JUST BETWEEN YOU'N ME: gon grid stars will make their debut in pro football this seasoncoast George Christensen, another ex-Oregonian, with the Detroit Lions, while Alex Eagle has signed with Paul Schissler's Brooklyn team. Portland prep schools will contribute nine footballers to the 1935 Duck eleven. Grant gives us three-Budd Jones, Hugh Me-Credie, and Dale Lasselle. Washington and Jefferson each have two representatives-Tony Amato and Chuck Shimomura, ex-Colonials, and Denny Breaid and Leil Jacobsen from Jeff. Benson has Bob Braddock, and from Lincoln we have Bill Patrick.

. . Oregon boasts, the only Japanese gridder in the conference. He is Chuck Shimomura, 205-pound soph. And Callison thinks he is a comer.

. . Frank Michek won all-American mention last year-and has a card to prove it. The "Scappoose Limited" won't wear any jersey number except 33.

. Clarence Codding, alias "John Gilbert," has been the object of some gentle ribbing since he returned to school sporting a wellgrown mustache.

. . The Webfoots are a . "coming" bunch-a "future" teamsince all but ten of the 44 men listed on the roster will return for two more years of competition. And with the most outstanding list of frosh enrolling today-our future should be anything but gloomy.

And then there's the joke in the California Pelican about the boy who wrote and told his father how well he liked college and his father's fraternity, especially the plans for a new house. His father wired back that this was certainly fine and that the plans ought to be very good because his grandfather drew them when he was a student.
