Stalin at Red Congress

Josef Stalin (left) and Georgi Dimitroff, former Communist leader who was expelled from Germany, here are shown conferring as they attended the recent World Congress of the Comintern (Communist International) in Moscow. Later, replying to the United States' sharp note protesting activities in this country of the Communist International, the Soviet government disclaimed any connection with or responsibility for what the Comintern does.

Walter Engele Goes East for Townsend Meet

Student Is Delegate From Portland Club

Preparing to leave this afternoon for Chicago to attend the Townsend convention as a delegate from Portland, Walter Engele, third year student majoring in German, paused long enough to explain the purpose of the meeting, which will be held from Thursday to Sunday of next week. "Formally, we are gathering for a comparison of ideas and formulation of plans for our Townsend campaign, but actually I would not be surprised to see a definite swing to some presidential nominee who will promise to carry out our plan if elected." Engele, who is 28 years of age and resides in Sigma hall, will represent the Montavilla Townsend club of Portland, which pays all his expenses to the convention. He plans to motor east with two fellow members, and will be absent from the campus for two weeks.

College Students Edit Pamphlet Of 1000 Reviews

Reviews of a thousand books, made by students of various universities and colleges in America, have been compressed into one small pamphlet, entitled "Good Reading," which is now on sale at the Co-op book store for twenty cents. S. Stephenson Smith, professor of English, is the editor of one section of the pamphlet. Prepared chiefly by students themselves, this book list expresses the opinions and views of college men and women. To determine the popularity of outstanding books among undergraduates, lists of favorite books were secured from 1,638 students in 53 colleges. Each book listed is described in a sentence or two.

(Continued from Page One) It reads in part: "THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Student Christian Council petition the faculty committee on military courses to permit students the privilege of substituting the course on 'Problems of War and Peace' for the course in 'Military Science and Tactics.'" The committee has taken no action upon the petition.

Jewett Speaking Contest Slated For Next Month

Undergraduate Men In Dorms Eligible

The W. F. Jewett after-dinner speaking contest will be held the evening of Thursday, November 14th. This contest is open to all undergraduate men students residing in the University dormitories and entries must be made at the speech division offices on or before Thursday, November 7th. If more than eight students enter, preliminaries will be held a few days before the final contest.

The speeches, which will be limited to six to eight minutes will be on the general subject of public opinion. The speakers may choose any phase of this subject, such as crowd psychology, advertising, news, radio, and many others. The treatment may be serious, humorous, satirical, or in any manner generally appropriate to an after-dinner occasion.

Prizes for this contest are: first, $20.00; second, $10.00; and third, $5.00. However the third prize is given only if eight or more participate.

Services Sunday Churches of Eugene will hold special Dads' day services Sunday morning and competition is bound to run high Sunday when fraternities and sororities try to outdo one another in attempting to get the highest percentage of dads.

Tickets for the game may be secured for fathers by students in the dean of men's office any time today. Sons or daughters may either sit with their dads in a special section or in the routing sections, provided they possess student body tickets. Otherwise they will have to pay regular admission prices.

Arrangements for this ninth annual meeting of Oregon fathers have been made by a committee working under the direction of Frank Bonduant during the past month.

Aiding Jean Stevenson in preparations for the banquet are: Ruth Nollenberg, June Martin, and Lyle Baker.

For Phi Delta Theta the Devers brothers just about won the meet themselves. With a little more help they would have, easily.

A.T.O. Wins Again Even though Clark Thompson was beaten again in a race last night he came right back and copped the final two events he was entered in for A.T.O. Hoffman, Phi Sig ace, sprung a surprise on Thompson and most of the spectators when he beat him to the tape by a good three feet in the 40-yard backstroke event. The final score of this meet was 37 to 12 in favor of A.T.O.

F. Hitchcock, of the Phi Sig outfit, was the outstanding swimmer next to Hoffman.

A BRAIN HARASSED BY A PEN THAT RUNS DRY, LOSES ITS Brilliance...Power... and Expression

• Hence Parker Created 102% More Ink Capacity and Visible Ink Supply

• From Harvard to Southern California
 Wanted by More Students Than All Other Standard Brands Combined
 That's why thousands of students are replacing their present pens with this revolutionary new Parker Vacumatic with visible ink supply and 102% more of it.
 By holding this miracle writer to the light, they can see the ink level—see days ahead if it's running low. It is laminated—built up ring upon ring of shimmering Pearl and Jet—smart, velvet-like, wholly exclusive.
 It contains no rubber sac found in sac-type pens—no squirt-gun piston pump like other sacless pens—nothing to render it useless later on. That's why it is guaranteed mechanically perfect. Go to any good store selling pens and try it yourself. The Parker Pen Company, Jamestown, Wis.
