Defending Phi Delts, Abba Dabbas Defeat Intramural Quintets

Gamma Hall, Yeomen, Sigma Chi, Delts Also Winners in Opening Donut Contests

Phi Delta Thetas team, intramural basketball champions last year, defended its laurels in the opening game of the new season with a crushing defeat of the Oregon Freeman, a newly organized independent team, 37 to 7.

Missing only Slim Wintermute and Bob Pickens from last year's team, the Phi Delts, with Sid Milligan, Ed Strohecker, and Bing Crosbie leading the attack, worked smoothly and with great ease to score consistently over Don Casciato's Clowns. They led, 11 to 3, at the end of the half.

After a scoreless first quarter in which the Phi Delts were missing innumerable shots, the Freeman wilted under their fast pace and the fraternity men began scoring. With Milligan and big Strohecker taking the ball off the backboards, the Phi Delts were constantly putting Crosbie and Strohecker in positions to score. The two together rang up 26 points.

Crosbie led the scoring with 14 points while Strohecker ran up 12. Casciato led his own team with 3 points. Summary:

Phi Delts A (37) (7) Freeman A White, 2 F 3, Casciato Wilson, 7 F 2, DeFreitas Strohecker, 12 C McCurdy Milligan, 2 G Platts Crosbie, 14 G 2, Albi S Burgess S DeBoise

Sigma Chi 18, Pi Kaps 10

In a battle of beef, the Sigma Chis beat out the Phi Kappa Pis, 13 to 10 in a wild and rough game. Both teams were composed mainly of ex-football players who were unaccustomed to the basketball floor and committed numerous fouls.

The Sweethearts led all the way through the game but received a scare in the third quarter when George Varoff and Dick Sleeter, Phi Psis, began hitting the basket to draw within two points of the Sigm Chis, 11 to 9. Morrie Anderson put the game on ice in the last few minutes when he intercepted a Phi Psi pass and scored single.

Varoff, with only six points, led both teams in the low scoring game. Bob Braddock was high handed.

Ducklings Play Warm-up Game

Team Beats Rubenstein's Independents, 56 - 35, In Practice Fray

Coach John Warren Grove his Ducklings through a long 80-minute informal session against Rubenstein's independents at McArthur court last night, the final score being 56 to 35 after the basket slinging had ceased.

The frosh hoopmen took an early lead and gradually added to it as they wore down the six-man team from down-town. Warren used 11 of his lads during the scrimmaging, and then, following that, gave every one a chance.

Ted Sarpola, forward, John Dick, center, and Matt Pavalunas, guard, got a large share of the frosh points, accounting jointly for 38 tallies. Stan Short, ex-Roseburg flash, piled up a string of assists, although only getting one field goal.

Scoring for the evening: Rubenstein's (85) (56) Frosh Tingle (10) F (2) Shipley Miller (7) F (10) Sarpola Karstens (6) C (16) Dick Sigmund (10) G (12) Pavalunas Stafford (2) G (2) Short Terjeson S (2) Krietz S (4) Quinn S (4) Lenkinsop S (2) Boroughs S (2) Jones S (2) Jackson

Girls' Athletic Program Has Wide Variety

Basketball, Swimming, Badminton on Slate For Winter; Practice This Week

With intramural basketball, swimming, and badminton on the program for the winter quarter, athletic-minded coeds will find a variety of activities open to them as practices for house teams in the various sports begin this week.

Participants in all sports are eligible for WAA checks. To receive checks in basketball, players must practice four times a week—twice with their own teams—and play in all but one game. One check will be given for refereeing three times, and a half check for keeping time or marking score.

Must Have Practices

House teams must have at least two practices before the tournament, which will begin in about two weeks. The time of the practices may be arranged with Anne Frederiksen, manager of basketball. Before signing for a team, all players must take heart checks from Miss Harriet Thomson, professor of physical education, who will be in her office for this purpose Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. No one will be allowed to play without first having taken a heart check.

Those entering the badminton tournament must have two practices a week for WAA checks. Practices will be held in the outdoor gym on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 5 o'clock, and at other hours when the gym is available. Betty Cleator is in charge. The program for intramural swimming has been changed this year, with three monthly meets planned in place of the one which is usually held at the end of the term. The WAA swimming cup will be awarded at the end of the quarter to the person who has accumulated the highest number of points in the three meets. Beginning this week, practices will be held during the open hour from 4 to 6 o'clock in the pool in Gerlinger hall. Contestants may practice individually or with their teams. Miss Warrine Eastburn, instructor in physical education, is manager of intramural swimming.

Oregon Slates Gridiron Tilt With Arizona

Athletic Board Votes to Allow Varoff to Attend Eastern Track Meets Next Month

A post season game between the University of Arizona and the University of Oregon at Tucson, Arizona, on December 4, was authorized last night by the Webfoot athletic board at its regular monthly meeting.

The Webfoot-Arizona clash, first ever played between the two schools, gives Oregon a nine-game schedule for the 1937 season. Negotiations are understood to be under way for a second post-season encounter with Louisiana State university at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on December 11.

The athletic board also voted to allow George Varoff, sophomore student and holder of the world's pole vault record, to compete in two famous eastern track meets next month.

Varoff will jump first at the Melrose indoor meet in New York on Saturday night, February 6. He will remain in the East a week to compete in the Boston Gardens meet at Boston on February 13.

The great Webfoot vaulter will have a chance to regain lost laurels in the eastern invasions, for it was revealed that both Earl Meadows, Olympic champion, and Ohe, Japanese champion and second place winner at Berlin, would be on hand.

Beavers Skinned By Irate Cougars

Washington State Leads Staters Throughout to Take 23-20 Win

Two quick baskets in the closing minutes of the game gave the Washington State Cougars a slim 23-to-20 win over Oregon State's Beavers in the Staters' opening conference fray played last night at Corvallis.

With two minutes left to play, Earl Conkling, veteran Orange center, dropped in a gift throw to put the Beavers in the lead, 20-19, but the Cougars retaliated with two quick baskets by Frank Johnson and Al Hooper as the final gun sounded.

Only three field goals were collected by the closely-guarded Beavers, who caged 14 of 19 foul tosses to keep them in the game.

Elmer Kolberg, giant footballer, was the Beaver mainstay, while Ivar Nelson led the Cougar attack.

Sarpola, Dick, Pavalunas Lead Attack of Warren's Crew in Opener

Oregon's frosh basketballers are stepping into the thick of action on the maple court this week, following Saturday's easy 40-to-22 victory over the Franklin high quintet of Portland.

Coach John Warren has not announced his full schedule as yet, but he has several tentative contests lined up to keep his proteges busy this week.

The frosh hoopmen will journey to Vancouver Saturday for a contest against the Vancouver high trappers. The Wendling town team may be slated for Wednesday night, and Warren is also attempting to bill the Longview Junior college five for Friday night.

Definite dates are set for the annual four-game frosh-rook series. The teams open on January 22 at Corvallis, and the next night move down to Eugene. The third game will be played February 19 at Corvallis, and the team wind up their series here February 27.

Saturday afternoon's opening fray found the driving Ducklings playing flashy ball at times and completely outplaying the Franklin team which was runner-up to Corvallis high in last year's state hoop tournament.

Ted Sarpola, ambidextrous sharpshooter from Astoria, and John Dick, towering center, led the frosh basket slinging. Sarpola netted 12 points and Dick rolled in 15. Matt Pavalunas and Stan Short were another pair of standouts.

Ducks Break Even In Two Games With Washington State

Dave Silver, Bob Anet Lead Hobson's Crew To 43-22 Win Friday Night

Sophomores Star Hub Tuttle, Oregon State Forward, Suffers With Sprained Ankle

With an even break recorded in the season's first two conference starts Howard Hobson's Dashing Ducks yesterday settled down to a week's intensive drill in preparation for Friday night's battle with Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Washington State's great return game Saturday night in eking out a narrow 37-to-32 win over Oregon after taking a 42-to-22 drubbing during the previous evening proved a major surprise to Webfoot hoop followers. The Cougars showed much improvement in their shots, floor work and defense the second night, while the Webfoots seemed tired from the fast pace they set Friday night.

The work of big Dave Silver, veteran forward, and Sophomore Bob Anet, husky Astoria speedster, was the highlight of the season's opening encounters. Silver scored 20 points Friday and followed up with 12 the following night to give him an average of 16 points per game. The drive of Anet in taking the ball down the floor and his stellar work in recovering the ball from the backboard and from his opponents was largely responsible for the Ducks' win.

Sophomores Wally Johansen, Slim Wintermute and Laddie Gale, and the veteran Bill Courtney also showed up well for Hobson's squad.

The outcome of Friday's game with Slats Gill's question mark Beavers should be a toss-up. Gill's team has shown little in the way of offense but has looked good on defense. The Beavers seldom flash in their pre-season games, but are perennial pennant threats. Hub Tuttle, one of the three veterans on the Orange squad, probably will see little action due to a sprained ankle which has kept him out for the past week.
