included the "bogeys" in all her pictures. One day she painted a big slab of rock with a black door in it. Inside the door, she explained, was imprisoned the "bogyman." Soon after drawing that scene the fear of bogeyman vanished—and a little later the stuttering followed suit.

Sparkling champagne and chicken sandwiches ended the recent celebration of King George V and Queen Mary, when over 200 pillars of the social register bowed formally as they were presented to the English court. Most of the women chose the less extreme of the 1935 evening dresses—reflecting a little of the fluffiness which reigned in the early 1900's. Most of the gowns, too, were low-backed, full-trained, with matching jeweled tiara headdresses. A few of the older women appeared in high necked dresses, pleading cold susceptibility.

Queen Mary Morse Gives Her Ideas of An All Around Girl

"I'm certainly not one myself, but I do know what I believe constitutes an all around girl," laughed Mary Morse, queen of Junior week-end, when questioned as to what qualities she thinks most admirable in girls.

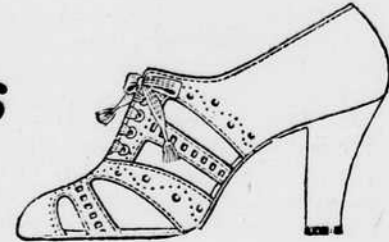

"First of all I believe that a girl should be sincere in her friendships and interests. Artificiality may go over for a while, but in the end it will work a great deal of harm. Also I like to see a girl that can maintain her own ideas and convictions no matter how much she is ridiculed. I mean, of course, that she should have a background or basis for her ideas."

Grades Aren't Everything Instead of giving the old, dogmatic reply that every girl should study as hard as possible and make excellent grades, Mary expressed her real feelings on the subject. "I don't exactly think that studying should always be secondary," she remarked, "but if it is overdone a girl becomes very one-sided and misses a great deal of pleasure. I would rather see a person get average grades, make a good many friends, and have fun than get straight A's all the way through school."

Under the category of good sportsmanship Mary included a large number of desirable qualities. She named several girls with whom she is acquainted that have a faculty for taking all defeats with a smile instead of becoming discouraged or bitter.

"Those girls are the ones who develop and who have character, charm, and depth," she declared. "They make the best of everything."
