

Oregon Emerald

CHARLES PADDOCK Sports Editor

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1936

Snap-Shots!

Wendell Wyatt, Emerald sports writer, starts this morning a column of personal glimpses into the history of members of the Oregon basketball team. Get in the know.

Huskies Coming!

Hordes of northerners from the University of Washington will throng into Eugene this weekend to scalp and skunk the Gre radiers of Oregon. Can the Webfoots stop them?

Sport

NORTHWEST REFEREES APPARENTLY REACH NEW HIGH FOR UNPOPULARITY

CHIEF McLEAN READY TO SEE SERVICE IN WASHINGTON SERIES

Quacks

By TOM McCALL

Today's Sports

MEN'S BASKETBALL 4:00 p. m.—Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Zeta hall "B." 4:40 p. m.—Phi Delta Theta vs. Delta Tau Delta "B." 5:20 p. m.—Phi Kappa Psi vs. Beta Theta Pi "B." WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 4:00 p. m.—Gamma Phi Beta vs. Sigma Kappa. 5:00 p. m.—Orides vs. Alpha Chi Omega; Kappa Kappa Gamma vs. Pi Beta Phi.

Trip to Oregon Worries Huskies

Ducks and Beavers Laying for Hee-men

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle — (Special) — With the conference title practically at stake, despite the youthfulness of the season, Washington begins a tough road trip series at Eugene Friday night. The unbeaten team in the conference, the Huskies meet their most formidable opponents within a five-day period—Oregon Friday and Saturday and Oregon State at Corvallis next Monday and Tuesday.

Washington's five has been termed "the greatest passing team in the history of the institution." Whether they can do as well on strange floors remains to be seen, but even if they drop half the games of the road trip, the Huskies still have a good chance to win the title.

It is practically certain that the first squad, composed of Ralph Bishop, Bob Egge, Bob McKinstry, Chuck Wagner and Bob Loverich will be backed up by Jack Gannon, Hunt Paterson, Henry Rosenberg, Walter Kastner and Ross Werner. Coach Hec Edmundson has found these boys to be the strongest of the Washington hoop team.

Captain Ralph Bishop has steadily forged to the front in the scoring column and although he stands but third in the scoring column behind Palmberg of O.S.C. and Howell of Oregon, he has averaged 11 points to the game, making him the most consistent individual scorer in the northern division.

Washington's victory over Oregon last week-end to the tune of 3 to 28 and 40 to 26 has established the Huskies as the favorites to win the conference banner. They have played four games and lost none, whereas Oregon State in second place has played seven games, winning five and losing two.

Caswell Attends Portland Meeting

Dr. A. E. Caswell, head of the physics department, spent Tuesday in Portland attending a meeting of the Presbyterian synod of Oregon. It has been planned that the summer meeting, the important one of the year, will be held on the University campus July 14 to 17. Due to a meeting of the elementary school principals July 6 to 17, it was thought that the campus might be too crowded.

Arrangements are now being made to see if it will be possible to obtain enough housing room for the synod group. Dr. Caswell believes that everything will be straightened out, and Dr. D. E. Clark, director of the Eugene summer session will go to Portland Friday to report on the feasibility.

under the direction of John Stark Evans tonight at Corvallis. Those going are Earl M. Pallett, E. S. Tuttle, John L. Casteel, C. F. Constance, and Glenn Griffith.

This program is to be given at the gymnasium on the Oregon State campus, and is sponsored by the Corvallis Lions club and the ASOSC.

Several members of the University faculty will attend the performance of the Eugene Gleemen

Frosh Defeat Riggs Quintet Again 54-34

Johansen, Gale, And Bob Anet Again Lead Yearlings to Lop-Sided Victory

The University of Oregon's high-scoring Frosh basketball team went on another scoring spree last night and defeated the strong Riggs' All-stars by a 54 to 34 score.

The All-stars presented a lineup strengthened by the addition of Jack Stafford and Darrell Miller, stars for the freshman team last year, but John Warren's squad packed too much power and had the game under command from the outset to the final gun. The yearlings held a 24 to 19 lead at the half.

Laddie Gale, lanky pivot ace, again was the leading scorer for the Frosh with 14 points. He was closely followed by Johansen and Phelps with 10 each. Bob Anet played his usual steady game at guard and was the driving force of the team.

Wilson Siegmund starred for the losers with 9 counters.

Lineups:

Frosh (54) All-stars (34) Johansen, 10 ... F.W. Siegmund, 9 Heller, 4 ... F. Karstens, 2 Gale, 14 ... C. D. Miller, 4 Hansen, ... G. Stafford, 5 Anet, 6 ... G. B. Miller, 2 Substitutes, for Frosh: Fouts, 4; Phelps, 10; G. Smith, B. Smith, 2; Nilsen, 2; Mullen, Jackson, 2; Campbell, Becktell, Green, For Riggs: Bean, 2; Tingle, 4; Logan, 6; Marsel. Referee: Bashor.

Heart Tickets Now on Sale

Girls Named to Sell Tokens for Dance

Red, heart-shaped tickets for the YWCA Valentine's day dance are now being sold by girls at living organizations and on the campus. One ticket, priced at 25 cents, will admit a couple to any of the four houses, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Selection by the dance committee of candidates for the "King of Hearts" is being kept a secret. Coeds who wish to enter other names must do so before Tuesday, February 10, when the names of all the candidates will be revealed.

An added feature of the dance is the awarding of a prize to the organization selling the most tickets.

Girls selling tickets are: Thelma Garretson, Alpha Chi Omega; Margery Kissling, Alpha Delta Pi; Ellen Stewart, Alpha Gamma Delta; Virginia McCorkle, Alpha Omicron Pi; Bonnie Walkker, Alpha Phi; Jean Paulsen, Chi Omega; Elaine Comish, Delta Delta Delta; Constance Kletzer, Delta Gamma; Tony Lucas, Gamma Phi Beta; Kay Skallet, Hendricks hall; Betty Jane Barr, Kappa Alpha Theta; Mary Jane Mahoney, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Dorothy Elsensohn, Phi Mu; Kay Buck, Pi Beta Phi; Genevieve McNiece, Sigma Kappa; Dorothy Magnuson, Susan Campbell hall; Doris Amidon, Zeta Tau Alpha; Theoda Speier, Orides; Clare Igoe, Tonqueds; Irene Wells campus. Gayle Buchanan is in charge of the ticket selling.

Infirmary Total Down to Eight

With two new patients in the infirmary yesterday the total was eight, two less than yesterday. The two new ones are Violet Nestell and Kathleen Wyman. Anna Marie Driskell, Jean Urfer, Kenneth Miller, Thorne Hubbell, Harold Draper, and Earl Cole have been confined from a previous date.

Send the Emerald to your friends. Subscription rates $2.50 a year.

Still Just a Kid!

Babe Ruth, no longer the king of swat, is still king of America's favorite game as far as thousands of enthusiastic youngsters are concerned. Here he is, making some new friends among juvenile admirers.

Rifle Squad Begins Work

Barracks-Moving Delays Practice

With prospects dimmed by an enforced one-month lay-off due to the moving of the barracks, the ROTC rifle team will finally begin practice at 8:30 today, it was reported by Sergeant Harvey Blythe, coach.

Although the team last year took first place in the Hearst national five-man team competition and won all except two of its postal matches, Sergeant Blythe has no such hopes for the squad this year.

Two veterans, Ken BeLieu and Bernard Cross, both members of the first-place five-man team, will reinforce the squad. BeLieu will act as captain, Blythe said. Others who have had some time under fire are Bjork, Olsen, Jacobson, Nickelsen, and Lew.

Twenty-four freshmen, the best shots out of the basic military course, have been requested to turn names for the team. Some that have shown skill in the preliminary testing last term are Robbins, Endicott, Inskip, and Le Febvre.

Postal competition is scheduled to begin February 3. With less than one week of practice behind them, the Oregon sharpshooters may have some difficulty. Blythe hopes to get the team into shape as soon as possible. Those on the squad may shoot any time from 8:30 to 12:00 in the morning and from 1:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon.

If the Oregon team is able to maintain its entire postal schedule it will shoot against 23 schools in the next month. The coach has also made plans to enter a 10-man team in the national ROTC competition, and two five-man teams in the Hearst trophy meet.

Oxford Movement Discussion Topic

Helen Osland will lead the second discussion in a series on modern religious leaders and religious movements, at the meeting of the Westminster study club tonight at 8:30 at the Westminster house on Kincaid.

Miss Osland, who is a sophomore in business administration, will speak on "Buchanism and the new Oxford group movement." In this same group discussion Beverly Caverhill previously spoke on the religious conditions of nationalistic Germany.

Other discussions will include such topics as Swedenborgianism, Darl Barth, and the religious trends in America.

Send the Emerald to your friends. Subscription rates $2.50 a year.

Huskies and Ducks Radiate Confidence

Rivals Gird for Big Battles Here Friday And Saturday; Wagner To Guard Ward Howell

The big bad Huskies of Washington, perching high atop northern division basketball standings, will bustle into Eugene tomorrow ready to wrap up the title and ship it prepaid to Seattle.

The Huskies are planning to take both games from Oregon's third-place Grenadiers Friday and Saturday, and if they do Uncle Hec Edmundson can start making arrangements for a tourney to sunny California and the inter-division play-off.

Wagner at Guard Proof that the Washington bad men expect to sew it all up this weekend is furnished by a dispatch from Seattle to the effect that Chuck Wagner, formerly the Huskies' forward successor to Bobby Galer, will be kept at guard in the coming series for the express purpose of stopping Oregon's 6-foot, 6-inch Ward Howell.

Wagner limited the mighty Wardlow to four field goals in the two tilts in the northern metropolis last week, and Uncle Hec and his hearties think halting Howell means stopping Oregon. It did last week.

Huskies Set Sail Washington's traveling squad, which will set sail for Eugene today, was announced yesterday.

Men scheduled to make the all-important trip include Ralph Bishop and Pal Rosenberg, centers; Ed Loverich, Bob McKinstry, Hunt Paterson, and Jack Gannon, forwards; and Chuck Wagner, Bob Egge, Walt Kastner, and Ross Werner, guards.

Oregon will enter the big struggle Friday night with a revamped lineup. Ken Purdy has the inside track to start at one of the guard posts, and Johnny Lewis, Wayne Scott, and Chief McLean are other reserves who may crash the opening quintet. McLean's knee injury is healing rapidly and Hobson has stated definitely that the Indian fire-brand will see action during the series.

Courtney in Suit Bill Courtney, out for three days with an infected toe, was back in suit yesterday as the Ducks went through their final regular work-out before the games. Courtney and Rollie Rourke alternated at guard beside Purdy on Hobson's first string combination. Howell was at forward, with Chuck Paterson at center, Budd Jones and Sam Liebowitz changed off at the other forward berth. Liebowitz has the call but has been suffering from a slight cold.

McLean's injection into the lineup would give the Webfoot fast break greater speed and might be the spark needed to make the lads outspeed the Huskies at their own game. Hobson plans to try to out-boom the Washington cagers again, and it will take every ounce of speed the Ducks can muster.

(Please turn to page four)

Sweethearts Win In Male Loop; Coed Hall Teams Victors

Susan Campbell, Hendricks Down A O Pi, Alpha Phis In Opening Games

Susan Campbell took Alpha Omicron Pi 34-16, and Hendricks triumphed over Alpha Phi 22-7 in the first clashes of the season at 5 p. m. yesterday in the main and outdoor women's gyms respectively.

The A O Pi girls had a good team, but Susan's veteran forward, Sue Moshberger, proved unguardable, rolling up a count of 21 to take high-point honors for both games.

The game was fast with excellent ball-handling, the teams being evenly matched in all respects except shooting accuracy. High-point forward for Alpha Omicron Pi was Nina Schmor, a freshman who made 14 counters.

Staples, Boyd Star

The Alpha Phi-Hendricks game was slow with both teams unable to hold on to the ball. The hall guards, Kay Staples and Barbara Boyd, were the best players on the floor, effectively keeping the Alpha Phis out of shooting range.

High-point player of the game was Jean Gulovson, making 15 counters for Hendricks. Barbara Fairhurst took the honors for Alpha Phi with 5 points.

Summaries:

Susan Campbell (34) (16) A O Pi Moshberger, 21 F. 14, Schmor Thomas, 9 F. 2, Hunt Scherzinger, 4 F. Hall J.C. Bauman Genoves SC. Church Kroll G. McCorkle Cleator G. Anderson Busche G. De Koning Hendricks (22) (7) Alpha Phi Gulovson, 15 F. 5, Fairhurst Brown, 4 F. 2, Powell Watson, 3 F. Skillern Goeth J.C. Mackie Hall SC. Cunningham SC. Pasquill Boyd G. Schaup Brown G. Miller Staples G. Cunningham Today the Gamma Phi Betas meet the Sigma Kappas at 4 o'clock in the main gym, and the Kappa Kappa Gammass play Pi Beta Phi in the same place. The Orioles tangle with Alpha Chi Omega in the outdoor gym at 5.

The main features of the game were wild shots, resulting in a dearth of baskets, with the basketball constantly changing hands. The score of the fray stood 6 to 1 at the finish of the first half with both teams entering into the spirit of missed shots, fumbled passes, and a resultant lack of baskets in the final period.

Summaries: Sigma Chi (28) (8) Alpha hall Breckenridge, 6 F. 4, Popescu Simonsen, 6 F. Frizzell Gridley, 10 C. Lubersky Johnson, 2 C. Cannon Anderson, 4 C. Hiroshige S. 4, Van Emon

SAAE (30) (8) Omega hall Greenup F. 2, Kliks Russell F. Kato Cooper, 4 C. Meyers Berry, 8 C. 3, Kidder Culler, 4 G. Oguva Bjork, 4 S. Jonas S. Rice

ATO (8) (3) Kappa Sigma Erwin, 4 F. 2, Carter Ballew F. Simpson Anderson, 1 C. Wade Eldridge G. Eade Ford, 1 G. 1, Fury Wilson S. Oibekson Weston, 2 S. Wagstaff S. Danielson S. Thomas S.

After Court Ruled Against AAA

With the AAA structure which they had built razed by the U. S. supreme court decision, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, left, and Chester Davis, AAA administrator, are shown as they left the White House after a lengthy discussion with President Roosevelt on how to meet the situation. Wallace, commenting on the verdict, predicted that it would mean a marked decrease in farm income.

Specimen, ATO's Beat Out Omega Hall, Kappa Sigs; Bob Gridley Stars

With six of its players contributing points to the score sheet, the Sigma Chi five thrashed the Alpha hall quintet 28-8 in last night's opening "B" encounter.

Bob Gridley, center, gained first place in the scoring melee. A pair of roving forwards, John Breckenridge and Earl Simonsen, were close competitors for point-gathering honors with six counters each.

The two point makers who ventured to heave baskets for Alpha hall were Marion Popescu and Walter Van Emon who shared their mates' offensive burden with a pair of two point shots.

Spees Dump Hallers

A lanky Sigma Phi Epsilon quintet overpowered the dimflutive hoopsters from Omega hall to collect a 20 to 8 victory.

The scoring drive of the winners failed to reach full momentum until the second half. Sigma held a four point lead at the close of the first period with the score 8 to 4, but garnered 12 points during the homecoming stretch while Omega repeated their efforts of the previous half, adding only four more.

Chandler Berry for the winners was the leading point man of the fray, with a collection of three field goals and a pair of gift shots. In a rollicking low score night-camp fracas, Alpha Tau Omega emerged an 8 to 3 victor over Kappa Sigma.

The main features of the game were wild shots, resulting in a dearth of baskets, with the basketball constantly changing hands.

The score of the fray stood 6 to 1 at the finish of the first half with both teams entering into the spirit of missed shots, fumbled passes, and a resultant lack of baskets in the final period.

Summaries: Sigma Chi (28) (8) Alpha hall Breckenridge, 6 F. 4, Popescu Simonsen, 6 F. Frizzell Gridley, 10 C. Lubersky Johnson, 2 C. Cannon Anderson, 4 C. Hiroshige S. 4, Van Emon

SAAE (30) (8) Omega hall Greenup F. 2, Kliks Russell F. Kato Cooper, 4 C. Meyers Berry, 8 C. 3, Kidder Culler, 4 G. Oguva Bjork, 4 S. Jonas S. Rice

ATO (8) (3) Kappa Sigma Erwin, 4 F. 2, Carter Ballew F. Simpson Anderson, 1 C. Wade Eldridge G. Eade Ford, 1 G. 1, Fury Wilson S. Oibekson Weston, 2 S. Wagstaff S. Danielson S. Thomas S.

To Give Master's Exam Prof. E. H. Moore of the sociology department went to Portland Tuesday to give an examination for a master's degree applicant.

TONIGHT! President's Ball Guy McLean Eddie Scroggins Total - 20 Pieces Will Furnish Rhythm At WINTERGARDEN BALL ROOM Tickets 75c

REMEMBER VICTORY DANCE FRIDAY GREEN PARROT