

Coeds Entertain Men At Mortar Board Ball; Kwamas Will Choose 19

Saturday evening pretty coeds clad in the latest of fashions of ruffles and frills will dance blissfully to the music of Art Holman and his Ten Commanders in the arms of her "chosen" one at the Mortar Board ball to be held at the Osborn hotel. Mortar Board ball is the last of the all-campus dances of this school year and the second one to which coeds bid their escorts.

Floodlights, palms and flowers will lend the spring atmosphere and serve as a background for the gay frocks and severe formal dress of the men. A feature of the dance will be the selection of new members to Kwama, sophomore honorary for women, Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, assisting with the ceremony.

Honored guests at the dance will be Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, Chancellor and Mrs. William J. Kerr, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Brown Barker, Mrs. Gertrude B. Warner, Mrs. William F. Jewett, Mrs. Kate W. Jameson, Mrs. Lorna C. Jessup, and members of Mortar Board at Oregon State college.

Those invited to be present as patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Onthank, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, Mrs. Alice Macduff, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar DeCou, Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Rosson, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell VanLoan, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hansen, Dr. and Mrs. Meredith B. Hesdorffer, Mr. and Mrs. James Crissey, Mr. Ralph Schomp, and Mr. Tom Stoddard.

Alpha Chi Omega Entertains At Spring Informal

Huge baskets of watsonia, iris in yellow and purple, lupin, and calla lilies formed the background for the spring informal dance given by members of Alpha Chi Omega at the chapter house last Saturday evening. Floodlights of blue and orchid flickered through the many palms that were arranged informally around the room. Tables were placed in cabaret style behind lupin covered trellises and in the backyard, a lighted fountain bubbled merrily. Sherwood Burr's orchestra furnished the music.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mrs. James Blair and Dr. C. L. Schwering, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Horn, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schroff, Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Crissey and Mr. and Mrs. John Stehn.

Delta Gamma Spring Informal Dance

Members of Delta Gamma sorority entertained with a supper dance last Friday evening at the chapter house. A spring motif was used in decorations, tables being arranged around the rooms in cabaret style in the center of which was placed a center piece of moss and spring flowers. Palms and floodlights completed the setting, while dancers danced to the music of Jimmy Dierickx.

Those invited as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Mrs. Elizabeth Talbert, Mrs. W. F. Osburn, Mrs. M. P. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Zane and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Ford.

Entertain With Spring Informal

Amid banks of Scotch broom, iris and other spring flowers arranged in large baskets and in lattice work against the walls, members of Pi Beta Phi held their spring informal dance last Saturday evening at the chapter house. Chairs were placed in the garden beneath Japanese lanterns hanging from the trees. Music for the dance was furnished by Sherwood Burr's orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mrs. Fannie McCamant, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Moll and Dr. and Mrs. E. C. A. Lesch.

Chi Omega Spring Informal Dance

Spring flowers, tall palms and deep colored flood lights formed a romantic background for the spring informal dance at which members of Chi Omega sorority entertained last Friday evening. Sherwood Burr's orchestra furnished the music for the dance.

Invited patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs.

Brains and Beauty

Outnumbered more than 25 to 1, girls of North Carolina State school of education still are able to show the boys a scholastic champion—Miss Christine Shepherd, above, Greensboro senior, who has won a sorority scholarship award for three successive years. Christine never graded below a 93 of a possible 95, and earned a large share of her expenses—as well as rating high in beauty competition.

M. F. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. A. Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCredie and Mrs. May Harmon.

Dance Features Spring Motif

Members of Chi Psi fraternity were hosts Saturday evening at a formal dance given at the chapter house. Spring flowers and birch leaves sprayed with light from colored floodlights formed the decorative motif. The orchestra of Johnny Bush from Portland was engaged for the evening's dancing.

Acting as patrons and patrons for the dance were Mr. and Mrs.

W. A. Dahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gordon.

Entertain With Circus Dance

Amid the true circus atmosphere with bright colored balloons, confetti, gay posters and brilliant lights, members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority entertained with their spring informal dance Friday evening at the chapter house. Music for the dance was furnished by Sherwood Burr's orchestra.

Dr. and Mrs. Lester Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bond, Miss Lenore Casford and Mrs. John Findlay were invited as patrons and patronesses for the affair.

Chapter House Scene Of Informal Dance

The Alpha Omicron Pi chapter house was the scene of the sorority's informal dance last Saturday evening. Bowers f Scotch broom added color to the scene where couples danced to the music of Sherwood Burr and his orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses at the dance were Mrs. Bertha Larson, Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, Mr. E. W. Ellis, and Mrs. Frank Reinhart.
