

PINK Lemon-Aid By JOHN PINK

There is a saying that a fish is no good out of water. So a merman doesn't do himself much good running around the campus in the slush and mud, getting to practice only twice or three times a week.

Swimmers, more so than other athletes, have to go through a long period of loosening up. Almost any sport that a swimmer participates in between seasons tightens up some muscles that must be loosened again, before he can be in the best of condition.

So with other squads on the coast having been practicing for two, three, and even four months already, the followers of the Webfoot aqua-ducks shouldn't be looking forward to anything in the way of phenomena, from this year's practice-started splashes.

Abba Dabbas, Yeomen, Theta Chis Win Intramural Tilts

Abba Dabbas Enter Donut Playoff by Overcoming Delts

Yeomen Trounce Zeta 36-8 in Easy Game; Campbell Co-op Cedes Kappa Sigs Game

By CHUCK VAN SCOYOC The Abba Dabba A team cinched a place in the intramural playoff by downing Delta Tau Delta, 24 to 10, yesterday. They are undefeated in their league.

Ed Jacobs opened the game with two cripples and built up a lead which was maintained throughout the game. Ken Webber and Nib Butler entered in foul shots to bring the first quarter score to 4 to 2 for the Abba Dabbas.

In the second period the Abba Dabbas increased their lead when Orval Hopkins and Jacobs dropped in cripples. Nib Butler led the Delts in the first half by sinking a cripple shot and a beautiful howitzer from mid-court. Halftime score was 16 to 8 for the independents.

Scoring was sparse in the third period. Ed Jacobs sank another cripple and Al Tingle bucketed a sensational swisher from the corner. The Delts failed to score in this quarter.

The last period was opened when Butler potted another of his howitzers to conclude the day's scoring for the Delts. Stew Marsee and Tingle accounted for the final points for the Abba Dabbas.

Ed Jacobs topped the Abba Dabbas with 10 points while Butler led the Delts with 7.

Summary: Abba Dabba A, 24; Tau A, 10; Weber, 2; Jacobs, 1; Struggs, 1; Tingle, 4; Winston, 2; E. Jacobs, 10; Butler, Hopkins, 4; Muser, Marsee, 5; Milligan. Officials: Rix and Campbell.

Yeomen 36; Zeta 8 The Yeomen wound up their contribution to intramural basketball by swamping a hapless Zeta hall team, 36 to 8, yesterday.

The independents scored almost at will throughout the game. Zetas were unable to score in the first quarter while the Yeomen breezed to a 13 to 0 lead. Erwin Elder, Jake Fisher and Len Hufford were the big guns of the Yeomen attack.

In the second period, the Zeta hall boys managed to break the ice when Phil Jansrud bucketed a howitzer from mid-court and Shelby Golden flipped a left hander in from the corner. Half time score was 18 to 4.

Elder and Fisher renewed the attack for the Yeomen and ran up a third period score of 26 to 6. Jansrud potted a cripple for the only Zeta points in the quarter.

In the final quarter Dutch Holland of the Yeomen started the fireworks by dropping in two cripples. Fisher and Elder completed the scoring for the independents. Joe Amato dropped in a cripple to conclude the scoring for Zeta hall. Elder and Fisher shared scoring honors for the Yeomen, each garnering 12 points. Jansrud was high for Zeta with four counters.

Summary: Yeomen A, 36; Zeta Hall A, Holland, 7; F., 4; Jansrud, Gates, 2; Amato, Elder, 12; C., Jones, Fisher, 12; G., Kohler, Hufford, 5; G., Campbell. Officials: Rix and Campbell. Campbell Forfeits

In sharp contrast to the report of the floor committee, that "the floor will be in perfect condition for formal dancing shoes, and will be clean enough to sit on," Tony Yturri, of the publicity committee, who has suddenly turned reformer, has announced, "In keeping with the air of formality which we are trying to promote, there will be no sitting on the floor—not even to have the parties that make the law school dances what they are."

Theta Chis Cop Thriller From Tough Omegas; Gamma Tops Phi Psi; Pi Kaps Beat Canard

By ELBERT HAWKINS An aggressive gang of Theta Chis tossed two baskets into the net in the last minute of play to nose out a 15 to 12 victory over the Omega hall hoopers in an intramural thriller yesterday.

The tilt was a hard-fought donnybrook throughout, with never more than three points separating the two quintets. Bill McKenzie, scrappy Theta Chi guard, was on the heaving end of both last second buckets.

The rugged Omega quintet took a first quarter lead of 2 to 0 on a beautiful one-handed hook shot from near the foul line by Johnny Rutz, center. Fred Loback and Paulen Kaseberg potted field goals in the second period to give the Theta Chis a 5 to 4 half-time lead.

The same pair teamed up again in the fourth quarter to give their team a 9 to 6 advantage, the largest margin of the fray. Score at the three-quarter mark was 7 to 6 for the winners. Johnny Rutz, Omega hall center, paced the scorers with six points.

Summary: Omega Hall A, 12; Theta Chi A, 15; Inske, 4; F., 4; Loback, Shimomura, 6; F., 4; McKenzie, Rutz, 6; C., 2; Phillips, Meyers, 2; G., 5; Kaseberg, Kidder, 2; G., Niemi, Shimojima, S, Kato, S, Townsend, S. Officials: Holden and Ward.

Pi Kappa 9, Canard 7 Morrie Ward, smooth working Pi Kappa forward, tossed a basket in the last three seconds of play to aid his mates in nosing out a fighting Canard quintet 9 to 7.

The fray was one of the lowest scoring tilts of the season, the Pi Kaps coming from behind after trailing 6 to 3 at half time.

Al Finke, Pi Kappa center, scored on a stool pigeon play soon after the fourth quarter opened to tie the score at 7 all after a long uphill fight.

The opening of the last period found Canard still leading 6 to 5, but the scrappy Pi Kaps steadily improving were able to connect for the two winning baskets.

Finke led the scoring with five points, and Lance was second high with four.

Summary: Pi Kappa Alpha A, 9; Canard A, 7; Olsen, F., Young, Ward, 2; F., 4; Lance, Finke, 5; C., Tichy, Sheppard, G., Peterson, Janak, 2; G., 3; Alpaugh, S., Leonard. Officials: Holden and Long.

Gamma 18, Phi Psi 15 The Gamma hall hoop team piled up a huge lead in the early part of the fray against the Phi Kappa Psis, and won by an 18 to 15 count after slowing down in the final half.

French Lacau, husky Phi Psi forward, led his team in a one-man assault against the Gamma hallers, and piled up 13 points of his team's 15 points.

The winners got off to a nice start in the opening minutes, flashing a superior passing attack to hold a 12 to 3 lead at intermission time.

Summary: Gamma Hall A, 18; Phi Psi A, 15; Herzog, F., 13; Lacau, Patterson, 8; F., 2; Eagle, Thorne, 7; C., Carlson, Helgron, G., Chambreau, Wilson, G., Sleetes, Emmons, S., Williams, Caulfield, S. Officials: Ward and Holden.

Defense Work Emphasized in Varsity Drill

Light Workouts on Tap For Duck Hoopmen As Hobson Prepares For Husky Tilt

Another light workout with emphasis on shooting and defensive work was the diet of the Webfoot basketball squad yesterday afternoon. Still absent from regular daily drill was sophomore Bobby Anet, husky hard-driving guard, who is still suffering from a cold which handicapped him on last week's invasion of the Inland Empire.

Wally Johansen, Slim Wintermute, and Dave Silver are all battling colds, but although their condition is not as bad as Anet's, Oregon's chances against Hec Edmondson's invading Washington squad would be materially handicapped if Anet is unable to play when the two teams clash next Monday and Tuesday nights.

Experience versus night will be the virtual story of the coming critical series, which will definitely establish Hobson's charges as title threats or will crown Washington pennant winner.

Vets in Lineup The Huskies will start a senior lineup with the exception of the center post. At forwards they have Loverich and Gannon, both seniors and three year letter winners. Voelker, husky sophomore, will handle the pivot duties, while vet veterans Bob Egge and Chuck Wagner will hold down the guard posts.

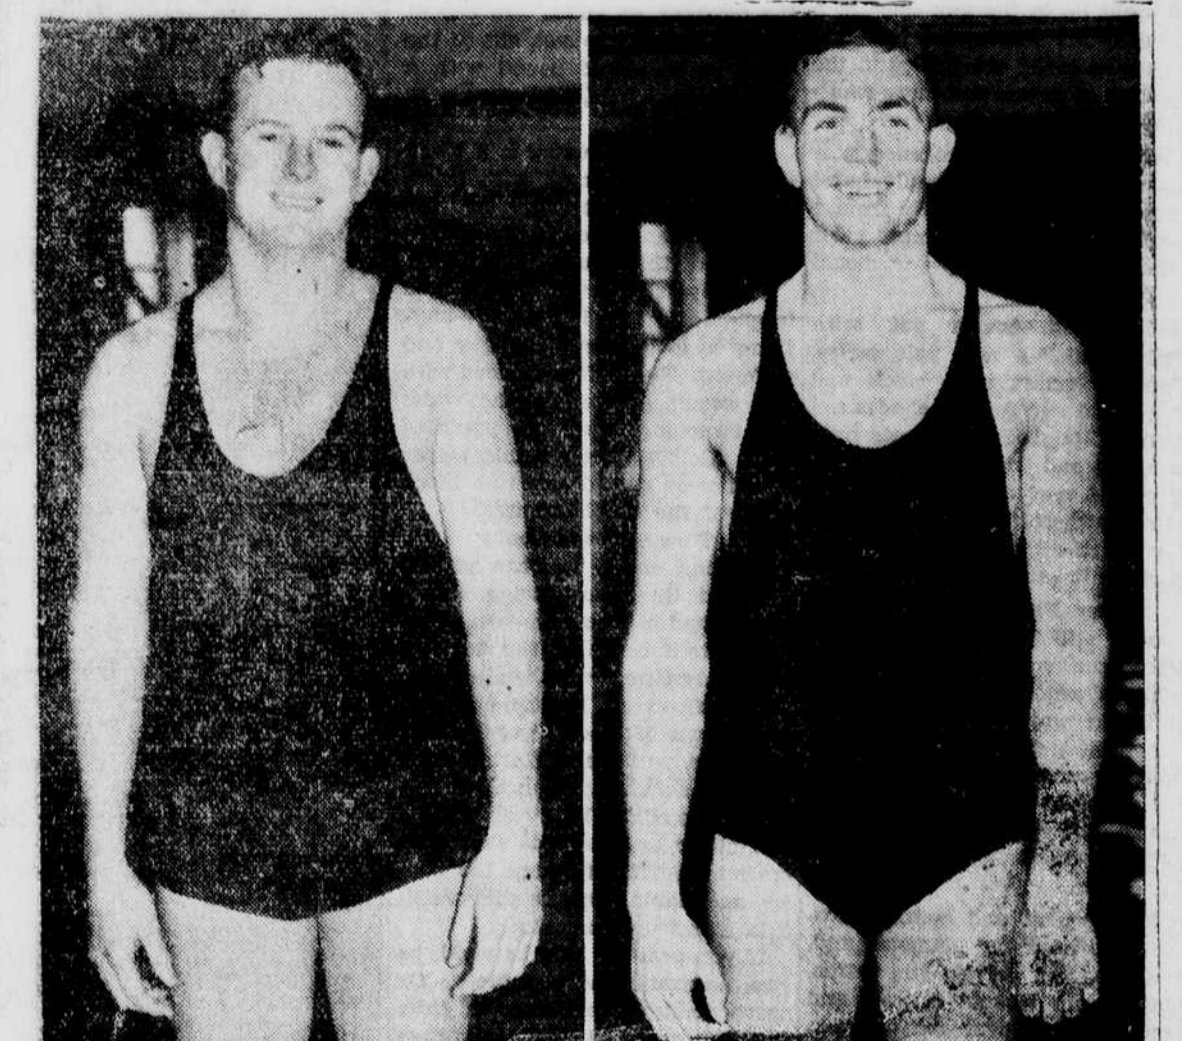

Against this lineup of veterans, Howard Hobson, Oregon mentor, will start two and perhaps three sophomores, with still another first year man figuring prominently in his plans. Dave Silver, league-leading scorer, and either John Lewis or sophomore Wally Johansen will open at forwards, with sophomore Slim Wintermute at center. Ken Purdy, long-shot dead-eye, and Bob Anet are slated to open at guards if the latter is in condition to play. Laddie Gale, sophomore forward and center replacement who suffered a broken finger, may break into the games depending upon the condition of his injured digit.

ward, led his team in a one-man assault against the Gamma hallers, and piled up 13 points of his team's 15 points.

The fate of Oregon's chances probably hinges on the outcome of Harold Sexton's back injury. Sexton has been able to work out only spasmodically since the start of the season, owing to this injury and the heavy schedule he is carrying.

The Ducks have a fairly well-balanced squad with particular strength in diving, with Bob Chilton and Bert Meyers of last year's team on hand. Chilton is considered the best diver in the northwest.

Two Swim Champs—One Gone, One Back

Of Oregon's swimming jims—Jim Hurd, above, left, and Jim Reed, right, only one will splash the Webfoot colors through the "borrowed" waters of Gerlinger pool this year. Both men won coast titles for the Duck team which mopped up coast opposition last season. Hurd is leading the mermen this year and has been acting as coach during the recent illness of Coach H. S. (Mike) Hoyman.

Duck Mermen Point Toward Beaver Meet

Harold Sexton's Injury Mars Webfoot Hopes For Beaver Win; Read Out With Flu

With but three weeks left before they meet Oregon State's swimmers, Oregon's mermen, despite the handicap of no regular pool and the inroads of the flu, are working out in preparation of the annual splash-fest.

In former years the Webfoot splashes have taken the measure of the Beavers without much of a struggle. But in the last three years the Beavers have been building up a formidable squad, and all indications point to this as their banner year.

The Ducks have a fairly well-balanced squad with particular strength in diving, with Bob Chilton and Bert Meyers of last year's team on hand. Chilton is considered the best diver in the northwest.

Donut B League Nearing Play-Off

Eight Teams Are Unbeaten In Four-Team Loops; Each Needs Win

Intramural hoop play is nearing play-off time in the "B" league with but single games needed to settle championships in all six divisions.

Eight teams hold unblemished records with two victories, in the four team leagues, and need but one win each to get in the play-offs.

The Phi Delta Theta B team, in division I, and Beta Theta Pi's B team, in division IV, are both out in front and need but to hurdle one obstacle to win in their leagues. The Yeomen B quintet can clinch division VI honors by defeating the Phi Kappa Alpha seconds. Alpha Tau Omega's B team and

Frosh Hoopers Meet Wendling Team Tonight

Ducklings Will Attempt Atonement for 44-43 Defeat; Team Shows Confident Spirit

Oregon's Duckling basketball team will travel to Wendling tonight for another crack at the Wendling Cardinals, the only quintet to beat them in seven games this season.

The Wendling team, a high class independent outfit, beat Coach Warren's peppy frosh, 44 to 43, two weeks ago, by the margin of a last second free throw.

The Duckling mentor yesterday expressed confidence that his high scoring yearlings could turn the tables on Wendling in tonight's fray. The two teams will also probably meet a third time in Eugene some time later this season.

Work this week has been confined mainly to polishing the team's offensive guns. Warren is far from pleased with the work his scoring machine showed in the first half of Saturday's sensational rock game.

The frosh were off form in the earlier minutes, and fell behind their determined rivals, trailing them by eight points at half-time. Honest John also plans on smoothing out the team's general defensive play.

Ken Shipley, forward, is lost to the team through ineligibility. Shipley had played in earlier games with the frosh, but his transfer from another school had not been learned till lately. Dennis Donovan, guard, out since last Wednesday with a hip injury, is probably lost for the season. Both Donovan and Shipley were in the first line of Duckling reserves, and will cut a hole in the squad.

Tri-Delts, Chi Os Susies, ADPis, In WAA Games

Susan Campbell hall will play Alpha Delta Pi, and Delta Delta Delta will meet Chi Omega in the second group of games in the WAA basketball tournament this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The first game will be played in the outdoor gym, and the second in the indoor gym of Gerlinger hall.
