1935 SEASON SEES MANY UP-SETS AS SET-UPS RISE TO FORE ON THE COAST.

OREGON VARSITY AND EMERALD SPORTS STAFF PICK CHESHIRE AS BEST BACK.

Quacks

By TOM MCCALL

Lose or draw with Oregon State, and John Kitzmiller, Duck backfield coach, will still be a happy man. Reason: The Kitzmiller family had a very successful tete-a-tete with old man stork yesterday morning. The chubby chappy, as fine a potential footballist as one could ask for, tipped the beam at 7-1.2 pounds in the raw.

Incidentally the new arrival is the only male offspring of a member of the Oregon football coaching staff.

Gene Shields, line coach, and John Warren, Fresh mentor, both are parents of girls. . . Howard Hobson, varsity basketball coach, has two boys. Their athletic propensities will take them to the maplewood court rather than the gridiron, if Hobbie has a thing to say about it.

Not content to be surprised by the Ducks in any department, the Beavers, too, boast of a little visitor to one of their ex-pigskin greats. . . "Chris" Christianson, a slashing Orange guard of the early twenties, became a proud father this week.

Oregon's stock, for this Saturday's game, took a jack-knife for the basement today, when Ray Lopez was sent to the infirmary with intestinal flu. Even if he does recover enough to appear in suit for the civil war, he will probably be weakened by the seige of illness to such an extent that he will see little actual service.

Romey DePittard apparently is looked upon as the William Jennings Bryant of the varsity squad. . . It was he who was chosen to do most of the speaking on behalf of the active local gridsters, at the rally assembly this Friday. DePittard is a forceful and inspiring talker. A descendant of an old and honored family of British noblemen, he does not lack the characteristic ease either in the auditorium or on the football field. . . In regards to his gridiron work he has the second highest average of any Oregon ball carrying regular, or near regular. He has toted well over five yards per trip.

That rally on Friday will be a "dingy." Coach Callison, Baz Williams and others of the old guard will be there with their acts of sincere vocal fire. Add their capacities for stirring the soul to the spirit that the students already possess and they will be able to aid in turning the Beavers into "Gophers."

James J. Braddock, heavyweight champion of the world, comes to town Friday. Braddock will put on a four round exhibition against a good heavy, Jack McCarthy, and then will referee a couple of wrestling bouts. . . His roughest work of the evening will not take place in the Army, that is, if he accepts the invitation to the Barristers' Brawl, to which he was asked by the budding lawyers, on the same night.

The Philip Morris representatives on the campus said that they'd give me a dream-daddy, if I corrected a well nigh fatal error that has inserted itself into the text of their local advertising. It appears that the signboards say something about W.S.C. playing U.S.C. this weekend. But that ain't right.

The two games to pick are Idaho vs. Washington State, and Oregon versus ("Well, let me see. What is the name of that opponent? It slips my mind right now, but you readers can find out from schedules").

A decided swing against the New Deal in the last 15 months among members of the Yale class of '24 is reflected in a recent poll. Sixty-nine per cent of the class voted against the president while 15 months ago 68 per cent favored New Deal policies.

Webfoot Team Primed for OSC Contest

Coaching Staff Puts Oregon Team Through Intensive Blocking Drills

Two football teams as evenly matched as any in the nation will answer the opening blast of referee Bobby Evans' whistle on Hayward field at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

With only two days to go before their traditional "civil war" struggle, Oregon's Webfoots and Oregon State's Beavers are on paper as even as two squads of bruising gridiron stars could be.

Few authorities around the state are daring to predict a triumph for either team, all agreeing that the big fight is a perfect toss-up. An interesting angle on the question of odds is the report of Ryan and Co., Wall Street betting commissioners, who are making Oregon a 7-to-5 favorite.

Webfoots Heave Passes

A major portion of last night's practice session on the tattered turf adjacent to the stadium found the hopeful Webfoots drilling on ways and means of Combating Joe Gray and his passing prowess with aerial bombardments of their own. Prink Callison has Bud Goodin and Dale Lassalle filling the air with heaves of all dimensions.

Gene Shields worked the Duck linemen on offensive fundamentals, while the backs polished up their blocking. Tonight's workout will be the last field session for the Webfoots, for tomorrow Callison intends to confine work to a chalk-talk.

There is still some possibility that Ray Lopez, midget hero of the UCLA game, will start at right half against the Beavers, but in all likelihood Bob Braddock will retain his old post. Vernon Moore has the inside track at the ball snapping job, but veteran Ed Farrar is yet in the running.

The remainder of the Oregon forward wall will line up with Stan Riordan and Budd Jones at ends; Del Bjork and Ken Skinner, at the tackles; and Ross Carter and Tony Amato, at guards.

Beaver Line Strong

Two Corvallis boys who have made good on the home-town varsity, Woody Joslin and Maynard Schulz, have been chosen co-captains of the Oregon State squad for the "civil war." Joslin and Schultz play left and right ends, respectively, for the Staters.

Jim Miller and Don Fisher are Lon Stiner's first string tackles, with Stan McClurg and Ed Strack at guards. Ken Deming is the regular center. Nine of Oregon State's eleven starting men are native Oregonians.

Saturday's homecoming battle, 36th in history between Duck and Beaver, is expected to play to a sell-out throng of almost 20,000.

Blais Calls

Vail to Introduce Yells
 Blais urges presidents of living organizations to exert every effort to get house members out to this meeting. All students who will sit in the Oregon yell section should be present at this meeting, he pointed out, as new yells will be introduced by Ed Vail, yell king.

Jack Campbell, rally chairman, will outline details of the Friday night homecoming rally and will introduce Prink Callison, head coach; Basil Williams, former Oregon star lineman; and Romey DePittard, captain of the Oregon-Oregon State game. Each will make short talks concerning the game the next day.

Calendar

Yeomen meeting at the YMCA hut at 4 o'clock.

Rally committee meeting tonight at College Side at 9:30.

Fresh Homecoming ticket sellers meet at 110 Johnson at 3 today.

Student Christian Council will hold a special meeting today at noon at the Westminster house.

Pi Mu Epsilon will have a short business meeting at 4 o'clock in 205 Deady.

Alpha Delta Sigma meeting this noon at the College Side. Important.

Homecoming reception committee will hold a meeting today in the Alumni office at 2 o'clock.

Prof. R. H. Sherill of the University of North Carolina school of commerce took on five New York thugs recently when one of them took 30 cents from him. Although three radio patrol cars finished the thugs after Prof. Sherill had knocked out one of them, he is credited with a moral victory.

D. U. Outfit Ekes Out Win Over Gamma

Bob Newlands and Willie Torrance Star For Two Teams in Volleyball

Delta Upsilon broke a 14-14 tie in their first game and came back strong in the second to take both games from a five man Gamma hall team 16-14 and 15-7 in the second round of the "A" league volleyball contests yesterday.

Newlands and Smith were outstanding for the D.U.'s, while Marty and Torrance looked good for Gamma.

Sigma Chi Trounces Yeomen

Sigma Chi gave the Yeomen their first defeat of the current "A" league season by 15-8 and 15-5 scores. Wheelock, Fouts and Gale Smith for Sigma Chi, and Gesseke and Paddock for the independents, were the individual stars.

Marvin Stroble furnished the handful of spectators with a sensational spiking game as the A.

T. O.'s overwhelmed Theta Chi 15-9 and 15-3.

Fijis Beat S.A.E.

Fiji broke into the win column by taking two straight from Sigma Alpha Epsilon 15-7 and 16-14. Both teams put up a good exhibition of volleyball, fighting hard and making occasional brilliant shots. Seufert and Aughinbaugh starred for the Fijis, and Hanson stood out for S.A.E.

Phi Deltis Take Second Straight

The Phi Deltis annexed their second victory of the current campaign by merely appearing and claiming their game from the Pi Kaps, who failed to show up. Phi Sigma Kappa also won its game via the forfeiture route from La Casa Filipina.

o'clock sharp Buck McGowan and his music makers will strike up the band at Gerlinger hall. Campus clothes is the order. Anyone wishing to style a suit will have an opportunity to do so from the stage, with music! No dates Friday night. Charge, 25c a person.

General rallying and pep yells will intersperse the musical renditions of the orchestra. Not a dull moment, says the rally committee.

Then the big moment, awarding the prizes! The float which is adjudged as having paid the greatest tribute to King Bedlam will be honored through its creators. The houses having built the best mechanical signs for homecoming will receive their just desserts.

Ex-yell kings of the past will unite with the 1934-36 variety in a galaxy of fun and pep. Three surprise features are planned by the rally committee.

which the cynical and doubting freshmen did not believe.

However the sophomores retired to the warmth of the city and as the yearlings detected a few questionable statements in the sophomore tale, they remained. Fear of a return engagement later sent freshmen delegates into town to muster more recruits to the cause.

Last night Delta Tau Delta, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Delta Theta, Chi Psi, Alpha Hall and Kappa Sigma freshmen were on duty around the campus. Tonight Sigma Nu, Delta Upsilon, Zeta hall, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Alpha Mu and Alpha Tau Omega freshmen will be divided between guarding the "O" and campus vigilance.

YOU have made great progress in the past 10 years. Let's see some of the things the Bell System has been doing in that time.

Since 1925, we've cut the average time for completing Long Distance connections from 7½ to 1½ minutes. We've made the service more immune to weather—94% of our wires are now in cable. We've increased the telephone's scope about 80%—you can now reach nearly 31,000,000 telephones, in every quarter of the globe.

The next 10 year period may bring equally important advances. That is one of the ever-present thrills in telephone work!
