NUMBER 104

The Calliope Oregon

The Finley-for-president hand-gang that rolled to surprising power last week lost the support of two houses last night when a sudden change was wrought in politics.

The Hammond-Belieu-Thomas entente who have kept their activity in the dark during early campaign work came into the open last night with a meeting at the Chi O and later at the Pi Kappa house.

Although they have kept in the dark, they have continued to deal with houses who switched over to Finley. Result of the dealing: Two houses dissatisfied with gray distribution and prompted with more sugary promises returned to the old block last night.

Part of the sudden change can be attributed to the apparent withdrawal of the mysterious outside power which had been exerted behind closed doors within houses. Cause number three was seen in action in underclass politics which reached its culmination yesterday.

Aroused, assertive freshmen and sophomores, who last week had been told what to do in politics, revolted yesterday. ATO Harry Weston, who had been jerked from running against Delt Harry Clifford for sophomore class president because of upperclass pressure, appeared last night as a formidable candidate to oppose Clifford.

Also Noel Benson came into the limelight as candidate for junior class president, after underclassmen asserted their power. They said that regardless of political principles they believed that Phi Delt Benson should run for class president because he was the best man for the office, even though he was from the same house as Finley.

Mother's Day Co-Chairmen Name Aides

Record-Breaking Group Sought for Festivities Junior Weekend

Determined to bring, kidnap, or demand that a record migration of mothers of University students will surge across the campus for the combined Junior Weekend-Mother's Day observance, a complete committee met yesterday and began preparing activities enticing to the most old-fashioned "mom."

Grace Peck and Lucille McBride, co-chairmen, named the following student committee last week: Margery Kissling, social affairs; Virginia Endicott, banquet and decorations; Elinor Stewart, registration; Marjorie Smith, secretary; Bill Marsh, advertising; and Wayne Harbert, publicity.

"Stardust" at Top At the top of the socially-studded weekend will be one of the most traditional spectacles of universities on the coast, the 1936 presentation of the canoe fete, "Stardust."

All Junior Weekend activities will be open to mothers. This includes everything from the time of the all-campus luncheon until the bend of the millrace Saturday night, the co-chairmen have announced.

Junior Women To Meet Today

Mortar Board Will Seek Opinion of Women for 1936 Selection

All junior women will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in 110 Johnson to vote on a tentative list of Mortar Board members. A list of 96 junior coeds whose accumulated grade point average is sufficient to make them eligible for the senior service honorary has been prepared by the 1935 Mortar Board.

Lists will be sent to faculty members to gain a wide selection of opinions and final voting will be done by members of the organization before Junior Weekend, at which time the Mortar Board march is held.

In addition to high scholarship qualifications for membership are service and leadership.

Quakers Slate Four Speakers

Prof. R. H. Dann will be the first of four speakers to address the Westminster association in a series of Thursday evening talks, on the subject of "My Faith's Approach to God."

Professor Dann, of the department of sociology of Oregon State college, will speak to the Quakers this Thursday at 8 o'clock.

On one of the successive Thursdays an Oxford group team from Portland will be the speakers. The membership of this group will be announced later.

Dr. Perry Hopper of Westminster Presbyterian church, Portland, and chairman of the board of trustees of Westminster house, will speak one evening. The remaining Thursday, Father F. P. Leipzig, of the local Catholic parish, will speak.

Lomax to Speak on City Management

Alfred Lomax, professor of business administration, will speak over KOAC at 7:30 tomorrow night on "A Plan for Reorganization of Local Government Services on a Geographical Basis."

Every Wednesday night the League of Oregon Cities in conjunction with the Bureau of Municipal Research sponsors talks on various phases of city government and planning.

On April 22 Harry Freeman, technical consultant for the Portland city planning commission, will talk on "The Economic Necessity of City Planning."

Canoe Fete Group Must Meet Today At 12 for Pictures

All members of the canoe fete committee are to meet today at 12 noon at George Godfrey's office for pictures. Unless the group is there at 12 sharp there will be no pictures taken.

Order of the 'O' Elects Tomorrow

John Lewis and Del Bjork Candidates for Prexy; McCall Retiring

Men who carry the banner of Oregon on gridiron, maple court, track, and diamond will elect officers for the coming year at an Order of the "O" luncheon at the Sigma Nu house Wednesday.

John Lewis, basketball star, and Del Bjork, football tackle, are on the ballot as presidential candidates to replace the retiring prexy, Harry McCall.

Aspirants for vice president are Vernon Moore, football center; Ed Farrar, a rival at center on the grid squad as well as an election opponent; Sam McGaughey, ace track miler; and Chuck Reed, swimmer. Retiring vice president is Howie Patterson.

Ken Skinner, football tackle, and Gilbert Schultz, track letterman, are candidates for secretary. George Scharf is the retiring lad at that position.

Treasurer next year will be either Ralph Amato, baseball outfielder, who took the place of Stan Rlordan when the latter dropped from school a month ago, or Sid Milligan, golfer.

Sergeant at arms candidates are Tony Amato, football guard; Chan Berry, football center and track weight man; and Dale LaSalle, football halfback.

YMCA Election Set for Today

Voting of All Members Is Urged by Glenn Griffith; Nominees Listed

Elections for the new officers of the University YMCA will be held today at the Y hut from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m.

The following members have been nominated for offices: John Espy and Brittain Ash, president; Paul Plank, vice-president; John Luvaas, secretary, and Phoebe Klonoff, treasurer.

Glenn Griffith, secretary of the YMCA, has requested all members to please turn out and vote.

These officers will be installed at the membership banquet, known as the Y's Guys dinner, to be held Thursday, April 16, in the Y hut.

Tickets for this affair are now on sale and may be bought from members of the Student Christian council or those on the Frosh Council of the YMCA.

Hunter to Speak To Women Voters

Chancellor Hunter will be principal speaker today at the state convention in Portland of the Oregon League of Women Voters. His speech, delivered at a luncheon at the Waverly club, will be "Your System of Higher Education."

Naming of Thomas, Blais Acknowledged

Robert W. Thomas and James Blais have received letters from the Marine headquarters in acknowledgment of their application as second lieutenants in the marine corps.

Thomas has been named principal applicant and Blais alternate. Information concerning the final examination will be sent them later, it was reported.

Make-up Psych Exam To Be Given at 4 P.M. Today in Condon Hall

All new spring undergraduates who did not take the psychological examination on Monday, April 6, please be present at 302 Condon today at 4 o'clock for the make-up test.

Houses Draw Canoe Fete 'Pards' Today

Float Pairings to Be Held In Side at 4; Song Also Will Be Allotted

Drawings for the 1936 Canoe Fete will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the back room of the College Side. Each of the organizations mentioned below should have a representative present at the drawing or the drawing will be made for them.

Chairman Dave Lowry said the men's living organizations will draw for their pairings with the women's organizations. Then the women will draw for the song which will accompany their joint float.

No Changes in Song "There will be no changing of the song," Lowry stated. "If the float committee, as drawn, wishes to substitute what they believe to be a more appropriate song for the period they must do this within two days after the drawing, and only with the consent of the general chairman. This is necessary in order to keep all floats coordinated with the theme, 'Stardust.'"

The time is limited as arrangements and continuity must be written. Helen Jones, originator of the theme, has drawn preliminary sketches which will conform to the rules and regulations issued at the time of the drawing.

Lowry stressed the necessity for cooperation. He said that although the theme must be maintained throughout that the regulations permit a great deal of elasticity in originality of design.

Delta Gamma and Kappa Sigma are now in possession of the first prize loving cups, which they won last year.

First right to enter the Canoe Fete this year was given to last year's non-competing organizations, second choice going to those not entering year before last but entering last year.

The organizations which must be present for the drawings are as follows: women's—Sigma Kappa, Delta Gamma, Delta Delta, Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Phi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Alpha Delta Pi.

Men's—Beta Theta Pi, Sigma hall, Phi Sigma Kappa, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Omega hall, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Mu, Theta Chi, and Pi Kappa Alpha.

P. E. Coeds Organize Sunday Cycle Trip

Majors and minors in the women's physical education department are planning a bicycle trip for Sunday, April 19. The exact destination has not yet been decided, but will probably be somewhere along the Coburg road, by the Willamette river.

The group will leave Gerlinger hall at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and will return about 2 o'clock. Bicycles will be rented from Hutch's Bike shop.

Louise Pursley is in charge of arrangements for the trip, and Eileen Donaldson of publicity.

Order of the Coif Will Initiate Two on Wednesday

Launching the long-awaited evening with a banquet at 6:15 Wednesday in the Del Rey cafe, the members of the law school and faculty will observe the elaborate ceremonial rites of the initiation of two students into the Order of the Coif, legal honorary for scholarship, and the performances of four law students for the annual Hiltop prize contest.

The awarding of the $50 first prize, offered annually by Frank H. Hilton, attorney-at-law in Portland, and the second prize of $25, from the law school trust fund, will take place after the initiation and will be made by Mr. Hilton himself. President C. V. Boyer, Judge Leonard S. Goddard of Cottage Grove, and Edwin A. Hecks, associate United States attorney in Portland, will judge the contest.

Selected upon the basis of manuscripts previously submitted, concerning the constitutionality of some phase of the New Deal legislation, the following four students were finally chosen by the law faculty to participate in the contest: Herbert O. Skalet, Hale

Phi Mu Alphas Go Blackface in Show Offered Thursday

Phi Mu Alpha, men's national music honorary, will present a modern minstrel show Thursday, in the music school auditorium, said James Morrison, supreme councilman of the group.

A varied program of vocal and orchestra numbers, offered by some of the campus' best musicians, interspersed with lots of good jokes, will be presented, said Master of Ceremonies Morrison.

"But 'corny' gags and barnyard music are out," he said. "This is going to be a new kind of minstrel show, and we've got just the right bunch to do the job. If you ever saw that crazy batch of musicians rehearsing, you'd think so too."

Price of admission is 25 cents.

Miller Applies For Oregana Job

3 Competing for Position As Editor of Oregana; Council to Choose

One more petition for Oregana editor, raising the total to three, was submitted by Les Miller for consideration of the publications committee this week. Miller received sanction last week to submit a late application.

Miller, a sophomore in business administration, will compete against Don Casciato and Mary Graham for the position.

Applicants for the positions as editor and business manager of the Emerald will be interviewed by the publications committee Tuesday and Wednesday, and their choice will be voted on by the executive council before April 18.

F.A. Cuthbert Hit By Towed Car, Breaks Wrist

Fred A. Cuthbert, associate professor of landscape architecture, received a broken wrist, a gash in his cheek, and several bruises Friday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock, when the front wheels of a towed car ran over him as he was crossing the street at Broadway and Willamette.

Cuthbert attempted to go between the tow car and a car being towed when they stopped for a stop street, not noticing the rope between them. He tripped on the rope and as the front car started up, the front wheels of the second car ran over him. He managed to get out of the way of the back wheels.

Dr. Yocom to Speak At Roundtable Club

Dr. H. E. Yocom, professor of zoology, will present a paper, "The Functions of Biological Stations in Oregon" before a meeting of the Roundtable club at the Osburn hotel tonight.

The club, which is composed of 25 faculty people and 25 townspersons, meets at dinner once a month, papers being presented by members.

In ASUO's Final Spring Program

Two members of the Christensen ballet which appears here tonight. Above is Merle Williams. Janet Reed, right, is Balantina. Both are from Portland.

Official Notice

An official student body meeting and nominating assembly will be held at 11 o'clock, Thursday, April 16, in Gerlinger hall. (Signed) James Blais.

Mrs. Hopkins To Sing on KORE

Professor and Mrs. George Hopkins will be featured in the Artist's Student program over KORE tonight from 8:30 until 9:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Hopkins, an accomplished vocalist, will sing Tosst's "The Last Song," "Vissi D'Arte," "Vissi D'Amore," "By the Bend of the River," and "Oh, 'Tis Snowing." She will be accompanied at the piano by Robert Garretson, student in the University school of music.

Mr. Hopkins will speak on "Music as a Hobby."

This is one of a series of programs presented each Tuesday night over KORE by the Students' Educational society.

Military Pledges To Be Chosen

Scabbard and Blade, national military honorary, will meet tonight at the ROTC barracks to discuss men for pledging and to begin the choosing of the five outstanding freshmen in first year military, said Tom Aughinbaugh, president of the group.

A medal will be awarded to one freshman from each of the five companies on the basis of general excellence in class and drill work. Presentations will be made at one of the parades to be held in May.

Junior officers selected by the group will be pledged at one of these parades also.

Present officers of Scabbard and Blade are Tom Aughinbaugh, president; Howard Patterson, vice-president; Marvin E. Stroble, treasurer; and Allen Wall, secretary.

Margaret Jewell Improves at Home

Margaret Jewell, daughter of Dean J. R. Jewell of the education department, who has been ill with pneumonia at her home in San Jose, California, is much improved, according to word received here yesterday.

Mrs. Jewell is with her daughter, being called last week when her condition was reported serious.

Margaret Litscher Recovers Margaret Litscher, assistant art supervisor for cadet art teachers, has been ill at her home for the past week with a chin infection. She was back on the campus Monday.

Smedley Butler Will Speak Here

Famous Retired Marine Corps Officer to Talk at Assembly April 20

Major-General Smedley Butler, retired United States Marine Corps officer, will speak at a general assembly in Gerlinger hall Monday morning, April 20, under the joint auspices of the University, the Oregon Student Federation, and the American Student Union.

General Butler, who is famous over the entire nation for his forceful speaking, will address students on the topic, "War Is a Racket." His talk will be the first event of Peace Week, which will be observed on the campus from April 20 to 25.

The assembly has been scheduled for 10 o'clock. General Butler has been invited to participate in an open forum the hour following his address, but since he speaks the same evening in Portland it is not certain that time will permit his accepting the invitation.

President Boyer will preside at the speech. Facilities of Gerlinger hall will be taxed to the utmost, it is believed, due to the great interest in the retired marine corps officer. Although the assembly is primarily for students, many townspeople are expected to attend.

General Butler, who is the recipient of a Congressional medal for bravery in Haiti in 1918, and who has been in the marine corps for 36 years, is nevertheless a severe critic of the war "racket."

Prizes Offered Ad Managers

The five daily advertising managers of the Emerald will compete each week until the end of the term for a weekly cash prize to be given for outstanding work.

Awarding of prizes will be based upon general quality and coverage of advertising. Managers competing are Walt Verstrom, Patricia Neal, William Jones, Howard Overback, and Francis Price and Louis Labliner, the latter two being co-managers.

Students Not Paying Fees by End of Week Will Be Suspended

Approximately 160 students failed to pay the second installment of registration fees at the deadline Saturday. A late payment charge of 25 cents a day will be made until payment is made. Unless arrangements are made by the end of this week, students failing to pay will be suspended, according to E. P. Lyons, University cashier.

Final Spring Term Concert In Igloo at 8

Christensen Dancers Will End ASUO Programs; 60 in Ballet

Accompanied by a cast of approximately 60 dancers and the University of Oregon orchestra, Janet Reed and William Christensen, who danced leading roles in the Nutcracker, Chopiniana, and Coppelia ballets, will dance "Les Visions de Massenet" for the campus and townspeople at the final spring term concert of the associated students in McArthur court tonight at 8 o'clock.

Almost immediately upon their arrival, the entire company will be called into rehearsal by William Christensen, who has only recently returned to Oregon after several years of eastern stage successes. All costumes will be taken from their wrappings and pressed into order by Mrs. J. W. Henselman, wardrobe mistress. Scenery will be placed, and the cast will complete last minute details for tonight's concert.

Recognized as the coast's leading dance group, the ballet will present the same program it gave with the Portland Symphony orchestra early last month in Portland. Mischa Pelz, well-known Portland musician, will supplant Rex Underwood as director of the University orchestra tonight. He has arranged much of the music for the ballets and has been connected with the group for some time.

Contrasting in both theme and color, three complete ballets, one French, one Spanish, and one Roumanian will be presented.

"Les Visions de Massenet," a ballet of French fantasy, contains excerpts from the opera, "Thais," one being the famous "Thais" Meditation. Others are the "Phedre" overture, and "Scenes Pittoresques." (Please turn to page four)

Skull and Dagger Pledge Fifteen

Second-Year Honorary Group Named at Frosh Glee Saturday

In a gay Japanese setting, Skull and Dagger pledged 15 outstanding freshmen at ceremonies held before an assembly of about 800 dancers during intermission of Frosh Glee, Saturday night in McArthur court.

As Dan Flood's orchestra swung into the opening dance tune, coeds and their escorts, garbed in new spring attire, were high in their acclaim of dance decorations.

Those named at the impressive Skull and Dagger pledging ceremonies were: Zane Klemmer, Harlan Duncan; Bob Bechtel, John Olson, Harold Weston, Willie Frager, Jay Langston, Bud Burnett, Bob Reccon, Brock Miller, Jack Lochridge, Clare Peterson, Bob Gridley, Jim Wells, and Bill Cummings.

The initiation ceremonies will be held later spring term.

Summer Session Booklet Out Soon

Because of extra work in preparing illustrations, the preliminary catalog for the summer session will not be ready for distribution until the end of this week. The catalog was originally scheduled to come out some time last week.

The catalog will contain general information in regard to the summer session, and the list of classes and instructors. A more detailed description of the courses, with time and place of meeting, will appear in the regular summer session catalog, which will be ready about the end of May.

Five Entries Make Ten in Infirmary

Five new patients were admitted to the University infirmary over the last weekend to bring the total confined to 10, three of whom have measles. The new patients include: Elaine Comish, Margaret Lange, Helen Gorrell, Clinton Haight, and Clifford Morris. The other five patients confined are: Robert Garretson, Roderick Aya, Kirk Eldridge, Doyle Pigg, and Ila Rae Congleton.
