

350 UO Alums Turn Out for Annual Banquet

Dr. Murphy Named Top Alum for Past Year; Talks, Election, New Song Featured

The University of Oregon alumni held their annual Founders' day banquet in the Congress hotel at Portland April 9. An estimated 350 guests were present, and more were unable to be seated for lack of room.

President and Mrs. C. Valentine Boyer, Chancellor and Mrs. F. M. Hunter, Dr. and Mrs. Eurt Brown Barker, student body president Gilbert Schultz, and Dean Schwering were guests at the banquet. Several of them gave short talks.

Murphy Wins Prize
Announcement was made of the presentation of the scroll to the year's outstanding alumnus, Dr. William Murphy of Harvard, a graduate of 1914, whose discovery of a cure for "pernicious anemia," has been hailed as one of the most important discoveries in medical science this year.

Anse Cornell, graduate manager, took charge of the meeting after the speeches. He led a short athletic program. Prince Callison, Gene Shields, John Warren, Howard Hobson, George Varoff and Dean H. C. Howe spoke and gave the latest news in the various athletic fields at the University.

Young, Hopkins Lead Singers
A musical program was supplied by Hal Young and George Hopkins, and the new "Marching Oregon" was introduced and sung by the group.

Leading speakers of the evening were Miss Janet Smith, head of the placement bureau, Elmer Fannett, alumni secretary, and Dean James H. Gilbert. Their talks were short and dealt with various campus subjects.

The class of 1913 was represented at the meeting by 35 members, and plans were made by them after the meeting to have a reunion in 1938.

New officers elected at the meeting were Roland Davis of Portland, president; and Vinton Hall of Portland, vice-president.

Paul Hunt, president of the Portland Alumni Association, acted as toastmaster of the meeting.

Queen Candidates To Parade Today

Aspirants Prepare for Elections Wednesday; Ten on Ballot

Undaunted by continued rain candidates for Junior weekend queen will parade through the campus at 12:30 o'clock today in preparation for election Wednesday.

Today's parade, created as a means of displaying the beauty of the ten aspiring candidates, will wind its way through the campus to pass in review before various living organizations. The parade will form in front of the College Side.

Unprecedented in the annals of weekend queen campaigns is the appearance of representatives from only ten campus sororities. Ballots will be cast Wednesday at a polling booth located between Commerce and Oregon buildings.

In an effort to eliminate log-rolling and political high-pressure work, ballots will be marked in regulation voting booths. All student body enfranchised voters must make a choice for five of the candidates or ballots will be disqualified, voting officials declared yesterday.

Candidates are Helen Mitchell, Rhoda Armstrong, Betty Jane Casey, Peggy Vermillion, Frances Schaupp, Florence Smith, June Martin, Cherie Brown, Frances Johnston, and Betty Pownall. The candidate amassing the greatest vote total will be queen, the next four will be princesses during the gala weekend celebration. Students making arrangements for the voting and the queen's float for Junior weekend are Jeanette Charmaine, Jean Ackerson, Betty McGirr, and Harry Hodes, hay fever and similar diseases, Wednesday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. This lecture, which will be held in room 103, Dady, will be another of the popular science series under the supervision of Dr. A. E. Caswell head of the physics department.

Jupiter Pluvius Dunks All Donut Matches, Games

Starting off what appears to be another big week in intramural sports, all donut activities were postponed today because of Jupiter Pluvius evidently doesn't want the University of Oregon campus to climb out of the mud before Thanksgiving, when it is scheduled to go back into hibernation.

Today's four softball games brought the total of postponed donut contests to 16, although two of the postponements have been replayed. Probably the delayed games will be played off the same way that they were last week, which is to play one extra game a day at four o'clock. This brings the number of games played per day to five.

The postponed golf and tennis matches will probably be played off more rapidly in order to run out the tournament.

Phi Beta Sponsors Twin Piano Recital

Prominent Portlanders Concert Artists; Profit Will Go to Library

Twin pianos will be featured in a recital given by Phyllis Hart Sill, and David Campbell, well-known Portland musicians, in the music auditorium of the school of music at 8 p. m. Tuesday, April 27.

The concert is sponsored by Phi Beta, national women's music and drama honorary, and the proceeds will go to a fund for the recreational reading in the new University library. Mrs. George Gerlinger, chairman of the fund-raising committee for the new library, made possible the concert of these two musicians at the University.

Among the numbers will be three chorals, "Mortify Us By Thy Grace," "Jesus, Source of Our Desire," by Bach-Lee Fleming, and the Bach-Whittaker "Awake, Thy Voice Commands." Another number will be a selection by the famous Rachmaninoff, Second Suite Opus 17, including the Introduc-

Jazz Concerto To Be Given By U of O Pianist

Famous "Rhapsody in Blue," which flashed its composer, George Gershwin, into the limelight in 1898, will be played on this campus sometime in May by Robert Garretson, junior piano student.

Mr. Garretson, student of George Hopkins, professor of piano, has had several requests for the rhapsody, a jazz piano concerto combining the classic form with the "voice of the people." He has played it for various organizations in Eugene a number of times and also in Portland. Mr. Hopkins will accompany him by playing second piano.

tion, Valse, Romance, and Tarentelle.

Theresa Kelly is committee chairman, assisted by Dorothy Louise Johnson, Evelyn Erickson, Eleanor Hayes, and Lorraine Hixon.

Reserved tickets will be available next week from Phi Beta members.

Advertising Pays You

Advertising brings to millions, at reasonable prices, comforts and conveniences that without advertising would be luxuries that only a few could enjoy.

America is an advertising nation. That is one reason why the man with moderate means, here, enjoys more comfort than most wealthy men abroad.

Because thousands and thousands of people ask for a certain article by name, it is possible for the advertisers to sell this item at a minimum effort.

It is therefore possible to manufacture and to distribute this produce as a saving which you share with the advertiser. When you figure the number of items in your daily life built by advertising, you can appreciate that advertising does pay.

Advertisements enable you to buy better things at less cost.
