

Dorsey Dance Advance Sale Tickets Heavy

Entertainment Secret: Widely Known Band To Introduce Numbers At Preceding Concert

With first ticket sales indicating the "600 couples" limit for the Jimmy Dorsey dance Saturday, April 10, will leave procrastinating purchasers outside in the cold, Sigma Delta Chi, sponsors of the dance, went ahead yesterday with plans for the gala affair.

Reports from ticket salesmen in men's houses yesterday foretold an early sellout. With only 20 tickets allotted to each house, tickets on sale at the Co-op, College Side, ASUO office, and McMorran and Washburne's will be going fast now on, a reliable source said yesterday.

Plans for novelty introductions of Sigma Delta Chi's spring pledges during the dance were being worked out by Bill Pease, in charge.

"It's never been done before. At last, here is something new and different," Bill exulted last night, but refused to divulge the nature of his brainstorm.

Program to be Suggested

Dan Clark II, SDC president, told the press last night that he is having a suggested program worked out by one of the campus band leaders to be sent to Dorsey a few days before his arrival. A request has been made and probably will be complied with, for Dorsey to give his now-famed rendition of "The Parade of the Milk Bottle Caps," a novelty number which received nationwide favor as a recording.

Other numbers which are under consideration for the concert preceding the dance are "Buddy's Habits," "Boneyard Shuffle," and "Washboard Blues." These numbers also have won acclaim as wax recordings.

Oregon Netmen

Linfield, scheduled for next Tuesday, will be moved up to Monday, and the return match with Reed in Portland will be moved up to Tuesday to allow Washke to be with his team on that date.

Washke to Travel

Following the match at Reed, Washke will depart for New York via the Streamliner where he will preside in his capacity as president of the American physical education association at the convention to be held April 20 to 25. After the convention Mr. Washke will return to Pullman, Washington, where he will meet the varsity squad in time for their opening northern division match with the Washington State Cougars on Friday, April 30. The varsity netmen will conclude their eastern campaign when they meet Idaho on the following day at Moscow.

Following a return match with Willamette on May 4, at Salem, the Duck team returns to Eugene to do battle with the University of Washington Huskies.

W. D. Smith Endorses New Geology Board

Approval of the recently established Department of Geology and Mining Industries of Oregon and the appointed members of the board has been voiced by Warren D. Smith.

"I have considered Oregon very backward for not having such a department and have been working for it for many years. The three men who have been chosen on the board are excellent and are well-known for their interest in the subject. I will give any assistance they ask from me to help make the department successful, but, of course, my work here comes first," he stated.

The University at Eugene and the State college at Corvallis have been doing some of this work for many years, and will continue to assist if called upon.

"There is a lot of work to be done. Its success depends upon two things... who is selected as director, and its freedom from politics.

"If this new department can be run on the same high level of efficiency as the highway commission, I have no doubt of its success," he concluded.

Firing Line

Minor injuries are keeping some of the gridders out temporarily. Three are through for the term. Out until fall are Dale Lasselle, with a broken hand bone, recently operated upon; Bill Rich, operated upon for a knee ailment, and Steve Anderson, who broke a bone in his foot.

Paul Rowe, the blonde fullback hope, is in the infirmary with measles, and several of the lads are suffering from colds. Jimmy Nicholson, John Verby, and Dave Gammon, all important members of the gridiron cast, are devoting energies to baseball.

Dan Clark Writes History of West

Dan E. Clark, assistant director of the extension division and history professor, wrote the book, "The West in American History," which was published March 30, and is now being offered to the history department as a text.

This book contains a rapidly moving narrative and interpretative survey of the principal events and movements in the history of the American west, from the coming of the first Spanish explorers to the passing of the frontier during the closing years of the last century. Part one gives more space than any other book in this field to the activities of the Spanish, French and English in the West; to the epic struggle between France and England for the possession of the Mississippi valley; and to the westbound advance of the settlements before the revolutionary war.

Part two deals topically with the settlement and development of the Middle West in the spread of population.

The colorful history of the far West is described in the third part. In successive chapters the reader may follow the fur trade, territorial expansion, the gold rushes, the early transportation across the plains, the building of the railroads, the range cattle industry, and other similar topics.

Duck Mentor

Several Possible Combinations Addition of Mullen to Hobby's infield leaves the Duck mentor with several possible combinations to work from. Last night outfielders took a rest, and the rest of Oregon's baseball squad had a workout at McArthur court.

Firing the fall around in the infield yesterday was a combination of Ralph Amato, third; Ford Mullen, shortstop; Jack Coleman, second base, and Gale Smith at first.

In addition to that group, Coach Hobson has several other possible combinations which could work nicely together. He may stick Cliff McLean, veteran handy man, at the hot corner, and move Amato to the outfield where he saw duty last spring.

Mullen is also a potential second baseman. Provided McLean is moved to third base, John Thomas, letterman from last year, will move into the receiver position, and Amato would be free to replace one of the present outfielders.

Miss Scoville, Smith Announce Engagement

Tiny notes hidden in candy Easter eggs revealed the engagement of Virginia Scoville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Scoville of Portland, and Kenneth C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith, of Portland, at a dinner at the Sigma Kappa sorority house, Monday evening, March 29.

Miss Scoville is a senior at the University of Oregon. She is a member of Sigma Kappa, and president of Pot and Quill, women's writing honorary.

Mr. Smith was graduated from the University last June. He is now employed with the state tax commission in Portland. He is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma and Beta Alpha, business administration honoraries.

The wedding date has been set for June 19, at the Straub Congregational church in Portland.

Landsbury to Judge Music Festival In Kamloops, B.C.

John J. Landsbury, dean of the school of music, left today for Kamloops, B.C., where he will judge the annual Yale-Cariboo Musical festival during April 8, 9, and 10.

The contest, for Canadian amateur musicians, is the seventh annual competition. Dean Landsbury was adjudicator in a Canadian music festival in 1929, when he acted as judge for the Okanagan Valley Musical festival in Kelowna, Canada.

WILLAMETTE SINGERS HERE

Approximately 400 persons heard the Willamette Songmen in a concert at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon. The Songmen concluded the concert by singing, as is their traditional custom, "I Love Willamette U." Miss Ina Bennett accompanied the group.

Following the concert the Songmen were guests at the Wesley club meeting and social hour.

Guild Play Tickets Two-thirds Sold

'Ethan Frome' Production Limited to Friday and Saturday Nights

Two-thirds of the total number of tickets to be sold for "Ethan Frome," stirring dramatization of Edith Wharton's best selling novel of the same name, have already been purchased, according to Horace W. Robinson, director of the play.

The play, to be presented by the Guild hall players, is limited to a two-night engagement Friday and Saturday, Friday will be the formal opening following the custom of the University theater.

The box office in Johnson hall is open every day from 10 a. m. to 12 a. m. and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. Center section seats are almost all gone, and an early sell out for both nights is expected. Dress rehearsals of the play are

Students to Discuss One-House Legislature

Bill Garrett and Laura Bryant will discuss unicameral legislatures in a 15 minute broadcast held over KOAC, Corvallis, at 8:45 this evening. The script was written by Robert Cresswell, a member of D. E. Hargis' radio class.

Freeman Patton and Douglas Parker took part in the Saturday night broadcast in which they told of the founding of the University, its spirit and tradition.

Subscriptions only $3.00 per year.

March Oregon Publisher Prints Turnbull Article

"George Himes, 38 years Printer and 37 Years, Curator," is the title of an article, written by George S. Turnbull, which appeared in the March issue of the Oregon Publisher.

Interesting anecdotes about Oregon, and the life of Himes, who probably knows more about Oregon history than any other living man, according to the article, are recounted.

Philip Merivale says: "My throat's grateful for Luckies —a light smoke"

"In one of the first important parts I did in America, the play called for a long and very trying individual performance. In every scene for five full acts I was on stage talking almost continuously. The strain made it imperative that I safeguard my throat and voice. After trying different brands of cigarettes, I came across Luckies. They stood the test and for many years now I've enjoyed them. I like the taste of Luckies and my throat is grateful for a light smoke."

Philip Merivale

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Merivale verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
