Lemon and Green

The Webfoot track squad will be on review for the first time this year when Bill Hayward puts his cindermen through a complete intersquad meet Saturday at 2

Colonel Bill Hayward, the Oregon students' idea of "one swell guy," has divided all of the trackmen into two squads, the Lemon and the Green. The two teams are evenly matched and the winner will be the one that gets the breaks

The fact that there are at least two Olympic prospects on the track team makes the meet of events this Saturday will probably be the big point winners in compe-

Of special interest will be the mile event, in which a dual battle for first place honors is expected between George Scharpf of the Lemon team and Sam McGaughey of the Greens. Scharpf, who has been defeated twice this year by Sammy McGaughey, has sworn to get revenge.

Two other events that will probably develop into a terrific struggle are the 50 and 100-yard dashes. The 50-yard dash has been subwho limited the Grantonians to stituted for the usual 220 yard sprint. Those who know have picked "Squeak" Lloyd to win the short dash and Bud Shoemake to win the 100. Lloyd, a sophomore, has proved that he is a speed demon by defeating Shoemake in one race this year. Shoemake is the champion sprinter of the Northwest.

To provide the necessary humor angle as well as provide necessary training, the weight men will run a 440-yard relay in addition to their regular events. The Lemon squad of Foskett, Berry, Adams. and Hardesty will run against the Greenies who boast Huston, Walks er, Koskello, and Holland as their
