

OREGON, WASHINGTON VIE ON TRACK HERE TODAY

Huskies Nose Out Oregon Baseball Nine In 5-4 Fray

Visitors Count Twice in Sixth To Snatch Win

McFadden Hit 13 Times By Graves' Sluggers; Newcombe Stars

2ND TILT TODAY

Daly Allows Five Blows as Huskies Add to Lead of Northern Loop

The University of Washington baseball team strengthened its northern division lead by edging out Oregon in a tight Junior Week-end ball game on Howe field yesterday, 5 to 4. The teams play again this afternoon following the track meet.

The Huskies found Don McFadden for four hits and three runs in the first inning, and those tallies eventually won the game. McFadden was touched for 13 hits during the nine innings, but the veteran righthander scattered them so effectively that Tubby Graves' men were lucky to get the runs they did.

Jack Daly, Washington southpaw, limited the Webfoots to five safe blows, but those five came in the clinches. McFadden poked out two of them himself, a double and a single, and drove in three of Oregon's runs.

Newcombe Starts Things

Wendell Newcombe, a slight, bespectacled outfielder who poked out four singles in five trips to the plate, opened the disastrous first with number one of those hits. Willie Hewson, veteran Husky shortstop, smashed a double into right field, sending Newcombe to third, and both runners cantered home as Ed Loverich, the fighting basketeer, singled to center. Three men up and three hits the score-book read, and it looked like a very bad day for McFadden.

The veteran bore down, however, and got Moore on a roller to the box and Rich on a pop fly to Mark DeLaunay at second. Loverich took second on Moore's out, and when Dick Baker singled to centerfield the Olympic hoop alternate raced home. Leidecker hoisted to Bud Goodin to end the nightmare inning.

Webfoots Fight Back

Oregon fought back in the home half of the first and pushed over two tallies on a single hit. Ralph Amato started it by working Daly for a walk. McLean was safe on a fielder's choice, Amato taking second. Goodin flied to Leidecker and Andy Hurney whiffed, but Bob Millard drew a pass to load the sacks. McFadden was up, and the Webfoot hurler stepped into one of Daly's offerings and lammed it down the third base line for two bases, scoring Amato and McLean. Lewis flied out, but the Ducks had cut Washington's advantage to one run, and the rest of the tilt was nip and tuck.

Courtney Counts on Squeeze

Hobson's crew tier the count in the third on the only error of the game and a single by Millard. Hewson, at short for the Huskies, turned in the boot, and Hurney reached first on it. Millard sent Hurney to third with his hit, and McFadden batted in his third run with a long fly to Loverich.

Bill Courtney scored on a squeeze play in the fourth and Oregon went ahead, 4 to 3. Courtney drew a walk as first up in the frame, and he took second on DeLaunay's single. The runner advanced a base on Amato's sacrifice, and then McLean laid down a perfect bunt on a squeeze and Courtney scored. DeLaunay tried to tally on Catcher Dawes' throw to first on the play, but a return heave by second sacker Rich, covering first nipped him at the plate, preventing what turned out to be an important run.

The Webfoots clung to their lead until the sixth, but in that frame it went up in smoke as four successive singles drove in two Husky markers. Daly, Newcombe, Hewson, and Loverich did the hitting. Johnny Lewis grabbed Moore's drive at short and tossed to DeLaunay for a double play to stop the scoring at a pair of runs.

A pair was all Washington needed. After the fourth, Pitcher Daly was so hot that only two Oregon men reached first base, and both died there. Amato in the seventh and McFadden in the eighth got the hits, but team mates could not bring them around.

Drama Courses Planned

Mr. L. A. Hayden, executive director of the Portland Civic theatre and school of drama and allied arts, will offer two courses in

Box Score
Washington	B	R	H	O	A	E
Newcombe, 1	5	2	4	1	0	0
Hewson, s	5	1	2	0	3	1
Loverich, m	5	1	3	4	0	0
Moore, 3	4	0	0	0	0	0
Rich, 2	5	0	0	3	2	0
Baker, 1	3	0	1	10	1	0
Leidecker, r	4	0	0	3	0	0
Dawes, c	4	0	0	5	1	0
Daly, p	4	1	3	1	3	0
Totals	39	5	13	27	10	1

Oregon	3	1	1	0	0	0
Amato, m	3	1	0	6	1	0
McLean, c	3	1	0	3	2	0
Goodin, 3	4	0	0	3	2	0
Hurney, r	4	1	0	0	0	0
Millard, 1	3	0	1	0	0	0
McFadden, p	4	0	2	0	6	0
Lewis, s	4	0	0	3	5	0
Courtney, 1	3	1	0	12	0	0
DeLaunay, 2	2	0	1	3	1	0
Crosbie	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	31	4	5	27	15	0

Batted for DeLaunay in 9th. Washington 300002000—5 Hits 420114010—13 Oregon 201100000—4 Hits 101100110—5

Struck out, by Daly 4, McFadden 4; bases on balls, off Daly 4, McFadden 1; hit by pitched ball, by McFadden (Moore); wild pitches, McFadden 2; runs responsible for, Daly 3, McFadden 5; two-base hits, Hewson, McFadden, Millard; sacrifices, Amato, McLean; runs batted in, Loverich 2, Baker, McFadden 3, McLean, Hewson 2; double plays, McFadden to McLean to Goodin, Dawes to Rich to Dawes, Lewis to DeLaunay; passed ball, McLean; left on bases, Washington 9, Oregon 6; umpire, Burke; time, 1:46.

Cross Fire

By PAT FRIZZELL

Today is the biggest day of the year in Oregon athletics, at least in quantity. And in quality, too, for the best all-around program of sport to be crammed into 12 hours this year is on tap for students and their moms.

The Webfoots fight their old rivals, the Washington Huskies, in track on Hayward field and in baseball on Howe field. But that isn't all. There are varsity and frosh tennis matches with Oregon State on the campus courts and varsity and frosh golf on two courses with Beaver veteran and Rook divot-diggers.

If that six-pty list of events, all with Oregon's most bitter rivals as opposition isn't strong enough, to satisfy every lad and lassie on the campus, and their elders too, nothing can please them.

Howard Hobson's hustling Webfoots are a game and one-half behind Washington in the baseball race after yesterday's Husky triumph. Winning today means plenty, therefore, and Hobby will rely on the sophomore southpaw, Bob Millard, to turn back the malamutes. Millard has started and finished two ball games against conference opponents and not a single earned run has been scored on him. Holding the Huskies, who murder the apple, in the same kind of check is a tough assignment, but it's no impossibility. Mel Marlowe of Washington State proved that in Washington's own ballpark at Seattle.

Washington earned its win yesterday. A team that pounds out 13 hits to an opponent's five is deserving of a mark on the sunny side of the ledger any day of the week. Nevertheless, it was a heart-breaker for the Webfoots to lose. If Mark DeLaunay's slide to the plate in the fourth had been a fraction of a second before the throw-in instead of a fraction of a second after, it might have gone into extra innings. DeLaunay rounded third with speed to burn as Courtney scored and apparently had

Slugsy Gunn

(Continued from page one) "I'm Smith, one of the Smith Brothers. Whereats the millrace? We gotta score to even up with them thar Canoe Fetters, us have." So Slugsy got the wild men of the mountain to agree to even up for her too, and when the next freight passed, she saw some of her classmates from Vassar and nimbly hopped on.

And that was the last seen of Passamaggiuddy Rachel, Slugsy to all those who loved her so dearly, Gunn, the gal who lost the race for millrace queen.

drama in the Portland summer session. One of these courses, entitled technique of acting; children's drama, will be of particular interest to teachers and those who are planning to enter recreational work.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1936

Rich's throw beaten, but the Washington second sacker, covering first on the play, cut loose a rifle heave and Catcher Dawes tagged the Duck keystoner cleanly.

"No, I don't think this team is as good as any of the five straight pennant winners Washington had a few years back," said Husky Coach Tubby Graves as he combed a dripping black head of hair in front of a mirror in the Igloo dressing room after yesterday's game.

"But," he continued, "it's better than last year's team."

Coach Graves figures that his ball club hasn't quite the hitting strength or the all-around baseball sense of some of the crews that copped the bunting prior to 1934. With the traditional pessimistic outlook of college mentors, Graves said he thought Washington State had the inside track to this year's championship. He predicts a fight for second between Oregon and Washington, with Oregon State, which he calls underrated, also in the runner-up battle. Idaho, says Tubby, won't be likely to finish higher than fourth.

Graves says he will call upon either Rudy Enquist or Lou Budnick to do the chucking chores this afternoon.

Major Letters Awarded Nine Duck Mermen

Nine members of Mike Hoyman's varsity swimming team were awarded major letters by the executive council this week. Major awards are usually given only to football, basketball, baseball, and track men.

Jim Reed was awarded a third letter and a varsity "O" blanket signifying three seasons of varsity competition. Reed and Forrest Kirby are the only graduating members of the squad.

Two stripe letters went to Charles Reed, Bob Chilton, Leonard Scroggins, and Vernon Hoffman. First year awards were given to Jim Hurd, Bert Myers, and Harold Sexton.

The Oregon swimmers were mythical coast champions, with victories over Stanford, California, San Jose State, and Washington in dual meets and an easy win in the northern division conference meet here. The Webfoot mermen have not lost a dual meet for three years.

Oregon Minor Sport Squads Meet Beavers

Oregon's varsity and frosh teams in tennis and golf will meet Oregon State college here today as part of the Junior Weekend festivities.

The varsity netmen will play on the University courts at 10 o'clock, and the frosh will play at about 2:30. The varsity golf teams will meet at the country club, while the frosh and rooks will compete over the Laurelwood course.

Winslow Undeclared

A shifted lineup is expected to face the Beavers today. Norman Winslow, regular number three man, may play number one against Claude Hockley, OSC flash. Winslow is the only member of the

Gibson Named Hoop Manager For Next Year

Comet Gibson, junior from Roseburg, was named student manager of next year's University of Oregon varsity basketball team at a recent meeting of the executive council. Gibson will succeed Jack Campbell as senior manager.

Francis Barnes, Eugene, was selected as an alternate for the position. Men chosen to serve as junior managers next season are Charles Bailey, Richard Mieth, and William Fornas. Eldon Fix was named junior baseball manager for the present season.

Golfers Hold Win

Tom Stoddard's Oregon golfers defeated Oregon State earlier in the year and will be favored again. There is no basis for comparison of frosh and rook teams in either sport.

Entry Lists

The entries and the events follow:

100-yard dash—Oregon: Shoemaker, Lloyd; Washington: Humber, Hay, Killien.

Fole vault—Oregon: Janak, Lloyd, Lindgren, Sinnette; Washington: Childs, Bystrom, Anderson.

Shot put—Oregon: Foskett, Walker; Washington: Buckley, Whitworth.

High jump—Oregon: Janak, Sinnette; Washington: Vandermay, Anschutz, Whitworth.

Discus—Oregon: Holland, Foskett, Walker; Washington: Buckley, Whitworth.

220-yard dash—Oregon: Patterson, Freeman, McDonald; Washington: Drury, Berry.

120-yard high hurdles—Oregon: Sinnette, Lacy; Washington: Morgan, Stutfield, Whitworth, Congdon.

200-yard dash—Oregon: Shoemaker, Lloyd; Washington: Hay, Humber, Killien.

880-yard run—Oregon: Miller; Washington: Samples, Palmason, Kintner.

Broad jump—Oregon: Lloyd, Lacy, Lindgren; Washington: Stutfield, Anschutz, Anderson.

220-yard low hurdles—Oregon: Sinnette, Lacy; Washington: Anschutz, Morgan, Stutfield.

2-mile run—Oregon: McGaughey, Hardisty, Bryant; Washington: McClaren, Maginnis.

Mile relay—Oregon: Freeman, Patterson, McDonald, Miller; Washington: Palmason, Drury, Killien, Humber, Angie, Sample, Berry.

Third Start Set for Duck Cinder Crew

Hayward Field Is Scene Of WU Engagement; Oregon Favored

FIRST GUN AT 2

Washington Squad Bristles With Possible Olympic Candidates

Two bitter rivals, the University of Oregon and the University of Washington, meet again today, this time on the cinder track. Out for revenge, the Ducks are considered slight favorites to win, but pre-meet performances indicate it to be anybody's victory. The meet starts at 2 o'clock sharp, on Hayward field.

A victory for the Webfoots would identify them as the outstanding track team in the Northwest. Having defeated Washington State and humiliated Oregon State in the relays, the Oregon track squad has proven that it is powerful. However, the Washington Huskies come out of the North with a great reputation of their own.

Husky Stars Plentiful The Washington squad is full of potential Olympic prospects. Their great Bruce Humber, sensational sprinter, was beaten only by the

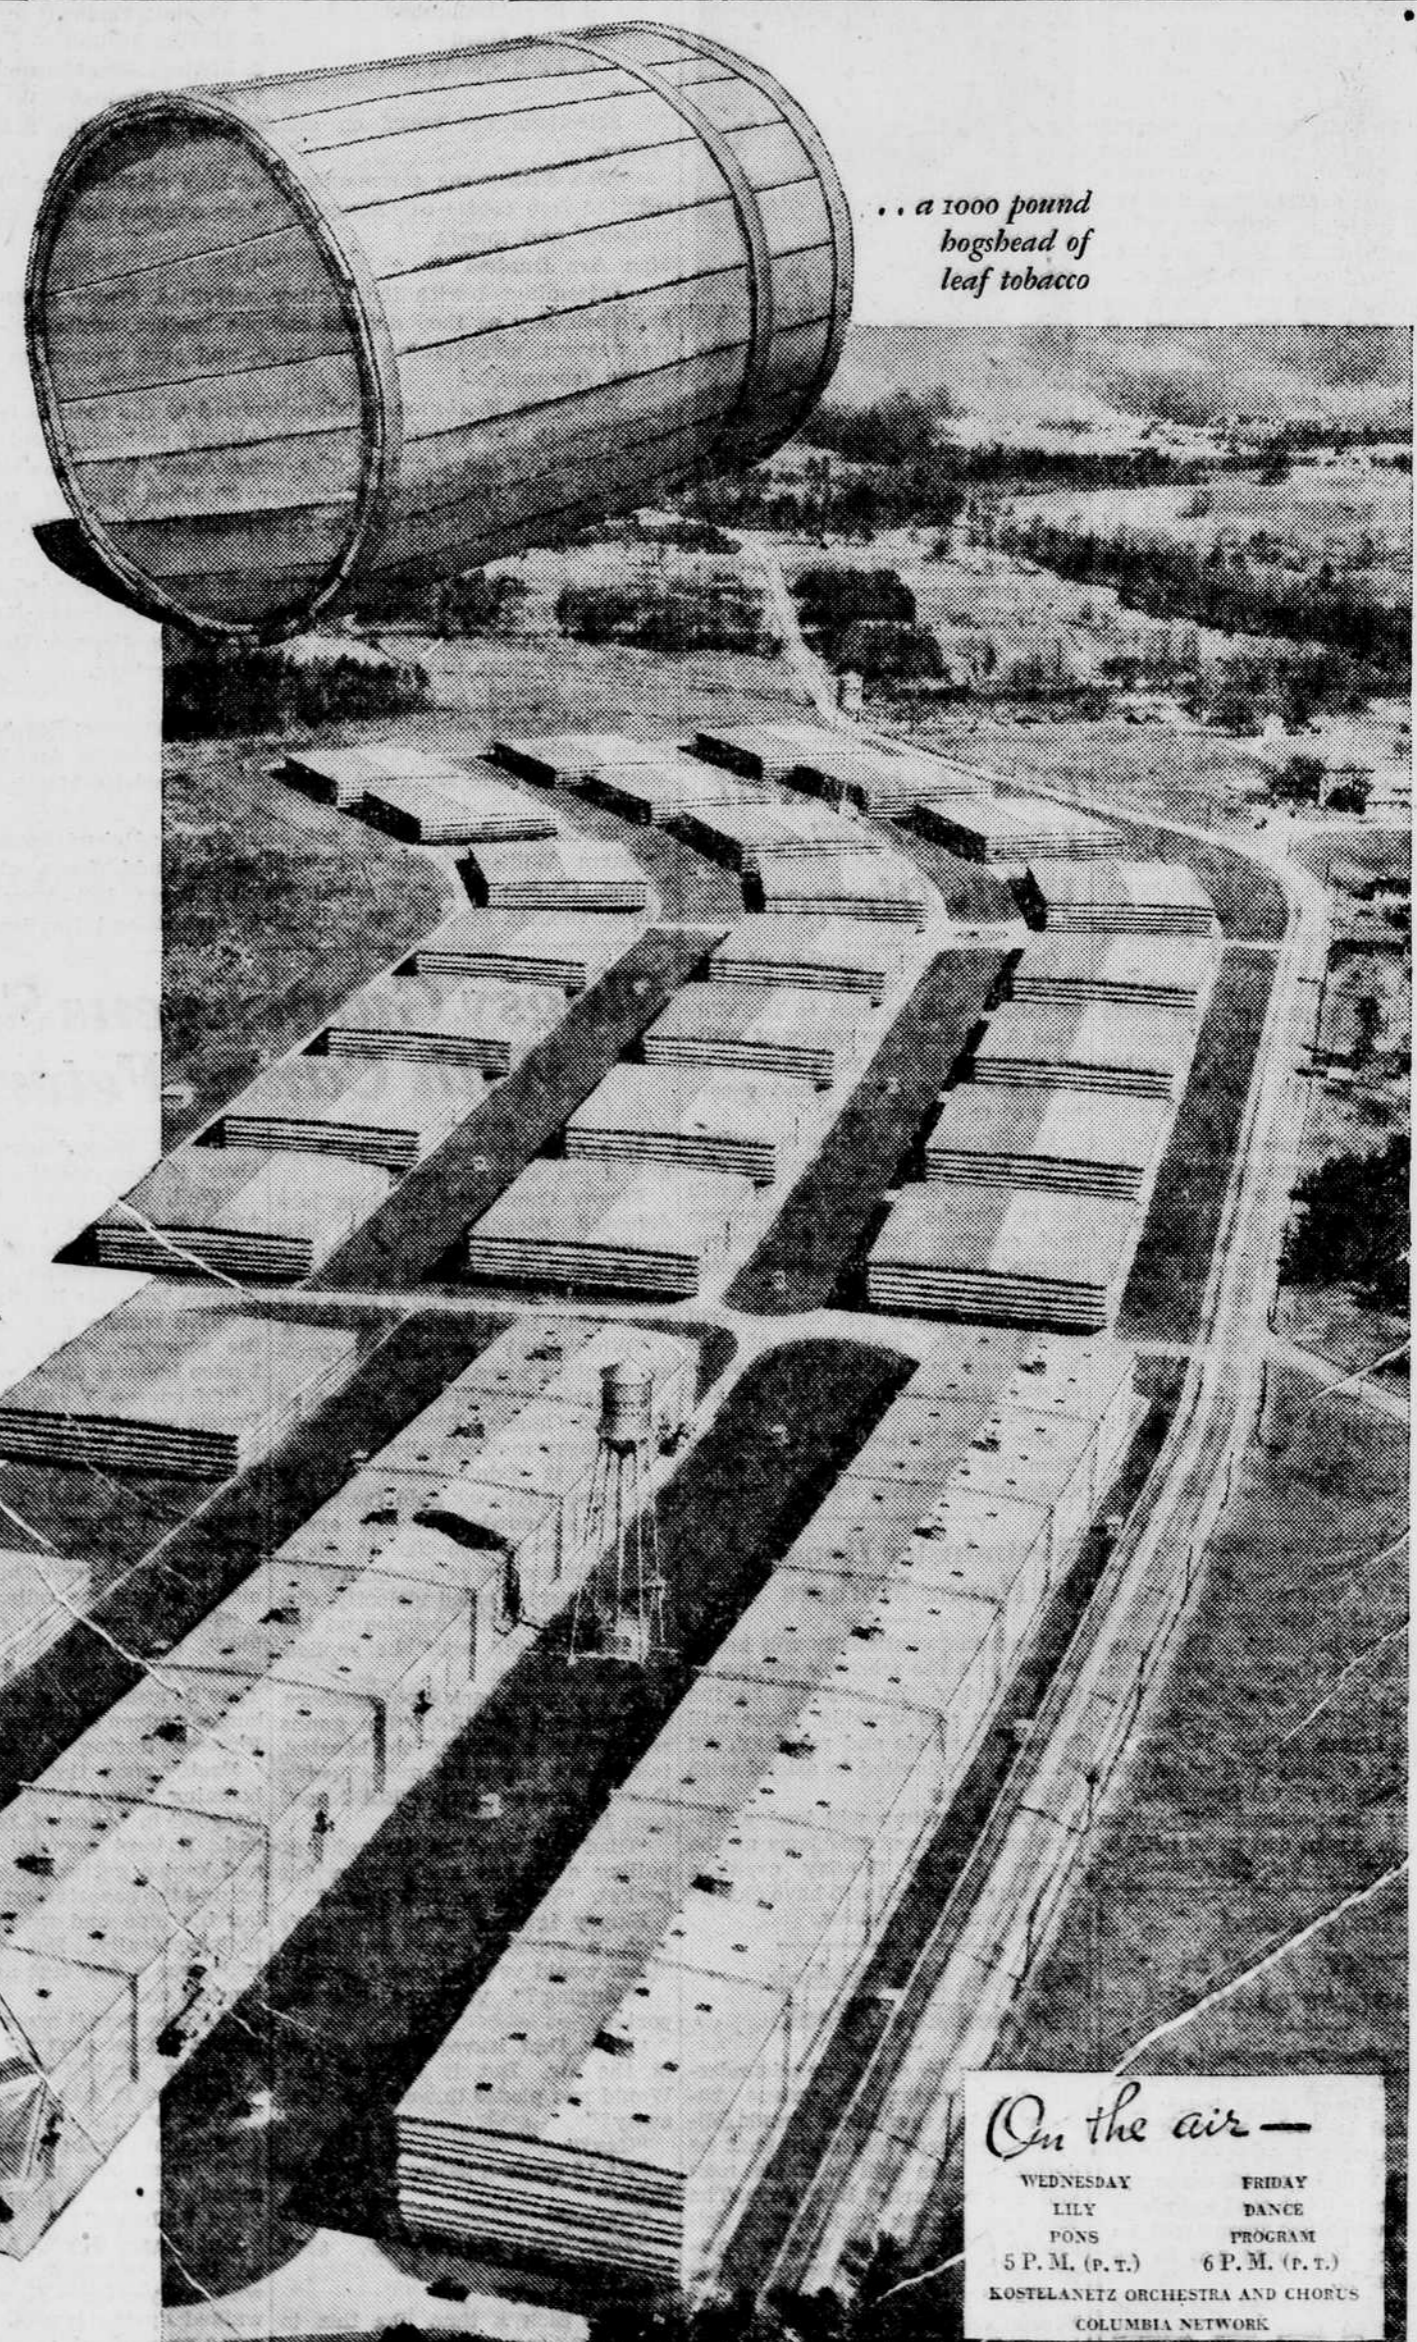

What's going on here

...what's happening in these 40 houses

—the curing and ageing of leaf tobacco, that's what's going on.

Thousands of hogsheads of mild ripe tobacco are under these roofs... just lying here ageing and sweetening and mellowing for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Like Rip Van Winkle, they sleep—the tobaccos getting mellow and milder for the cigarette that Satisfies.

On the air —
WEDNESDAY LILY PONS 5 P. M. (p. t.)
FRIDAY DANCE PROGRAM 6 P. M. (p. t.)
KOSTELANETZ ORCHESTRA AND CHORUS
COLUMBIA NETWORK