Graduation and Awards Climax Hilarious Eve In Gerlinger Tank

Mary McCracken, Leilani Kroll, and Bob Chilton were awarded Fish Beta Kappa keys by Chancellor Vern Hoffman of the "Floating University" aboard the S. S. Oregon last night in Gerlinger

Graduation exercises and the awarding of this highest swimming honor climaxed the evening's hilarious entertainment presented by the Amphibians and varsity swimmers to a capacity audience. The performance will be repeated tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Admission is

Jim Smith Aqua Clown

The aquaclownantics of Jim Smith were the highlight of the show. Smith first appeared as a freshman lost in the sea of registration. He was a member of the class which showed the history of swimming (we really should say bathing) suits and strokes. Next, he made a sudden, but short-lived advance in to the faculty diving class under the instruction of Bob Chilton.

The lovely "Queen," of the Canoe Fete turned out to be none other than fancy diver Bob Chilton. The queen's float was a very disreputable looking bathtub. Many times the float came very close to capsizing, but during all the rough water the charming "Queen" was
