

Socialists Arrange Final Party Plans

Socialist students and townspeople Thursday organized the Eugene committee for Thomas and Nelson, planned the last 10 days of campaigning for the party, and announced a write-in campaign in behalf of Mary Hilburn Jackson, Socialist candidate for the house of representatives from the first congressional district.

Monroe Sweetland, state chairman of the Socialist party, urged the local committee to distribute educational literature, and emphasized that spreading the knowledge of what socialism really means is more important at this time than actual votes.

The Thomas-Nelson committee will have an open meeting next Wednesday in the Y hut at 7:30, presenting a program of speakers and final planning.

Snapped at work on the Theta Chi-Alfa Delta Pi float which won second in the parade last night are Herbert Clark, kneeling, at work on a Duck; Janet Hall, painting the Cougar's head; Margery Kissling; assembling the Duck, and Donald Seaman, sawing out the cat's tail.

to worry about one Joe Gray on account of he's not such shucks and besides is an Oregon Aggie which makes him practically a citizen with a wooden leg. Score 19 to 0.

More maybe I'm wrong: St. Mary's over Fordham. Yale over Rutgers. Minnesota over Purdue (fair weather friend, that's me). North Carolina over Tulane (is it true, what they etc.). Michigan State over Marquette. Villanova over Boston U. Utah over Utah State. Notre Dame over Pittsburgh (this is what we call a dilly). Holy Cross over Carnegie Tech. Texas Aggies over Baylor. Duke over Tennessee. Auburn over Georgia. Texas Christian over Mississippi State (this is practically suicide). Princeton over Navy. Georgia Tech over Vanderbilt (but watch out for passes and such). Rice over Texas (rebellion at the Phi Psi house Monday night).

Long Runs Give

after an exchange of kicks, he came within an ace of doing it again. This time, however, the ball rolled into the end zone by a hair's breadth, and thereby hangs the tale of the first frosh touchdown.

The midget Graybeal took the pass from center on the first frosh play from the 20 and cut through the left side of the line. Aided by effective blocking, the nimble Pendleton halfback broke through the forward wall and on through the secondary, out into the clear.

Baker, a halfback, pursued the flying Graybeal the length of the field, but he couldn't catch up and the Duckling flash went over standing up. Lance's kick for point was blocked.

Jesse to the Races

George Jesse, replacement for Graybeal, grabbed the second-half kickoff on his own 5-yard line and followed massed interference for 95 yards and a touchdown. Again Lance's try-for-point was blocked.

The home yearlings were in frosh territory all through the fourth quarter until the third and final frosh thrust. Big Bill Stein intercepted Collins' pass on the Duckling 20, and two tries at the line gained to the 23. At that point Smith dropped back and southpawed a long pass far out on the left sideline to the galloping Graybeal, who grabbed the ball down on the rook 39 and continued for the last touchdown. Reginato's attempted conversion was wide.

Teams Nervous

Both teams appeared nervous and fumbled the ball all over the field through the first half. Final count on fozzles was seven for the frosh, most of which were recovered, and three for the rooks. In the first quarter four fumbles were crowded into the space of two minutes.

Play at all times was ragged. The rooks, with Chase and Collins, the latter a clever speed boy, pack-

Alice Vanishes; Health Service On the Lookout

"Her name is Alice, and she's lost," Nurse Switzer sobbed. "Can't you do something? She was all we had."

It must not have been lack of care that inspired the four-month-old kitten to leave the nurses' home on Onyx street.

When last seen, she was dressed in motley garb, blending into various shades of red, white, black, and gray. Miss Alice is very particular how she is spoken to, as during her short life she has been used to nothing but baby-cat-talk.

Anyone seeing the whereabouts of this lost specimen of affection, notify the University health service. Remember, her name is Alice.

fine showing that Washington State made at Los Angeles.

In the kicking department, Oregon is hoped to get better yardage on their punts. They have had some nasty breaks so far this year and may come out of their slump. The cougars can lift lofty boots out over the opposing teams territory with astonishing regularity. Bentley and Lassele will probably do most of the kicking for the Webfoots.

The contest today, in addition to being Oregon's final home game of the season, marks the resumption of the gridiron rivalry after a ten-year lapse. The two schools have met 14 times, with the Cougars winning seven times and Oregon four. The three other meetings ended in draws.

Hollingberry and his squad of 38 players arrived in Eugene at noon yesterday. They had a light limbering up session on Hayward field in the afternoon to stretch their cramped muscles.

A capacity crowd of eager football fans is expected to crowd the stadium long before game time and those that wish to avoid the rush are urged to come early.

Dr. Carl Swartzlow, naturalist at Lassen national park, in California, gave a lecture at Condon hall Thursday night on "Lassen National Park."

Dr. Swartzlow told of some of the main points of interest in the park, among which were Mansaneta lake station, the Devastated Forest, the hot springs, and Lassen mountain, an active volcano.

Y Regional Secretary Will Visit Here Monday

Stella Scurlock, regional secretary of the YMCA and YWCA will arrive in Eugene Monday morning.

During the week, Miss Scurlock will meet with the various commissions and committees of both organizations.

She will also discuss plans for the Seabeck conference to be held next June.
