

Miss Chessman, Lucas Reveal Engagement

Seniors Will Marry in Winter Month; 'Extra' Is Announcement

Couched in a special limited "extra" edition of the Oregon Emerald, Peggy Chessman and Robert Warren Lucas announced their engagement during dinner at Kappa Alpha Theta sorority last night.

Tentative date for the nuptial ceremony was set by Miss Chessman as some time in November or December.

Goes to Journal

Emerald Editor Lucas will join the staff of the Oregon Daily Journal in Portland on June 8. He transferred to this campus as a junior, having two years work at Oregon State college.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Merle Chessman, editor and publisher of the Astorian Budget. She has been active in journalism and in extra-curricular activities on her four years on the campus, as well as compiling a fine scholastic record.

Theta sisters of Miss Chessman learned of her engagement when the "extras" were handed to them. On the made-over front page was a picture, taken in the stiff and serious style of a generation ago, showing the couple—it is reproduced on this page.

Westminster to Plan Next Year's Program

Winding up its year's program, Westminster house will meet in conference Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of outlining a program for the coming year and of orientating incoming officers to their new positions. Both old and new officers will be present.

The house will remain open the greater part of the vacation, it is announced, and extends an invitation to all summer school students, as well as Eugene people, to use the facilities provided by the house at their convenience, throughout the course of the summer season.

Ruth Draper Gives Two Italian Books

Two new volumes have recently been donated to the library by Ruth Draper of New York, M. H. Douglass, librarian, announced yesterday. The two works are from Lauro de Bosis, Italian author. Translation of the "Icaro" was made by Ruth Draper.

The second volume is "The Story of My Death" by the same Italian author. The translator said in her letter that the books were written to arouse the author's countrymen to the dangers of fascism.

Faculty and

(Continued from page one) 10 to 3 in favor of OAC. Karl Fenton, the Webfoot place kicker, had made the three points for Oregon, and quarterback Cornell had called for another place kick.

He was to hold the ball. The ball was snapped, the opposing ends cut in close, too close, and Fenton made haste to get the ball away.

But no, the ball wasn't there. Cornell had it. He was running wide around end for a touchdown. Nobody, not even Fenton, expected Cornell's sudden move. The "headiest football player that ever stepped on a Northwest gridiron," had seen a weakness in the over-anxious opposing team, and had immediately taken advantage of it.

Fenton made the extra point to tie the score 10-10, but it was a moral victory for the Webfoots.

"Shy" Huntington, local business man, alternated with Anse Cornell at the quarterback post when the latter was captain, and a year later was signal caller on the coast championship team. He says, "Anse was one of the smartest of smart quarterbacks."

Bill Hayward, who has planted more nicknames than there are pins planted on the campus, tried to call Cornell the "Little Napoleon." However, he chuckled, the fellows found it more convenient to call him "Nance" instead.

Caught in Cupid's Coils

Announcing their engagement during the dinner hour at Kappa Alpha Theta last night in an "extra" edition of the Emerald were Peggy Chessman and Robert Warren Lucas, Emerald editor. Caught in an informal pose so characteristic of the gay nineties, the betrothed couple were snapped for the special edition—but their attempt to keep this touching picture hidden were thwarted when Emerald scribes unearthed it late last night and "last-laughed" their editor by scribbling it before the public gaze.

Dr. Jameson Writes Article on Turkey

The longest article to be published in the May-June issue of Social Forces, just off the press, was written by Dr. S. H. Jameson, sociology professor, on "Social Mutation in Turkey."

The article deals with the major and some actually radical changes during the brief period of the past twenty years, contrasting pre-war and post-war Turkey.

Dr. Jameson's desire to present Turkey as he sees it was prompted partly because he was born there, and because, since his arrival in the United States in 1914, he has heard comments about Turkey by both those who are well informed and by those who know nothing of that country using Turkey and the "Turk" as a stereotype. The mental pictures of these folk failed to jibe with the facts Dr. Jameson is familiar with.

Journalism Classes Edit Morning News

More than fifty members of the University reporting and copy editing classes will try their luck at actual newspaper work today when they put out the Saturday issue of the Eugene Morning News.

The upper staff will consist of: LeRoy Mattingly, managing editor; Darrel Ellis, William Cummings, assistant managing editors; Marvin Lupton, city editor; Reinhart Knudsen, Mildred Blackburne, assistant city editors; Wayne Harbert, Clare Igoe, news editors.

FLOWERS

For GRADUATION

The Friendly Remembrance At Graduation Time Appropriate for the Flower and Fern Procession, Baccalaureate and Commencement Day

GARDENIAS For the Mortar Board Ball Extra Large Blossoms 25c and 35c

COLLEGE FLOWER SHOP Across From Sigma Chi Phone 3015

Bates, Carson Write Hearst Biography

Ernest Sutherland Batts, one time member of the University faculty, has recently published an "unauthorized biography" of William Randolph Hearst in collaboration with Oliver Carson. "Hearst, Lord of San Simeon" is the title of the book.

Professor Charles A. Beard has commented on the book as follows: "In a clear, vivid, fact-laden prose, Bates and Carson tell a story of William Randolph Hearst that ought to be read from Maine to California."

Moore to Give Address

Dr. W. H. Moore will give the high school commencement speech at Blachley, Oregon, today. He will talk on "A Definition of Success." Next week he will give the graduating address at Lorane.

LOST—Gray camel-haired double-breasted overcoat, with belt. Finder please return to Gib Schultz, Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Reward.

LOST—Athletic sweater with gold 4 on back. Finder please return to athletic supply department.

LOST—Phi Sig fraternity pin. Call Clair Johnson, 1906, Reward.

LOST—Tuesday, black Parker fountain pen. Reward, $1. Finder return to George Turnbull.

LOST—in old library, brown zipper bag. Please call 204.

Phi Chi Theta Pledges 13

Phi Chi Theta, women's business honorary, pledged 13 sophomore and junior women Thursday night in Gerlinger hall. The pledges were chosen on the basis of outstanding work in the school of business administration. They are: Sherry Brown, Ruth Ford, Marjorie Hetland, Margaret Keene, Dorothy Jane Lind, Kathryn Pasquill, Louise Von Cleave, Lois Strong, Vivian Runte, Helen Smith, Arlene Reynolds, Margaret Rollins, and Margaret Real.

Kwamas to Entertain Oregon State Women

Fifteen Oregon State women, members of Talons, sophomore service honorary on the OSC campus, were guests of Kwama last night at a dinner at the Anchorage and an informal entertainment in Gerlinger hall afterwards. Twenty-eight in all were present.

Mrs. Zelta Rodenwald, director of women's programs over KOAC and adviser to Talons, accompanied the girls from Corvallis.

Car Drivers May Take Exams Today

Mr. Glenn Bown, examiner of operators and chauffeurs, will be in Eugene today and tomorrow, according to a recent announcement released from the secretary of state's office.

All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with Mr. Bown between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. at the Knights of Pythias hall.

UO Music Students Get Resort Jobs

That University musicians are finding employment as entertainers was revealed by students of Roy Bryson, professor of voice in the school of music. Grayson Ross, baritone, and Miss Leota Reetz, have been employed at Crater Lake lodge, while Miss Madelle Beidler is returning to the Oregon Caves. Miss Beidler is also a student of George Hopkins, professor of piano.

Miss Reetz and Miss Beidler are members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary for women. Miss Reetz holding a scholarship from that organization. Ross holds the Phi Mu Alpha scholarship, given by the national music honorary for men.

Archery Champ Will Demonstrate Today

Gilman Keasey, men's archery champion of the United States will give a demonstration at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the field south of Gerlinger hall.

Mr. Keasey, who lives in Corvallis, won the championship last year by placing highest in the American round in the national meet.

Graduates Married

Janet Laura Plimpton, graduated from the University in 1929 and Villairs Thomas Austin, who received his B.S. from the University in 1926 and his M.D. in 1929, were married in Seattle on May 12. Mrs. Austin is a member of Chi Omega sorority and Dr. Austin is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and of Sigma Xi honorary.

"EUGENE'S OWN STORE" McMorran & Washburne

This Is Our Last Opportunity This Year To Greet You Through The Emerald Pages

- To many of our large group—the seniors—we must say farewell... to you we extend our congratulations and sincere good wishes.
- To those who will return we wish a splendid summer season—may these months be months well spent—and may you return renewed and refreshed.
- It has been a great pleasure to serve you.

McMorran & Washburne

GOOD LIGHTING WILL IMPROVE YOUR CLASS WORK

Actual tests in large factories and offices have shown remarkable reductions in error by the installation of proper lighting. You will do your work more accurately and with greater ease if you use one of the new I. E. S. Study Lamps—designed with one thought in mind—to give proper lighting.

I. E. S. lamps are a product of the industry as a whole and not of just one company, and are for sale at most stores.

36-37 UO Catalogs To Be Out Soon

The University catalog for the year 1936-1937 is expected to be out the first of next week and will be available for students wishing to ponder over it during summer vacation. All the forms have been printed and are in the bindery, according to R. C. Hall, superintendent of the University Press.

Summer catalogs for the normal schools and the University have been out for some time and may be obtained at the extension office.

The criminology class of Dr. S. H. Jameson, sociology professor, will leave at 9 o'clock this morning for Salem where it will visit the Oregon Fairview home for the feeble-minded, the Oregon State penitentiary, the state hospital for the insane, and the state industrial school for girls. The group will be back at 7:30 or 8 o'clock.

All the New Models Now in Stock

GANTNER WIKIES

Wade Bros.

873 Willamette Phone 422

Be well-groomed in GANTNER WIKIES

Worn by Larry (Buster) Crabbe

Only genuine Gantner WIKIES have patented Perma-snug waist! Free-breathing Lastex belt! Self-adjusting supporter! Quicker-drying yarns! Smart new weaves!

As Featured in Esquire! Pencil Welt or Military WIKIES 3.95 De Luxe WIKIES 5.00 At better dealers everywhere!

GANTNER & MATTERN CO. San Francisco 1410 Bdwy., New York Makers of America's Finest Swim Suits

Complete Stocks of Gantner "Wikies" THE MAN'S SHOP BYROM AND HOSELTON 32 East 10th Street

DIRECTORS

These Five Students and two Faculty Men will Direct the Policies of the 'CO-OP' During 1936-37

Reading Down
CHARLES H. MCGIRR Senior, President
JOHN R. LEWIS Senior, Vice President
FRANK P. DREW Junior
PHYLLIS T. GARDNER Sophomore, Secretary
RICHARD L. SLEETER Junior
DEAN JOHN F. BOVARD Faculty
DEAN JAMES H. GILBERT Faculty

The 'CO-OP' is ready to pay CASH FOR Current Editions of Text Books

50% of List Price For Books to Be Used Here Next Year; Market Price For All Others

UNIVERSITY 'CO-OP'

TONIGHT Be Sure to See

DINNER at EIGHT

PRESENTED BY THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS MAY 22 AND 23

Call Local 216 for Reservations

8:00 P. M. Admission 35c