Germany, bristling in her denial of Nazi meddling charged Russia had afready violated neutrality agreements by aiding the Spanish government. Reports in Rome said Italy and Germany were ready to recognize any government the "victorious" Fascists might set up.

Cheers for FDR

crowd awaiting the arrival of President Roosevelt in Worcester, tails. Massachusetts, last night tore an 800-pound police traffic pole from its base, injuring five persons.

Earlier in the day, at Boston, a crowd estimated at 175,000 jammed the Boston common to cheer the president at his appearance there. In Los Angeles, meanwhile, 16year-old John Dobbins was released to the custody of his mother after being arrested the preceding night for a "bottle-throwing incident" at Gov. Alf M. Landon's coliseum rally.

First Passengers

the Hawaii Clipper, carrying seven passengers besides her regular Subject of Address the Hawaii Clipper, carrying seven crew of seven, took off from Alameda, California, yesterday at 3:15 p.m. for Honolulu. The huge yesterday made a forced retreat from Navalcarnero to Mostoles, only 13 miles from the Spanish capital, after a seven-hour bom- a period of three years. bardment by fascist artillery and planes. In a dramatic air battle three major areas of the state in being fought at the same time over the airport just outside of Ma- rock designs are found. The Wil-

13 Miles to Madrid

Diplomats 'Stumped'

situation appeared "hopeless" yes- basin is the pictograph area. terday, it was said by Shigeru Kuwagoe. Japanese ambassador, after a three-hour discussion with

YMCA Cabinet to Meet At Mossy Maples Camp

A YMCA meeting, at which the complete program for the rest of by projection on a screen. the term will be assembled, will be held Saturday afternoon at Mossy siderations and the meanings and it emotionally and the very sug-

Members are requested to be at given. the Hut at 12 o'clock

VOLUME XXXVIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1936

Oregon Emerald

Dave Says 'OK'

Rally Program Comparison Shows inexorably on yesterday as Fascist insurgents pressed toward "sure" Complete for U O Conservative Russia, shouting her loyalty to the Spanish government, threatened to denounce the neutrality pact and

Police to Escort Parade; Homecoming March

rally program Friday night are Crushed against police lines by Homecoming parade, committee- of the nation's well-known figures. force of sheer numbers, a surging men are still rounding up the edges and attending to minor de-that drivers of floats are not to 137. leave the line of march after they have started.

chairman, announced yesterday fi- velt. At the Moscow college, Earl nal plans for this affair. The Browder, communist candidate, screen play, "Pigskin Parade," will begin about 8:30, as soon as a possible 453, almost 20 per cent the parade breaks up. A second of the total. feature, "Thank You, Jeeves," will (Please turn to page two)

Formally inaugurating regular transpacific air passenger service, StateRock Designs To Labor IIIs Cure

"Petroglyphs of Oregon" was the ship is scheduled to span the 2400 subject of the paper delivered by miles over water by early this L. S. Cressman, professor of anthropology and retiring president of Sigma Xi, science honorary, at Madrid government militiamen the first meeting of the term held in Condon hall Tuesday night.

The material for the paper was based on field work in Oregon over

Professor Cressman named the which the two types of curved

"Composition as a form of pre-Chang Chun, Chinese foreign min- the geometric," said the speaker, is after all composed of a large

> The various types of segins used lem of distribution of wealth." were described and then illustrated

Guild Hall Players Offer Unique Opening Play tinued prosperity and if our economic institutions are to function science majors found sufficient interest in the poll to vote.

One of the special homecoming weekend features will be the opening performances of "Bury the Dead", the University theatre's season important patriotic duty rests upon opener scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

Tickets will be on sale all week.

The play is one of the most unusual attractions that the campus group has ever produced. It has no leading parts. The cast, one of spirit of realism. the largest in recent years, numbers close to forty. The story is principally concerned with six dead soldiers who refuse to be buried and arise from their graves to haunt the memories of the living, telling why they have no right to be killed teries of flood and spotlights which when they have lived so little. "Bury the Dead", is written by Irwin Shaw, a former radio script writer and this his first play was produced last spring in New York its first production anywhere in Catholic and the Jewish churches the Northwest. It is not written of Eugene have given both properin the conventional three-act form ties and advice for the roles of the day. Girls interested n swimming

Horace W. Robinson, technical de- partment on the campus has lent signer for the theatre, has devised properties and advice in regard to Museum Library Offers an abstract, impressionistic setting military procedure in the play. in two levels. The upper level is a Saturday night's performance part of a war-scarred battlefield, will start promptly at 8 o'clock and with sandbags, and barbed wire will be over in time for patrons to books will be on display in the art barricades. The lower fore-stage is attend the homecoming dance. The museum library this weekend in used for the motivation of the rest play runs about an hour and a connection with the concert of the of the characters who endeavor to quarter. "Bury the Dead" will also Don Cossack chorus and the Ruslie down in their graves.

in turn illuminate various stage of the characterizations and the o'clock. group has had to call for help from many outside sources. The Roman but rather as a series of moving priest (played by Robert Vosper of the Latin department) and the To accomplish this difficult task, rabbi. Likewise the military de-

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. dance. Blackouts are used instead of Last-minute additions to the curtains and there are no intermis- cast include: Beatrice Evans, the the public Saturday morning from the business school who is now sions or waits. The action merely child, Donna Theda, acting as a 10 to 12 and Sunday afternoon working for the Westfir Lumber shifts from one portion of the street walker; Clifford Gruning, from 3 to 5. The museum library company, will be among the grads plished by the concentration of bat- speech instructor, as the priest.

Reveal Strong Vote for Communist, Socialist

Oregon's few communist sup-Thomas Orders Floats porters, unearthed in this week's To Stay in Line in Emerald poll, showed little strength in comparison with other universities, it was revealed when straw vote results from northwest Although plans for the theatre universities rolled in yesterday.

Significant political trends were complete and houses are busy seen in the tabulations which working on their floats, for the showed varied support for several Roosevelt carried the University of Washington with 2330 votes to 618 for Landon. Browder, com-Don Thomas, head of the rally munist candidate, received 198 committee, announced Wednesday votes, and Socialist Thomas netted

Undergraduates at the University of Idaho endorsed Governor Vic Rosenfeld, theatre program Landon with 193 to 148 for Roosecame in third, with 88 votes out of

Morse Points Way

Working Class Security Will Alleviate Troubles, Says Dean of Law School

A workable solution of many features of the labor problem can proach the problem more realistically and less emotionally, Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, told the junior chamber of commerce Monday night.

"We are just beginning in the field of American labor to see the effect of our free educational sysdrid, two government war planes lamette valley and the southeast- and of the strict immigration polwere shot down by fascist aviat- ern part of the state are petro- icy of the last few years," said glyph areas and the north cen- Dean Morse. "The effects are nottral section with a corridor run- ed in a more enlightened laboring The Chinese-Japanese diplomatic ning down through the Klamath class than exists in most countries," he continued.

in the naturalistic designs than in Business is urging the public, which favored compulsory 424 to 235. that the basic paradox is the prob-

Dean Morse observed that the difficulty of talking on such a sub-General and chronological con- ject is that many people approach significance of the carvings were gestion of a more sensible districommunism which is not the case > causes for the average n a way which will promote the Final tabulations: general welfare," said Dean Morse. Dean Morse stated that a very business men, labor leaders, and citizens generally to approach this complicated social problem in a

Amphibian Tryouts Are Slated for Tomorrow

Amphibians will hold try-outs for prospective members in Gerlinger Specialization is the one keynote pool Thursday evening at 7:30

Girls who attended the last meeting and did not make the test are invited to try again, Jean Steven- Major: son, president, announced yester. who were unable to attend last Thursday's tryouts are urged to

Russian Book Display

A collection of rare Russian find ways to make the dead men be repeated the following Monday, sian motif of the homecoming

Saturday morning.

Dave Lowry, left, "the thinker", scrutinizes the Russian costume worn by Helene Jones, and gives unreserved approval of the kneelength garb. Lowry is chairman for the homecoming dance in Mc-Arthur court, Saturday night. Decorations for the affair are built not be attained until both sides ap- around a "Russian Rendezvous" theme. —Courtesy Register-Guard.

Final Tabulations In Emerald Poll

Responsibility for the optional military vote of students in the Emerald straw poll Monday and Tuesday can be credited to the independents, tabulations made yesterday in Johnson hall indicate. The barbarians rallied more than 2 to 1 against conscription, but this majority read to determine progress made to recognize and weigh the imporing in Gerlinger hall at 4 o'clock was almost wiped out by the fraternity and sorority vote for compulsentation is more readily perceived "is a very interesting paradox, sory drill. The unaffiliated went optional, 368 to 170, and the Greeks

An error in tabulating the total optional-compulsory vote was dismentioning a dancing group on a percentage of laborers, to buy covered yesterday which cut the optionalist lead from a 27-vote margin large boulder in the Jordan River more and labor demands that it to one of 15 votes. The freshmen and graduate classes were the only gorge as one of the more striking have more with which to buy, so ones to give a majority vote for optional drill.

Alfred M. Landon carried the Greek votes, but President Roosevelt won the election on the basis of his independent support. The business administration, law, and physical education schools were the only ones to sanction compulsory ROTC, while architecture and allied arts was the only school giving a majority to Landon. Norman Thomas was strongest in the music school drawing four votes to six for both Landon quired military training will parbution of wealth raises the bogy of and Roosevelt, but he failed to get one vote in the 348 cast by the ticipate in the discussions. business administration school. There was but one Communist vote in the entire school of journalism, second largest in the University.

The Emerald poll had 1277 ballots marked, representing 44 per cent working man's insecurity must be of the school. Exactly 49 per cent of the men voted, and 32 per cent removed if business is to enjoy con-tinued prosperity and if our eco-50 per cent of their enrollment represented. Only 13 per cent of the removed if business is to enjoy con- of the women. The law, journalism, and social science schools had over

10

GRAD COMING FOR WEEKEND The art museum will be open to Harold Bates, recent graduate of stage to another. This is accom- newsboy; and Mr. D. E. Hargis, will be open Friday afternoon and who plan to return this weekend ther, who was killed in an autofor homecoming.

Greeks

RYTA ESH'S BROTHER DIES

Dance Chairman Gum and Mums Torrid Political Of Honor Guests

Tickets Going Fast, Says Bales; Some Houses Already Over Quota; Sale Closes Friday

Molly White, chairman of patrons and patronesses for the Russian Rendezvous, has announced a roll of special guests to be invited to the homecoming dance in McArthur court Saturday evening.

Topping the list of distinguished guests are Chancellor and Mrs. Frederick Hunter and Mayor and Mrs. Elisha Large. Others are: Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, Dean and Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Dean and Mrs. Eric Allen, Coach and Mrs. P. G. Callison, Dean and Mrs. Virgil B. Earl, Dean and Mrs. J. R. Jewell. Dean and Mrs. Wayne L. Morse, Dean and Mrs. Karl Onthank, Dr. and Mrs. George Rebec, Prof. and Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Dr. and Mrs. Edward DeCou, Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Arne G. Rae, Prof. and Mrs. Charles Hulten, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schomp, Prof. and Mrs. Stephenson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pallett, Colonel and Mrs. E. V. D. Murphy, Prof. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Prof. and Mrs. George Turnbull; Professor and Mrs Kenneth Shumaker, and Prof. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer.

Emerald Charges To Be Aired at Meet

The Oregon Liberty association at an 8 p.m. campus meeting in Gerlinger hall tonight will institute a drive to place required military views before Oregon voters and substantiate charges made against Emerald editorial policies.

At the meeting, which is open to the general public, reports from Morrison believes, because the Mr. Gosslin to stay over and adcommittees and officers will be modern jury is intelligent enough dress the group at a special meetin the campaign. New plans to present required military views to is impressed by deliberate attempts speak at 7:30 at the city court voters before the November elec- to browbeat witnesses, to mistreat house. tion will be discussed and a course the opposition, and to show the of action will be determined.

Charges made against the Em erald in broadcasts from the College Side during the straw vote poll will be aired, Don Thomas, chairman of the meeting said last

Student leaders advocating re-

Oregon Lettermen

Rooter's lids will go on sale today for the homecoming game. Or- started in contacting long time short skit. The seniors devoted charge of the sale. As over 140 response to a growing demand. lids were sold for the Idaho game, it is predicted more will be sold offered by the teachers' appoint- Several musical numbers were prefor the Washington State-Oregon

Saturday noon calls to the living organizations on the campus will be made as a final drive to sell lids before the game.

Don Thomas, rally committee chairman, has devised several stunts for students in the rooting section, and white shirts and rooter's lids will be necessary to gain admittance to this section.

Before the opening gun, alumni lettermen wearing Oregon sweaters will hold their annual march around the field to a special section reserved in their honor.

Dean Schwering Talks On Frosh Orientation

Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, spoke on freshman orientation to a group of freshman girls representing each of the women's living organizations last Tuesday afternoon in Johnson hall.

She mentioned the importance of friendliness and courtesy especial-Ryta Esh, Portland, education ly toward housemothers, patrons, and patronesses. Various activiplaced an emphasis on scholarship. Jeff Howard left his trinket with Oregon at all!

Bonfire

Construction of the annual freshman bonfire or flaming "O" with the collection of materials on Skinner's butte. See story on page

look off their faces now, for the current campus problem of how to wear a yellow chrysanthemum with a red informal at the dance Saturday night has been solved by "Oregon's own Emily Post," Isabelle Miller.

The solution? Mums will not be worn. No flowers will be seen on the long dinner dresses which are in order, Miss Miller and Dave Lowry, chairman for the dance, have decided.

However, according to the mum sales committee this is no excuse for fellows not to send girls a mum. Mums will be definitely "in" at the game in the

According to Miss Miller, gum chewing also will be out along with mums at this first informal dance of the year.

Square Treatment and David Eccles, state chairman David Eccles, state chai Of Jury Advocated will stump for Landon.

Portland Attorney States Supremacy of Oratory Is Lost to Courts

The best way to win court actions today is to treat the jury absolutely square, declared William Morrison, Portland attorney, to a combined audience of the law school student body and faculty yesterday Morrison, partner in the firm of Maguire, Shields, and Morrison, presented a complete outline of the ordinary procedure followed in hints and suggestions on the vaon handling phases of the suits.

luncheon held at the College Side possible, organizers said.

judge disrespect.

Janet Smith Seeks Jobs For Graduates

Contacting Business Men Of Portland

manent work for graduates, Janet ings depicting the trials and tribu-Smith, secretary of the employ- lations necessary to enact needed ment bureau, left for Portland, legislation. They also panned the Monday afternoon.

Last spring this service was der of the "O" members will have placement jobs for graduates in most of their time to putting the tendered by the employment bu- cigars, cider and doughnuts.

Smith, if interested in this accom- is the only law school in the coun-

Releases Names | Declared 'Out' | Debate Expected

Assembly Planned to Put Political Information Before Student Body In Unbiased Way

Oregon student political interest, existing in varying degrees during past weeks, will rise to higher intensity today when representatives of Republican, Democrat, and Socialist parties debate presidential campaign issues at 11 o'clock in Gerlinger hall.

Monroe Sweetland, state chairman of the Socialist party, will open the debate schedule with a ten-minute review of socialist political ideas. W. L. Gosslin, secretary to Governor Martin, will take up of the Young Republican league,

Speakers to Give Viewpoints Concentrating their efforts on specific issues and problems facing the nation, the speakers will reflect America's political view-

When slips were drawn to determine the order of speakers, each was allotted ten minutes for constructive speeches and five minutes for rebuttal, but Republican representatives yesterday asked twelve minutes for the first speech and three minutes for rebuttal..

Casteel to Preside

Professor John Casteel, head of the University speech division, will the usual civil court action, giving preside over the debate. No formal question will be up for considerarious ways to meet situations and tion and no winner will be named The debate is an effort to put Following his address Morrison political information before studwas feted by Phi Delta Phi at a ents in the most unbiased manner

Members of the campus Roose-The rule of oratory is waning, velt-Garner club have persuaded A jury no longer in the afternoon. He will all

Profs Unbend: Give Burlesque At Law Smoker

The annual law school smoker was held Tuesday night with fun Employment Secretary Is and frolic quite out of keeping with the average student's conception of the dignity of law school professors and students.

The professors led the fun with For the purpose of securing per- a burlesque skit of faculty meetstudents in no uncertain manner

Each law school class gave a professors in their places-accord-This does not replace anything ing to the seniors' ideas, anyway. ment bureau but is purely a service sented. The faculty provided free

According to Bob Miller, law Alumni are urged to contact Miss school student body president, this try to have an affair of this kind.

Detective Delves Deep; Defies Demure Dames

By FELKER MORRIS

Rally 'round! Today we sauntered down to the Theta palace to see what foolish children are wearing pins. Jerry May coyly displays her Beta brass to those who don't know she has it, and speaks gayly of the American league's chances for the baseball pennant next year.

The Hamley "Personality Kid" found fertile soil for planting, and Dorothy Good is reaping the harvest. . . And of course even the uninitiated know about Jo McGilchrist and Pete Buck; ditto that ravishing Barker gal and Dale Fisher.

ATO that bothers Marg Baker is -he of the hair cut!

so we whip on down to the colon- Grout. ties, hobby groups, honorary socie- ial mansion where the DG's reside.

The man in Ginny Koehler's a-law-student) Hayden hung his Louise Carpenter, and Phil (I-amcampus existence is the Sig X with pin on Norma Kolstead. Of course the dog, Hal Peterson. (That's his there's Pearl Johansen and her name, not the dog's). The big shot shadow from the Kappa Sig house, and Constance Kletzer plus a none other than our own Al Davis "Five-armed Star." Last but not That takes care of the Thetas of Ruth (Henry) Ford and Ben

Remember, 'tis better to have ties and the do's and don't's of These Delta G's are democratic, planted your pin and have it given campus life were explained. She they collect pins from all the lads, back than never to have attended