UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1936

Eleven Players Awarded Positions on All-Star Intramural Softball Team; Betas Place Three Men on Mythical Aggregation; ATO's Get 2

By G. T. SMITH
Eleven men were given places on the 1936 all-star intramural softball team, chosen by the Emerald sports staff yesterday.

1936 ALL STAR INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL TEAM
Catcher—Amos Lawrence, Phi Delta Theta.
First Base—Ed Jacobs, Abba Dabba.
Second Base—Hugh McCredie, Beta Theta Pi.
Third Base—Ken Phillips, Theta Chi.
Shortstop—Marv Stroble, Alpha Tau Omega.
Left Field—Masa Kato, Omega Hall.
Center Field—Harry Shleifer, Sigma Alpha Mu.
Right Field—Budd Jones, Beta Theta Pi.
Pitcher—Bill Jones, Delta Upsilon.
Utility—Willie Jones, Beta Theta Pi.

HONORABLE MENTION
Catcher—Dave Silven, Delta Upsilon; Keith Wilson, Alpha Tau Omega; Hackney, Phi Kappa Psi; Wellnitz, Abba Dabba.
First Base—Wayne Scott, Alpha Tau Omega; Ed Strohecker, Phi Delta Theta; Bob Newlands, Delta Upsilon.
Second Base—Pickens, Phi Delta Theta; Al Davis, Alpha Tau Omega; Bill Gassman, Phi Kappa Alpha.
Third Base—Elton Owen, Phi Kappa Alpha; Norm Danielson, Alpha Tau Omega; Dewey Carpenter, Beta Theta Pi.
Shortstop—Vic Rosenfeld, Sigma Alpha Mu; Sam Liebowitz, Abba Dabba; Bob Seufert, Phi Gamma Delta.
Pitcher—Les Goldschmidt, Sigma Alpha Mu; Johnny Maeder, Phi Gamma Delta; Guy Benson, Phi Delta Theta; Bob Parke, Beta Theta Pi; Bob Kidder, Omega Hall; Cannon, Abba Dabba.
Outfield—Marece, Abba Dabba; Dick Kriesene, Phi Gamma Delta; Don Owen, Phi Kappa Alpha; Ben Grout, Alpha Tau Omega; Herb Clark, Theta Chi; Don Tower, Phi Kappa Alpha.

Kenny Phillips of Theta Chi getting first call over such classy hot corner men as Carpenter of the champions and Danielson of the runners-up. Owen of the Pi Kaps was one of the heavy sluggers of the season.
Shortstop honors go to Marv Stroble, sweet shortfielder for the second place ATO team. Stroble handled a great many chances with a minimum of errors. Other stars at this position were Rosenfeld, Seufert, and Liebowitz.

Outfielders Abundant
The good outfielders were in abundance as usual. Kato of Omega Hall made the most sensational catches of the season, with Beta Budd Jones, and Sammie Harry Shleifer turning in consistently good games both in the field and at the plate. Six men were given honorable mention in these positions. All the men on the team were chosen on three bases: fielding, batting, and teamwork, which means also a good baseball head. There was no attempt to award places according to teams or favoritism, but merely an effort to put the best man in each position.

Freshman Nine Drops Eugene Hi

Sayles Pitches No Hit Game For Ducklings; Errors Mar Tilt
Bill (Chic) Sales achieved the ambition of all baseball pitchers when he held Eugene high without a hit on the yearling diamond yesterday afternoon, struck out 10 men, and allowed not a single walk. An error with two out in the seventh and final inning enabled the Axemen to score a run to slightly cloud his performance. The final count was 2-to-1 for Johnny Warren's Ducklings.

McIntyre, first Eugene batter in the seventh, swung and missed on a third strike, but Catcher Walden dropped the ball and the prepper raced to first. Hamer sacrificed McIntyre to second. Sayles got Doug Caven on a third strike, but Walden again dropped the ball, and as he heaved wild to first base, McIntyre scored the spoiling run. Thuneman rolled out, Ford Mullen to Gale Smith, and Sayles picked Caven off third for the final out. The five freshmen hits were accounted for by Mullen, Gordon, Sayles, Coomler, and Anet. Score: Eugene 1 0 1 Freshmen 2 5 2 Igoe and McIntyre; Sayles and Walden.

The HIGH BALL

By Doc
Editor's Note:
With a pop and a fizz the Highball takes its bow. 'O' Doc' Highball, that begrizzled veteran of the prophets union, affiliate of the associated seeing seers, who has batted .1000 in picking the winners so far this spring, will now take over this column in all his honary wisdom. With one foot wrapped around a water pipe and other swinging idly out the window, the Doc' picks experimentally away at the typewriter keys, great clouds of smoke rising above the heating plant in the meanwhile. Ladies and Gentlemen! The Doc'!

JUST a year ago, during Junior Week-end, the Oregon baseball and track teams took on the Huskies from Seattle. The Ducks were then in the same position in the baseball standings they now occupy, third, having won four and lost three. Washington was at the top with four and one, and Oregon State, which broke into the win column the other day for the first time this season, was second with four and two.

Oregon took both of those games last year. McFadden won the first with the help of Hurney and Gordon, who poled homers in the first part of the game, 6-5. The second game was generally conceded to Washington, because at that time Oregon didn't have two winning pitchers...

Another personal duel is likely when Oregon's brilliant Carson Shoemaker and Washington's Humber flash down the cinders in the sprints. Last year, Shoemaker defeated Humber by a very narrow margin. Shoemaker, who has not been pressed hard this year will probably have to open up against the Husky sprinter. Hay, another brilliant Washington sprinter will bolster the Washington dash power, but the Ducks have Squeak...

Ducks, Huskies in Crucial Tilts

Oregon Set For Husky Track Meet

Duck Win Would Make Webfoots Northwest Cinder Champs

The track meet with the University of Oregon and Washington Saturday on Hayward field is the last barrier between the Webfoots and a Northwest championship. Comparative scores and times of the two schools indicate a close meet.

The Oregon cinder men are looking forward for the chance to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of the Huskies. The 69 1/2-61 1/2 victory that Hayward's men won over the Cougars last Saturday may place the Webfoots as slight favorites.

The highlight of the day should develop out of the mile when Captain George Scharpf of Oregon meets the great Washington miler, Jim Angle. Scharpf ran his fastest mile last Saturday to defeat Washington State's famed Roy Carrier in a time of 4:21.3.

That same afternoon up at Seattle, Angle was busy licking Matt Clasper, Oregon State star in the mile. Angle reeled off the required distance in 4:22.5. The Husky ace, rumored to have been in a weakened physical condition at the time of the race due to loss of blood, is expected to be in the pink of form for the battle with Scharpf.

Shoemaker Favored

Huskies Hold League Lead Now; McFadden Hurls For Webfoots; Teams to Play Saturday

Oregon's Webfoots will fight the Husky horde of Washington for first place in the northern division baseball chase in a feature of Junior Weekend on Howe field at 3:30 this afternoon. A second contest is scheduled tomorrow.

Washington tops the loop at present with three wins and a single loss, while the Webfoots are in third place with three victories and a pair on the chin. A win for Oregon today will put the Ducks on the pinnacle.

McFadden to Pitch
Don McFadden, ace pitcher of the northern division for two years, will start his third game of the season for Oregon, and opposing him on the hillcock will be either Jack Daly or Rudy Enquist.

Washington is a favorite over the Webfoots on the basis of comparative scores. The Malamutes clubbed Idaho into the dust twice, while the best Oregon could do with the Vandals was split. Both teams divided double bills with Washington State.

Water Carnival Date Is Set for Saturday Morning at 10:30

The Junior Weekend water carnival will be held Saturday morning at 10:30. There are no entry lists for any of the many events and any one wishing to participate may do so.

Following is a list of the events:
Swimming exhibition. (Amphibians and varsity swimmers)
Swimming races for campus swimmers both men and women. (75 yards.)
Log rolling for both men and women.
All participants are asked to be at the race at 10:00.
A silver loving cup is awarded in both men's and women's swimming races. The contest is closed to varsity swimmers. Red shirts are to be awarded to the winners in the log rolling contest.

For any further information about the carnival call: Dick Rosenfeld, Don Casciato, or Ed Farrar.

Portland U Tennis Team Drops Ducks

Rose City Raquetters Take Second Tilt 6-1; Match Won by Winslow

Portland university handed the Oregon tennis team a 6 to 1 beating on the University courts yesterday afternoon. In the first meeting at Portland, Oregon had lost 4 to 3.

Norman Winslow, playing number five for Oregon, was the lone point winner for the Ducks. He defeated Bill Young in three sets, 6-4, 4-6, and 6-0. Although bothered by a weak right arm, Winslow knew too much tennis for his opponent.

In the feature match of the afternoon, the first doubles team for Oregon, Worth Chaney and Bill Zimmerman, lost to Bill Walker and Charles Hoff. The match went three long hard sets, before the Portland team was able to pull out a 7-9, 6-4, 9-7 victory.

In the other singles matches, Walker, number one, downed Larry Crane 7-5, and 6-0. Darrel Kelly, Portland number two, defeated John Economus 6-2, and 6-1. Lloyd Hager downed Jack Crawford 6-4, and 6-1. Hoff, number four, defeated Chuck Eaton, Oregon 1-6, 6-2, and 6-4. In the second doubles Kelly and Hager, Portland, won from Crane and Crawford, 6-2, and 6-3.

Portland had definitely the better team, and the outcome of the match was never in doubt. Oregon meets Oregon State here Saturday, varsity in the morning and frosh in the afternoon.
