

Stanford Jinx Smashed by Battling Oregon Football Squad

THE Firing Line

By PAT FRIZZELL

Down in the village called Palo Alto they used to have, among other possessions, what was commonly known as a jinx. That jinx was a little item in the form of an Indian sign which Stanford's football team held over Oregon's Webfoots.

Eleven times the jinx had been tested and on each occasion it had come through intact. Eleven times the Webfoots of the North were vanquished.

Always, proverbially, there comes a day. And last Saturday was that day for the hoary old jinx which from the turn of the century had hounded Oregon teams. The hoodoo struck a snag.

The snag was a fighting Webfoot gridiron crew which wouldn't give up, not even when the jinx got off to a flying start with a touchdown and conversion in the first quarter. The battling Webfoots fought right back, tied it all up, outplayed Stanford and the jinx, and would have triumphed with a few breaks and a few punts worthy of the name.

Yessir, that 7-to-7 deadlock looks mighty sweet. Down around the bay all the scribes, prognosticators, Monday morning quarterbacks, and down-town coaches are calling the tie a great upset. They all picked Stanford. Upset or no upset, it wasn't a fluke.

Oregon outgained Stanford on the ground, 189 yards to 143. The Webfoots flashed a 6-1-2-2 defense that gave the vaunted Indian passing attack very little chance. Tiny Thornhill's men completed only seven of 24 aerial attempts. The Webfoots intercepted six. It took a 42-yard end run to give Stanford a tie.

The Webfoots seemed stung by the early Stanford touchdown. Immediately afterward they opened up with a fury that wouldn't be denied. And after they had it tied up they outplayed the Redskins. If a few more minutes had been left in the last quarter they might have won.

The team rolled in from the South night before last in a half-satisfied mood. The lads felt they (Please turn to page four)

ATOs Pile Up 20-to-0 Score on Men's Coop In Donut Grid Tussle

Betas Down Kappa Sigs, Phi Deltis Beat DUs, Sigmas Top Sammys In Other Contests

The ATOs piled up the largest score yet made in intramural touch football when they romped over the Campbell Co-op to take yesterday's game, 20-0. Kappa Sigma fell before a determined attack by the Betas, 12-0; the Phi Deltis took a 14-0 decision from the DUs and Sigma Hall won out over the Sammys in a close contest, 1-0.

Cliff Troland proved to be a thorn in the side of the Campbellmen when he intercepted two of their passes, which counted for ATO touchdowns each time. Barr Palmer and Harold Weston were the ground-gaining duo for the ATOs. With Palmer doing the tossing and Weston on the receiving end, some nice gains were ticked off.

The first ATO touchdown was a gift from the referee when one of the Co-op men interfered with the receiver. The pass was over the goal line when the interference was made and the play was called good.

Betas, 12; Kappa Sigs, 0
The Betas ran a quick touchdown over in the first few minutes of play to get the jump on the Kappa Sigs and scored again in the second half to make the count 12-0 at the end. Matt Pavalunas, former Raymond high school basketball star, was the shining light of the Beta team with accurate passing. Rommel of Kappa Sig and Binford of the Betas turned in good performances.

Phi Deltis, 14; DUs, 0
An intercepted pass figured in the Phi Deltis' defeat of the DUs. Bill Crosby took a DU pass and scampered 20 yards for the first Phi Delt touchdown. Paul Jackson, aided by excellent blocking, ran 60 yards to return a DU punt for the other Phi Delt score.

Ed Strohecker, former Grant high school kicking ace, accounted for both conversions, making the score: Phi Deltis 14, DUs 0.

Laddy Gale, center on last year's frosh basketball team, used his superior height to good advantage in snagging Phi Delt passes. (Please turn to page four)

Frosh Prepare For Next Game With OSC Rooks

Squad Given Light Drill After Friday's Victory Over SONS; Schedule Scrimmage

Coach John Warren's Oregon frosh football squad, heroes of Friday's sensational 26-to-6 victory over the highly rated Southern Oregon normal school eleven, started preparations last night for their third game of the season, which is set for two weeks in the future.

Warren ran his gridders through some brief calisthenics last night and then into a scrimmage against the varsity.

The yearlings will travel to Corvallis a week from Friday for the first game of their annual "little civil war" series against Howard Maple's Oregon State rook team. The two elevens play the second contest of their series here on Hayward field, November 13. These two games are always high points of the rook-frosh seasons and both clubs definitely point for them.

Take to Air
The Ducklings went to Grants Pass last Friday rated as underdogs, but, after being held at 6 to 6 for three quarters, took to the air and rushed over three touchdowns to subdue the weakening Sons. The whole frosh team performed in greatly improved style, the backs shining with numerous flashy runs.

Little Jay Graybeal, shifty left half, came in for his share of honors, running 35 yards through the Normal team in the first quarter for the opening score, and passing to Vic Reginato, yearling end, who trotted 38 yards for another six points. Graybeal caught a short left-handed heave from Bob Smith for the third touchdown, and Smith rambled 65 yards on an intercepted pass in the final minute of play for the last one.

Line Shows Strength
The whole frosh line showed improvement over last week's game. Elroy Jensen and Russ Inskip, tackles, were standouts of the driving play exhibited by the forward wall. Vic Reginato, flankman, was another shining light.

Sensational running and passing by the backfield drew considerable comment from the side lines. Paul Rowe, blond threat at fullback, drove into the normal school line numerous times on short power thrusts for nice gains. Starting in addition to the aforementioned Graybeal and his running mate, Bob Smith, who starred at right half, was Jerry Donovan, who went in at quarterback for the tough job of blocking. Coach Warren shifted Ron Husk, stocky Portland star, into the line to fill a hole at guard.

Frosh Gridmen

By BILL PENGRA

PAUL ROWE
Between plunging his massive body into the Frosh line and snagging passes, "Schoolboy," as he is often called, mentioned the fact that Benny Goodman's swing music would get his vote any day.

This beautifully built blond, when persuaded to tell his life story, spouted out, "Born in Victoria, B. C. I'm 19, and like fishing a great deal." All of his fishing is for salmon up in the lake country, which he believes is much more attractive than our Oregon scenery. He is well known about the campus as the Canadian who played Rugby football, and turns out for track to good advantage. His pet dislike is riding on busses to the frosh football games.

When asked why he came to Oregon to play fullback, it was: "Well, I met Maury Van Vliet, and here I am." As to a choice of clothes this smart young man wants to wear simply "smart" clothes.

"Brunettes catch my eye quickest of all girls, but their personality is the way I size them up. But as far as that goes I haven't seen any down here to compare with those up home." That's what he says.

Send the Emerald to your friends. Subscriptions only $3.00 per year.

Pigskin Snappers

Vern Moore (left) and Ed Farrar, pictured above, are alternate centers on the Oregon football team which tied Stanford Saturday.

Faculty Golf Stars Compete In Tournament

University of Oregon faculty members are engaged this week in a golf tournament at the Laurelwood club.

Sixteen men have already qualified, and others may turn in 18-hole qualifying rounds any time before Thursday night. Scores should be reported at the Laurelwood club. Pairings, which will be made by Bob Neer, Laurelwood instructor, will be announced in Friday morning's Emerald. Matches may be played at any time convenient to contestants.

Each contestant may remain in competition until he has lost two matches. Losers of first round matches will go into the second flight. Losers of second-round first-flight matches and winners in second-flight matches will go into a consolation tourney.

Five prizes will be awarded. Each tournament entrant is paying 25 cents toward the prizes, which will be furnished at wholesale prices by the Laurelwood club.

Awards will go to winners and runners-up in both championship and second flights and to the winner in the consolation tournament. Charles M. Hulten is chairman of a committee arranging the tournament. Howard R. Taylor is a member of the committee, and Miss Mary H. Perkins is in charge of women entrants. So far no women entrants. (Please turn to page four)

McMorran & Washburne and the Dudley Field Shop present Arrow's Smartest Styles How often Arrow Shirts add

ERIC MERRELL "THE ARROW SHIRT STORE IN EUGENE"

Ducks Return From Palo Alto Fracas; 11 Shows Power, Drive

Webfoots Tie Score After Early Card Touchdown In First Half; Lasselle Leads Offense

By WENDELL WYATT

A proud band of Oregon football players returned to Eugene Sunday evening bringing back with them from Palo Alto the record of being the first University of Oregon football squad not to have been beaten by Stanford. The record between the two schools now stands at 12 games played with 11 victories for the Indians and one tie, the 7-to-7 game played Saturday.

After Stanford had pushed over a first period score, the Duck calmly came right back with a fierce drive down the field to knot the count. Dale Lasselle's 40-yard dash to the Stanford 13 and his conversion of the extra point were the highlights of the drive.

The Student Store on the Campus 'CO-OP'

READ the BOOKS This Term $1 for $1

A dollar membership in our rental library entitles you to read all of the latest books: fiction, non-fiction, travel, biography, poetry, drama. Come in today and sign for the books that you haven't been able to get anywhere else.

Have you read these?

- "Gone With the Wind" by Margaret Mitchell
- "Man the Unknown" by Alexis Carrel
- "Bury the Dead" by Irwin Shaw

Good Reading Within the Reach of All

YOU CAN RENT OR BUY A TYPEWRITER for only Remington, Corona and Underwood typewriters — all portables. $3 PER MONTH

'CO-OP'

Important Notice

Save yourself trouble and time. A complete line of hardware supplies can be found at—

QUACKENBUSH HARDWARE

Handy to the Campus
160 E. Broadway Phone 1057

"Pardon me, Duchess, but you're sitting on my Twenty Grands."
"Oh, Colonel, you say the cutest things. Have one of mine!"

WE CERTIFY that we have inspected the Turkish and Domestic Tobacco blended in TWENTY GRAND cigarettes and find them as fine in smoking quality as those used in cigarettes costing as much as 50% more.

(Signed) Seil, Putt & Rusby Inc. (In collaboration with Tobacco expert)

ALSO OBTAINABLE IN FLAT FIFTIES

DANCE PROGRAMS

For your fraternity or sorority dance you will want an original program—the kind we design.

VALLEY PRINTING CO. STATIONERS

Phone 470 76 West Broadway