

THE Firing Line

By PAT FRIZZELL

Good news in liberal portions poured from the doors of Portland's Multnomah hotel the other night. Northern division graduate managers, including out own Anse Cornell, were gathered for a conference, and the austere gentlemen saw fit to provide the conference with the first full slate of spring sports since way back when.

Spring sports have long been neglected in these parts. For a year or two they were virtually extinct. One season there wasn't even a northern division baseball schedule, and that same year, '33, there was no minor sport competition at all.

Little by little, inch by inch, baseball, track, and their minor brothers, tennis and golf, came back. Now, at last, they all have complete slates in the same season. The northern division track meet is scheduled for Seattle on May 22. The tennis meet will come to Oregon State and its brand new courts at Corvallis. Golf will be at Seattle May 29.

Along with the unfortunate decline of spring sports was the fall of swimming. The splash pastime slipped to the bottom of the pool along about '33, but, like the rest, it has boomed back. Last season Oregon won the coast swimming title, but Oregon State had no aquatic aggregation. Now the Beavers are back "in the swim" and the Webfoots will meet them twice this winter. The northern division swimming meet is slated for Pullman on March 27.

Speaking of swimming, Mike Hoyman has been doing a grand job, considering everything, in getting together any sort of an aquatic crew at all.

Why a swimming crew that is defending a coast championship can't have a pool of its own is something painfully difficult to fathom. Work on converting the old gym into a swimming pool was started months and months ago. But it no sooner was started than it was stopped. There's still no pool, and the merman have to splash around in Gerlinger whenever they get a chance.

New York basketball 'scribes have drowned their tears since the Stanford invasion and are now plugging Long Island U. again. The Long Island outfit, it seems, has trimmed Duquesne and somebody else and again is "the greatest college basketball team in the world."

You can't teach the metropolis it doesn't lead the world on the maple boards in one season however, so let's forget about it. Here, however, are some interesting figures on Stanford's giant-killing tour. To Mr. Orval Hopkins, who dishes out your Hops, Skips, and Jumps, I'm indebted for this bit of research. The Indians, says Mr. Hopkins, ran up an average score of 53 points per game in seven eastern starts. And it was a paying venture, for an average of 8500 spectators witnessed their games. They won all seven.

Basketball is a game in which height, not heft, is at a premium. However, lots of leading football players double on the shining boards. Just at random, take a look at the all-Americans playing college basketball. There's Larry Kelly of Yale; Sammy Baugh, Texas as Christian; Andy Uram, Minnesota; Andy Bashrak, North Carolina, and Bob Herwig, California. And that's the merest beginning. Gene Shields, Oregon's football line coach, bemoaned the fact the other day that more of the husky gridders don't get out on the court. Shields says it's the best winter training exercise they can find.

Phi Delts Trounce Alpha in B League Title Defense

Kappa Sigs, Delts, Chi Psis, Fijis, SPE's Win B Loop Games

SPE Beef Trust of Beef Trusts Bounces Boys From Zeta Hall; ATO's Beat Sigma, 30-2

By BILL NORENE

The Phi Delts started the defense of their B league title with a decisive 49-9 win over Alpha hall yesterday afternoon.

Bill Regan and George Schweiger led the winners with 15 and 10 points respectively.

The Phi Delts performed very smoothly, with no individual star. They functioned as a good team should and could probably take plenty of the A teams in the donut league.

Lacklen Stands Out

Although Jess Lacklen scored only four points, he played good defensive ball and chalked up many assists. Ineffective shooting was the cause of the downfall of the boys from Alpha, although, at that, they didn't get many shots.

The Phi Delts led at the half, 26 to 4.

Summary:

Phi Delt B (46)	(9) Alpha B
Lacklen, 6	F..... 2, Buchanan
Bauer, 7	F..... 1, Palmblad
Schweiger, 10	C..... 2, Shay
Mitchell, 4	G..... Leith
Regan, 15	G..... Lubersky

Hillis, 4	S..... 2, Walker
Greenough, 1	S..... Fernandez
S..... Frizzell	S..... Chrones

Officials: Merritt and Ward.

ATO B 30, SIGMA B 2

Rock Anderson and Jack Berry, scoring 10 and 8 points respectively led the ATO basketball forces to their initial B league win with a victory over Sigma hall, 30-2.

Anderson was the standout of the game with his shooting, passing, and work under the backboard. The Hotelmen's defense was a little over par as they kept Sigma from scoring a single field goal.

Harry Weston and Jack Hay also turned in good games for the ATO's.

The Hotelmen led at the half, 16-0.

Summary:

ATO B (30)	(2) Sigma B
Berry, 8	F..... Hall
Hay, 6	F..... Winquist
Anderson, 10	C..... 1, Bryant
Dunn, 1	G..... Canfield
Weston, 4	G..... Shellenberger

SPE B 26, ZETA B 3

Zeta hall was literally blasted off the court yesterday by a tornado averaging 220 pounds to the man that came out of the SPE house to establish itself as one of the leading contenders for the Phi Delts' B league crown. The score was 26 to 3. That the SPEs used somewhat unorthodox tactics is beside the point. The SPEs won.

To illustrate the tactics, at one time no less than six men were on the floor; once somebody tried to block one of Chan Berry's shots, so Chan stuck a hand in the lad's stomach and shot anyway; another time Chan became perturbed and tried rather a sloppy headlock, but he was caught. However, don't get the idea that Chan was the only one. Another Zeta boy got in the way of Nello Giovannini, who simply lowered his shoulder and continued blithely on his way.

There was one shining light in the SPE offense and that was two-toned Cliff Morris, center, who ran up 10 points to lead all scorers. The big boy really looked good on occasions.

All in all, the SPEs were simply a re-creation of Buck Bailey's Beefy Angels of recent years.

Summary:

SPE B (26)	(3) Zeta Hall B
Rowe, 6	F..... Amato
Berry, 10	F..... 1, Kimball
Morris, 10	C..... Jones
Giovannini, 6	G..... Landeen
Williams, 4	G..... 2, Cameron
Mitchell, 1	S..... Daggatt

Delts Breeze Over Fijis, 21-2, Lodgemen Take DUs; Kappa Sigs Beat Abba Dabbas

By JOHN PINK

In the most hotly contested game of the afternoon, the Kappa Sig B hoopsters squeezed out a 16-11 victory over the Abba Dabba basketballers in the opening tilt of B league competition.

Starting with a bang, the Kappa Sigs, with Hallen hitting consistently, held a 10-3 advantage at the end of the first quarter. But the Abba Dabba defense tightened and the Kappa Sigs were held to one bucket while the Dabbas were collecting 6 points to make the score 12 to 9, Kappa Sigs, when the teams left the floor for the rest period.

Third Period Close

The third quarter was featured by close checking by both squads, and foul tosses by Wade and Simpson, Kappa Sigs, were the only counters made.

The Kappa Sig defense proved to be tough in the final canto, and the Dabbas were held to one field goal.

Hallen with 7 points garnered individual scoring honors.

Summary:

Kappa Sig B (16)	(11) Abba Dabba B
Carter, 2	F..... Morris
Hallen, 7	F..... 3, Chann
Wade, 3	C..... 1, Compton
Simpson, 2	G..... 2, Gould
Fall, 1	G..... 2, Duncan
McNair, 1	S..... 3, Naylor
Miller, 1	S..... Jones

Officials: Holden and Gordon.

FIJIS B 21, DELT B 3

After battling on almost even terms for three quarters, the Delt defensive bulwarks collapsed and the Fiji B hoopsters rolled on to a 21-2 win.

Neither team was able to dent the hoop effectively in the first canto, and this period ended with the score tied, 2 to 2.

In the second quarter the Fijis poured in two more buckets while the Delts were adding a gift toss, and the half ended 6 to 3, Fijis.

With Hoyt, hard-running guard, supplying the offensive spark, the Fijis ran up a 13-7 advantage at the end of the third period.

Dropping three buckets in the final canto, one a swishing howitzer from the side court, Hoyt took the individual scoring honors with 11 counters.

Summary:

Fiji B (21)	(8) Delt B
Mehl, 5	F..... Davis
Norville, 1	F..... 2, Towner
Pinkstaff, 3	C..... 2, Weber
Skinner, 1	G..... 1, Bailey
Hoyt, 11	G..... 1, Snoko

S..... Yantis	S..... Ellis

Officials: Holden and Gordon.

CHI PSI B 33, DU B 4

With Wild Bill Foskett handling the casaba with the same skill he uses on the 16-pound ball, the Chi Psi B team romped to an easy 33-4 victory over a weak DU B outfit.

Foskett didn't have his weather eye tuned in the first half and his team held only an 8-2 advantage at the end of the second quarter.

With the help of little Bobby Winslow, whom Foskett could hold in one hand, the Lodgers flipped the melon in from every corner and even from the middle. The DUs managed to cage another field goal to make the final count 33 to 4.

Foskett accounted for 15, while Winslow tossed in 8 for the Lodgers.

Summary:

Chi Psi B (33)	DU B (4)
McClung, 5	F..... Kirtley
Winslow, 8	F..... 2, Sheedy
Foskett, 15	C..... Robinson
Osborne, 1	G..... Forbes

Purdy's Shot Gives Oregon 35-34 Victory

lead when Conkling pushed one in without opposition. Lewis sank a prayer shot from mid-floor to tie 10 to 10. Merryman took a long pass from Kolberg to run the Beavers into the lead.

Lewis evened with a pass from Anet. Silver got a gift, and Oregon moved into a 14-13 lead. With only four minutes left to go and Oregon in the lead, 15 to 14, Tuttle dribbled through to put the Beavers in the lead. Lewis evened it with a free toss, but Kolberg, Merryman, and Conkling grabbed two points each to put them in a half-time lead, 21 to 16.

Gale Fouls Merryman

As the second canto opened, Gale fouled Merryman, who sank the shot. Merryman then started to run wild, and before the Ducks got their footing ran the lead to 27 to 18 for the Staters.

The "Driving Ducks," driving but ineffective, tightened up and slapped the lid over the Oregon State kettle. Johnson, who had replaced Courtney at the half, snapped one through which led to Oregon's scoring build-up. Gale on a field goal and Lewis on a free throw sent the tally to 23 to 29. Merryman then walked through the entire Oregon team twice to push two successive throws through the bucket.

Webfoots Drive Again

Again the Webfoots put on a scoring drive, with Purdy opening with a nifty from mid-floor. Silver added one point to make the tally 28 to 33. Johansen added two more, and Urgel Wintermute made it 30 to 33 on a pass from Anet.

Kolberg went out on fouls, and Wintermute scored one. With but a minute to play, Purdy sank the counter that tied the game. Wintermute's try at a foul shot failed.

If successful, it would have given Oregon the lead. Tuttle scored on a foul which put Anet out, and Oregon State had the lead, 34 to 33, with only five seconds left.

Wintermute grabbed the ball from the referee and sent it spinning through the air to Purdy, standing in mid-floor. Purdy stopped, tossed, and the ball dropped through without ticking the rim. Purdy tripped and fell on his face. A second later the game was over.

Merryman Leads

Art Merryman, Oregon State forward, led all scoring for both teams with eight field goals and five free throws for a total of 21 points. Tuttle scored eight of the other Beaver counters.

Silver, who piled up 32 points in two games against Washington State, failed to collect a field goal, but he dropped six free throws. Purdy's three field goals tied him with Silver at 6 points for Oregon's scoring lead.

A total of 36 fouls were called on Oregon State, and four Beavers—Merryman, Conkling, Kolberg, and Lyman—left the game on fouls. Anet fouled out for the Webfoots.

Eighty Girls Pass Heart Check Test

Exams Underway; Five of Nineteen Teams Are Hit By Illness

Eighty girls have passed the heart check test and may enter the WAA basketball tournament, the schedule for which will be drawn up next week by Anne Frederickson, manager of basketball, and Miss Warrine Eastburn, instructor in physical education. Heart checks will be given to about 30 more girls Tuesday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 by Miss Harriet Thomson and a nurse from the University hospital.

Five of the nineteen teams which entered the tournament have withdrawn because of illness of members. Tournament play will begin January 25; team practices will be held next week.

Ducklings Spill Franklin Hoop Quintet, 36-28

Sarpola With 12 Tallies Leads Frosh Attack; Yearlings to End Trip In Vancouver Tonight

Led by the brilliant Ted Sarpola, sharp-shooting forward, Coach John Warren's Ducklings raced to their second win of the season over Franklin high in Portland last night, 36 to 28.

With the smooth-working Sarpola netting 12 points, the frosh jumped away to a 24-8 half-time lead, and then protected it from a game crew of Quakers who out-fought them in the final minutes.

Franklin out-scored Oregon's yearlings, 20 to 12, in the final half, but found the earlier 16-point gap held by Warren's outfit too much to overcome.

Last night's victory put Honest John's men on the comeback trail again after their 44-43 loss to Wendling the previous night. It was their third game of the season.

The Ducklings move over to Vancouver tonight, and play their third game in three days against the Vancouver high school hoop-men.

Banquet Is Held For Pledges of Phi Alpha Delta

Phi Alpha Delta, national professional legal society, held its annual banquet Tuesday night at Seymour's cafe to honor its new pledges. Keith Wilson, third year law student and justice of the society, acted as toastmaster.

Charles G. Howard, professor of law, and Claude H.rown, assistant professor of law, gave reports on National Bar Association convention, held in Chicago during the Christmas vacation.

Keith Wilson and Richard Kriesen, delegates from the local chapter, gave a report on the national Phi Alpha Delta convention, held in Washington, D. C., December 28-30.

The nine pledges to the society are: Fred Hammond, John Thomas, Bill Polk, Errol King, Dave Silvan, Jim Stanard, Jim Quinn, Ed Reames, and Darrell Miller. Initiation will be held January 23.

Habits, Hobbies Of Profs to Be Feature of KORE

A 15-minute campus variety program will be broadcast from KORE at 7:45 p. m. Saturday. Marshall Nelson, Don Kennedy, Kenneth Abraham, and Freeman Patton, members of the University radio class, will give short personality sketches and discuss hobbies and habits of the University professors. Sports, including a discussion of the new gymnasium, will fill out the program.

Bob Cresswell and Frances Mays, will interpret the strike situation over KOAC at 8:45 p. m. Tuesday.

Two programs will be broadcast each week by different members of the radio classes under the direction of D. E. Hargis, instructor in speech. Plans are now being made for a Walter Winchell type of program next week.

Initiation ceremonies will be held Saturday afternoon, January 23, at the county court house. A banquet at the Del Rey cafe, at 6:30, will be followed by a dance at Willamette park. On the banquet committee are Ed Wheelock, Bill Davis, and Ed Raudsep.

Ken Schramm, Jack McGirr, and Bill McInturff form the committee in charge of installation of the new men.
